Kaleidoscope of Fall Color and Activity

A rough and tumble soccer game provides plenty of exercise.

Brown County Day was . . . no classes . . . volleyball games with profs . . . one-legged sack races . . . Dean and Mrs. Cramer pedalling away on a tandem bike . . . sophs dunking frosh in tug-of-war . . .

A beautiful October day and the rolling countryside near Nashville provided a setting for Central's annual outing.

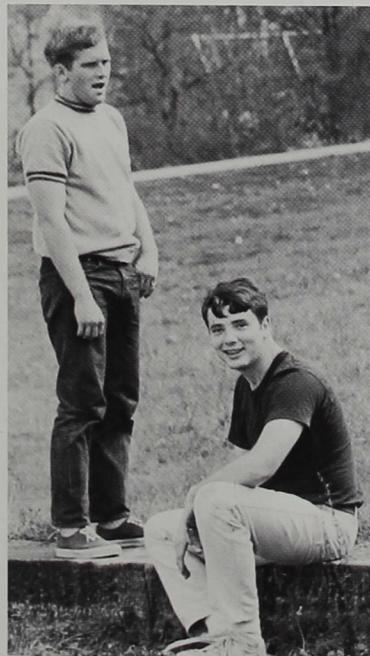

Some choose to be spectators rather than participate.

Bill Friend struggles to help sophs in tug-of-war.

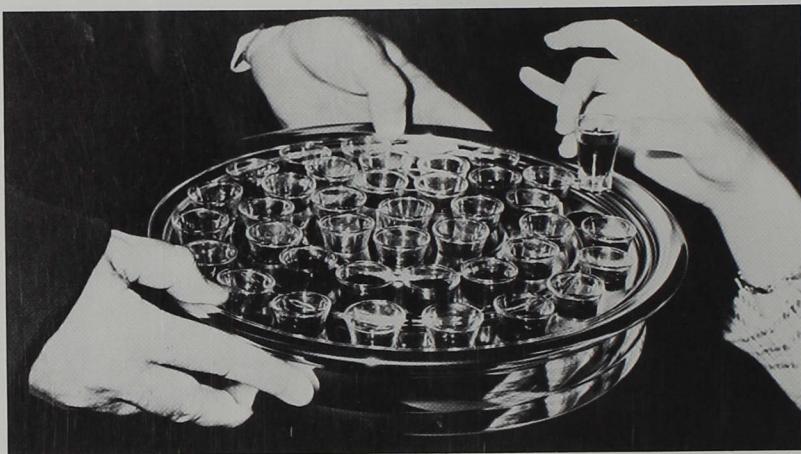

Students anxiously await start of the traditional tug-of-war.

Two carefree Centralites.

The fire tower is a famous landmark to all.

Dr. Jones addresses chapel.

Donna Stone and Sister Lucy talk with speaker.

Profs discuss the issues of R.E. Week over a cup of coffee.

R.E. Week Triggers Thought and Comment

Dr. Jones urges students to "talk out" their problems in confab.

Jo Ellen Spencer chats with Dave Henry.

The Meaning or Madness of R.E. Week . . . Jameson Jones . . . a lecture on "The Graduate" . . . stimulating confabs . . . "Can the Computer Replace God?" . . . a Communion service . . . a chance for introspection . . . a time for prayer . . . a pause to look around and rediscover . . . God Religious Emphasis Week proved to be a probing and meaningful week. The careful planning of Donna Stone contributed to the success of the week.

Convos Stimulate Thought and Action

Some students find the chapel hour an excellent time to catch up on lost sleep.

