HOURS OF OUR YEAR

"To everything there is a season, and a time to every purpose under the heaven." With the words of Ecclesiastes as our guide, the Junior class presents to you a pictorial record of the hours of our year. Through the pages of this book, you will find represented the events which have truly made this year the time of our lives. The various sections of this book will depict the highlights of our activities of the year: clubs and organizations, sports events, faculty, and students. We present to you these events as timed by the hall clock.

1949 ORACLE

DEDICATION

Teacher, counselor, artist, friend—these characterize Miss Virginia Cravens, Dean of Women, who retires at the close of this year after twenty-two years of active service at Indiana Central. It is to her that we dedicate this book.

In addition to her duties as Dean, Miss Cravens has taught in the English and Literature department. Her association with students in the dormitory and in the classroom has endeared her to the hearts of hundreds who have been guided by her.

Those who know her best remember her devotion to her work and her girls, her reading of bits of poetry, and her Sunday afternoon teas. To state our deep appreciation for all that she has done for Central is a difficult task. We can only express in this small way our appreciation, and wish her the best of everything in the future. Indiana Central will not be the same without her.

As Tennyson said, "I am a part of all that I have met," so Indiana Central is a part of Miss Cravens, but even more, Miss Cravens is a part of Indiana Central.

To everything there is a season and a time to every purpose under the heaven;
A time to be born, and a time to die; a time to plant and a time to pluck up that which is planted;
A time to kill, and a time to heal; a time to break down, and a time to build up;
A time to weep, and a time to laugh, a time to mourn, and a time to dance;
A time to cast away stones, and a time to gather stones together; a time to embrace, and a time to refrain from embracing;
A time to get, and a time to lose; a time to keep, and a time to cast away;
At time to rend, and a time to sew; a time to keep silence, and a time to speak;
A time to love, and a time to hate; a time of war, and a time of peace.

Ecclesiastes 3:1-8

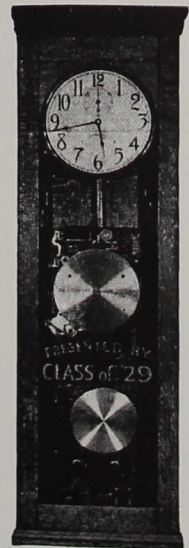

A TIME TO LAUGH . . . . .

"A time to laugh" can best describe those moments of joy and excitement of social events and traditional celebrations. From the insignificant bull session in the Book Store to the Commencement exercises, the moments of fun and relaxation are those which will be remembered by all of us as a vital part of our college days. Pictured in this section are some of the events which have made this year the time of our lives.

Homecoming Queen

Martha Mennen reigned as Homecoming Queen at the celebration held October 2. She was elected by the "C" Association. The events of the day included a dorm decorating contest, parade through downtown Indianapolis, a football game, and an all-school party in Wilmore Hall.

A red-headed junior, Martha is from Lafayette, Indiana. "Marty" majors in Music and minors in English. She was also Central's candidate for the Cherry Blossom Princess.

The winning float of the Homecoming parade was made by Alpha Psi Omega. The senior class was second, and Zetaga thea placed third.

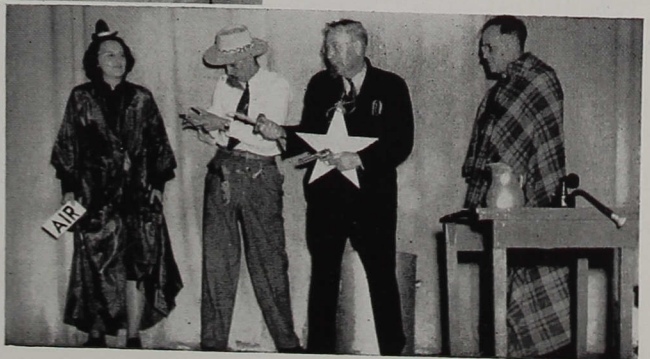

Louise Dragoo and Barbara Knarzer capture the men at the annual Sadie Hawkins Day race. Charles Bassett and Cy Kincaide gave the girls a merry chase around the auditorium, during the chapel program. The Leap Week was climaxed by the Sweetheart Banquet.

One of the most outstanding personalities on campus was "Andy." Until his death in December, he roamed the halls and classrooms at will. After appropriate funeral services by the students and faculty, he was buried behind the mound.

The Male Quartette, comprised of Ed Pellett, Milo Coldren, Gene Westley, and Bill Eaton, took part in many school programs, and during the year, they traveled to several churches throughout the area.

Campus Queen

Carol Cox was elected Campus Queen by a vote of the entire student body. One of the highest honors bestowed on any girl is to be elected Campus Queen from the Junior women and to reign over the May Festival.

Carol is from Tecumseh, Michigan. She is majoring in English and French. She has brown hair and brown eyes.

Eileen Durant crowns new Queen Carol. Eileen was the queen for the previous year. The small daughter of Gene Mikesell looks on at the regal event.

Campus Queen's Court

The honor of being a member of the queen's court is given to the four runners-up in the election. This year Lucille Brown, Sylvia Fitz-Gerald, Ruth LaFavre, and Esther Reidenbach were the members of the royal court. Lucille is from Bedford, Indiana; Sylvia, from Boas, Wisconsin; Ruth, from Long Beach, California; and Esther, from Manchester, Indiana. They escorted the queen to her throne last spring and attended her at this year's May Festival.

Sweetheart Banquet

At Right: Gerry Chandler and Woody McBride enter through the heart.

Below: Betty Jo Smyser, Bill Batty, Gerry Chandler, Woody McBride, Dick Eickman, and Louise Dragoo enjoy the food and fellowship of the dinner.

Raking leaves is a vital part of every Clean-up Day, which is held every spring shortly before High School Day. Speed Wright, Rebecca Sloan, Pauline Strickler, Jim Kindred, Harry Parkhill, Thelma Washburn, and Helen Uncapher make the leaves fly.

