ORACLE 72-73

INDIANA CENTRAL COLLEGE
INDIANAPOLIS, INDIANA
VOL. 54

An old man, going a lone highway,
Came at the evening, cold and grey,
To a chasm, vast and deep and wide,
Through which was flowing a sullen tide.
The old man crossed in the twilight dim-
That sullen stream had no fears for him;
But he turned, when he reached the other side,
And built a bridge to span the tide.

"Old man," said a fellow pilgrim near,
"You are wasting strength in building
here.
Your journey will end with the ending day;
You never again must pass this way.
You have crossed the chasm, deep and wide,
Why build you the bridge at the eventide?"

The builder lifted his old grey head.
"Good friend, in the path I have come," he said,

"There followeth after me today
A youth whose feet must pass this way.
This chasm that has been naught to me
To that fair-haired youth may a pitfall be.

He, too, must cross in the twilight dim;
Good friend, I am building the bridge for him."

ROSS
LUDWIG

The theme of the 1973 Oracle is "Building." With this theme in mind, we find it very fitting to dedicate this edition to Professor Ross Ludwig, Head of the Human Relations Department.

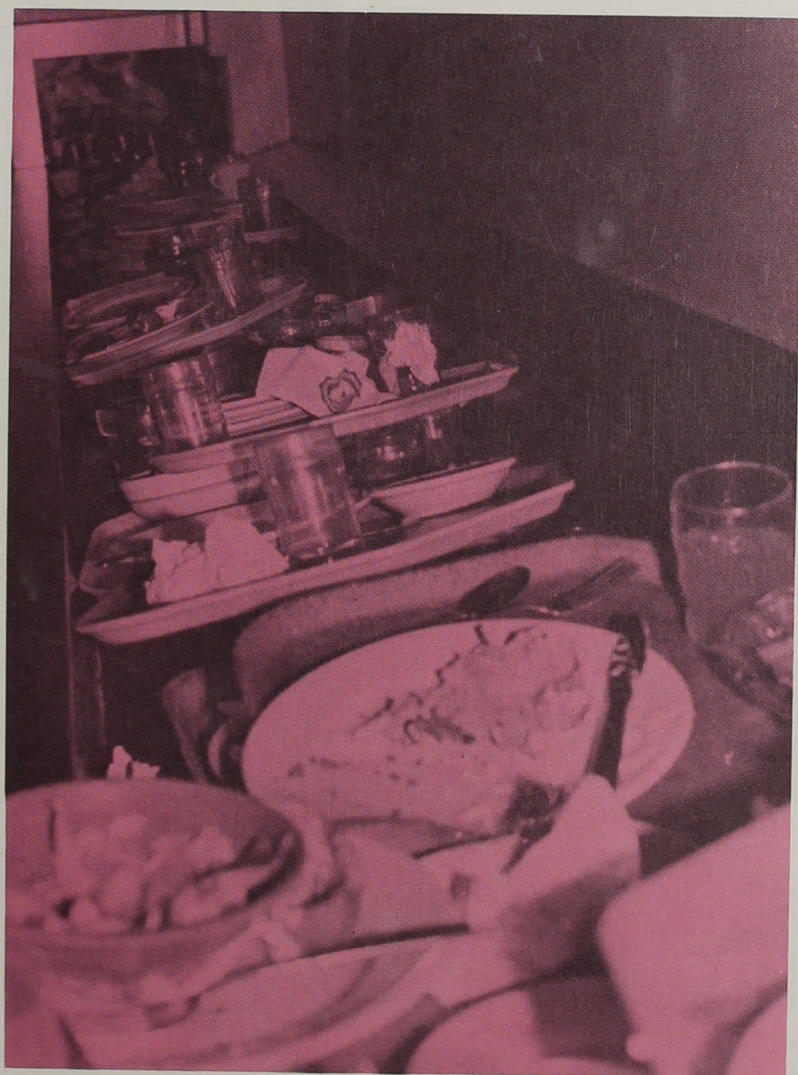

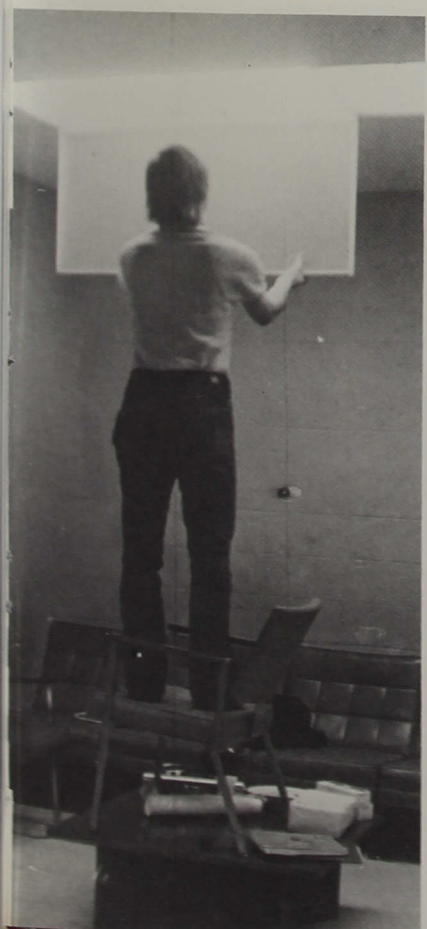

We find this dedication fitting not simply because Mr. Ludwig is retiring, but also because he has been, in every sense of the word, a builder at Indiana Central College.

