Students find time to relate to others

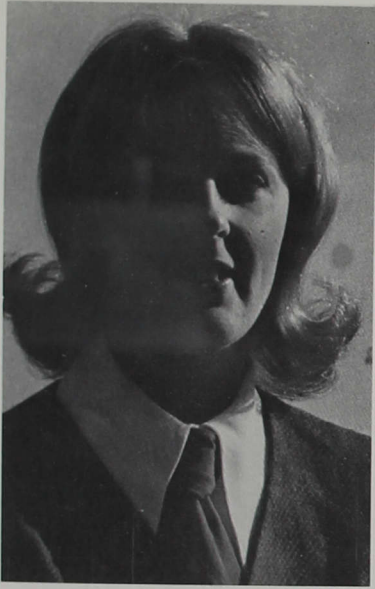

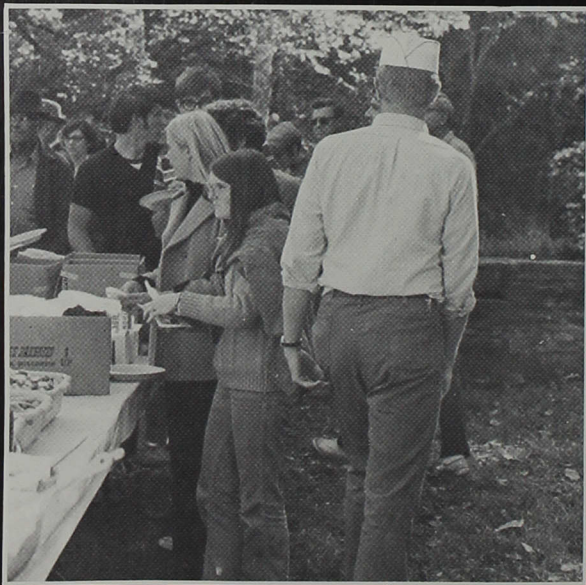

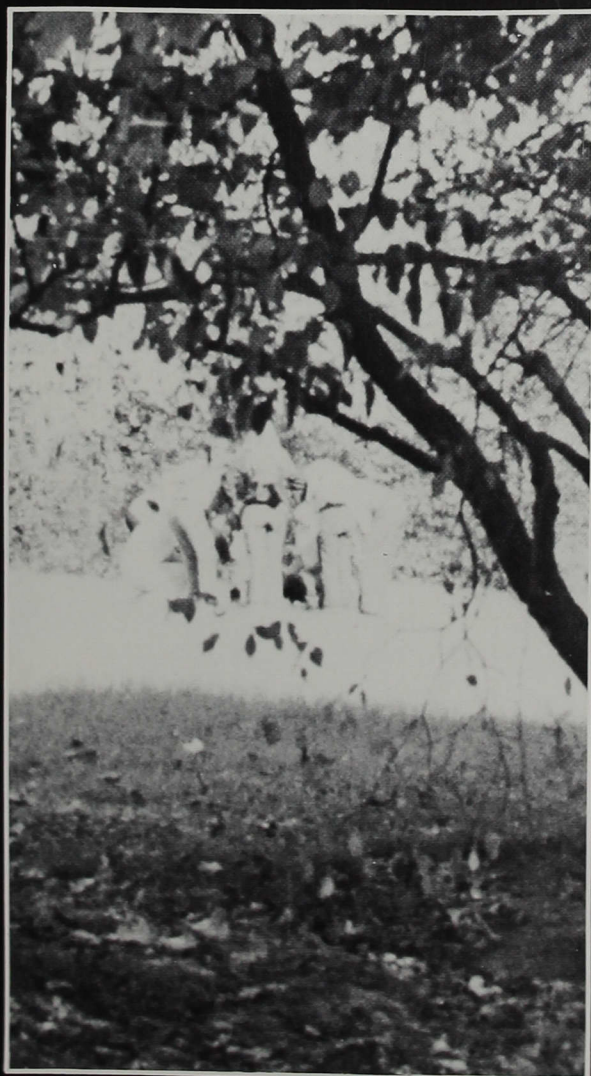

Homecoming Queen chosen by students

The Homecoming Queen for 1971 was Karen Rogers, a junior music major from Arcanum, Ohio. The candidates, chosen by the "C" Association are, as shown, Debbie Bowles, a sophomore, Chris Hodgkins, freshman, Susan Klingerman, senior, Cheryl McBride, a freshman, and Karen. Various clubs and dorms contributed to the day's decorations.

Aldo Bertorelli Visits ICC for Sesquicentennial Event

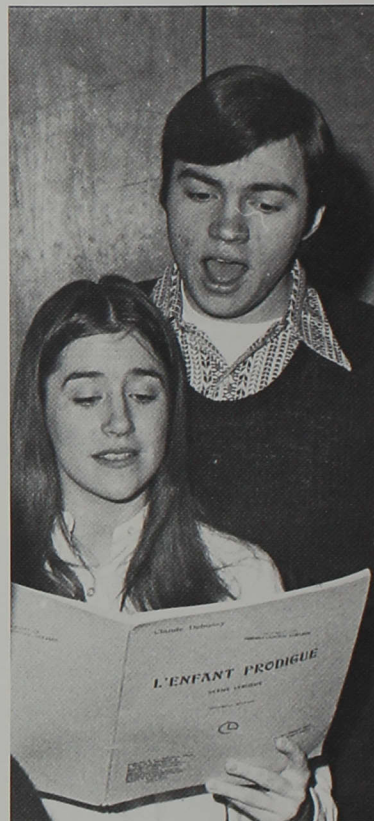

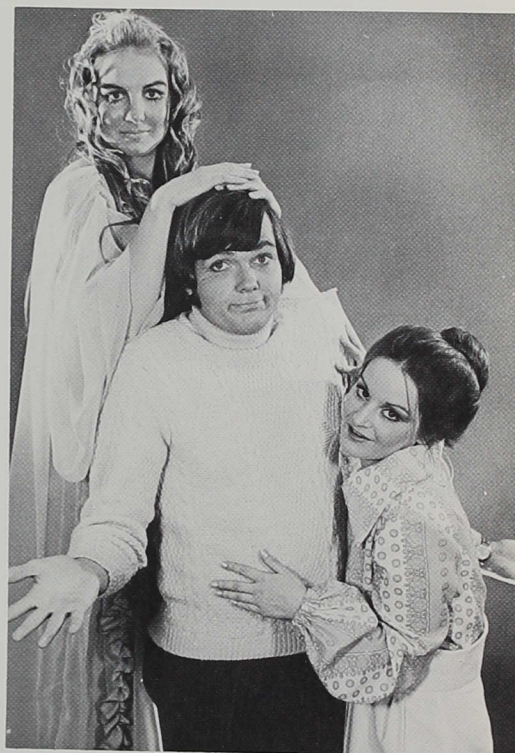

With Aldo Bertorelli as guest performer, the ICC Drama Department participated in the Indianapolis Sesquicentennial celebration with the performance of "King Lear". Also visiting campus was Sesquicentennial Queen, Diana Buchanan.

Drama Dept.
always busy

ICC students Karen Rogers, Bruce Haddix and Richard Brown participated in the Opera Workshop's "The Prodigal Son." Other ICC productions were "The Boyfriend" and "Blythe Spirit".

Coffee House
run by kids

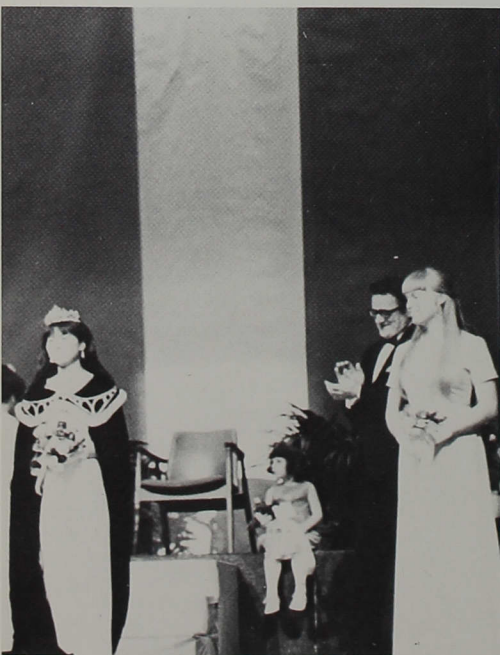

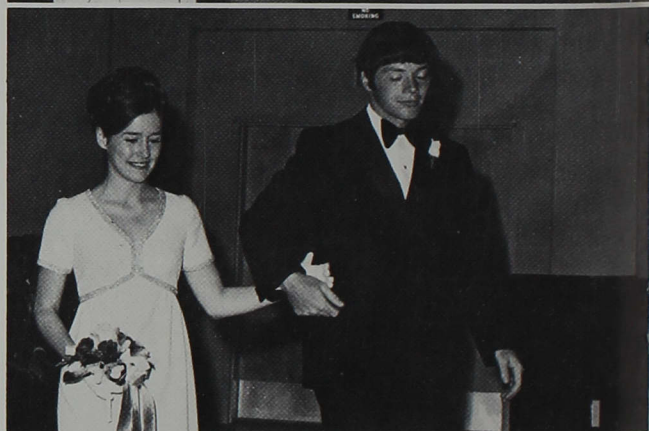

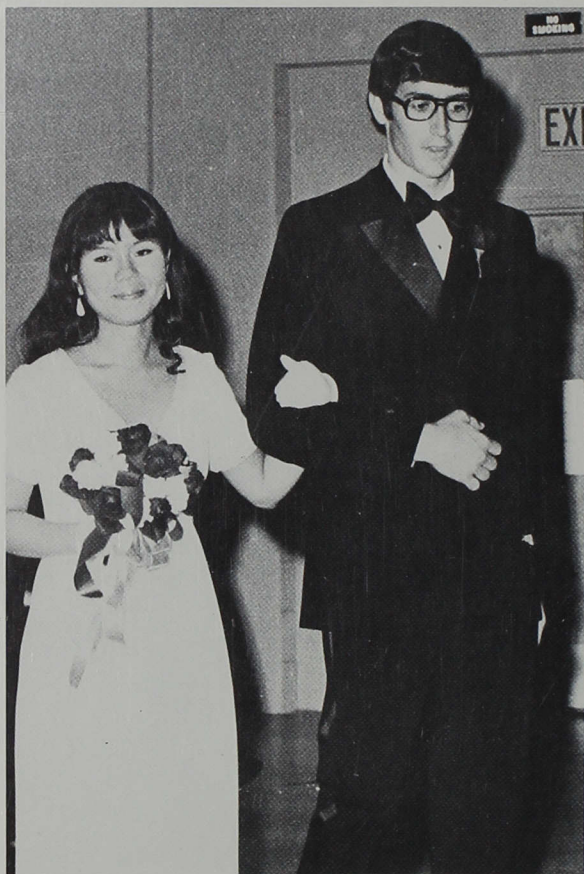

As a part of Freshman Orientation, members of the sophomore class presented a talent assembly, with various skits, songs and jokes.

Campus Queen announced at annual May Festival

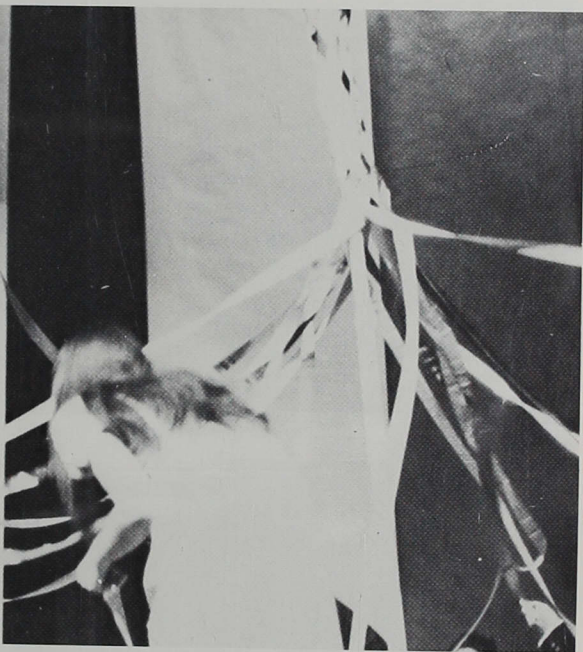

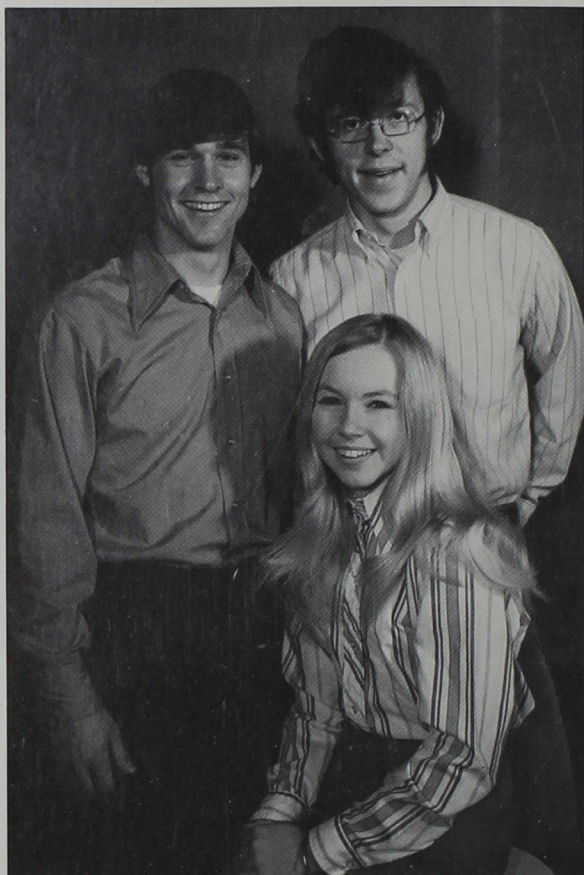

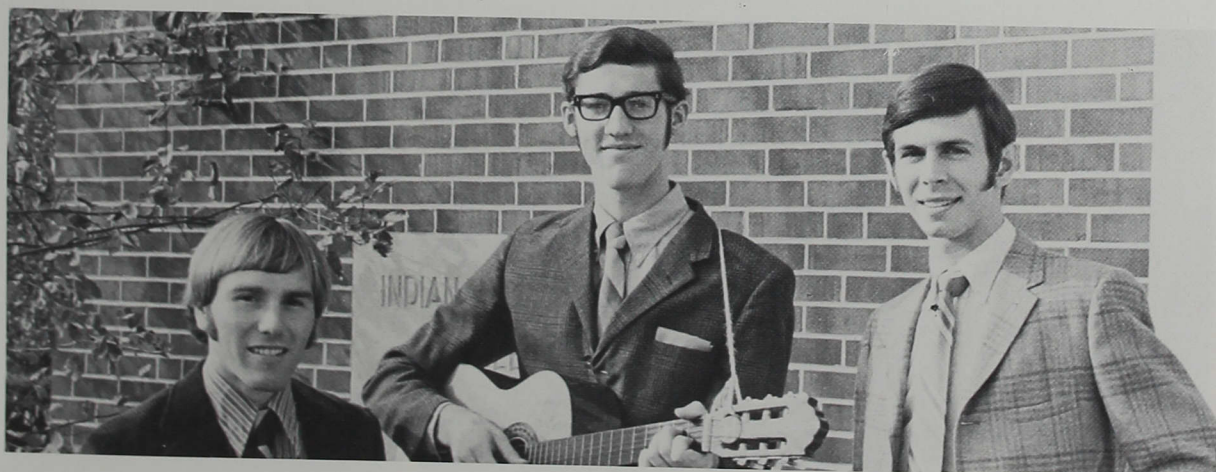

Junior Jessie Chan was chosen as Campus Queen for 1972-1973 by the ICC student body. Other candidates were Lynn Hilsamer, Karen Rogers, Cynthia Stith and Nancy Catt.

Brian Boroughs singing for outgoing queen Linda Smith and the wrapping of the May Pole provided the evening's entertainment.

Deputation groups travel to entertain

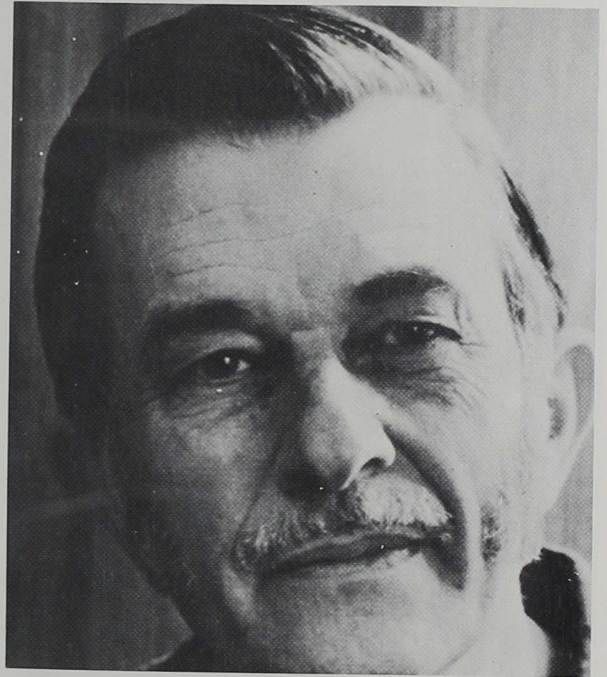

The Music Department consists of several groups which entertain both students and residents of Indianapolis. Among these are the Symphonic Wind Ensemble, the Concert Orchestra, the Concert Choir and the Pep Band.

Many distinguished speakers at Chapels

Among the chapel programs for 1971-1972 were Mr. William Raspberry, an Indiana Central graduate, and Dr. Chad Walsh. Also appearing was the Lyric Trio; members are Arthur Tabachnick, Dorothy Munger and Shirley Evans Tabachnick.

WICR service to community

In addition to its scheduled programming, Indiana Central's radio station, WICR, broadcasts all of Central's home athletic contests and many of the away ones. Bob Rothrock and Steve Hurst are in charge of this home basketball game.

Indiana Central seniors selected to "Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities", are; Tim Cooper, Dave Fox, John Davis, Jim Lawley, Brian Thompson, Rick Gregory, Nate Everett, John Stewart, Tina Morwick, Carol Herzog, Pam Abbey, Jackie Lee, Susan Shockey and Alan Hess.