It's into the creek with the Freshmen, despite the determined efforts of the fellows pictured. It was the Long Acre creek, the time was last fall, and the reason was to decide how long the Frosh should wear their green beanies.

"Dear Ruth" was the comedy presented as the fall production by Alpha Psi Omega. The spring play was "The Late George Apley." Both were directed by Miss Casebier.

The Greyhounds are blessed with celestial glory on the Sophomore float in the Homecoming Parade. Fred Hiene is the football player, while Rose Ann Rider and Joyce Porter scatter bubbles and balloons.

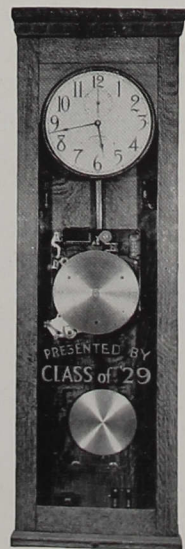

A TIME TO WORK . . . . .

Extra-curricular activities have ceased to be merely enjoyment and have become an integral part of the education of the personality and the mind. Here on our campus, the clubs and organizations seek to help us make better use of our leisure time and to prepare us for our future as citizens. Since we learn by doing, we put into practice the things we have learned in the classroom, and make this "a time to work."

Seated: Helen Moon, Marilyn Sonner, Helen Uncapher, editor, Miss Cravens, Barbara Hotz, Hilda Liedabrand.

Standing: Barbara Bettag, Virginia Young, Ann Wade, Fern Kinkade, Calvin Kistler, Betty Jo Smyser, and Ivan Moreman.

THE REFLECTOR STAFF

"The eyes and ears of the campus," the Reflecter keeps the students posted on recent and coming events around school.

The student newspaper, which is a cooperative effort of many volunteer reporters and staff members, is published once each month and distributed to students, alumni, prospective students and ministers of the area.

Now in its twenty-sixth year of publication, the Reflecter offers opportunity for students to get experience in news writing, editing, and make up. The monthly paper includes news concerning past and future events, society, faculty, and sports news, along with "Snaps" by Ginger. Any student is encouraged to contribute news to the paper, and those showing keen interest in journalism are awarded the editorial positions.

The editorial staff consisted of Helen Uncapher, editor-in-chief; Bill Stelzer, art editor; Marilyn Sonner, music editor; Hilda Liedabrand, poetry editor; Barbara Hotz, society editor; and Loren Noblitt, sports editor. They were guided and counseled by Miss Cravens, grammar critic, and Mr. Johnson, journalism adviser.

Seated: Charlene Fisher, Martha Stone, Esther Reidenbach, Betty Sackmire.

Standing: Patricia Faubion, Warren Tatter, Henry Martinez, Byron Reed, Virgil Webster, Lewis Brown, president, and Ruth Reed.

THE BOOSTER CLUB

The Booster Club is one organization on campus in which the members learn no parliamentary procedure. The only thing learned is work, because a great deal of work is necessary in order to raise the money to buy the sweaters, or jackets, which are presented to the athletes who have earned them during the year. Booster Club's main sources of income are the selling of refreshments at the home athletic events, "coke" machines in the dormitories, and the annual alumni basketball game. The Club's twelve members—four freshmen, two sophomores, juniors, and seniors, a president, and the faculty sponsor, Dr. Morgan—have this great responsibility.

Because of the rising costs and increasing numbers of sweaters to be bought, much thinking and planning is necessary in order to keep the Club out of the red in the treasurer's accounts. However, with the fine work of the members, Dr. Morgan's advice, the cooperation of the administration, and the assistance of the student body, splendid work has been done.

Another function of Booster Club is the annual Athletic Banquet given to honor all "C" winners of the past year. A chicken dinner and an address by a "C" alumnus was enjoyed by more than fifty men and women who had won a "C" during the year of 1948.

For all their work, the only rewards for the Club members are the satisfaction of a job well done and a greyhound insignia which they have the honor of wearing.

Seated: Rebecca Sloan, Helen Moon, James McCoy, president, Bob Bonewitz, Louise Dragoo.
 Standing: Elizabeth Rider, June Holt, George Warheit, Walter Smith, Bettie Moore, Bud DeBaun, George Easley, Paul Whiteman, Fred Heine, Al Kindig, Betty Thornburg, Virgil Hanson, Russell Robbins and Joan Reeves.

STUDENT COUNCIL

In an effort to present the ideas of the student body to the faculty, the Student Council has been organized. A general school election is held to name the president, vice-president and two representatives-at-large. Other members are from classes and organizations. The Student Council discusses problems pertinent to all and then attempts to solve these problems. James McCoy was president for this year, and Paul Alexander was vice-president; other officers were Helen Moon and Elwood McBride, representatives-at-large.

STUDENT CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION

The S.C.A. is a combination of the Y.W.C.A. and the Y.M.C.A. Students automatically become members of the association upon entering college. The main events sponsored by the S.C.A. are: Big and Little Buddy and Sister walkout, Big Mixer, Thanksgiving Banquet, Christmas Banquet, Sweetheart Banquet, Religious Emphasis Week, and Wednesday evening religious programs furnished by the religious life committee. There was a retreat on May 6 and 7 for the incoming and outgoing cabinets.

Seated: Helen Moon, Helen Mays, Bud DeBaun, Betty Lou Ratliffe, Esther Reidenbach, Bill Fisher, president, George Easley, Betty Jo Smyser, Milo Coldren, Barbara Bettag, Virginia Young.
 Standing: Keith Brown, Bob Noblitt, Don Fleener, Arthur Winn, Ed Pellet, Mr. Weber.

First Row: Turley, Stuck, Moore, R. Williams, Hilficker, Tolliver, Radford, C. Smith.
 Second Row: Mr. Davis, Flemming, Winebrenner, Reidenbach, Mumaw, Gaylor, Crosby, D. Strickler.
 Third Row: Banks, Fleener, J. Holt, Keene, L. Noblitt, Akard, Madigan, Merritt, Mr. Merkel.
 Fourth Row: Schroeder, E. Sanders, DeBaun, Tryon, Miles, Wells, L. Brown, G. Stevenson, Wykowski, president.