He came here in 1966 as the Resident Administrator of the American Humanities Foundation. His job was to build a program to train and inspire young men and women as leaders in today's ever-important and expanding youth agencies.

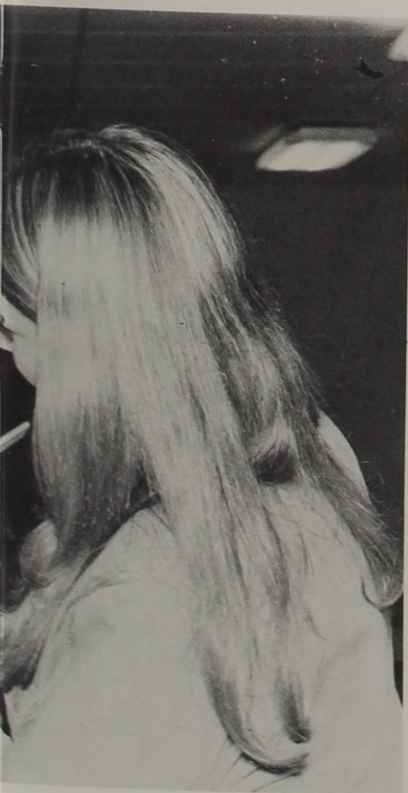

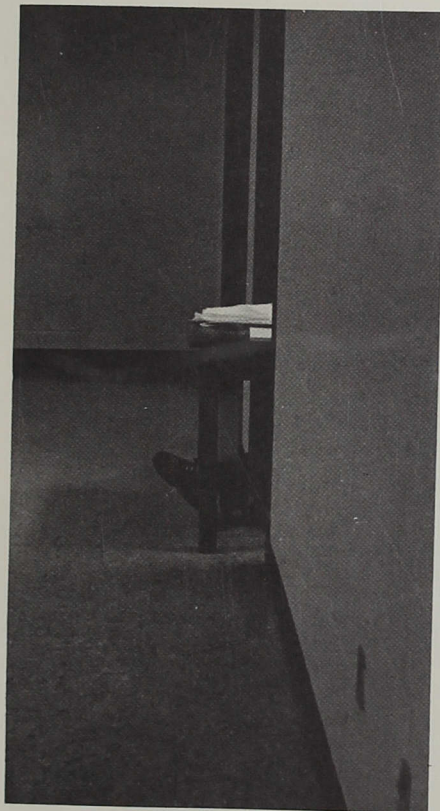

Mr. Ludwig began his work with four students in his department. He poured his foundation with patience and reinforced it with experience. He laid the bricks of the Humanities and cemented them with reason and understanding.

Professor Ludwig's work at Central has been more than a job well done. His time spent here has been a time well spent. We feel his rest will be a rest well earned.

BUILDING FRIENDSHIPS AND MEMORIES THROUGH ACTIVITIES

ACTIVITIES

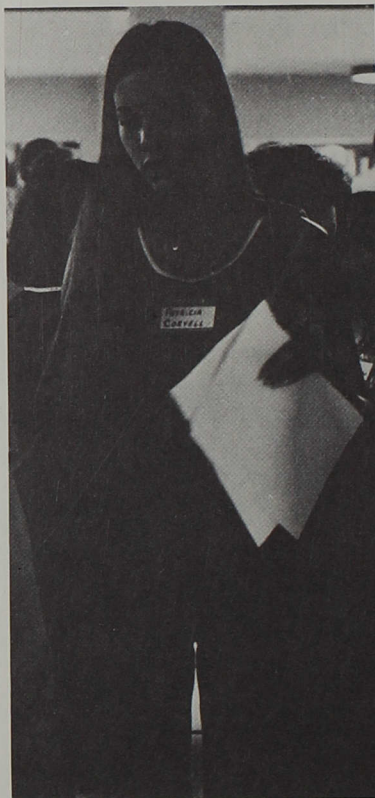

CENTRAL WELCOMES FRESHMAN CLASS

The freshman class, the class of 1976, is the largest class to ever enter Indiana Central. They came a few days early to get acquainted with the campus. Several sophomores and faculty members were on hand to welcome them.

