THE 1959 ORACLE

INDIANA CENTRAL COLLEGE

INDIANAPOLIS, INDIANA

Our newly-completed Academic Hall.

We Welcome the New - With Respect for the Old

The new Academic Hall is a fulfillment of a dream for all of us. Centralites have long awaited this gleaming new building, but at the same time they hold a certain nostalgia for the "Ad" Building and all the tradition contained therein. The Old must make way for the New, but the New will never completely replace the Old in the hearts of Indiana Central students.

Scenes Around the New

We welcomed the New in the fall of 1958 as classes met for the first time in the Academic Hall. Centralites seemed a bit confused, and possibly even lost, as they hurried for appointments in unfamiliar locations. It did not take long, however, for the New to be made an integral part of our lives. The Academic Hall has provided a rich environment for many satisfying experiences.

Centralites have a pleasant, relaxed mealtime atmosphere in the new cafeteria.

The spacious and well-equipped library makes study a pleasure.

The tastefully-styled lobby of the Academic Hall is a busy place.

Scenes Around the Old

Much has been changed in the Administration Building, but it has lost none of the character of which Centralites are fond. The "new look" and the familiar have been successfully integrated here.

The art department has taken over the space vacated by the Campus Cupboard.

Where is everyone?

Our biology laboratory is much the same.

Professors Kolitschew and Sidebottom collaborate on a physics demonstration.

Room 214, familiarly known as the "Religion room," houses the studio of Professor Danek.

This is the Faculty Lounge? Not quite. It is now the education office where Linda Kirkham is secretary.

The old library was never like this. It has become a rehearsal hall for the band and orchestra.

The potential chemists are at it again!

A Beginning

Governor Harold W. Handley and other dignitaries participate in the dedication of the Academic Hall.

The birth of the Academic Hall ushered in a number of "firsts" at Indiana Central. The 1958 graduation ceremonies, shown at right, were held in its auditorium. Registration, the despair of both students and faculty, is now held in the Academic Hall, its greater area eliminating many problems. Chapel services are conducted in the auditorium. The quiet, reverent atmosphere brings us nearer to God in these morning meditations, and the excellent acoustics and seating facilities add to the students' comfort. Another "first" which brings together the New and the Old is the seal of Indiana Central College now embedded in the patio of the Academic Hall.

And an End

Graduation may mean the end of one's days at I.C.C., but it is much more a beginning than an end. As these seniors end their college careers, they begin — with the knowledge they have gained — lives of service to their fellow men.

An Old Religion

Reverend Robert Koenig is well-known to us as pastor of the "college church" and a true friend of Indiana Central.

As a church-related college, Indiana Central maintains an aged perspective of the Christian spirit within a community of faculty and striving students — many losing and yet finding new religious orientations — many seeking new references by which to place newly discovered and yet ageless truths — many losing and yet finding themselves as new creatures — in an old world that seeks new emphasis in its increasing complexities in man's quest for truth.

This sight of the "campus church," the University Heights E. U. B. Church, holds a warm spot in the hearts of all Central students.

With New Emphasis

This year's Religious Emphasis Week was not a "pause to refresh" our faith, but a week to contemplate our commitments in a modern world. Indiana Central experienced a new week in her spiritual growth through the mediums of morning prayer quiet times; chapel worship services; informal afternoon discussions on contemporary philosophy, art, literature, and science; evening worship services, off-campus students' fireside chats; motion picture, "The Major Religions of the World"; informal confab on "Mixed Marriages"; art and book displays; and dormitory confabs.

Dr. Harry DeWire, Religious Emphasis Week guest leader speaking on the theme of "Commitment in the Modern World."

Opening Chapel Service of Religious Emphasis Week in the Academic Hall auditorium.

Homecoming

Homecoming is traditionally a time for celebration and renewal of friendships. Homecoming 1958 was no exception. A grand time was had by students, alumni, and visiting high school pupils as they took part in the festivities. The largest homecoming parade Central has ever had traveled to the center of Indianapolis and back to campus in time for judges to pick first, second, and third prize floats. The dormitories, decorated inside and out, were opened to visitors. A thrilling football game and the crowning of the Homecoming Queen at halftime rounded out the day's activities.

Men's Hall

Wilmore Hall

Dailey Hall

Decoration of the residence halls and the building of floats were a big part of Homecoming for all students. These projects were planned by student committees and executed by many willing hands. The long hours of hard work were deemed profitable when the floats and cars formed the parade and when visitors admired the dorm decorations.

