2025 - 2026 STATEMENT OF FINANCIAL SUPPORT

Students are required to provide documentation of financial support before an I-20 can be issued. Please note that your actual expenses will vary, but proof of finances meeting the estimated maximum cost of attendance listed below must be shown in order to have an I-20 issued. No exceptions can be made.

Estimated Costs: 2025-26 Academic Year (August 25, 2025 - May 2, 2026)

Tuition & Fees (Based on 12-18 credits per semester. It covers two semesters per year.)	Room & Board (Based on standard double room and 14 meals per week)	Health Insurance (UIndy's insurance plan is mandatory for all students on F-1 visas.)	Books & Supplies	Personal Expenses (Not to be paid to UIndy)	Estimated total*
$38,308	$13,164	$1,600 (Estimated)	$1,200 (Estimated)	$1,728 (Estimated)	$56,000

*There are additional fees for computer science, engineering, and nursing majors.

*Students wishing to bring a dependent spouse or child to the United States must add $4,000 for each dependent. Please upload a copy of their passport ID page to your application portal.

Please have each source of financial support for your studies at the University of Indianapolis complete a copy of the following agreement. Each sponsor also should submit a bank letter or statement, dated within the past five months, verifying the availability of funds. (We use the closing balance on bank statements.) Including any scholarship you may receive from the University of Indianapolis, funding from all sources should total at least $56,000 for the 2025-26 academic year. (If you are funding yourself, list your name as sponsor.)
