Dedication.

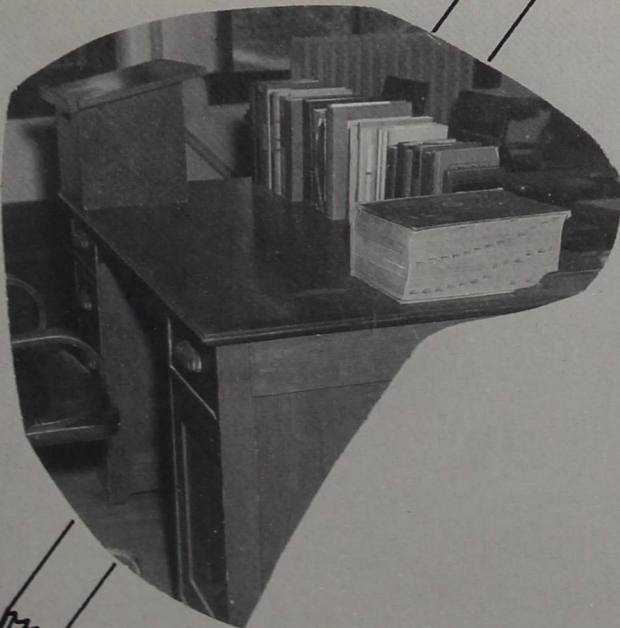

Students, faculty, alumni, and business men have been striving for a new Academic Hall at Indiana Central. As the hopes grow higher and the approaching day of commencement grows nearer, sacrifices that have been made by all seem of lesser importance to each individual. These sacrifices are soon to be rewarded in a spirit of pride and unity which will long outlive the pains of the efforts made.

To those people who are dedicating their lives to make Indiana Central's new administration building a reality, we dedicate this book.

I. Lynd Esch, A.B., Th.M. Ph.D., D.D., LL.D., President

Indiana Central College's chief executive, I. Lynd Esch, has successfully guided the school with diligence and Christian faith. In past years his philosophy has welcomed freshmen, has become an integral part of departing seniors, and has inspired both students and faculty. As he has previously watched Indiana Central grow with pride, he will be realizing one of his greatest accomplishments when the ground is broken for a new administration building.