Students in native costumes graced the International Relations Club float, while the SCA effort, a huge telephone, proclaimed, "Hold that line."

May Festival

In the midst of great respect and admiration for the 1957-58 Campus Queen, Amy Buskirk, suspense mounted as the crowd awaited the announcement of the new queen. This event was to be the grand climax of the day's events. The student body had elected and now welcomed the lovely 1958-59 queen, Sherry Easter, to the throne. The sparkling Sherry is from Indianapolis and is active in Sigma Zeta and the Student Education Association. Her attendants were Evelyn Knoop Boring, Marilyn Merritt, Nancy Tiano Ransburg, and Shirley Taylor. The new queen and her court were selected, according to tradition, by the student body from the members of the junior class.

Sherry Easter, the Campus Queen.

"Lady and the Tramp," a merry satiric story narrated by Carolyn Nay had each object from the dogs to the wind impersonated by members of the Physical Education Activities classes.

An outstanding and entertaining event in the spring planned by the Physical Education Department is the annual May Festival. The beautiful Nelson home was the scene of part of the afternoon's events. Here the mothers were greeted by the Campus Queen, Amy Buskirk, and her court at a tea with other senior girls as hostesses. Meanwhile, the fathers challenged their sons in a softball game on the new Indiana Central diamond. Climaxing the day in the evening were the delightful demonstrations of "brain, brawn and beauty" shown by various groups in the gymnasium. Tumbling, square-dancing, rhythmic dances, and the traditional May pole dance were combined in the theme — "My Fair Lady." The gymnasium was decorated in colonial style with a back drop behind the throne, a picture of an Early American mansion, and a white picket fence surrounding the garden where the performers presented their acts to the queen and the audience. Don and Rosalie Armstrong were the co-chairmen of the evening's events.

Leap Week

Fellas, beware of the girls' favorite time of the year! Leap Week is the one time when the girls can literally chase the boys. Certain drawbacks go with this privilege, however. Girls must pay all date expenses, carry books, open doors, and generally take over the gentlemanly duties.

Poor Raeburn Chansler, having to carry all those books and open the door for Dave Rathbun, too.

Sweetheart banquet

The Columbia Club was this year's site of the long-awaited Sweetheart Banquet. This evening provided the perfect climax for the fun and festivity of Leap Week.

Bonnie Dulaney adjusts Tom Loer's boutoniere as the evening begins.

These royal pages helped to carry out the theme of the banquet, "Knight of My Dreams."

A wonderful evening was anticipated by every couple.

Banquets and Parties

The social season at Central begins with the Fall Banquet. Our banquets are not complete without entertainment. Here, Dave Rathbun and Chuck Wise oblige with a comedy routine.

John Thompson presides as master of ceremonies at the Christmas banquet, "Mistletoe Magic." It is easy to see that the guests are having an enjoyable evening.

The International Relations Club sponsored this informal get-together to which they invited, in addition to students and faculty, international personalities residing in Indianapolis. The party was a success and will be an annual affair.

"Jousting or Jesting" returned us to the days of Robin Hood for a slightly unorthodox tournament.

Geneva Stunts

The Geneva Stunts are an annual SCA project to sponsor Indiana Central students at the conference held at Lake Geneva in June. The purpose of this conference is the exchange of ideas among various collegiate organizations.

The Stunts, themselves, are written, directed, and acted by students. Student ingenuity also provides sets and music.

Zounds! Cave men and cave women from the past capture two picnickers in "A Day in a Cave."

"Back Door to Heaven" treated us to a look at some rock and roll angels and a lighthearted spoof of the faculty.

Composing a letter to President Lincoln can be quite a task for a British schoolteacher in Siam. Such was the lot of Anna as portrayed by Linda O'Dell. Determined to please His Majesty, Anna managed to write the letter while keeping her head lower than that of the King, Tom McCormick.

Harriet Beecher Stowe's novel of the American Civil War is given the Siamese treatment to become "The Small House of Uncle Thomas." Rancers dressed in brightly colored costumes dramatize the story as it is told in song.

King and I

Indiana Central's first theatrical production this year was Rodgers and Hammerstein's, "The King and I." Before capacity crowds Centralites proved that a small enrollment is no barrier when talent, expert direction, and hard work come together. "The King and I" was directed by Professors Kenneth Kohn and Victor Danek.

The King's "wives" add the final touches to their make-up.