FUTURE TEACHERS OF AMERICA

Having the largest membership of any organization on campus, the F.T.A. has been extremely active. The I. J. Good chapter is affiliated with the National Education Association and the Indiana State Teachers' Association. The club provides its members with information about the teaching profession and its related activities which will be useful to prospective teachers. This campus organization sponsors a chapter of the F.T.A. at Southport High School.

ENGLISH CLUB

An organization for English majors and minors and those interested in literary art, the English Club meets each month. Theatre parties, special programs, and book reviews highlight the year's activities. Maryrose Fleming served as president of the organization this year. Miss Weaver, along with the other professors in the English department, sponsors the club.

First Row: P. Strickler, Hotz, J. Turley, Tolliver, Liedabrand, Moon, Stotts.
 Third Row: B. Noblitt, Drago, I. Brown, Cox, Reidenbach, Baldwin, Mays.

 Fifth Row: Hardin, Hilton, Terrell, Miller, K. Brown, and Potts.

CHOIR

A deeper appreciation for the musical gems of the Christian Church has been developed in the minds of these students who comprise the Chapel Choir. The Chapel Choir was under the direction of Professor Allan Faber Schirmer. The weekly formal chapel services have been enriched and enhanced by the contributions of this group. Also outstanding among its activities were the two programs of seasonal music presented at Christmas and Easter.

The choir travelled extensively this year presenting programs of sacred music in many churches in Indiana: Brazil; First Church, Terre Haute; Industry and Riverside Churches in Muncie; Hartford City; Portland; Anderson; and Rich Valley. In addition to these appearances, the itinerary of a week's tour from April 24 to May 1 included high schools and churches in Illinois and Indiana.

Included in the repertoire are the following numbers: Jesus Shall Reign by Isaac Watts, Brother James Air by Gordon Jacobs, Deep River arranged by Fred Waring, If Ye Love Me by Thomas Tallis, Today There Is Ringing by F. Christiansen, Thy Wisdom, Lord, All Thought Transcendeth, a Russian melody, Jubilate Deo by Franz Schubert, Come, O Thou Traveller Unknown by Noble, God's Son Has Made Me Free by Edvard Grieg, O Sacred Hed by Christiansen, and several other outstanding sacred numbers.

Second Row: Kindig, Spyles, Myers, Vass, Weaver.

Third Row: Jones, Stubbs, Bilby, Hite, Hotz, Albert, Woodard, Mr. Edelman, V. Stubbs, Hilton, Pellett, I. Brown, Miller, and Mansfield.

B A N D

The College Band, directed by Professor Edelman, is an ever growing organization. This year it was composed of approximately thirty-five students, drawn from the entire student body. The band takes an active part in school activities, by playing for athletic events, pep sessions, chapel programs, High School Day, the Annual Spring Concert, and similar performances.

In addition, the organization acquires an extensive repertoire of band compositions to be used by those members who upon graduation, will teach in the public schools. Being the type of organization it is, the band does not have the usual officers. Instead of a president, there is a student conductor. This year the student conductor was Vernon Smitley. In like manner there is no secretary-treasurer. These functions are taken care of by the co-librarians, Jim Kindred and Jim Weaver.

Seated: Dr. Kek, Kathleen Carmicheal, Bettie Moore, Carol Cox, Evelyn Lavelly, Pauline Hutchinson, Esther Reidenbach, Nancy Winebrenner, Velma Bailey.

THEACALLOSIA

This year Theacallosia Literary Society is celebrating its twenty-fifth anniversary. Theacallosia was organized by several ambitious young women whose purpose was "to develop ideals of truth and beauty in literature and to perfect themselves in the mechanics of routine and government."

The ladies learn parliamentary procedure, gain experience with writing, with delivery of literary productions, and with extemporaneous and impromptu speaking.

During the past year, there have been two great changes in the constitution. One concerns the meeting time and the other officers. The society now meets at 7:00 the first and third Tuesday evenings of each month.

Secondly, the constitution now states that officers will be elected only twice a year.

Evelyn Lavelly was president for the first term. Other chair officers were Carol Cox, critic, and Pauline Hutchinson, recording secretary. The president for the second term was Barbara Hotz; critic, Alice Brooks; and secretary, Betty Jo Smyser. Dr. Anna Dale Kek is the sponsor of the society.

Seated: Virginia Young, Jane Turley, Helen Moon, Lucille Brown, Maryrose Fleming, Rebecca Sloan, Joan Rooves, Ruth Clausius, Charlene Fisher.
 Second Row: Sylvia Fitz-Gerald, Elaine Fitz-Gerald, Vera Stubbs, Fern Kinkade, Joyce Knight, Verda Spangler, Betty Kam, Phyllis Mader, Shirley Moren, Hilda Campbell.
 Third Row: Thelma Washburn, Ruth Crosby, Patricia Faubion, Gertrude Beasley, Irene Lunsford, Patricia Hilficker, Emiliann Tolliver, Emmalou Wilson, June Holt, Pauline Strickler, Jacqueline Duffy.

PHILAETHEA

Meeting every Monday night in formal session, the Philaethean Literary Society practices parliamentary procedure according to ROBERT'S RULES OF ORDER, presents literary productions, and impromptu and extemporaneous speaking.

Philaethea was the first of the four literary societies to be established on the campus. Miss Sibyl Weaver, head of the English department, is the faculty sponsor, chosen by the members of the society. There are forty-one active members and one inactive member.

Last fall the society entertained prospective members with a Fireside Frolic. Following a formal dinner, the new members were received into the society during a formal initiatory service. This spring the society joined the three other organizations for a banquet.

Every year a trophy is presented to the society which has a member who writes the best literary production for the year. Since Emilee Ann Toliver won the cup last spring on Honors Day, the trophy was in possession of Philaethea this year.