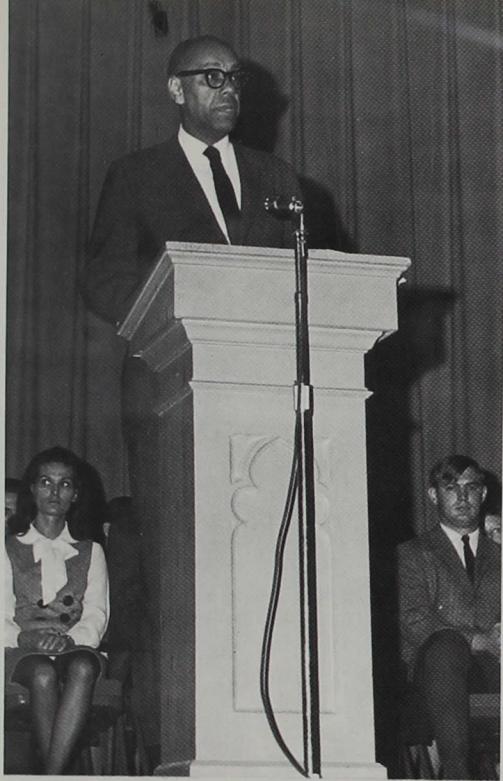

Cathy Knecht, Walt Maxson, Don Cossairt, and John Bailey match wits with other scholars in the class quiz.

Chapel meant...

Honors Day speakers . . . traditional opening chapels . . . drama productions . . . Mr. Lamberson playing pop tunes . . . assigned seats . . . required attendance . . . sleeping . . . demonstrations . . . people walking out during speeches . . . campaigning for candidates . . . insulting and interesting speakers . . .

The chapel convocations committee again attempted to lift the student body "from the morass of provincialism to the high plateaus of cosmopolitanism." Sometimes they succeeded; sometimes they failed.

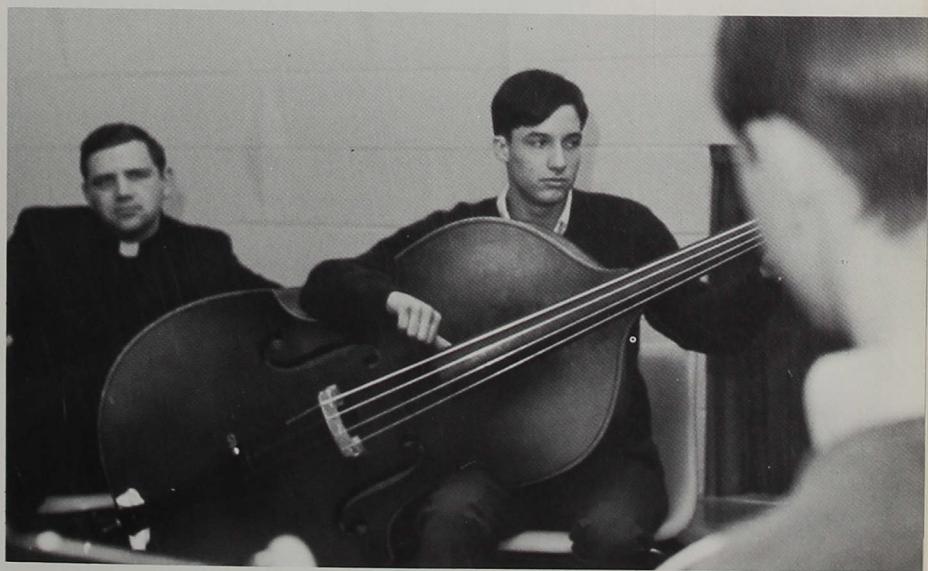

Dr. Alexander M. Moore addresses the student body on "The Challenge of Today" at the annual Honors Day convocation.