The eighty-six piece Cincinnati Symphony Orchestra, conducted by Max Rudolph, was the first presentation of the series. Mr. Rudolph is pictured at the reception following his performance.

The Don Cossack Chorus and dancers, who have appeared in sixty-five nations, entertained the audience at Central.

Artist Series

The Artist Series featured five of the nation's most outstanding musical, dramatic, and lecture presentations. In addition to those pictured, the Gershwin Musicale was also featured. Following each performance, President Esch gave a reception in his home honoring the guests. Comments from Centralites and our Indianapolis neighbors indicated the great merit of these performances. Indiana Central is happy to have brought this cultural service to the community.

Tradition and

HONORS DAY (top)—The fall Honors Day program is devoted to the recognition of students who have maintained a high scholastic average the previous year.

BROWN COUNTY DAY (bottom left)—Brown County Day is highly anticipated. Each fall students and faculty desert the campus to head toward this state park for a day of hiking, horseback riding, softball, volleyball, or just plain loafing.

W. U. S. AUCTION (middle right)—Larry Bunting and Dave Brittenham auction cakes, candy, cookies, kisses, dinners, and a shoe shine by President Esch for the aid of underprivileged students through the World University Service.

Innovation

TUG OF WAR (top)—The tug of war between freshmen and sophomores at Longacre Park is traditional fall fare. This year a girls' tug was added. The freshmen, by winning both tugs, were allowed to shed their green beanies.

JUNIOR CARNIVAL (bottom left)—Bill Shobe is certainly getting the wrong end of those mud pies; but the money, paid for the privilege of dousing Bill and for other activities at the Junior Carnival, sponsored the Junior-Senior Banquet.

Remember when...

. . . the big welcome planned for President Esch was sidetracked to the parking lot when he was found at home, not at the airport.

. . . an empty room can look terribly lonely to a girl arriving at Wilmore and what a difference a few homey touches can make.

. . . Dave Heckler and Diana Bymaster entertained the student body as part of the prize-winning sophomore talent show.

. . . this was a familiar sight. Students scan the exam schedule for the hours of their finals.

. . . when the juniors presented a street scene for their show, "On the Street Where We Live."

. . . Larry Bunting tried to please everyone by printing posters, announcements, and letters from the administration.

. . . the display of arithmetic devices made by the elementary education majors drew much attention. Etta Lou DeMoss and Hanna Bunner explain the intricacies of one of the devices to Professor Davis.

"O Christmas tree, O Christmas tree . . ."

The organizations on campus are both new and old, traditional and newly-formed. Whichever the organization may be, it fulfills a need in the student's life for further education, for acceptance of responsibility, for practicing leadership, and for generally putting his education to use. Indiana Central's organizations are purposeful and active, making a contribution to the school and to the well-being of the individual.

Organizations

Theacallosia and Philalethea

Practicing parliamentary procedure, improving literary expression, and gaining poise and self-confidence are the activities in which Theacallosian and Philalethean women engage. The two literary societies meet on alternating nights twice monthly.

Row 1: Judy Burchard, Donna Shearer, Miss Meier, sponsor; Carolyn France, Carol McComb, Jean Cole.

Row 2: Audrey Porter, Sandra Dale, Helen York, Shirley

Taylor, Gloria Brewer, Etta Lou DeMoss, Carolyn Cates, Carolyn White, Peggy Gibson, Rose Patrick, Alice Faye Johns, Betty Hall.

Seated: Miss Weaver, sponsor; Sandra Byrum, Carolyn Bunting. Standing: Marilyn Dykstra, Donna Key, Carolyn Foutch, Grace Maze, Janis Holloway, Sandra Bunnell, Pauline Milhouse, Arleen Hummel, Sherrill Goeing, Sandra Osborne, Rose Throm, Delane Peterson, Shirley Johnston.

Philosophy Club

The Philosophy Club, a relatively new organization of Central's, provides its members with an opportunity to discuss informally concepts of philosophers and current problems of concern.

Philomusea

The Philomusean Literary Society is an organization of men interested in improving literary abilities, developing deliberative faculties, and practicing a systematic transaction of business.

Sociology Club

The Sociology Club, newly organized this year, seeks to introduce more people to the field of social work and to widen the understanding of people already acquainted with that area. The organization this year has taken field trips to court, social centers, and various kinds of homes — thus enriching subject matter studied in the classroom.

English Club

The English Club seeks to stimulate and promote interest in written expression and in literature. The organization sponsors the publication, Campus Originals, which includes the best work of students in the English composition classes. Membership includes all students interested in the field of English.