Orientation activities consisted of meetings, get-acquainted dance, and other happenings planned by the sophomore orientation committee.

For many the first few weeks were filled with meeting new friends and getting to know the people at Central. Green and white beanies were a common sight about campus. Freshmen were often asked to perform tasks for the sophomores. All of this helped to make these new students a real part of Indiana Central.

TOP Gary Rowe and Mrs. Peterson explain the procedures of the following week to new freshmen.

RIGHT The cafeteria staff set up an ice sculpture for the freshman banquet.

MANY JOIN IN ANNUAL OUTING

On a sunny Tuesday in October, students and staff put away their books and journeyed to Brown County for food and fun. Football, sack races, hikes and water balloon toss were only a few of the recreational activities that were enjoyed by all. Even the house moms took an active part. Just ask Mom Bruce and Ken Hottell how the piggy-back race turned out. And of course, there was the annual tug-of-war between the frosh and sophomores, with the faculty joining in.

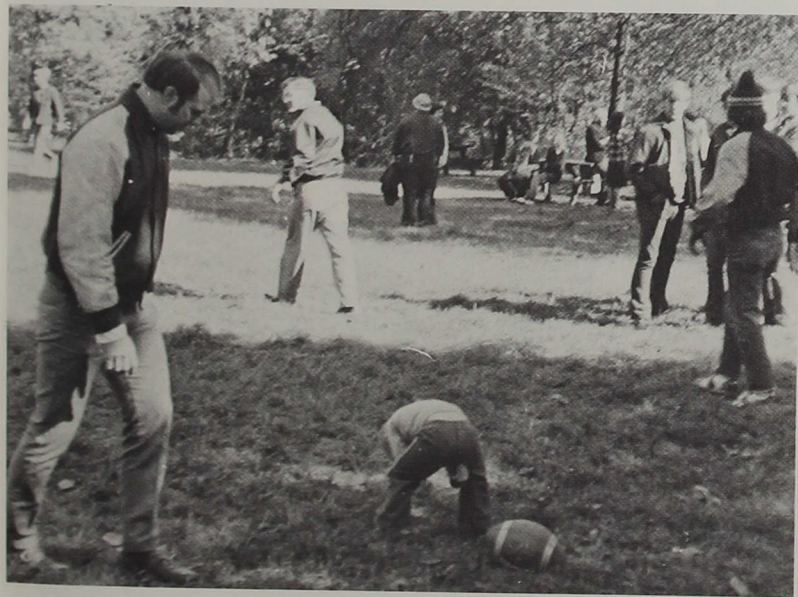

TOP Freshmen and friends pull with all their might to try to win the Tug-of-War.

ABOVE The Alpha Phi Omega sign announces Brown County Day and the hopes of sun for the day.

RIGHT Jenny Miller seems to be involved in downing all of her picnic lunch.

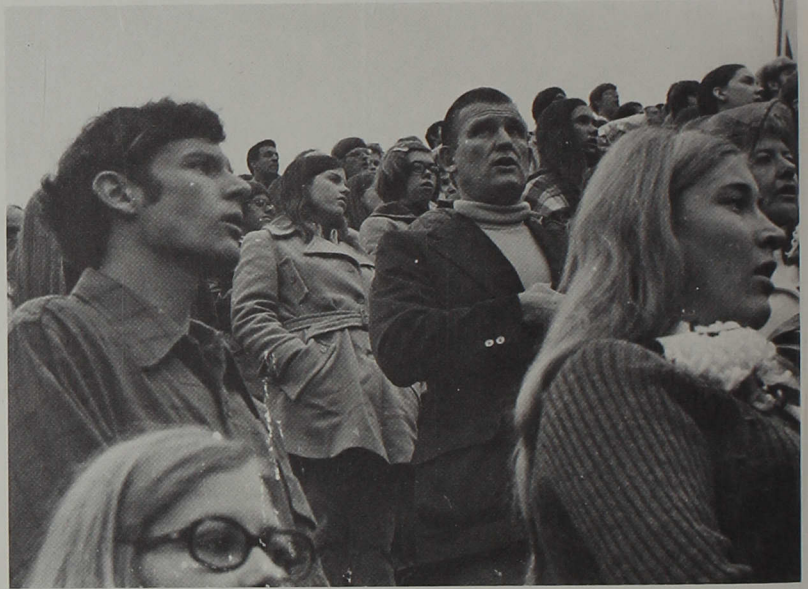

TOP Several hundred students and staff turned out for a day of fun. Here they are all sit down to the lunch provided by the cafeteria.

ABOVE Jim Brunnemer and son enjoy a little game of football, although the ball might seem too big for such a little boy.

BY LETTERMEN CONCERT

Rising at the crack of dawn to prepare displays was the first activity for many students on October 28. After the judging of displays, Centralites, parents and friends began filling Key Stadium to await the football game.