The presidents for the year were: Vera Moren Stubbs, Jane Turley, Joan Middaugh, Maryrose Fleming, Lucille Brown, and Rebecca Sloan.

Seated: Charles Bassett, Robert Smith, Virgil Hanson.

ZETAGATHEA

Under the sponsorship of Mr. John Rider, Zetagathea Literary Society is one of Indiana Central's outstanding organizations. Although the organization is small in membership, it is very active. Meetings are held every Monday evening in the literary hall. Special meetings occur often in the form of parties and various social activities. During the school year two presidents are elected. Robert Smith served as president the first term and Charles Bassett was elected for the second term.

Zetagathea sponsored a prize winning float in the annual Homecoming parade. Miss Barbara Hotz was elected "Miss Zetagathea" and reigned over the society during Homecoming. The society gives an annual assembly program, usually on the humorous side.

It is the aim of the society to produce better students. The meetings teach parliamentary procedure, destructive and constructive criticism, and promote literary ability.

Seated: Mahoi, Lenkins, Pellett.

Standing: Weaver, Miles, Holt, Taylor, Armstrong, Parkhill, Brewah, McCoy, Houser, Mevis, Easley, Tindall, Peckham.

PHILOMUSEA

The school year 1948-49 saw Philomusea Literary Society having a very successful year. With an increased membership and an intensified program of activities, Philomusea moved forward in the achievement of her aims and goals.

Some of the outstanding events in the program of Philomusea were as follows: In October the society participated in the annual homecoming parade by entering a highly decorative float. In November the "rush" for new members found every one busy in some realm of activity. The highlight of the society year came in March when Philomusea along with the other literary societies on campus enjoyed a fine evening of food and entertainment at the Green Acres Restaurant.

Philomusea had four presidents this year, one for each term. They were Robert Holt, Dan Hart, George Easley and Charles Peckham. Under the leadership of these men, Philomuseans gained a new and inspiring insight which will stand them in good stead not only in literary society but also in preparation for the more critical society into which they will be graduated.

Casey Wykowski, Louise Dragoo, Joyce Porter, Don Johnson, Dwight Taylor, Jim McCoy, Betty Thornburg, Bill Stelzer, Arthur Winn, and Mr. Miller.

ART CLUB

The Art Club has potentialities of being one of the most outstanding organizations on campus. It sponsored two art exhibits this year. The club's energy and aspiration are now being centered upon a project which involves a new location for the art department. The plans are now in the embryo stage.

ALPHA PSI OMEGA

The purpose of the Gamma Theta cast of Alpha Psi Omega is to stimulate interest in dramatics. It also secures for the college all the advantages and mutual helpfulness provided by a large national honor fraternity. As reward for their participation in dramatic activities staged by the organization, students are elected as members to the society. This year there were four active members and forty-five apprentices in the chapter.

Miss Casebier, Louise Dragoo, Sylvia Fitz-Gerald and Lewis Brown.

First Row: Moore, Welsh, Washburn, Tolliver, P. Strickler, Middaugh, Wade.
Second Row: Hutchinson, Belcher, Winebrenner, Taylor, Bonewitz, Harrison.
Third Row: Mr. Underwood, Madigan, Wise, Armstrong, Iunghuhn, Mr. Miller.
Fourth Row: Heine, Mrs. Kek, McPherson, Spivey.

PAN-LINGUIST CLUB

The Pan-Linguist Club is one of the most recent organizations on the campus of Indiana Central College. The aims and objectives of this group is to stimulate interest in foreign languages, to broaden the outlook of the students through the stimulation of interest in foreign cultures, to develop leadership, and to provide an opportunity for the use of foreign language in oral and written composition.

Students of all languages are welcomed to membership if the student is in good scholastic standing with the college administration and has had at least one semester of any foreign language.

Through the International Correspondence System the students of this club have begun correspondence with foreign students. CARE packages have been sent by individual students to friends in needy countries. Recently one of the most outstanding activities of the club was its participation in the Freedom Train parade in which the Pan-Linguist float represented Indiana Central College.

The club requires only twenty-five cents dues each year in order to meet its expenses. The Pan-Linguist Club is helpful for it affords a better understanding of other languages and cultures.

Seated: Betty Thornburg, Rosalie Babbitt, Vera Stubbs, Mary Frances Stotts, Velma Bailey, Katie Carmichael.
Standing: Charlene Fisher, Julianne Akard, Miss Huey, Louise Dragoo and Ura Howard.

VESTA CLUB

The Vesta Club is an organization of home economics majors and minors. Its purposes are: to provide opportunity for leadership and responsibility, to provide social, business, and professional experience and to improve the Home Economics Department.

Our members cooperate with home economics groups from other colleges in state and province meetings. We are affiliated with the state and national home economics associations. Each year we contribute to a "Fellowship Fund" for bringing a foreign student to this country to study home economics.

As a service to the feminine population on our campus, we compile and publish each month a group of our favorite recipes.

Our programs this year have been varied and most interesting, including a movie on good grooming, a Christmas party, a demonstration of the Chambers Range, a style show, 'Cooking for Fun,' a spring picnic, a sewing bee, and attendance at a hockey game.

First Row: Laveta Smith, Martha Mennen, Barbara Hotz, Rose Ann Rider, Ruth Baldock.
Third Row: Al Kindig, Trudy Fields, Marilyn Sonner, Anna Hite, Mr. Edelman.

MUSIC CLUB

The Music Club is an organization for music majors and minors. This year the Music Club held monthly meetings devoted to business, professional, and social activities. Members were given an opportunity to perform before the club as part of their professional training.

Officers were: President, Vernon Smitley; Vice-President, Don Durant; Secretary-Treasurer, Rose Ann Rider.

The organization is a member of the National Association, The Music Educators National Conference. The purpose of it is to inform students of the wide musical activities on a national scope.

The club has been guests at many off-campus activities including the joint meeting of the American Guild of Organists and the Indianapolis Choir Directors Association.

First Row: Calvin Kistler, Bud DeBaun, Eldon Johnson, Francis LaRussa, Norman Harner, Bill Clark, Robert Harvey.
 Second Row: Manford Kistler, Ray Kennedy, Fred Yost, Elwood McBride, Wendell Roberts, Ed Pellett, Don Stevenson.

"C" ASSOCIATION

One of the most exclusive organizations here at Central is the "C" Association. Its purpose is to promote activity among the letter men on the campus and to promote a feeling of good will among the Alumni "C" men of years past. Any man who has been awarded a major letter, duly initiated, and accepted by the association, may be a member. The word "initiation" brings a warm flush of terror over every prospective "C" man, but the honor of being a member is great.

W. A. A.

The W.A.A. is an organization in which every girl in college may hold membership if she participates in the activities sponsored by this group. These activities include intramural sports and intercollegiate basketball for women. Through participation and accomplishment in these sports, the college "C" letter and sweater may be earned.

Seated: Martha Stone, Betty Sackmire, Joyce Everett, Thelma Washburn, Emmalou Wilson.

Standing: Barbara Knarzer, Mary Milburn, Lorene Reed, Rebecca Sloan, Helen Uncapher, Betty Jo Smyser, Ruth Reed, Eloise Bilby, Shirley Moren, and Dorothy Englehart.

First Row: Joan Senff, Joan Reeves, Irene Lunford, Rith Baldock, Betty Thornburg, Verda Spangler and Helen Moon.

Second Row: Emmalou Wilson, Pauline Hutchinson, Maybelle Runk, Thelma Washburn, Ruth Clausius and Daisy Welsh.

Third row: Pauline Strickler, Gertrude Beasley, Grace O'Reilly, Margaret Madigan, Dorothy Strickler, Virginia Young, Ruth Crosby.

GIRLS' MISSION GUILD

"Go ye into all the world and teach"—here is the foundation for all guild work. The four-year old Mission Guild of Central was organized to help those girls who plan for future work in the missions fields of the world, to better understand the problems of such a task. We have sponsored gifts of clothing and food to China and to our immediate community in order that we might give others a glimpse of Christ's love.

CENTRAL MINISTERIAL ASSOCIATION

C.M.A. provides and stimulates interest for every ministerial student. Monthly meetings have been held to give instructive and inspirational advice. The highlights of the year have been the "Fellowship Dinners," and the ministerial retreat. Chapel programs, preaching, and teaching Sunday School classes are the active services rendered by this organization. C.M.A. seeks to foster a wholesome Christian attitude of living on campus.

Third Row: Eldon Campbell, Gene Wesley, Floyd Mevis, Bryce Armstrong, Dick Houser, Wyman Claggett and Ed. Pellett.

PHI ALPHA EPSILON

Phi Alpha Epsilon is the new society to honor freshmen who have showed outstanding scholastic ability. First organized in 1947, there were four charter members elected into the society: Helen Kays, Rebecca Sloan, Emilee Ann Tolliver, and Edna Wise. The privilege of selecting a name for the society was given to these four members. They were aided by President Esch, Dean Kellogg and Dr. Kek.

The requirements for the society are that a student shall have earned a scholarship index of 2.250 for thirty hours carried in the freshman year. Finally, the faculty must vote on the candidates fulfilling the requirements. They consider the contribution the student has made to the general welfare of the college.

Formal initiation into the society is held in the fall by the faculty members of the Epsilon Sigma Alpha. The announcement of new members and special recognitions are the main part of the annual Honors Day program.

Membership in the new organization is an honor that is rightfully bestowed on outstanding students, and it is a goal to be sought by each new student.

Mr. Kek, Alvera Baldwin, Gale Creighton, Martha Mennen, Barbara Bettag, Charles Bassett, Paul Eicher, and Rebecca Sloan.

THE ORACLE STAFF

"A time to work" was the idea of the Oracle staff for this year. The entire staff began work in the fall and worked consistently until spring to present to you this book. Since 1918, the Oracle has been published annually by the Junior class, and so this year, in following tradition, the staff was composed of juniors, with the exception of Barbara Bettag, who served as assistant editor.

The financial and advertising part of the book was handled by George Easley, and during the first semester he was aided by Gale Creighton. The price of the Oracle being included in the general fee eliminated the usual subscription campaign. The advertising for the book was obtained by James McCoy, Charles Jennings, and Mr. Easley.

Editorially, the work was handled by six members of the staff with the help of numerous reporters. Alvera Baldwin assumed the editorship. Rebecca Sloan was copy editor; Martha Mennen, snapshot editor; Paul Eicher, sports editor; and Charles Bassett, class editor.

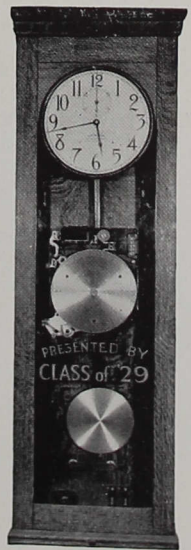

Mr. Evan R. Kek, who was faculty sponsor, aided the staff in technical details. Miss Harriet Bunting was the grammar critic. The staff wishes to express thanks to the Indianapolis Engraving Company, Graessle-Mercer Company, the faculty and students, who helped with this project.

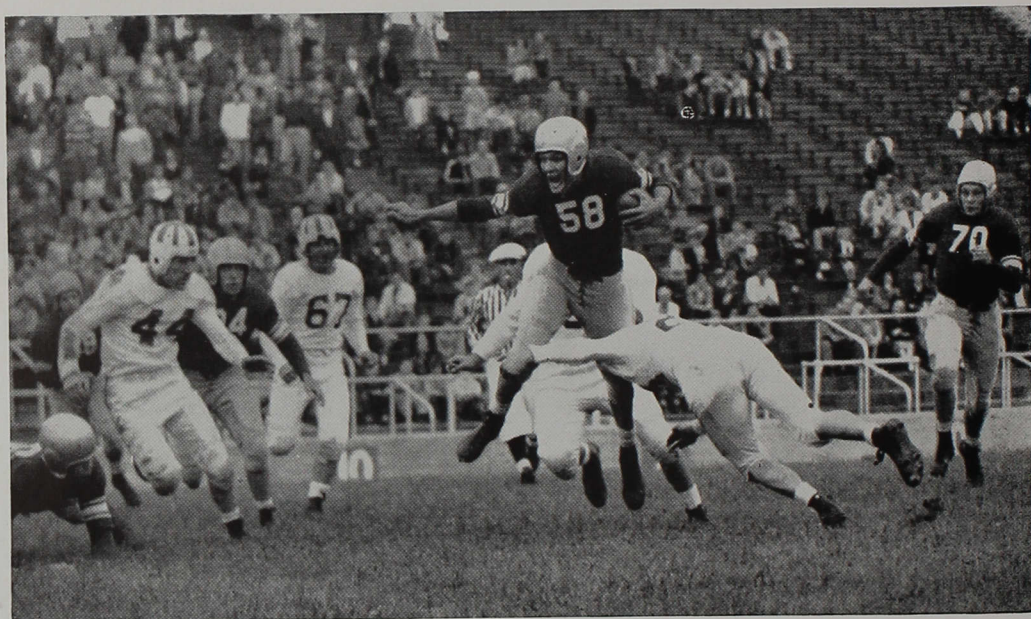

A TIME TO WIN . . . . .

"A time to win" is the theme of the athletic program in every college, but in playing the game, we develop more than a spirit of victory. The cooperation which makes up victory and the sportsmanship in defeat are equally significant in the collegiate athletic program. In both intramural and intercollegiate participation the spirit of rivalry and competition is keen. This year the spoils of the victor were often taken by the Greyhound teams, so this was "a time to win."

... BY THE HALL CLOCK

F O O T B A L L

Opening a tough season, we played Butler. . . .

This, however, was not the entire season. Although the team was handicapped by injuries, they managed to place third in the conference race and break even with a record of four wins and four losses.

For the first time in the history of the school, the Greyhounds traveled to Westerville, Ohio, to play our sister college, Otterbein. A fine welcome was extended by the host school; however, this hospitality did not include a victory for the Greyhounds.

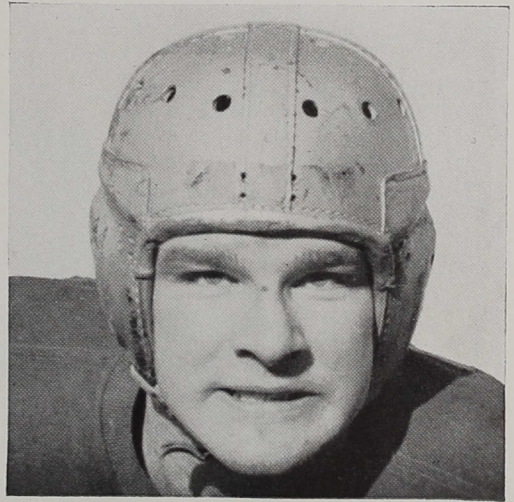

The Anderson Ravens and the Hanover Panthers were the only two conference teams to upset the Greyhound record. Anderson and Hanover tied for first place in conference standing. Central won a thriller from Manchester in the annual Homecoming game by a score of 13-21.

Coaches Angus Nicosen and Ray Linson collaborated in organizing the squad into offence and defence lines. Harold Schutz and Calvin Kistler were voted co-captains of the team, and Stan Klos was elected the most valuable player for the year. The team will lose five players by graduation: Don Fleener, Calvin Kistler, Manford Kistler, Ed Pellett, and Glenn Stevenson.

Tackle Stan Klos was voted the most valuable player by his team mates for the 1948 football season. Highlighting his outstanding college football career, Klos grabbed a fumble in the Rose Poly game and scampered for a touchdown. His consistent playing throughout the year added much to the strength of the Central line. Stan received the new W. P. Morgan award for being elected to this honor.

Winning the Hoosier College Conference and playing in two tourneys highlighted the 1948-49 basketball season for the Central Greyhounds. The climax of the season was the trip to Kansas City, Missouri, to participate in the National Association Intercollegiate Basketball tournament.

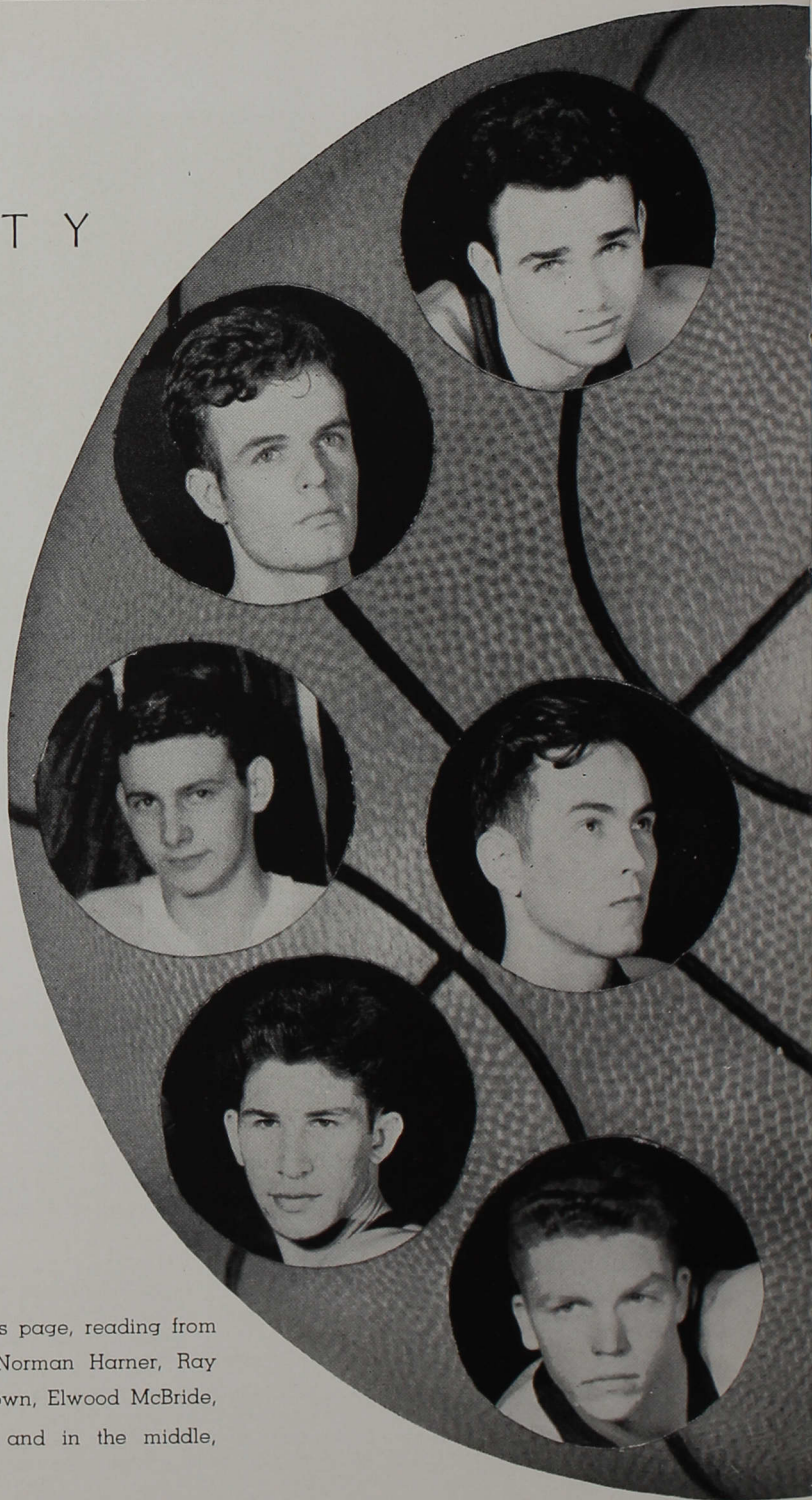

By winning nine out of ten conference games, the Greyhounds captured the Conference championship. The only loss was to Franklin College early in the season, a loss which was avenged by a 63-57 victory over the Grizzlies in February.

Although the Central team played the toughest schedule in many years, including such teams as Eastern Kentucky State, University of Kentucky, Butler, and Indiana State Teachers College, the Greyhounds found their mark after the first few games and rolled up a season record of sixteen wins out of twenty-three starts.

The first tourney of the season was held at Taylor University, December 9, 10, and 11. Central defeated Taylor and Ohio Northern, but was defeated in the final game by Manchester, 79-78. Thirty two colleges from all over the country were represented at the N.A.I.B. tournament in Kansas City. Indiana Central won its first game by defeating Connecticut State Teachers College; however, they were overcome in the second round by Hamline College of Minnesota, the tournament victors.

Awards of the season were announced at the Basketball Banquet, March 18. Dwight Swails, high point man of the season, was named the most valuable player. Norman Harner was elected captain of the team, and Woody McBride second high scorer, was named the player who had improved most in the season. Much credit is due Coach Nicosen, who snapped the team into shape for one of the best seasons in many years.

T R A C K

Central won four dual meets and one three-way meet in the 1948 track season. Participating in the Rose Poly invitational relay, Hoosier Conference meet, and the Little State meet, the Greyhound thin-clads placed sixth in the relays; fifth in the conference meet; and eleventh in the Little State meet.

Jim Langford placed first in the two mile run at the conference meet, and second in the one mile run. He was fifth in the Little State one mile, and third in the two mile. Stevenson coped a second in the javelin throw at Little State, third in the javelin throw at the conference meet, placed fourth in the shot put and fifth in the discus. George Groskopf was third in the half mile run in the conference. Bob Harvey, Wendell Roberts, and Bill McGrath were other outstanding individual performers.

By a little "talking it up in the outfield" and good hitting, the baseball team finished off the season with eleven victories and six defeats, placing third in the conference rating.

Manford Kistler, Danny Ruth, and Harvey Noland took turns on the pitching mound, while Bill Fredenberger and Bob McBride handled the catching spot. The infield positions were John Wallen, first base; Eddie Raab, second base; Frank Kattau, shortstop; with Fred Yost and Don Bunge dividing third base responsibilities.

Coach Angus Nicosen guided the team from the bench, and Bud DeBaun and Cal Kistler were the student managers for the team.

CROSS COUNTRY

Central harriers finished a good season by tying for third in the conference meet, placing sixth in Little State meet, and winning three dual meets.

Eugene DeBaun, Paul Alexander, Henry Martinez, Ray Alexander, and George Groskopf were outstanding performers on the Central team. Charles Bugbee, Grant Marshall, and Byron Reed, were the other Greyhound scorers.

The team enjoyed a trip to South Bend, Indiana, to participate in the four-mile Big and Little State meet held at Notre Dame. DeBaun was first man in for Central.

Coached by J. Louis Gehr, the Centralites deserve much credit for a fine season. The team elected Henry Martinez captain for the year.

COACHES AND STUDENT MANAGERS

Behind every athletic team there are those who work to keep everything running smoothly for the men on the playing field or floor. Most important of these people are the coaches who must have the "know how" to pass on to the players. The Greyhounds are fortunate to have three excellent coaches. Angus Nicosen, in his second year at Central, brought the football, basketball, and baseball season through some tough games to hard fought victories. J. Louis Gehr not only coaches the track teams but also heads the Physical Education department, both jobs requiring much time and skill. Serving as assistant football coach is Ray Linson. Mr. Linson is head football coach at Southport High School, but takes time out from his duties there to lend "Nic" a helping hand.

Bud DeBaun, Milt Truesdale, Ed Pruitt, Tom Kimmel, and Russell Albert worked this year in the capacity of student managers. Though they receive little glory for their consistent work, they are as vital to every victory as the men's playing. Keeping equipment, uniforms, and the gym in order is their task.

Reading Clockwise; Judy Morgan, Dale Robison, Genevieve Yant, Gloria Longmire, Bob Miller, and Helen Uncapher.

CHEERLEADERS

Being a cheerleader requires more than simply leading yells at athletic events, or so it seems from the varied activities of our cheerleaders. The problem of boosting the morale of both the team and the crowd is no minor detail.

Organizing pep sessions was the work of Helen Uncapher, Gloria Longmire, Bob Miller, Judy Morgan, Dale Robison, and Genevieve Yant.

Besides planning cheering routines, the cheerleaders, with the help of Coach Nicosen, organized the Pep Club, the members of which were chosen on the basis of enthusiasm and reliability. The new club had a special section reserved for its members at all games.

WOMEN'S ATHLETICS

Organized for both intramural and intercollegiate competition, the Women's Athletic Association carried on a heavy schedule of basketball games, practice, and intramural activity.

Playing a nine-game season, the basket-ball team lost only three games, and won a tournament at Hanover College by winning four games.

Letter sweaters are awarded to deserving women players just as in men's sports.

Mrs. Lois Fouts, Physical education instructor, coached and sponsored the girls' team. She says that to be a good athlete, a girl must first be a lady, for poise is as necessary on the playing floor as on a date.

Women's Athletics

A TIME TO PLANT . . . . .

The seeds of knowledge which are planted each day by the professors in the classroom may be compared to the seeds of the sower in Christ's parable. Although the seeds of our faculty's knowledge do not always fall on fertile ground, still the fruits of their labors bring to them the satisfaction of helping prepare students both to work and to live. For the professor the class period is "a time to plant."

P R E S I D E N T E S C H

As in every clock, which is in proper working condition, a college, too, must have a mainspring which keeps things running smoothly and on schedule. President I. Lynd Esch is that mainspring at Indiana Central College.

President Esch came to Central in 1945, and since then has made some changes in the administration and faculty organization. Under his supervision the school achieved the standards of the North Central Association and was admitted to the association as an accredited college.

The privilege of having such an outstanding man as president of our institution is a challenge to both students and faculty. President Esch is our mainspring.

A TIME TO GROW . . . . .

From the time each student enters I.C.C. as a green freshman until he receives his degree, he is acutely aware of his growth: physically, mentally, and spiritually. In this section are the individual pictures, arranged by classes. As the seniors leave Central with four years of classes, good times, disappointments, and accomplishments behind them, they are examples of our "time to grow."

SENIOR CLASS

Skip Day, Junior-Senior Banquet, Faculty Breakfast, Senior Recognition Day, Baccalaureate, Commencement, and four years at Central are a part of the past. Four years that have been packed full of fun and learning, four years that once seemed an eternity are gone.

Don Fleener was elected president of his class for a second time. Joan Middaugh was vice-president. Carol Cox and Jane Turley were secretary and treasurer, respectively. The officers, aided by Dr. Anna Dale Kek, planned the year's activities which included a skating party and a hay ride.

"Our Hearts Were Young and Gay" was chosen as the senior play, which was directed by Dr. Kek. Strangely enough, Skip Day plans remained a secret, but the pranks of the underclassmen were not secret for very long.

Six members of the class were named to the "Who's Who Among Students in American Colleges and Universities." They were Paul Alexander, Velma Bailey, Sylvia Fitz-Gerald, Don Fleener, Betty Moore, and George Warheit. Epsilon Sigma Alpha, an honorary scholastic fraternity, gained nine new members from the Class of 1949: Julianne Akard, Paul Alexander, Velma Bailey, Sylvia Fitz-Gerald, Helen Kays, Betty Moore, Walter Smith, Henry Sommers, and Jane Turley.

JUNIOR CLASS

Having surmounted the two low hurdles, the freshman and sophomore year, the Class of '50 started the new year by electing Max Hoffman to organize the class for the year. He was assisted by Loren Hoch, vice-president; Anna Hite, secretary; and Keith Conrow, treasurer.

As is the custom, the class sponsored a float at Homecoming. Martha Mennen, a junior, brought honor to the class as she reigned over the Homecoming celebration.

A new project was undertaken by the juniors this year; they published a student directory, I.C.C., Information Concerning Central. This little booklet was sold to students and faculty.

The Seniors were honored by the class at a banquet in May. This affair is an annual function. Over one hundred attended this festive affair.

The May Festival saw the crowning of a new Campus Queen. The program, however, was presented by the physical education department.

S O P H O M O R E C L A S S

The Sophs have had a busy year digging, pulling and shooting.

The "Fate of Manchester" was their ghoulish entry in the Homecoming Parade and, as far as we know, that was the first time a grave had entered the parade.

Having tossed aside their green beanies and donned class jackets, the Sophomores demonstrated that they had learned at least one thing in college—how to pull, for the Freshmen got a hasty dunking last fall at the Tug-of-War.

In March they proved that they could also remember what they knew as Freshmen, for they won the class basketball tournament by some good shooting and retained the crown as champions of the tourney.

Presiding over the affairs of the year were Jim Fisher, president; Vern Chandler, vice-president; Verda Spangler, secretary, and Fred John, treasurer.

FRESHMAN CLASS

September 12 found one-hundred fifty freshmen hesitatingly entering the I.C.C. library to take the traditional entrance exams. Green beanies became the popular millinery style of the fall. Bruce Hilton, Eloise Bilby, Edwin Johnson, and Virginia Main were elected president, vice-president, treasurer, and secretary respectively. Charles Stotts was chosen to be the Student Council representative.

Sportsminded Freshmen were outstanding on the gridiron, hardwood, track, and baseball diamond, but they "slipped up" when it came to the tug-of-war.

The Class of '52 has taken an active interest in all campus activities and from its past record, the Freshmen look forward to three more successful years. Their first year was exciting because it brought them new friends, and new experiences. They are not as green as last fall, and next year they shall take our place as respected upperclassmen.