Alpha Psi Omega

Alpha Psi Omega, a national honor dramatics fraternity, exists for the purpose of stimulating interest in dramatic activities at I. C. C. Membership is limited to those students who have accumulated a minimum number of points by participating in dramatic productions.

This year the organization revised its constitution, forming an associate organization of students who have earned points by working in productions but who do not have the required number of points for admission. The associate members supply committee chairmen and directors for the dramatic productions.

The Student Education Association, Central's organization for future teachers, is affiliated with NEA and ISTA. Members enjoyed several interesting programs this year, including hearing the football coach of Southport High School and seeing slides of Professor Davis' European summer tour. Some of the members ushered for the Teacher's Institute held for the first time in the new Indianapolis ISTA building.

Vesta Club

Vesta, a campus organization for young women interested in the art of homemaking, is affiliated with both state and national associations. Activities of Vesta include money raising projects, an annual field trip to the Indianapolis Home Show, and visits to AHEA and IHEA meetings.

Art Club

The Art Club, organized chiefly for art majors and minors, as its special project this year, visited art museums and exhibitions in New York City with money earned through sandwich and pizza sales. Art Club members hope to more fully understand and appreciate great works of art.

"Resolved: That the further development to nuclear weapons be prohibited by international agreement" was the topic under discussion by the Debate Club members during this season. The debaters participated in approximately eight tournaments and in several exhibitions, including two Chapel performances before the student body.

International Relations

The International Relations Club seeks to promote among the student body an interest in international affairs and a better understanding between the student body and the international students as well as among the international students themselves.

Business Club

This organization provides business majors and minors with various opportunities to discuss with businessmen the problems which will arise as they step into the business world.

Former Boy Scouts, wishing to continue in scouting by performing projects to aid both school and community, may join Alpha Phi Omega, a national service organization. Sponsoring campus tours during orientation week and handling registration and parking for Homecoming Day are annual A.P.O. projects.

I. A. Y.

Service is the only word needed to describe the organization known as I.A.Y., for its members willingly perform duties for their college and provide programs for various social centers. I.A.Y. seeks to develop friendship, character, and cultural appreciation, realizing the importance of these factors in world service.

"C" Association

The "C" Association includes those who have received the varsity "C" in any of Central's inter-collegiate sports.

Annually the lettermen select five Homecoming Queen candidates, sponsor men's inter-class tournaments, and sell refreshments at athletic events.

Booster Club

The Booster Club, striving to become an active organization again, seeks to promote student enthusiasm for the varsity games and student loyalty to the college. One of its projects in the past was the raising of funds for sweaters for senior varsity men.

Ed Moore and Shannon Jones make plans to reorganize the Booster Club. Not pictured is Jim Wiley who is helping in the reorganization.

Student Council

Student Council, the governing and disciplining organization on campus, exists for the purpose of helping the student body to help itself, permitting a closer communication among students, faculty members, and administrators. The Council, composed of representatives from each class, organization, and dormitory, is open to suggestions and requests from the general student body. The organization this year equipped the recreation room, and during chapel sessions successfully cleared up various controversial issues.

The Student Christian Association, being the one activity to which all Centralites automatically belong, is the largest organization on campus. The SCA, striving for religious and social fellowship and for the broadening of horizons of thinking applicable to a Christian way of life, plans and sponsors programs and workshops. Flatrock Retreat, W. U. S. auction, Geneva Stunts, various banquets, and Religious Emphasis Week are annual events at Central because of the work of the S.C.A.

Reflector

A word of thanks goes to the 1958-59 Reflector staff for improving Indiana Central's medium of communication over that of years past. Hard work, a cooperative spirit, and able editorship made possible a publication worthy of tribute.

Campus News and Views

Announcements, meetings, chapel programs — keep up to date on all campus activities by reading your Campus News and Views. This miniature periodical, distributed to students every week, originated last year and has proven useful to Centralites in planning weekly schedules.

Sigma Zeta

Sigma Zeta, a national honorary science fraternity, encourages the study of science and recognizes the attainment of high scholarship among those students fitted for membership in the society. A student is required to have at least a "B" in ten hours of science courses before joining the organization.

Phi Alpha Epsilon

Phi Alpha Epsilon, the freshman honorary society, includes those students having a scholarship index of at least 2.250 after completion of their first year.

These students are challenged not only to maintain this high average throughout the remaining college years but also to contribute their best to society upon graduation.