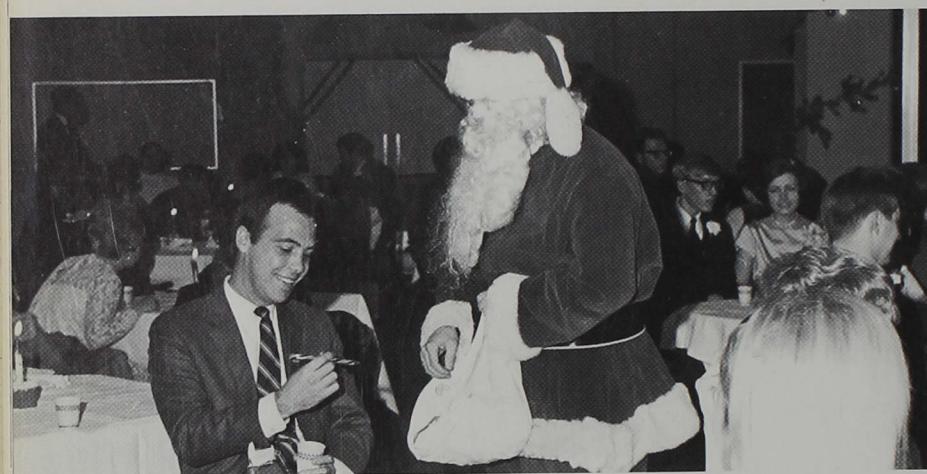

Members of the drama department apply make-up prior to a chapel presentation.

A Catholic folk mass highlights a Friday evening convocation.

Marlowe Mullen sells Beta Theta pledge, Denny Walker, at the annual W.U.S. auction.

Dances Add Glamour to Social Activities

Santa even has a present for Professor Wiehe.

Dances were . . .
sock hops after games . . . mixers to welcome everyone back in the fall . . . held in Schwitzer concourse . . . outdoor dances on the horseshoe . . . casual . . . semi-formal . . . formal . . . good music . . . fond memories . . .

Dances ranged from the casual to the formal and added much to the ever growing number of social activities at Central throughout the year.

Santa Claus has a gift for everyone at the Christmas dance.

Two Centralites, Rudy Finnell and Jim Frazee, and their combo entertain students at the winter dance.

The thirty-five members of the Nursing Class of 1970 repeat the Nightingale Pledge during the traditional capping service.

Dr. Gene Sease delivers the keynote address on "Sticks and Stones . . . and Broken Bones."

Nurses Receive Newly Designed Caps

The annual Nurses' Capping meant . . . thirty-five nursing students well on their way to graduation . . . "Education for Service" . . . parents and friends . . . best wishes . . . Dr. Gene Sease's address on "Sticks and Stones . . . and Broken Bones" . . . replicas of the Florence Nightingale lamp . . . new caps . . . the Nightingale Pledge . . . the beginning of a life of service . . .

The impressive Nurses' Capping service highlighted the year for the Nursing Class of 1970. As parents and friends watched with pride, thirty-five coeds received the newly designed caps.

The Lyric Trio, composed of artists in residence at Central, graces the annual Artist Series schedule.

The drummer turns on at the Ramsey Lewis Trio concert that highlighted the Homecoming weekend.

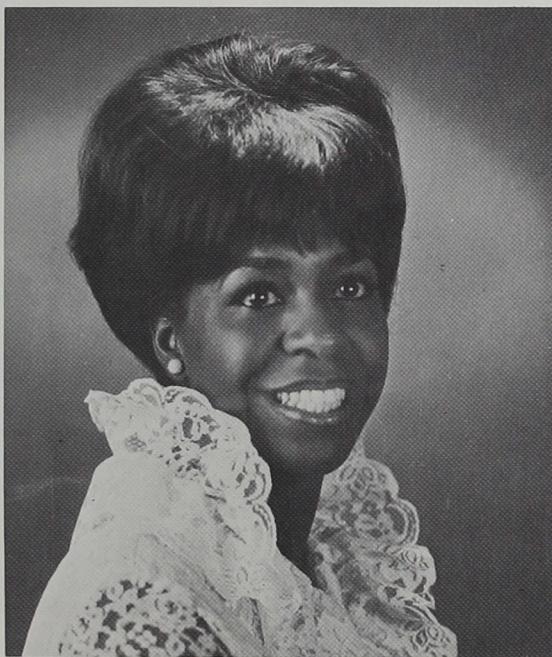

Ralph Nader discusses the safety of today's automobiles.

Artist Series Culturally Enlightening

The 1968-69 Artist Series . . .
fantastic concert by Ramsey Lewis Trio . . . Ralph Nader . . . chamber music . . . Bernice Fraction . . .
candid comments about the automobile industry . . . the Lyric Trio . . . enchanting story of a shrew . . .