At half time the audience eagerly awaited the announcement of winners of the display contest. Debbie Baron, crowned by President Sease, reigned over the Homecoming activities.

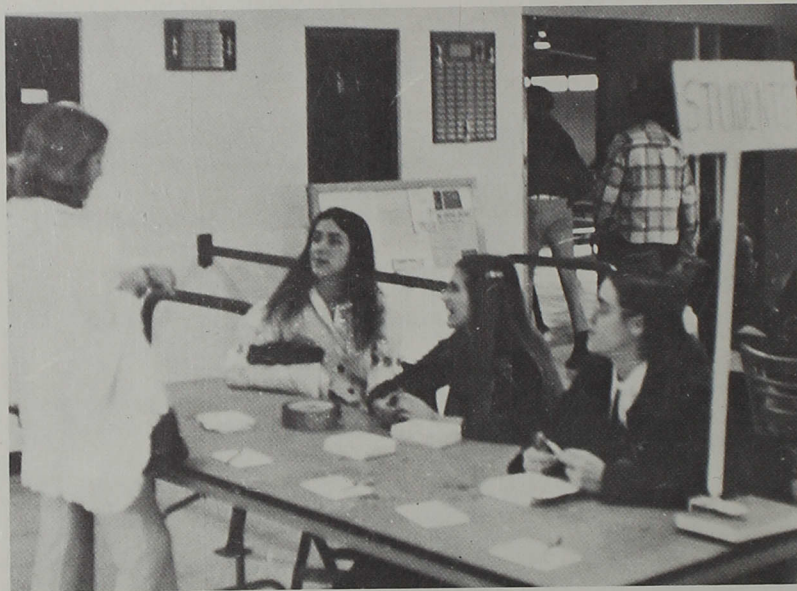

The highlight of the day was the concert by the Lettermen. They presented entertaining selections of both old and new songs.

LEFT The Lettermen belt out a favorite song for the audience.

BELOW Lettermen Gary Pike, Tony Butala, and Jim Pike enjoy working for college audiences.

HIGH SCHOOL STUDENTS VISIT CENTRAL

ABOVE RIGHT Martin McDaniel carries his supplies for the football game over to Key Stadium.

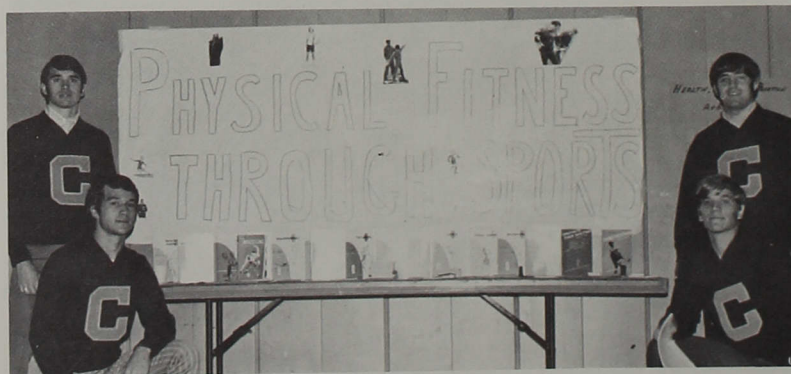

High school students from all over the state and even from other states came to Indiana Central on High School Day to talk to students and faculty. They registered in the gymnasium and then toured the display area around the top of the gym. Perhaps several of these students made a decision to apply for admission to Central.

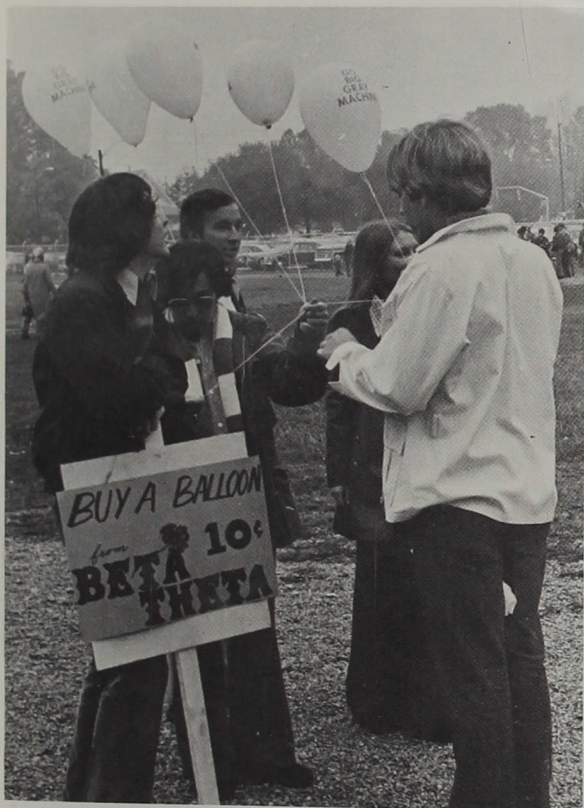

In the afternoon, fans filled the stadium to watch the Greyhounds in action. Although this concluded activities, many stayed 'til dusk.

RIGHT Carol Blauvelt explains the nursing program to interested students.

PARENTS ATTEND DADS' DAY ACTIVITIES

Registration, open house, Dads' Association meeting, lunch in the cafeteria, and the football game were the planned activities for Dads' Day. The families of the students turned out for the annual event. The cold weather didn't seem to dampen the spirits or the size of the crowd.

Central students thank their parents for their support. The fathers of the football players, pom-pom corps, and cheerleaders were honored during half time of the game.

LIFE AT CENTRAL IS BOTH WORK AND FUN

Whether it is studying for a final examination, playing the guitar or just having fun with friends in the dorm, life at Indiana Central is full of activities for those who look for it. Students can take advantage of the surroundings offered by a city such as Indianapolis. There is also the friendliness of the small campus, on which students get to know each other well.

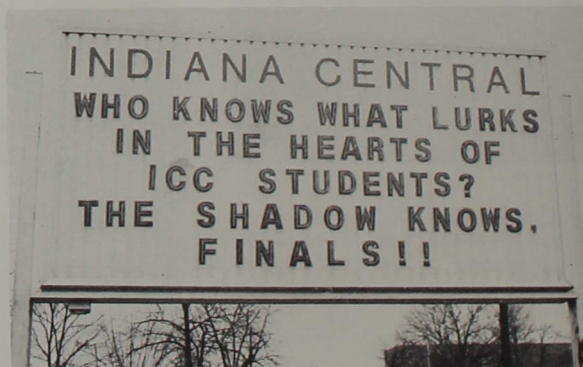

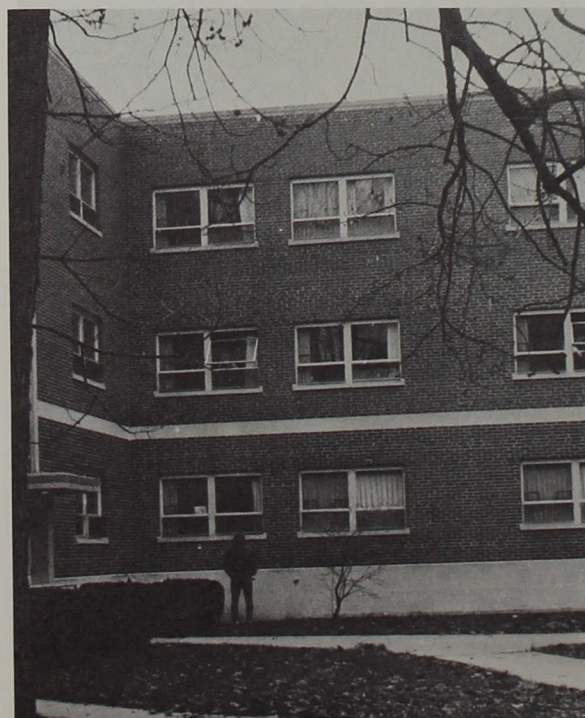

TOP Greg Dietz struggles with studies for his final the next day.

BELOW The ICC sign indicates THE week.

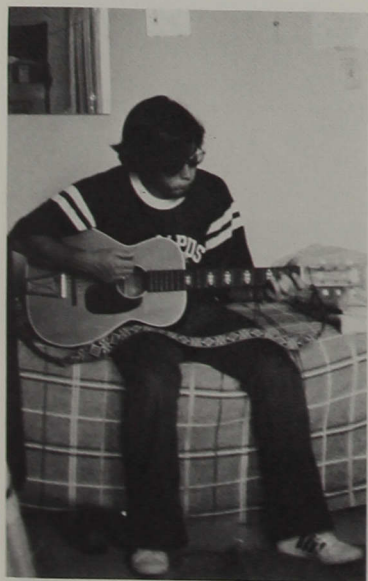

LEFT Doyle Harlos takes aim for another ball in the pocket.

BELOW Jim Douglass strums his guitar and sings along on an evening in Daily Hall.

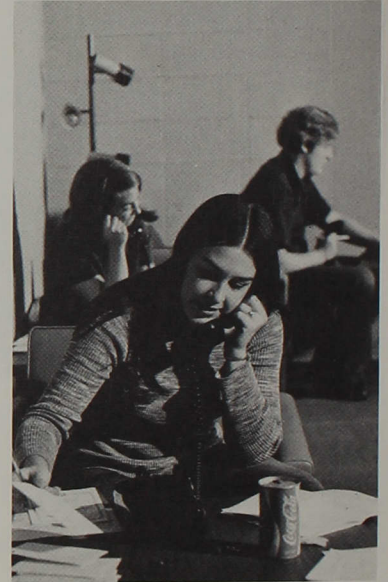

This year a telethon committee of students and faculty was formed. Their duty was to call alumni of Indiana Central and ask them to pledge money to the college. Although a lot of time was spent on this it was worth while. The volunteers raised a substantial amount which goes toward financing the expenses of a private institution, such as Central.

HARD WORK MAKES TELETHON A SUCCESS

DON'T BE A CLOT, GIVE BLOOD!

Alpha Phi Omega has organized and conducted a blood drive for the past two years. This is one of the services that the organization performs for the community and campus. Students who meet the qualifications and are willing to give a pint of their blood take a few minutes to help others. Some look at it this way, "it's a good way to clean the veins."

BELOW Dr. Sease looks to the nurse for reassurance.

THIRD ANNUAL PRESIDENT'S BALL

The Third Annual President's Ball was held at the Sherwood Country Club. President and Mrs. Gene Sease along with the campus queen Jessie Chan presided over the evening's festivities. Students and faculty danced to the music provided by the band.

BELOW The Sherwood Country Club is illuminated by a flood light.

DRAMA DEPARTMENT BUSY THIS YEAR

The Drama Department has presented four major productions during the 1973-1974 school year. One of which was the delightful musical "1776". It was a joint project involving both the drama and music departments. Other productions were "Othello", "You're a Good Man, Charlie Brown", and "A Man for All Seasons".

All productions required many hours of preparation on the part of the stage crew, costumers, lighting technicians, cast members, director, and many others. No play is easy to put together and all work toward the deadline of opening night.

Besides these major plays, several others are presented on a smaller scale to various audiences at Central and around the state.

RIGHT Jeff Smith, Rick Wright, and Jim Ream perform in "1776".

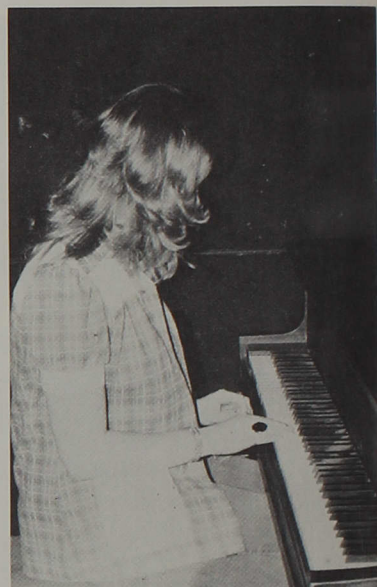

RIGHT Jim Ream and Rick Wright watch Sam Chamber as John Hancock signs the Declaration of Independence.

LEFT Bob Biggs and Joel Catlin duel in "A Man For All Seasons".

WHAT DO CENTRALITES DO ON WEEKENDS?

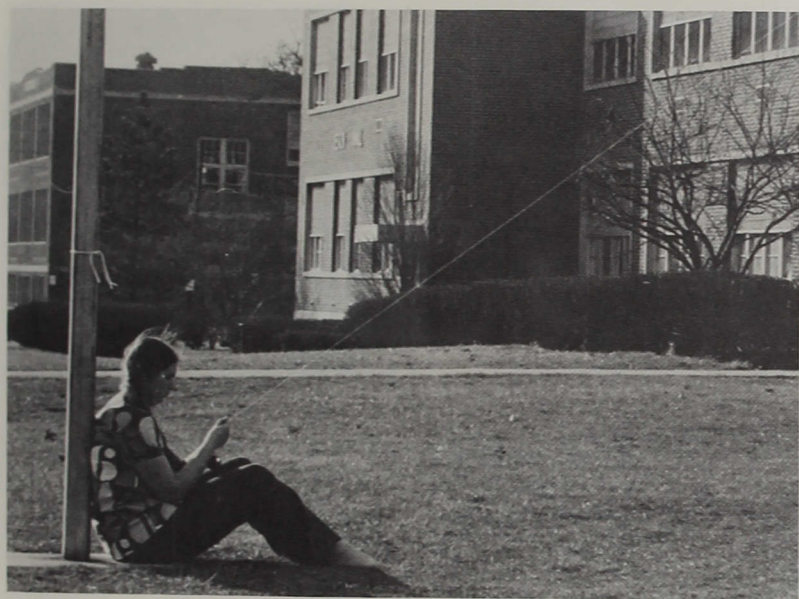

Besides go home, that is. Students find time to organize and attend greaser dances, music recitals, and nurse's capping. For some it's a time for being alone to think about the future, fly a kite, a walk across campus, or even study. For others it's having friends up to the room for a party during open house.

ABOVE Birdie Gunion practices on the piano.

SWEETHEART DANCE BEGINS LEAP WEEK ACTIVITIES

ABOVE Students enjoy talking and looking at the lovely fountain.

BELOW Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Gardner and Mr. and Mrs. Ron Coats enjoy being in the Newly Wed game.

The annual Sweetheart Dance began a week of fun-filled activities where the girls asked the guys to the various functions. Castleton Square Mall was the setting for "Traces of Love", the theme of the dance.

The following week there were such activities as a Midnight breakfast, Newly Wed game, Ice Skating party, and open house in the dorms. The faculty presented "Funky Follies" with one of the highlights being John Beebe as Burt Reynolds. They also showed baby pictures of members of the staff and had the audience guess their identity.

BELOW Dr. and Mrs. Sease trade partners for a dance.

SPECIAL ACTIVITIES HELD AT CENTRAL

ABOVE Indiana Central served as host to the ICPA conference this year. Students from colleges across the state attended sessions dealing with photography and journalism. Here, members of the Reflector staff listen as the speaker is introduced.

ABOVE Elementary and High School students participated in Science Fair competition. The event lasted three days, with the younger students bringing their exhibits first.

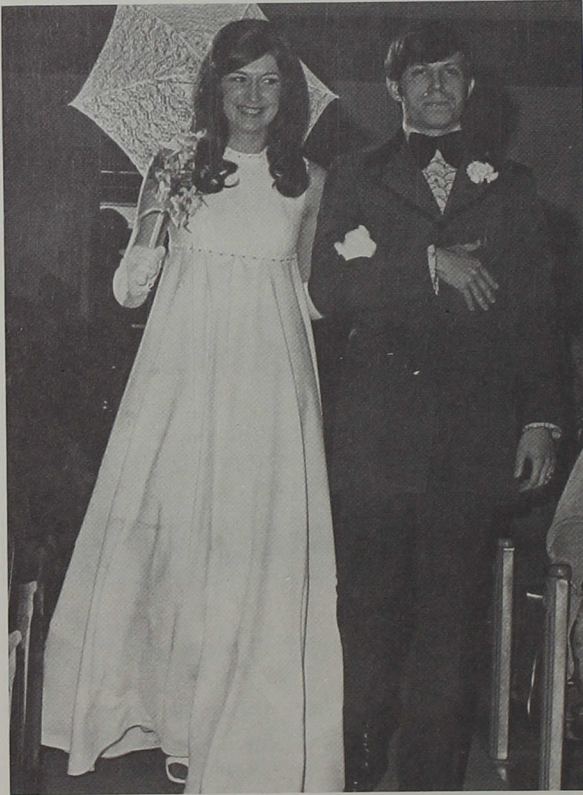

BELOW LEFT Special guests and friends pause for prayer at the dedication of the Zerfas wing of Lilly Hall. Many hours of work and dedication made this possible.

BELOW Centralaires belt out a song for their audience on opening night of their concert. Red and black gowns and tuxedos add glamor to the occasion.

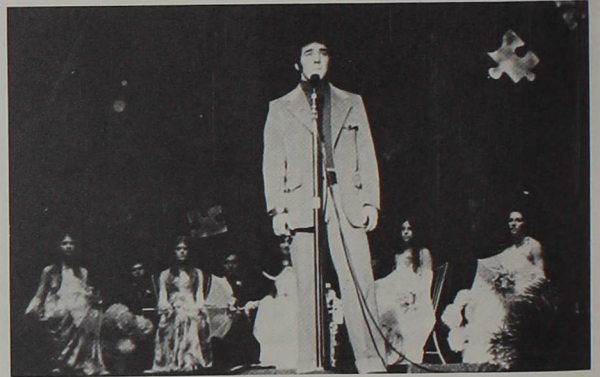

SPRING FESTIVAL HONORS MOTHERS AND ICC QUEEN

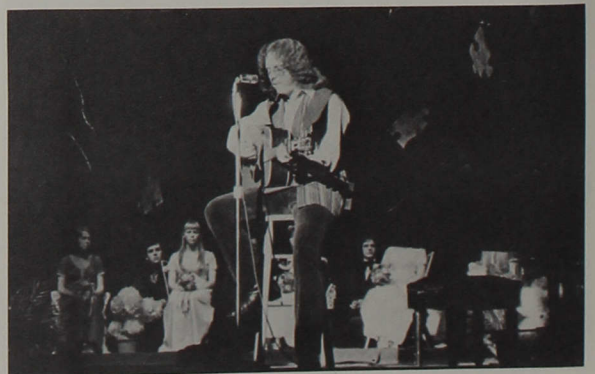

ABOVE Queen Jena Jones is escorted to the stage by Ron Young, a former Centralite.

RIGHT Sam Chambers sings his tribute to Jessie Chan, last years queen, and her court.

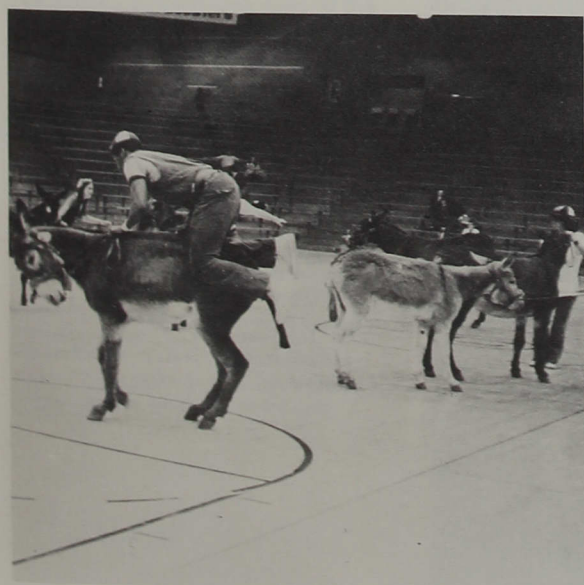

The annual May Festival was held in April this year to make it possible for all students to participate. Five junior girls were elected to the court and then the campus queen, Jena Jones, was selected from the five. The court selected lovely spring flowered pants dresses and carried parasols with daisies on the handles. Queen Jena was gowned in traditional white and crowned by President Sease and last years queen Jessie Chan. A tea and style show was held in the afternoon for the Central girls and their mothers. Fashions were provided by Penney's of Southern Plaza. Models were students and faculty of ICC. Dads could attend a baseball game on the home diamond. Then the evening festivities began at eight in Ransburg Auditorium.

LEISURE TIME AT CENTRAL

ABOVE RIGHT Sue Willey washes her hair after a hectic day of classes and a Whippet game.

ABOVE Sophomore girls enjoy lunch in the cafeteria. The cafeteria is where many Centralites gather for talk and good times as well as food.

GRADUATION—LOOKING TO THE

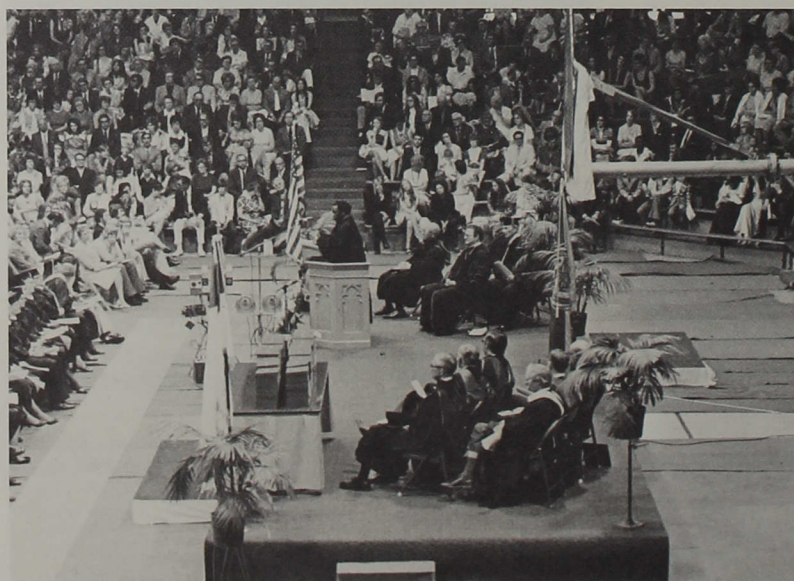

What does May 20, 1973 mean to the class of '73? It means four years of hard work and play are at an end, that class members will go their separate ways, perhaps never to meet again. It also means that these seniors are going out into their chosen professions, whether it be as a teacher, a nurse, a scientist, or maybe going on to school to become a doctor or a lawyer. Whatever their profession may be, we wish them the best of luck and happiness in life.

FUTURE AND REFLECTING THE PAST

The day started with Baccalaureate held in the late morning in the gym. The highlight of the exercise was the robing ceremony where the seniors received the hood with the colors of the college and a color representing the field in which they were graduating.

The nurses pinning was held in the afternoon in Ransburg Auditorium. After two years of study and work at a hospital, these nurses received their pins.

The commencement exercises in the evening climaxed the day, May 20, 1973.

RIGHT Candidates for associate degrees proceed down the aisle to their seats in the center of the gym.

In putting together this year's ORACLE, we have attempted not to produce a masterful work of art to achieve aesthetic value, but rather to portray Indiana Central College as it is today. We have attempted to show both the old and the new, the work and the play, and the good and the bad. We accepted this responsibility of creating the yearbook with no previous experience, but with a strong desire to improve and expand the coverage of the student life in the ORACLE.

We would like to express our appreciation to our staff for their hard work and dedication and thank the administration for their help and trust.

... then trust the Lord completely; don't ever trust yourself. In everything you do, put God first, and He will direct you and crown your efforts with success.