Band

Central's band is one of the most active organizations on the campus. Playing at football and basketball games, at pep sessions, and at evening performances all comprise a part of the band's busy schedule.

Some band members serve double-duty by join-

Working closely with the band are the twirlers who present many an interesting half-time performance on the football field and basketball floor.

Choir

The activities of the Choir contribute greatly to life at Central. In conjunction with the dramatics department and Indianapolis Civic Orchestra members of the Choir took part in The King and I. During Christmas-tide the Choir once again sang carols on the Circle and at Union Station. At the Fine Arts Festival they presented selections from Hayden. The Choir also sang regularly for Chapel programs and ended their season with a tour, in the Midwest.

Girls' Trio

This is a singing trio of which Central can be proud. This threesome, singing at different meetings both at and away from school, has been together since 1956 and will plan to continue as a trio, although two of its members are graduated this June.

The tradition of college sports is old, but each contest is new, challenging, stimulating. Indiana Central's sports program is well-rounded, giving students opportunity for participation in inter-collegiate games or a comprehensive intramural program.

Sports

This Year in Sports

"Indiana Central College recognizes the educational value of sports and recreational activities and thus maintains a program of intramural and inter-collegiate athletics that is designed to give every student opportunity for participation in physical exercise and contests to an extent that will be helpful to him personally and beneficial in developing a spirit of cooperation and good sportsmanship."

Football

Even though her football team failed to win its share of victories, Indiana Central was no exception to the annual case of football fever. Before the semester opened, Coach Windell and his men were hard at work for the season ahead.

The 'Hounds dropped their first three games to North Central, Alma, and Hanover with scores of 2-6, 0-26, and 0-20 respectively.

From the beginning of the season, the team was plagued with injuries, but they came through with their first touchdown and their first conference win of their fourth try by outscoring Manchester 15-13. season ended with a loss to Valparaiso.

Their winning soon fell short with a decisive loss to Anderson, but returned the following game with a victory over Taylor, only to be stopped by a 19 to 21 loss to their arch rival, Franklin.

In retrospect, the 'Hounds scored 81 points to their opponents' 232. They gained an average of 129 yards per game on the ground and 42.2 yards per game in the air to the 170 and 90.1 yards of their opponents.

Jim Myers, 1958's most valuable player, holds first place in individual ground gaining with a total of 425 yards. George Fallowfield, after a late season's start, managed to win second place with a total of 216 yards. Bob Otolski was leading pass receiver with a total of 8 completions for 71 yards.

Selections for the 1958 all-conference team included Stevens, Dolniak, and Nyers. Stevens and Dolniak shared the honorary captain's position. The team as a whole tied for third place in the conference.

The 1958 Greyhound Cross Country team, under the direction of Bill Bright, ended this season by capturing first place in the Hoosier College Conference. Their season's record stands as 6 and 4.

They also placed second in the Earlham Invitational and sixth in the Little State.

Freshman Stan Brewer showed promise of providing veteran material by finishing third in the conference meet. The only Seniors graduating will be Dale Mace and Leon Adnson.

Tennis

Central's 1958 tennis team under Coach McKinney ended their season with one defeat in four matches, giving them second place in the Hoosier College Conference standings. The only loss was to Hanover by a four to three margin.

The only graduation loss will be senior Captain Dale Harner. Returning members Jack McKinney and Jack Tindall have shown the possibility of a first place in next year's conference competition by their undefeated seasons. Others who will return to help them will be sophomores Hugh Jenkins and Jim Tindall and freshmen Ted Koch and Phil Nonweiler.

Basketball

Nic's young and rebuilt team was paced to another winning season by sophomore Mickey Shircliff. Shircliff held first place with a total of 281 points for a 11.7 average per game. Senior George Marshall held second place with a 248 point total and a 10.3 average. Other underclassmen who rate recognition are Charles Spurgeon with his 230 point contribution and Jerry Lewis with a 231 point total. Besides holding third place for average points, Jerry led the nation in free throw percentages. Jerry made 75 of 80 attempts to win this top honor.

The season record stands at 14 wins and 8 losses and a 5 and 5 conference record which captured the number three berth in the conference standings.

Pointwise, the 'Hounds scored 1824 points for a 76.0 game average to their opponents' 1732 points and 72.2 average.

The greatest winning streak was for eight games that started with a victory over Bellarmine and ended by a 3 point loss to Taylor.

The team will lose seniors Marshall and Wilbur by graduation.