The annual Artist Series provided an excellent list of cultural opportunities for the community and the student body.

Bernice Fraction charms every audience with her delightful voice.

Kate submits to her husband's demands in the National Shakespeare Company's presentation of "The Taming of the Shrew".

MUNA Focuses on International Problems

The officers listen to discussion on a pending resolution.

MUNA was ...

Mayor Lugar's address . . . pickets and posters . . . assassination plots . . . foreign costumes . . . "point of order" . . . "Mr. President" . . .

The student directed Model United Nations General Assembly attracted campus wide attention during its three-day session.

May Festival—Night of Regal Pageantry

Joanne Martin performs for queen.

1968 Queen Donna Moore

The 1968 May Festival was . . .
pretty girls . . . thrilling gymnastics show . . . suspense . . . a radiant and happy queen . . .

Everyone was breathless with anticipation as they waited for the new May Festival Queen to be introduced. Finally Marg Meyer, Sharon Jones, Lynn Parks, and Angie Rogers were escorted to the stage followed by the 1968 May Festival Queen, Donna Moore.

Graduation: Projection and Reflection

Bachelors degrees are conferred.

Graduation was . . .
trying on mortar boards and robes
. . . moving out of the dorm . . .
presents . . . saying good-by to friends . . . the promise of new jobs and different places to go . . .

Anxiety, doubt, and joy were all mixed together as the Class of '68 marched to the gym to receive their long-awaited degrees. Later they emerged ready to assume their demanding roles as leaders and builders of our society.

New Coach Sparks Winning Tennis Season

Practice makes perfect.

Tennis 1968 was . . . an experienced team . . . a new coach . . . six returning lettermen . . . fifth place in the H.C.C. . . . all conference man, Ron Young . . . a 5—4 season record . . . spring and fall tennis schedules . . .

Wayne Babbitt, Central's new tennis coach, faced the season with high hopes and an enthusiastic team. The young coach was rewarded with a 5—4 season record.

Season Used to Build and Strengthen

The members of the 1968 baseball team, along with Coach Bright, played several rough games and travelled hundreds of miles during the rough season.

Baseball in the spring of 1968 meant . . . practice . . . ten returning lettermen . . . promising freshmen . . . more practice . . . strained muscles . . . a trip to Georgia . . . rained-out games . . . broken bones . . . a tough schedule . . . the desire to win . . . more practice . . . Central's baseball team, coached by Bill Bright, finished with a 15-16 season record. A trip through the southern states highlighted an otherwise uneventful year.

Hounds Lack Experience and Suffer Injuries

The 1968 Football season review included . . . victories at home and on the road . . . defeat . . . injuries . . . underclassmen gaining experience for next season . . . talented crop of freshmen . . . Willie Martin added to the coaching staff . . . high competitive spirit . . . inconsistency of defense and good team play . . .

The development of a future powerful passing offense resulted in a new individual pass reception record for Charles Jordan. A new single game team passing record and the highest season team passing offense mark were set. All-conference honors went to senior Stu DeVane.

Coach Dwyer watches Greyhound play from the sideline.

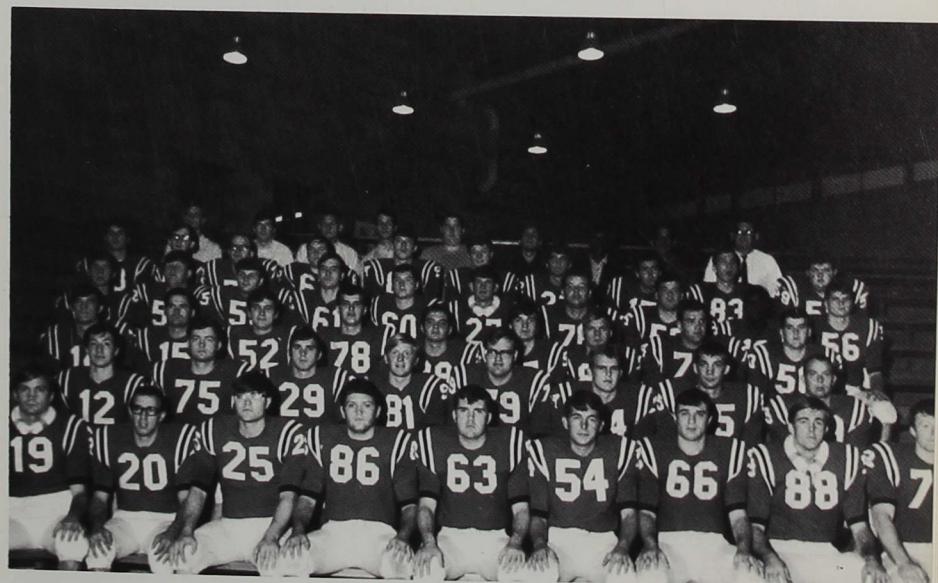

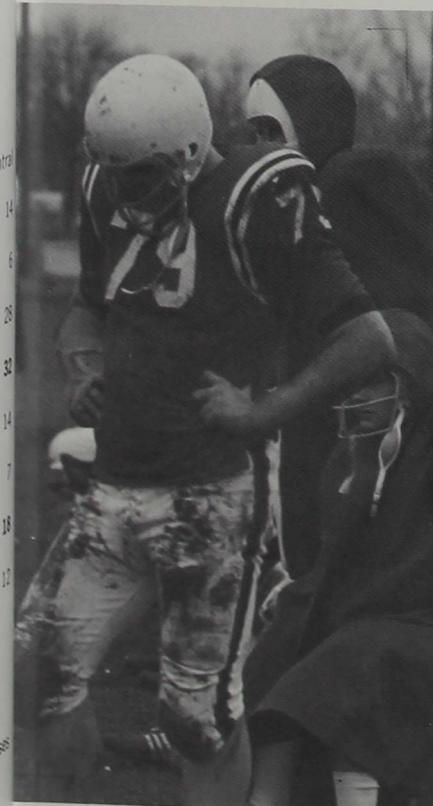

Freshman Tom McKay is carried from the field following a play in which he broke his right leg.

I.C.C. Hardwood Aces Plagued by Injuries

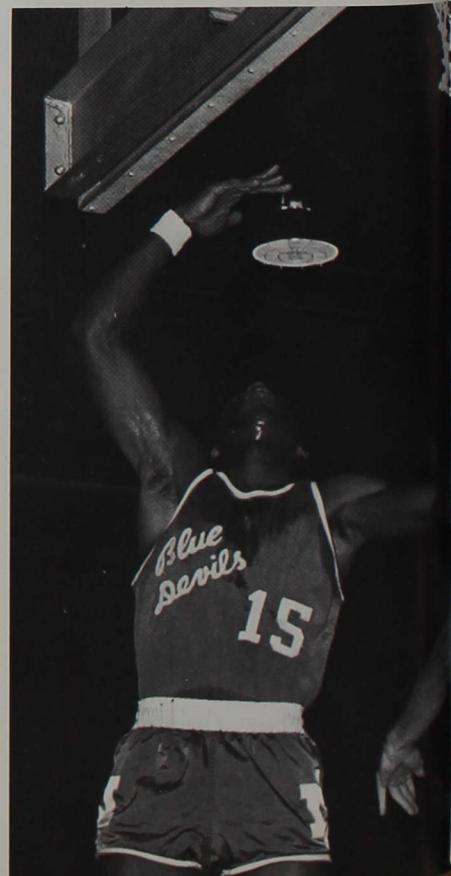

The pompon girls add glamour to the halftime activities.

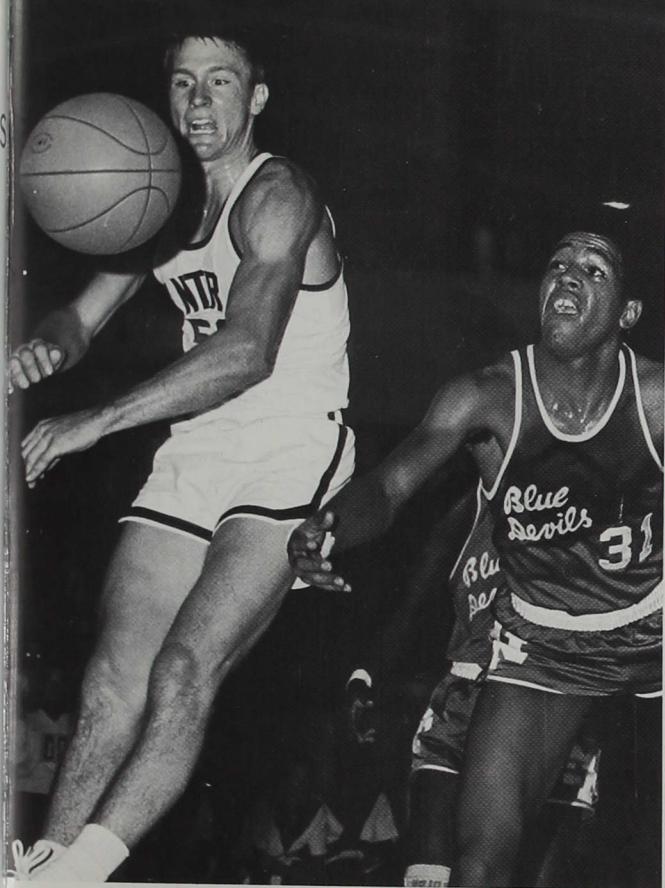

The 1968-69 Basketball Session meant...

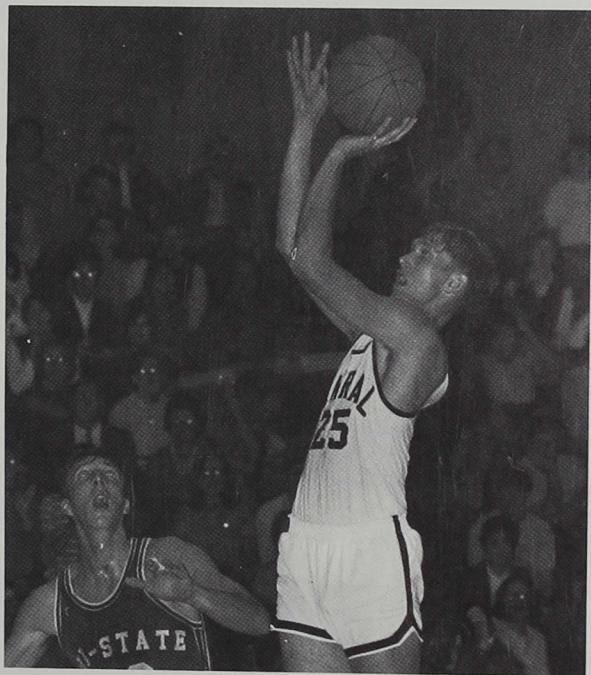

winning some, losing some . . . injuries . . . winning in the second half . . . close to the HCC title but not close enough . . . surprise upset victory in District 21 play-offs and a trip to Kansas City . . . practice and more practice . . . enthusiastic support from spirit corps, pep band and student body . . . a desire to win . . . excellent coaching by Angus Nicoson . . .

The basketball team tried valiantly to capture the HCC crown, but injuries and close games prevented that from happening. The dark horse Greyhounds went on to win the District 21 play-offs and represented the district at the national finals in Kansas City.

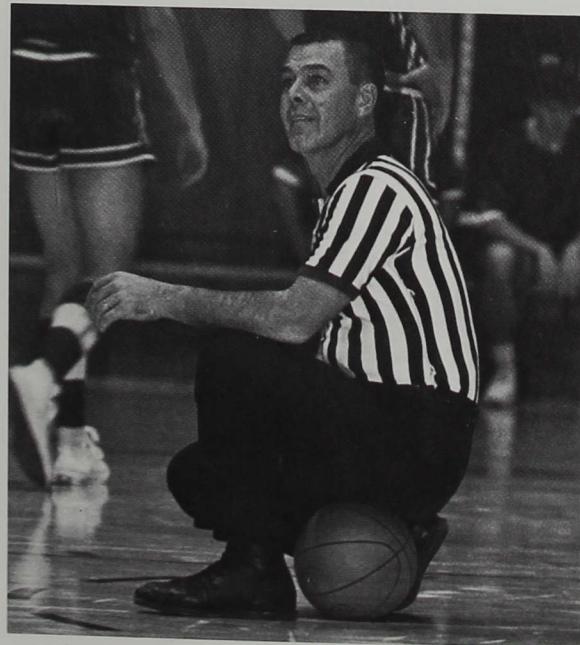

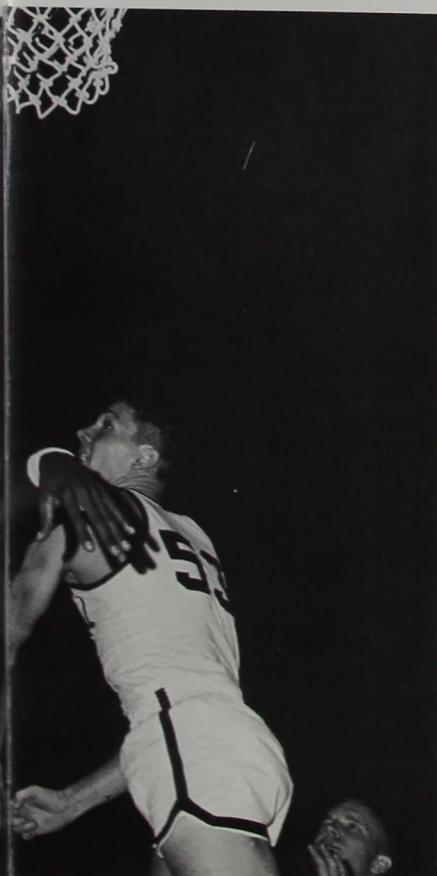

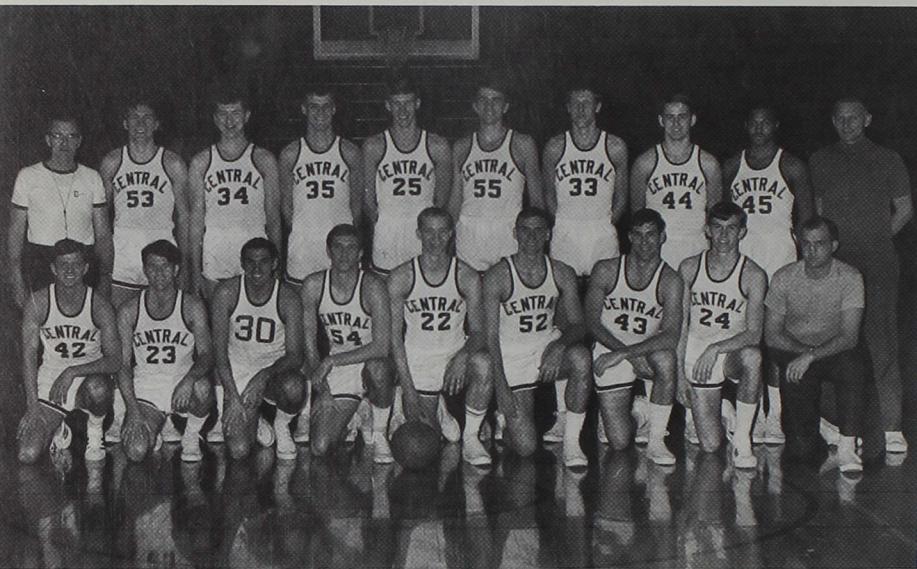

Bill Smock struggles to gain possession of the ball.

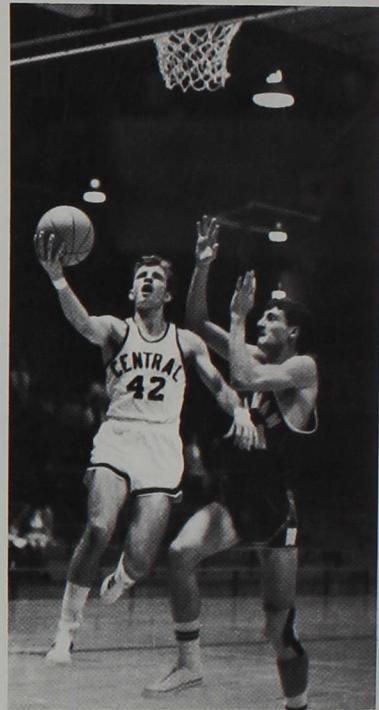

Ron Smith aims for two points.

Man is challenged today to excel in almost every endeavor . . . those who do succeed often trace the beginnings of their performance pattern to accomplishment in high school and to those who offered stimulation and inspiration in these formative years. Josten's has long been a partner to these educational leaders in providing a means of motivation and the rewards of recognition, and Josten's products have become tangible symbols honoring perseverance and achievement.

The class ring is representative of the fine traditions of school spirit and unity □ The yearbook provides a lasting memento of the year's accomplishments □ The diploma is a lifelong record of scholastic success □ The graduation announcement heralds this achievement □ Awards recognize academic and athletic leadership.

thinking ahead
puts you ahead

With an eye to the future,
these students have taken advantage of a unique Student Life insurance Plan called SLP.

What special advantages does SLP offer?

- 1) As a student you can buy $5,000 of life insurance protection for just $20 a year
- 2) You need no medical exam, if you're in good health
- 3) If you leave school, you may keep the policy
- 4) Later you may convert to permanent insurance—and double the amount of protection, regardless of your health at that time
- 5) If you become permanently and totally disabled, the policy continues with no further cost to you.

Call 923-7201 for more details

The Student Life Plan provides maximum
life insurance protection
per premium dollar.

Look at World Around Us

Have You Noticed ...
no parking spaces when evening classes
are in session ...
footprints in the snow ...
the ICC seal embedded in the concrete outside the library ...
the directional signs on I-465 ...
the new signs designating Trimble Hall and Academic ...
the new copier available to students in the library ...
English majors wearing Dr. Kellogg sweatshirts ...
the book exchange bulletin board in Schwitzer ...
the new photography studio in the basement of Academic ...
the recently acquired paintings in Schwitzer ...
the new cadenza in the lounge of Krannert ... the increased use of the recreation room in Schwitzer ...

Library—Realm of Research

Sounds of Knowledge Being Absorbed . . .
sound of pages being turned . . .
the faint whisper of a tape or record being played . . .
an exasperated sigh . . .
whispering questions back and forth across the table . . .
books being checked out . . .
magazines and newspapers being read . . .
librarians helping students search for material . . .
someone typing in the Krannert Room . . .
a prof holding class in the conference room . . .
someone just browsing through the long rows of books . . .

Familiar Daily Occurrences

Just Like Always . . .
George Gordon taking attendance in chapel . . .
reading those special letters . . .
getting a snack in the Campus Cupboard . . .
hurrying from class to class . . .
always behind . . .
not enough hours in the day . . .
another test or quiz . . .
good days and bad days . . .
dreaming about the future . . .
trying to face reality . . .
putting everything off until tomorrow . . .
cramming . . .

Ordinary Things Fade Away

The Year Drew to a Close ...
Schwitzer was silent ...
an empty parking lot ...
vacant dorms ...
silent classrooms ...
deserted halls ...
no laughing voices ...
profs on vacation ...
clean blackboards ...
well waxed floors ...
That was the 1968-69 school year. In a short while a new year will begin.

We wish to express our deepest gratitude to those who helped make the 1969 Oracle a reality: Mr. Bill Wright, our adviser from the American Yearbook Company; Mr. Ray Marquette and the members of his journalism class who came to our aid on more than one occasion; Mr. Leonard Pearson for his advice; and all those who helped us with words of encouragement and acts of moral support.
