Activities

Queen Nancy

Campus Queen

Queen Nancy Abney, crowned at the 1950 Annual Spring Festival, reigned with dignity and honor throughout the following year. At formal appearances the Queen was accompanied by her court of four Seniors.

Homecoming

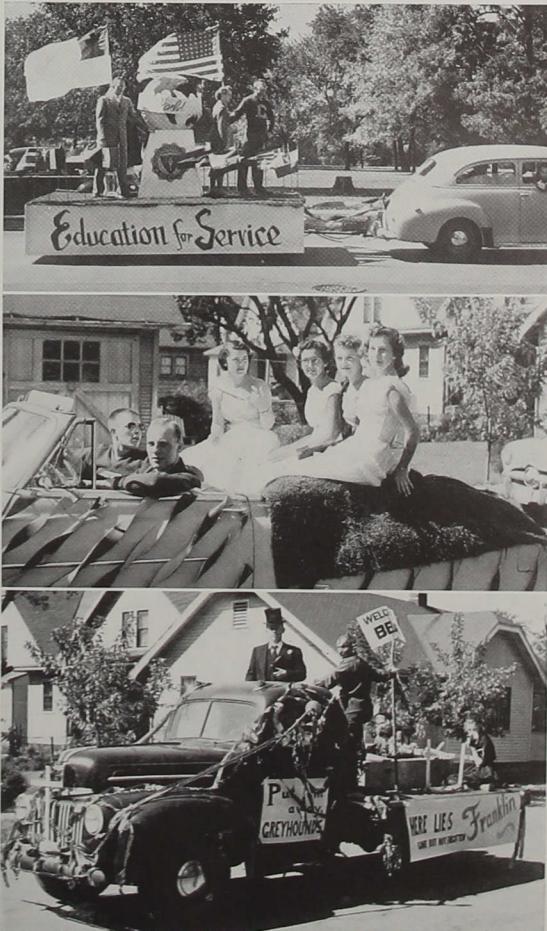

We were proud of our Homecoming Queen, Beulah "Boots" Van Ostran who accepted the crown graciously. "Boots", a native of Lafayette, Indiana, is a Sophomore majoring in Music Education. She was attended by runners-up Judy Morgan, Milly Tatner, Joyce Liechty and Betty Bilby.

Top honors went to the illustrious Seniors who proudly displayed our motto "Education for Service" on their winning float.

Homecoming Candidates, elected by the student body, rode in style and grandeur to the crowning of the queen.

The regalia of the Freshman Float added fun and spirit to the antics of the Homecoming Celebration.

The Chance of the Year

Hang on to him, Jeannie! A tired, but successful gal finally caught herself a man in the Sadie Hawkin's Day Race.

At the "Command Performance of Queen Nancy's Court", we catch the Queen and her escort stopping for refreshments.

Entertainment Broadway Style

Alpha Psi's major production "One Foot in Heaven" drew quite a crowd to see the joys and troubles experienced by a hard-working preacher's family.

"Down in the Valley", an operetta sponsored by the Phi Sigma Mu, entertained us after the Sweetheart Banquet.

The Chapel Trio composed of Martha Stone, Lois Smith, Rosalie Rapp and accompanied by Laveta Smith, and the Greyhound Quartet, Ray Van Busum with brothers Don, Bruce and Dave Hilton, provided a wide variety of vocal music including sacred, popular and classical selections.

Coaches

Angus Nicoson: Athletic Director of Indiana Central College, also head basketball and baseball coach.

Lois Fouts: Girls' Physical Education Director and girls' basketball coach.

Walt Bartkiewicz: Head football and track coach.

Jack Rice: Cross Country coach.

Cheer Leaders

The Greyhounds were highly inspired by the enthusiastic support of the fans this year. This would never have been possible without the able leadership of Bob Miller, Mary Glazier, Carolyn Bennett, and Mimi Antonopoulos, our hard-working cheerleaders.

The Hoosier Conference Cross-Country Trophy was brought to Central the second straight year as the Greyhounds out-raced their closest opponent, Taylor, 40 to 60. The Greyhounds also placed 3rd in the Little State meet behind Butler and Ball State. Coach Jack Rice's squad had more than their share of injuries and sickness and was never at its full strength. A well-balanced team proved to be the deciding factor in Central's many victories.

Football Highlights

The football team had a good season this year with the exception of a couple of field goals and a very cold day. The greyhounds took second place in the Hoosier Conference behind a powerful Hanover team. After dropping two in a row, the team, under the able leadership of coach Bartkiewicz, pulled themselves together to defeat a favored Manchester squad 19-0 to bring the season to a rousing finish.

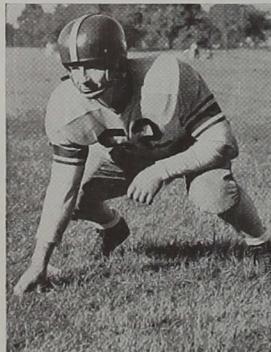

Central placed four men on the all-conference team. They were Dale Robinson and Bill Crowe on offense; Arnold Spilly and Abie Carter on defense. Joe Hurrel, Dave Shaw, and Paul Middlebrooks received honorable mention.

SECOND ROW—Paul Middlebrooks, Eugene Piercfield, Renaldo Savenelli, Walt Dininger, Walt Stahlhut, Haldon Cole, John Preston, Perry Stump, Glen Buckner, Dave Shaw, and Bill Crowe.

Girl's Basketball Team

Coach Lois Fouts' Whippets finished the 1951-52 season with a 9 won 2 lost record, including the winning of a trophy in a tournament at Franklin. This is the first trophy to be brought home by any girls' team. Their record of being undefeated at home will leave a high standard for future Whippets to attain.

Packed with potential power but lacking the much needed experience, the Greyhounds started on a killer-schedule of thirty games. The team didn't really find itself until it hit the month of February. As they entered that month, they had won 11 and lost 9. Led by Woody McBride, second-high scorer in the state, they made a clean sweep of February by winning 8 games in a row. They finished with a 20-10 record and second place in the conference. Central placed one man on the all-conference team, Woody McBride. Don Thomas, John Sinclair, Bill Pickard, and Bill Bright received honorable mention. Three boys, Woody McBride, Jack Colescott, and Leon Patterson will graduate.

Clubs

Student Council

It is the responsibility of the Student Council to coordinate more effectively, the duties and desires of the student body with those of the administrative staff.

Student Christian Association

The S. C. A. is composed of students and faculty members who are interested in providing wholesome social activities for the student body.

Reflector Staff

"Mirroring life at I.C.C." is the motto of this energetic newspaper staff. Opportunity to serve on the paper is given to all who show interest and ability.

Oracle Staff

The Oracle Staff, chosen by the editor, is responsible for editing the yearbook. Its major objective is to "get a good book out on time."

Philalethea

The Philalethean Literary Society helps its members to develop literary expression, to foster appreciation of literature and music, and to establish a methodical manner of transacting business.

Philomusea

Our motto is, "Here to educate and drill ourselves for life." Philomusians receive drill in parliamentary procedure, and practice in impromptu and extemporaneous speaking.

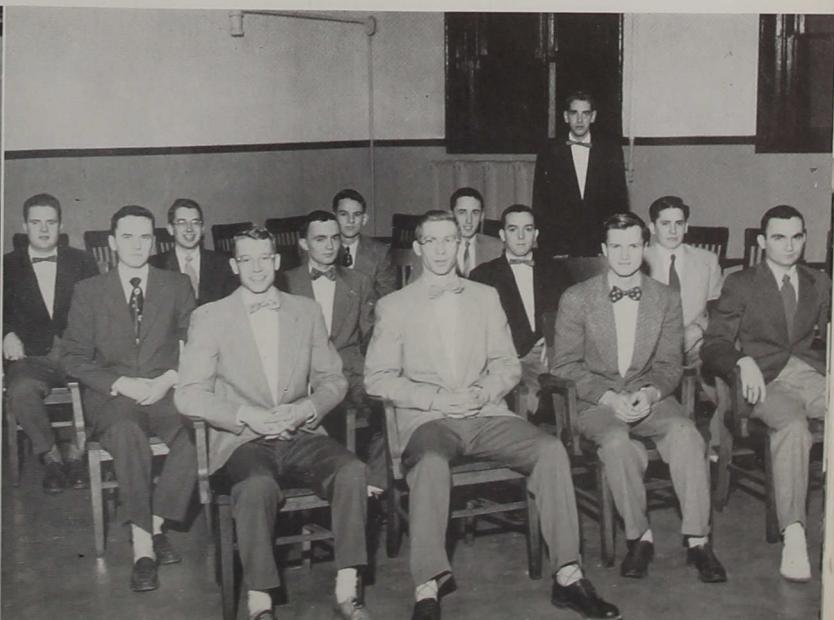

Theacallosia

This group endeavors to develop high ideals of truth and beauty in literature, and to perfect themselves in the practice of parliamentary procedure.

Zetagathea

Zetagathea creates, through parliamentary conduct, an atmosphere of orderly fellowship, in which members can develop interests and abilities in good literature, without sacrificing human values.

Band

The Band and Symphonette provide a background of music literature for Music Majors and serve as an avocation for other members.

Symphonette

Each organization makes public appearances during the school year and features soloists from time to time.

A typical view of choir members as they cram into a bus on a singing tour.

Choir

The Choir helps its members develop a choral repertoire and choral techniques. It serves in a public relation capacity by singing in churches, high schools, and at community affairs.

Phi Sigma Mu

Phi Sigma Mu, a national honorary fraternity, promotes music education and strives to bring about a greater unity of music students and educators throughout the country.

"C" Association

The principal activities of the "C" Association include the crowning of the Homecoming Queen, the promotion of Athletic Banquets, and the sponsoring of the Class Tourney.

Women's Athletic Association

The W. A. A. sponsors a program of extra curricular activities and gives appropriate awards for outstanding accomplishment and sportsmanship.

Booster Club

Our aim is to make enough money to buy sweaters for initial and senior letter winners through concession sales at basketball games and dormitory coke machines.

Business Club

The Business Club offers to its members many opportunities of becoming better acquainted with the problems facing the business men and women of today.

This group endeavors to advance the interests of the teaching profession and to promote the educational welfare of children through the building of a democratic civilization.

Future Teachers of America

I. A. Y.

I. A. Y. is a women's organization whose primary objective is service—to the college, community, and world. It seeks to develop friendships, promote the extension of knowledge and cultural appreciations, and to build character.

Alpha Phi Omega

The aim of A. P. O. is to assemble college men in the fellowship of the Scout Oath and Law, to develop friendship, and to promote service to humanity.

Student Wives

We wives share common interests at our monthly meetings. Bake sales help pay for the projects we sponsor, such as the new flag in front of the Administration building.

Vesta Club

Through activities in Vesta Club, students have opportunity to gain social and professional experience which will contribute to their effectiveness as individuals, citizens, and homemakers.

Pan Linguist

The Pan Linguists Club is composed of those students interested in furthering their knowledge of foreign countries through the study of languages and cultures.

Sigma Zeta

It is the objective of Sigma Zeta to encourage the study of science and to recognize the attainment of high scholarship among students.

Faculty Women's Club

To promote fellowship among its members and to develop a program that will lead to the social improvement and welfare of both students and faculty is the aim of this organization.

Phi Alpha Epsilon

It is the purpose of this group to give proper public recognition to freshman students whose scholastic attainment has been meritorious, and by their election, to encourage in them high ideals of scholarship.

Alpha Psi Omega

The Gamma Theta Cast encourages an interest in dramatics and rewards students' efforts by electing them into the large national fraternity. The one-act play, "A By-Line for St. Luke," was presented to the student body and visitors.

English Club

The English Club is open to any student interested in literary art. The program for the year includes dinner and initiation parties, a theater party, book review and travelogue.

Central Ministerial Association

The C. M. A. attempts to promote spiritual growth and fellowship, and offers opportunities for service to those young men studying for the ministry.

Girl's Mission Guild

The G. M. G. promotes Christian living on our campus and in our mission fields. Its purpose is one of Christian love and service.

"Up and Atom"

Producers of a play, sponsors of a carnival, editors of a yearbook, and hosts for the Junior Senior Banquet— yes, the Junior Class has been an active one.

Kathryn Langford, Treasurer; Joanne Dennis, Secretary; Margaret Ewert, President; Leroy Rapp, Vice President.

"Murder in Rehearsal"

Our Opera Star, Mom Engle

Sweethearts, Nancy and Ray, look over the program at the Sweetheart Banquet.

A Merry Christmas for Gunars. Maybe not quite the same as in the "Old Country", but merry just the same!

Variety - The Spice of Life

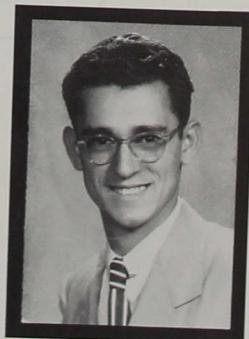

Ron Hauswald, Vice-President; Bill Bright, President; and Carolyn Smitley, Secretary-Treasurer.

Sophomores

This year's Sophomore Class proved to be one of beauty. It walked away with the Homecoming Queen election and the Cherry Blossom nomination.