Golf

The 1958 golf team recorded the first Hoosier Conference title in the history of the team. Four men earned all-conference positions during the conference meet held at the Butler links. They were Bisesi, Powell, Bunnell, and Otolski.

The Koach's Cup award, given to the player with the lowest average score in pre-conference meets, went to Bunnell.

Don Bisesi and Bob Otolski earned trips to the N.A.I.A. meet at Beaumont, Texas, by their action in the conference meet. Here Bisesi won 24th place in the nation, and Otolski was forced to withdraw because of an injury.

The future looks bright because the team retains everyone except senior Dick Bunnell.

Wrestling

Veteran Al Morgan finished his tenth year of wrestling by leading the grapplers to a winning season of 6 wins and 4 losses. Al's first place record was 9 wins, 2 losses, and 3 ties. Willie Martin held second place with 22 wins, 2 losses, and 1 tie, and Dan Welliever earned third place with 9 wins, 4 losses, and 1 tie. Other members of the team were Ramsey (9-5-0), Bruce (5-8-1), Hurrel (6-7-0), Jackson (3-10-0), and Stevens (0-10-0).

Nineteen fifty-nine was the first year for the Little State intercollegiate wrestling tournament. Those that participated other than Central were Ball State, De Pauw, and Wabash. Central placed third to Wabash and De Pauw who took first and second places, respectively. Martin and Morgan took first places in their classes.

Tribute should be given to four-year captain Al Morgan who started his wrestling career at Southport High School, wrestled while serving two years in the Navy, and later aided in bringing wrestling to ICC. Al has had 149 bouts of which he has won 120, lost 21, and tied 8. His honors have been a

Baseball

Highlighting the spring sports of 1958 was the winning of the Hoosier College Conference by the Greyhound baseball team. The conference title was not decided until the last two games of the season with Franklin. The first of the two games proved to be the deciding factor of the conference title. The game was tied at 1 and 1 until St. Clair scored from a hit by Cox. The second game went in favor of Franklin, but the percentages were still in favor of Central. The final conference record was 7 wins and 3 losses.

Besides stiff conference competition, the 'Hounds faced larger schools such as Indiana State and highly ranked Indiana University. The season's record was 14 wins and 7 losses.

Gardner led the consistent starters in the batting averages with his .345. DeHart was the number one pinch hitter with .429. The members of the team that were chosen to the all-conference team were Cox, Gardner, Howard, Moyer, and Poole.

The team for the 1959 season will miss Jack Fischer, Phil Fisher, Larry Gardner, and Don Armstrong from the line-up, all of whom graduated.

Track

The 1958 track team lacked the manpower that was necessary to make a winning season.

Although the team ran thin in both the running and field events, several individual cindermen set some new records for our field and for the conference. The new track records were set by England with his 43' 11" throw of the shot-put and by Henson in the 220 with a 22.5 mark.

A new conference record was set by Goss in the 880 with his 1:57.9 mark. The relay team (Henson-Goss-Adnson-Lausch) tied the past record of 3:27.4.

Veterans Art Targgart and Don Henson were the only two to graduate from the team.

The squad placed third in the Earlham relays and ended in fourth place in the Hoosier conference.

People

The people, not the newness or the quantity of its buildings, the size of its football stadium, or the number of books in its library, are what make a school. We at Indiana Central College point with justifiable pride to our people — our students, our faculty, our administration — for we believe they are special. They are the reasons we come to Indiana Central as freshmen, and why, after we are graduated, we will be proud to be alumni.

Students who have been elected to "Who's Who" have received one of the highest honors bestowed upon college undergraduates. The Academic Dean of the College, the Dean of Men, and the Dean of Women nominate and submit the names of the candidates for the acceptance of the Approving Committee. These people are judged by their academic standing, their leadership, their participation in extra-curricular activities, their service to the school, and their promise of future success.

Acknowledgements

As the editor of the 1959 Oracle, I would like to extend my thanks to the students and faculty who have made this book possible. Through their co-operation and hard work the 1959 Oracle became a reality.

Credit goes to the Capital Engraving Company of Springfield, Illinois, and their representative, Mr. Richard Brier; the Graessle-Mercer Company of Seymour, Indiana, for printing the book; and to Mr. Jack K. Bundy of the S. K. Smith Company for the covers.

Credit goes also to Jim Bruce and Herman Halcomb, ICC students; Mr. Brier, Bill Ehrich, and Nash Studios of Greenwood, Indiana, who did the photography.

And last but not least to the 1959 Oracle staff, I give acknowledgement:
