Go placidly amid the noise and the haste, and remember what peace there may be in silence . . .

Enjoy your achievements as well as your plans. Keep interested in your own career, however humble; it is a real possession in the changing fortunes of time. Exercise caution in your business affairs, for the world is full of trickery. But let this not blind you to what virtue there is; many persons strive for high ideals, and everywhere life is full of heroism.

Be yourself. Especially do not feign affection. Neither be cynical about love; for in the face of all aridity and disenchantment, it is as perennial as the grass . . .

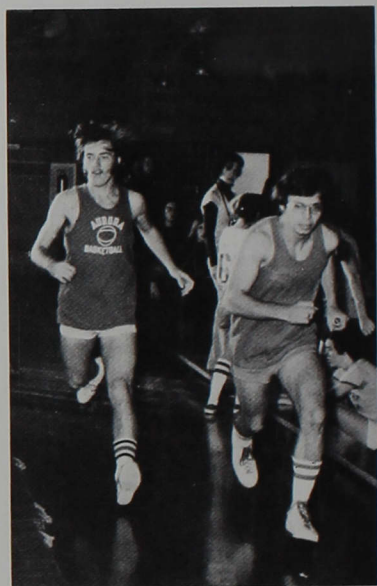

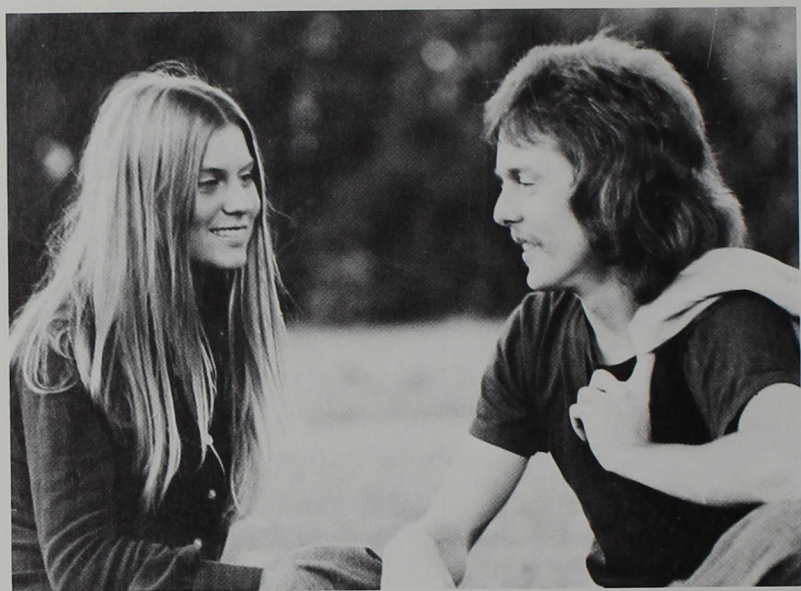

Beyond a wholesome discipline, be gentle with yourself. You are a child of the universe no less than the trees and the stars; you have a right to be here. And whether or not it is clear to you, no doubt the universe is unfolding as it should. Therefore be at peace with God, whatever you conceive Him to be.

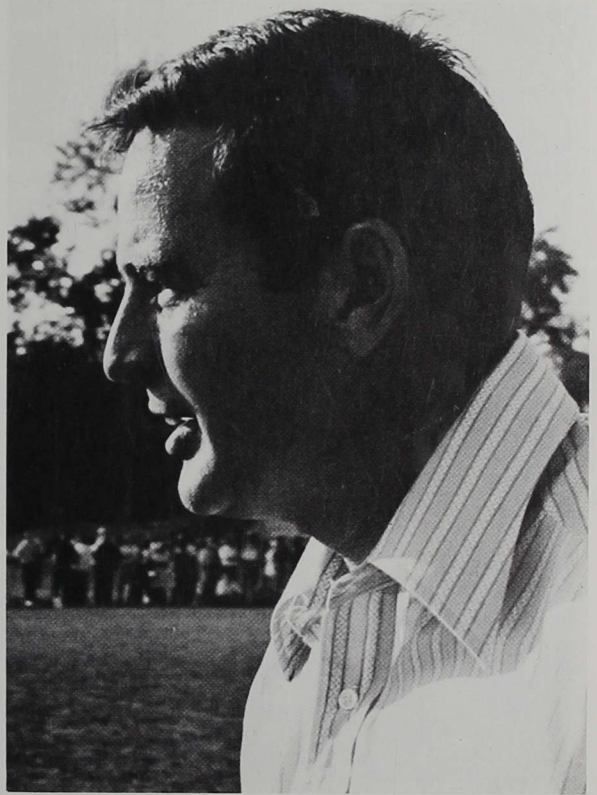

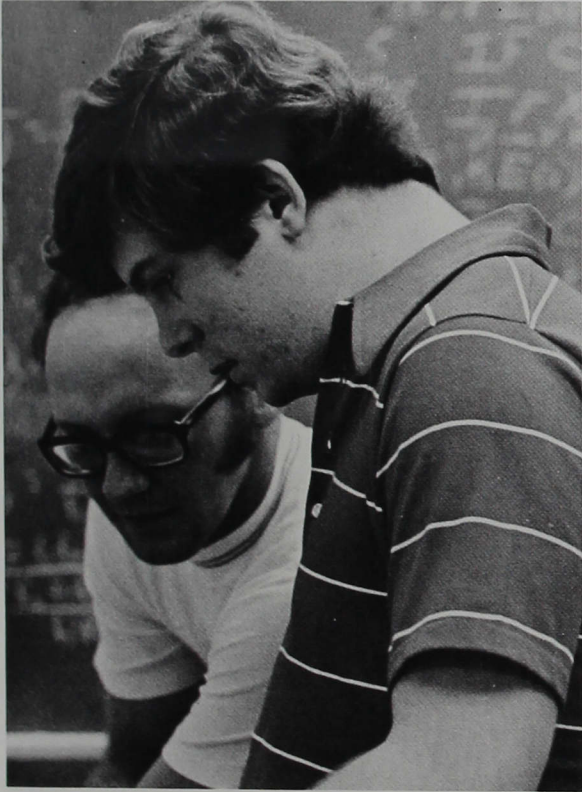

And whatever your labors and aspirations, in the noisy confusion of life, keep peace in your soul. With all its sham, drudgery and broken dreams, it is still a beautiful world. Be cheerful. Strive to be happy.

HOMECOMING HIGHLIGHTS

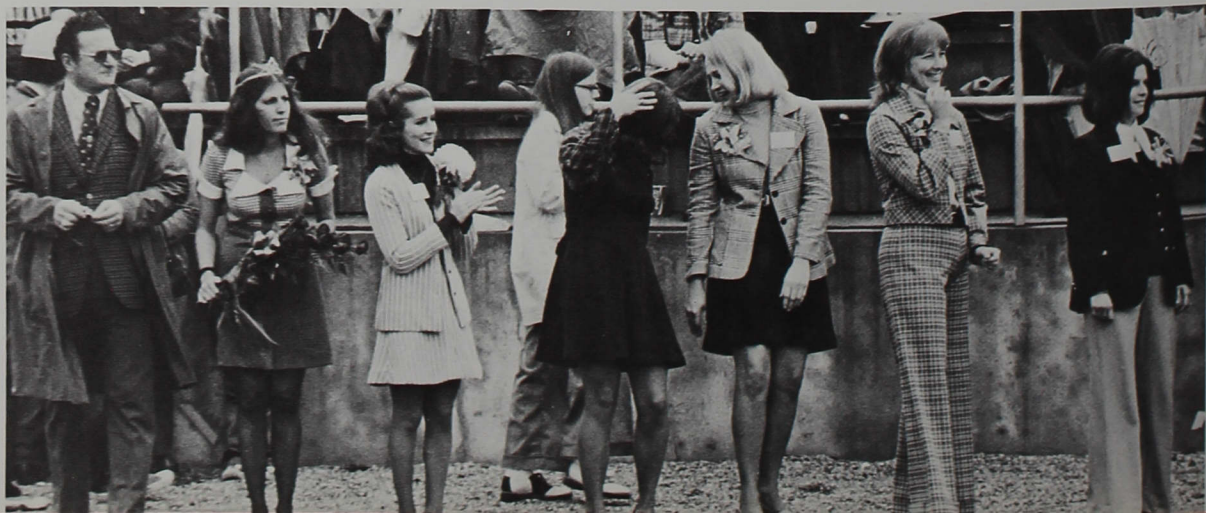

ABOVE Steve Harding seems almost as excited as Marie Carlson when she is announced as homecoming queen.

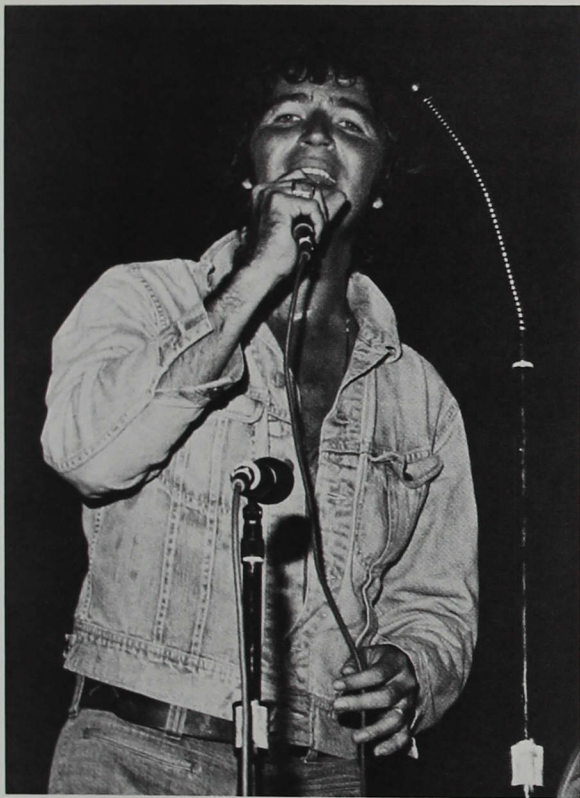

Marie Carlson was the 1973 Homecoming queen. She reigned over the many activities of the day including the victory of the football team and the Mac Davis concert in the evening. Dorms and organizations worked hard to set up their displays in the gym, for it was raining as usual. Other highlights of the day included the introduction of former homecoming queens and the 1973 court at half time.

BELOW Debbie Griffey, Marie Carlson, Marilyn St. Clair, Lynn Duzan, and Nancy Zuidema are the 1973 Homecoming court.

ABOVE SEA put in many hours on their display.

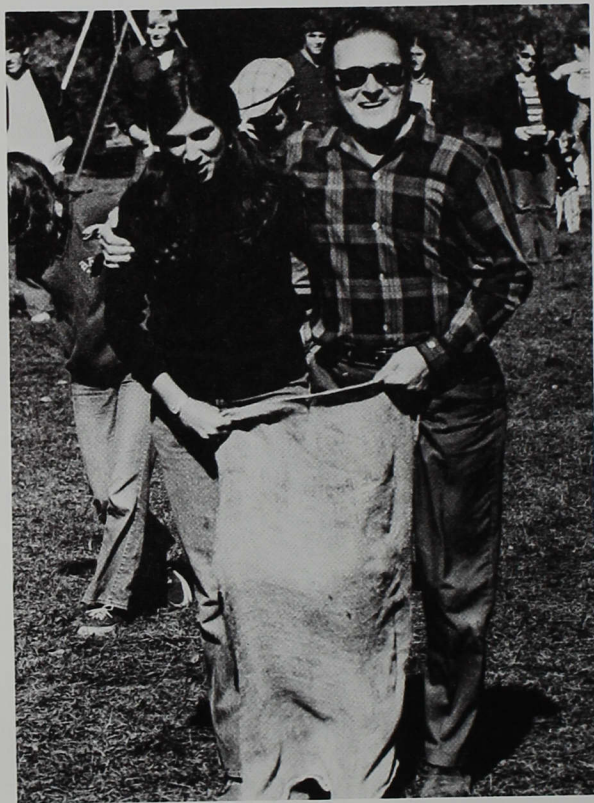

RIGHT This book explains the outcome of the football game — victory.

BELOW More of ICC's former queens view half time festivities.

BROWN COUNTY DAY IS

Brown County Day was bright and sunny and proved a welcome break from classes. Students and faculty joined in games, a picnic lunch and hikes through the beautiful fall foliage. The outing in crisp October weather draws a large portion of the Central population to the state park. Jeans and football jerseys, along with tennis shoes are the most common apparel of the Centralite on a fall day, and especially on Brown County Day. Many pairs of jeans have returned to campus with rips from a football game.

LEFT A football huddles to discuss the plans for the next play.

FAR RIGHT It's my ball!

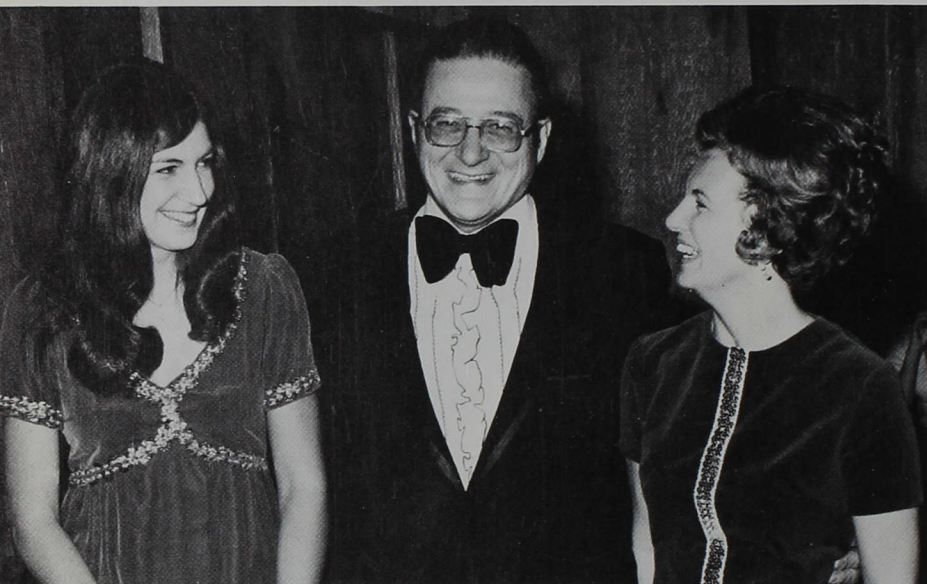

RIGHT Mark Sciarra and company give all their energy to winning the tug-o-war for the sophs.

FUN AND FOOD FOR ALL

1973 PRESIDENT'S BALL

President and Mrs. Gene Sease served as host and hostess of the fourth annual President's Ball. The first of these was the Inaugural Ball held in 1970 when Dr. Sease became president of Indiana Central College. Since that time students and faculty have been attending the festive dance at the Sherwood Country Club. A large Christmas tree is the main decoration, while other decorations also center around the Christmas theme.

Students mix with the faculty and are given an opportunity to become better acquainted with Dr. and Mrs. Sease. This is the first of the two formal dances held during the school year. Many welcome the chance to get dressed up and spend a delightful evening with friends.

APO BLOOD DRIVE

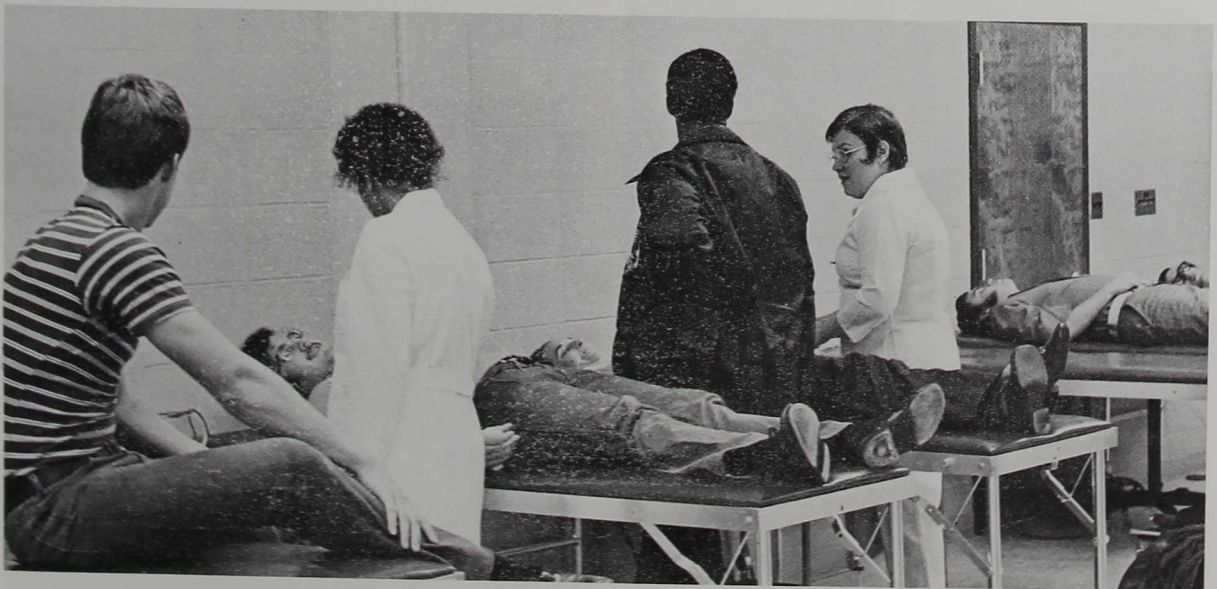

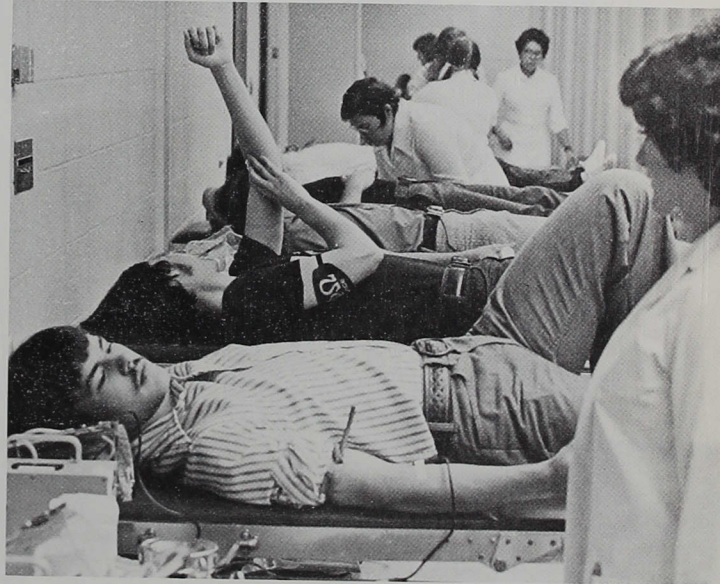

Students and faculty participated in the blood drives sponsored by APO. Due to the success of the drives, students and their families are covered if they should ever need blood. There was an added bonus to all donors, free food and free games at the bowling alley. Even those who tried to give, but were rejected were given the certificate for free food.

ABOVE Blood pressure and body temperature are very important.

RIGHT Students in the various stages of giving blood.

BELOW Donors are reassured by nurses and friends.

KAREN ROGERS IS MISS INDIANA

When Karen Rogers was selected as Miss Indiana Central in the spring of 1973 she hadn't even thought about becoming Miss Indiana. "I'm too short," she said. But it seems that height doesn't matter for indeed she did become Miss Indiana and went on to Atlantic City for the Miss America pageant. Perhaps the judges couldn't resist Karen's bright smile and great voice. She sang "Put A Little Love In Your Heart" to come off with top honors in the talent division.

Karen's duties are many and varied. They range from attending college functions to sessions with the photographer to performing with show business greats. Attending classes at Central and performing her duties as Miss Indiana keep Karen very busy.

RIGHT Karen claps for an unseen guest at a reception where she served as hostess.

DADS' DAY AND HIGH SCHOOL DAY

Hundreds of high school students flooded the campus on October 20 for High School Day. First came registration and visiting with professors and students at the displays set up around the top of the gym. Each department was eager to explain its program and the advantages offered at Central. After lunch in the cafeteria they joined Central students to cheer for the Greyhounds in Key Stadium.

Dads' Day was on October 6. It served to honor the dads of all Central students. During half time many of the dads were introduced to the crowd.

LEFT Dr. Wiehe explains the intricacies of a psychology experiment to several young high school students.

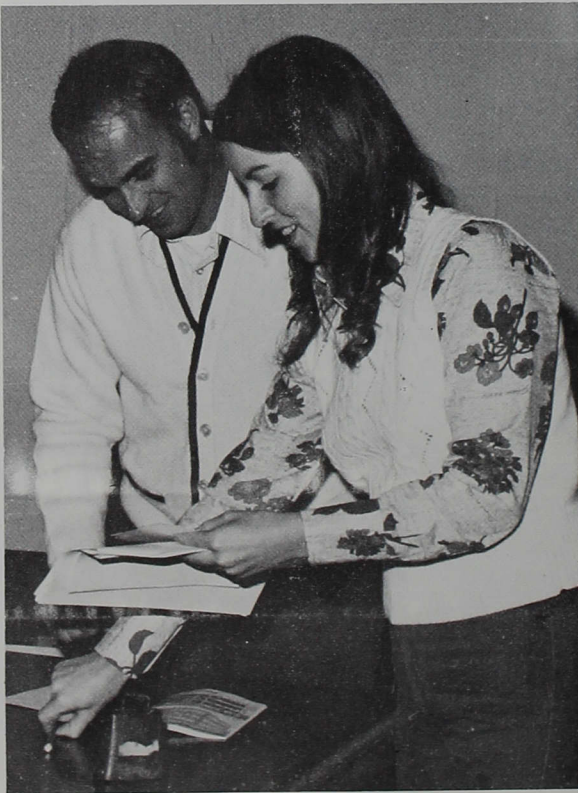

ABOVE Students and parents cheer the Greyhounds on to another victory on Dads' Day.

ALUMNI RESPOND TO TELETHON

The Telethon went national this year. Instead of just calling the Indiana alumni, volunteer students and faculty called former Centralites all over the country. And the response was tremendous. A large percentage responded with at least a small gift and many gave large gifts. The many evenings spent calling resulted in a total of over $11,000.

Although the Telethon was primarily to raise money for the college, many students enjoyed just talking to graduates of Central.

BELOW Only 20 more names to call, or so Nancy Tucker thinks as she dials yet another alumna during the Telethon.

LEFT Mick Bridgewater is in the process of slamming the ping pong ball across the table.

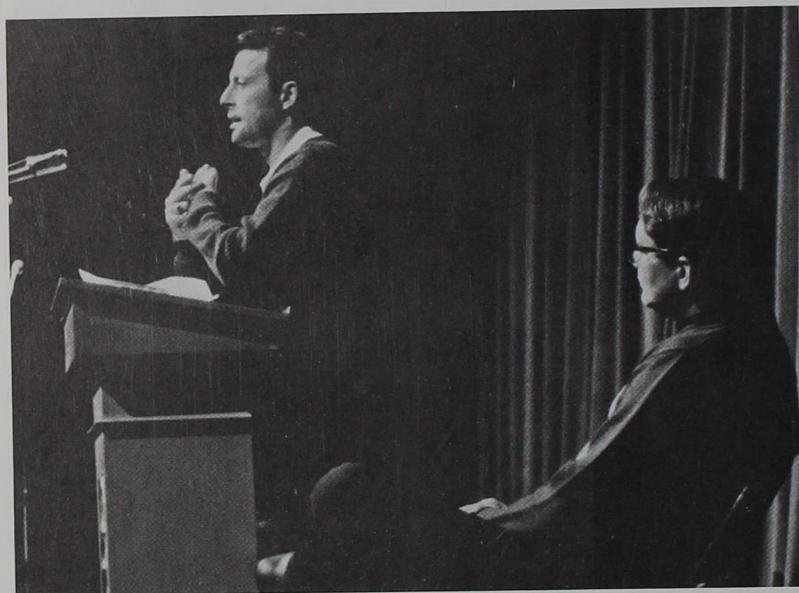

ABOVE Eating with chopsticks isn't as easy as it looks. Ainsley Jo Phillips struggles with another bit of chow mein.

INTERNATIONAL WEEK AT ICC

During International Week at Central students were invited to observe and take part in various activities. Among these were a Karate exhibition, a Chinese cooking demonstration, an Italian supper with spaghetti and French bread. Ping pong tables were set up in the basement of Schwitzer for the avid ping pong fans.

POPULAR FIGURES VISIT CAMPUS

UPPER LEFT Mel Kenyon, a guest speaker during Religious Emphasis Week, spoke of car racing, life, and God.

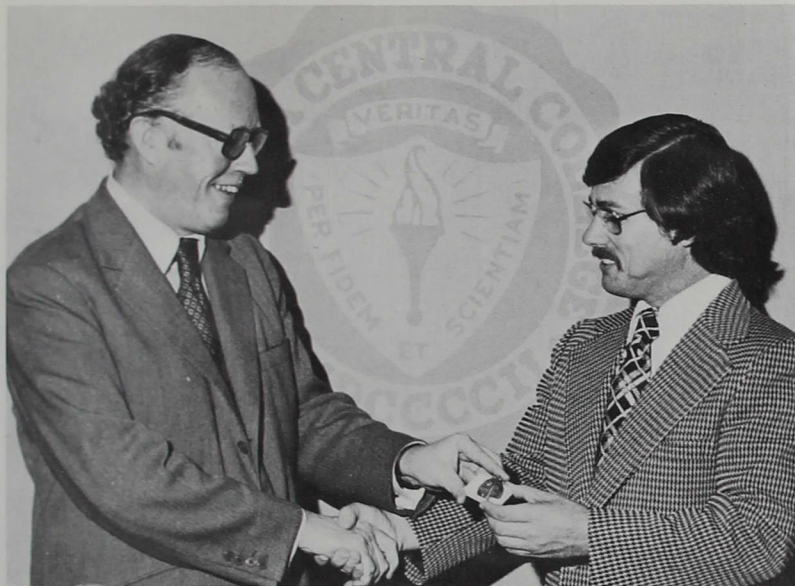

UPPER RIGHT Jill Ruckelshaus listens intently as reporters ask questions at a press conference here at I.C.C.

BELOW Former director of the E.P.A. and F.B.I. William Ruckelshaus speaks candidly concerning Watergate.

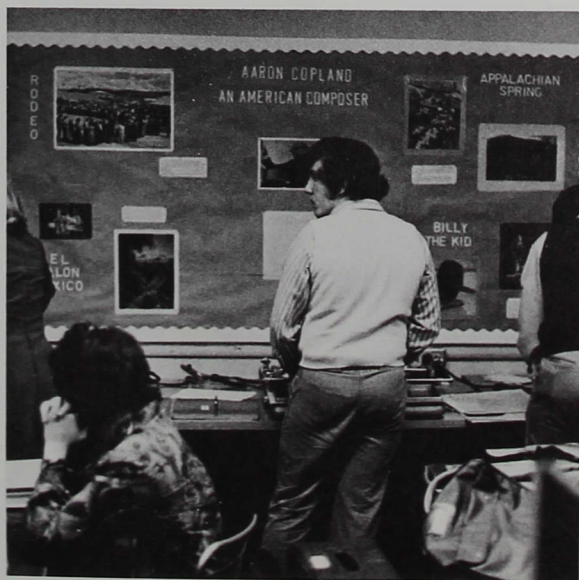

They range from congressmen to drivers in the 500 Mile Race. They come from as close as downtown Indianapolis and as far away as India. Who are they? Why the speakers at convocation, of course. It is evident that students had many opportunities to be exposed to outstanding people from many walks of life and all parts of the world. Many students took advantage of these opportunities, but others chose to "skip" the mandatory convocations.

Students also took an active part in the convocation schedule. Deputation teams, casts from the various plays, and even student speakers presented programs during the 9:45 hour on Wednesdays and Fridays.

UPPER LEFT Colin Jackson, once a member of the British Parliament accepts an award from Dr. Riggs.

The instrument is almost as big as the musician and proves to be a heavy burden.

Spring draws Central students out into its warm air.

STUDENTS

Whether it's singing in the choir, trying out for a drama production, working on one of the student publications, studying for an exam, or even treeing one of the guys who has just got engaged, it seems that Centralites always find things to keep them busy and add to the learning experience of living on a college campus. Since each student is an individual, everyone has his or her own idea of what makes college life worth while. For the students who live in the dorm it's pizza parties at midnight, playing the guitar and singing with friends, water fights between Wilmore and Daily Halls, sharing your joys and sorrows with your roommate, and a million other things. And of course there are always the fads of the college student. Once it used to be swallowing goldfish, but in 1974 it was streaking, which astonished the dorm moms and delighted the coeds.

TOP RIGHT Making use of the available facilities is important in teaching, Gary Robinson can indicate.

ABOVE "Can I answer a question?", says student teacher Rex Sager.

RIGHT Peggy Stone is a friend as well as a teacher to the children in her classroom.

CENTRAL HOSTS: JAMES TAYLOR

On Tuesday May 7, 1974 Indiana Central hosted James Taylor in concert. He sang songs such as "Fire and Rain", "You've Got A Friend", and other favorites. The near-capacity audience in the gym was surprised with the appearance of Taylor's wife Carly Simon singing "Mockingbird". Following his performance Taylor returned for two encores, much to the delight of the audience.

Rain and snow couldn't keep the fans away from a Charlie Pride concert. He performed for two packed crowds. He sang nearly all of his favorites, all of which are country-western songs. The concert was great and the audience was pleased. There was only one problem, getting out of a crowded parking lot in the rain while others were trying to get in.

RIGHT Last year's Spring Festival Queen Jena Jones places the cape of royalty around Kathy Hoagland's shoulders while Dr. and Mrs. Sease wait to crown her.

RIGHT A barbershop quartet made up of Lynn Youngblood, Adolph Hansen, George Humbarger, and Reggie Monson sing their version of "My Little Margie".

FESTIVAL THEME IS UP UP AND AWAY

The theme of the 1974 Spring Festival was "Up Up and Away". Large balloons and kites added color to Ransburg Auditorium. Acts such as the barbershop quartet, a brass quintet, the Centralairs, a dance, the deputation team, and tributes to the queen and mothers made the event well worth attending. The climax of the evening was the entrance of the 1974-75 queen and her court. Following her coronation by Dr. and Mrs. Gene Sease and Jena Jones the tribute to Queen Kathy was sung by her brother Steve. He sang the popular song "Sunshine" by John Denver. The mothers of the court were escorted to their seats by their daughter's chosen escorts. Each girl thanked her mother for just being herself. It was a nostalgia filled evening for many, including those in the audience.

Karen Rogers and Linda Howe steal some "booze" for Tim Wilbur who is the thief in the production of "The Old Maid and the Thief". It was one of the operas put on by the music department in conjunction with the drama department. It told of an old maid who gave shelter to a man whom she came to believe was the thief that everyone was talking and reading about.

Cindee Coffee murmurs some comforting words to Taylor Martin in "The Crucible". It is a play written by Arthur Miller about the Salem witch trials in New England. Below Cindee points an accusing finger at one of the victims of the trials as two of her friends look on. The presentation was the first two weekends in February.

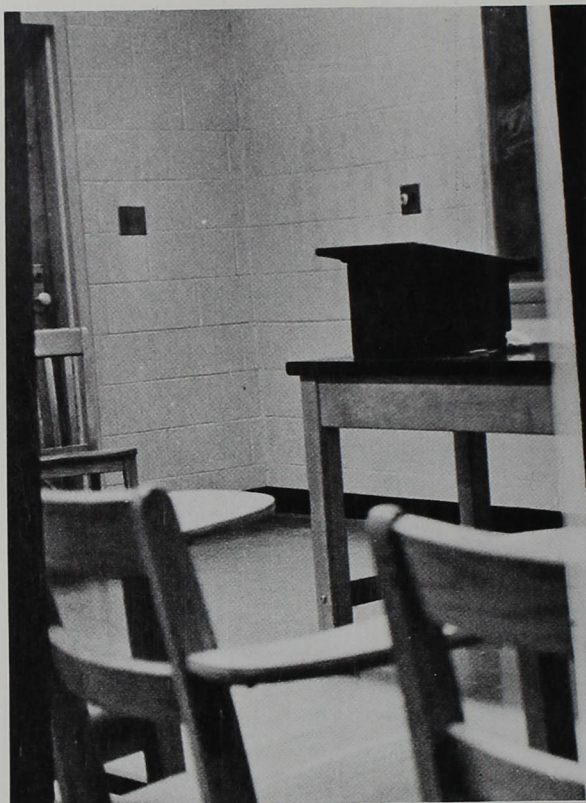

Dave Lofland looks a little doubtful as he is partaking of the fruit of the vine offered to him by Jenny Kastner and Sue Malasics in "Arsenic and Old Lace". At right are Marti Dowman and Larry Lynch, who thinks he is Teddy Roosevelt.

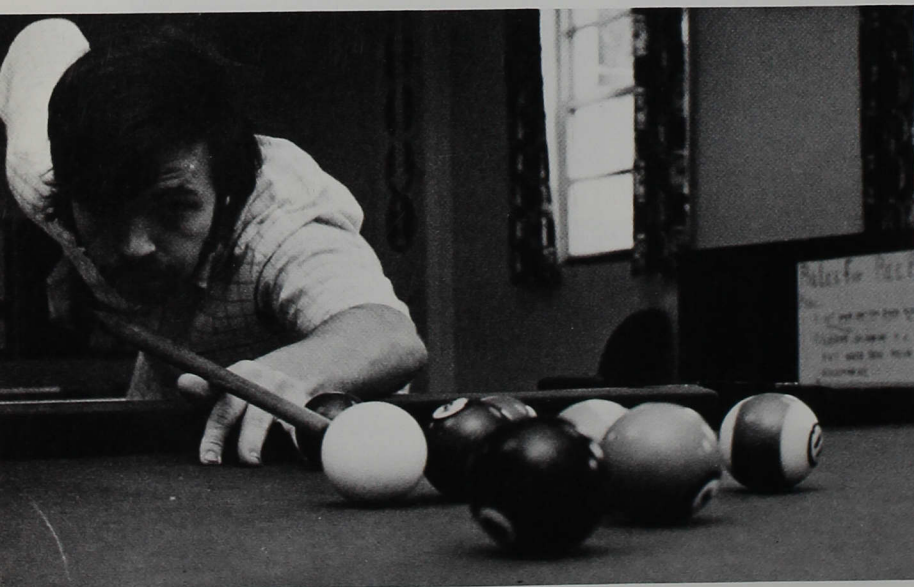

Paul Sanders, Becky Geible, Taylor Martin and Marti Dowman were members of the Indiana Central Players who presented "Spoon River Anthology". The play by Edgar Lee Masters was performed in late October and early November. At the left is Taylor Martin in one of his several roles from the play.

BELOW The cafeteria begins to fill with students and faculty as classes let out for lunch.

ABOVE Making pottery in one of the art classes can be messy, but the results are rewarding.

GRADUATION DAY: CAPS AND GOWNS

LEFT The Debbie's are late to line up for the processional. The two graduates are Debbie Gregory and Debbie Griffey.

RIGHT Debbie Griffey has that much sought after diploma.

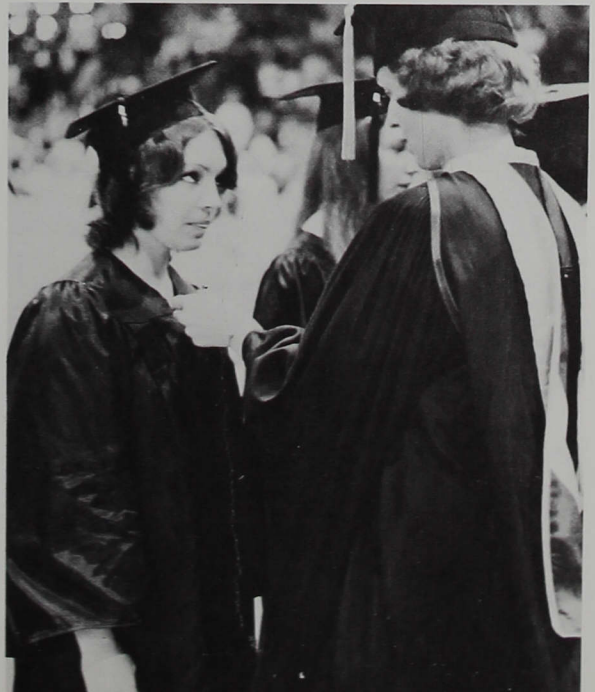

AND A DIPLOMA

The Class of 1974 is no more. Those seniors took their final walk as undergraduates at ICC when they walked down the aisle to receive their diplomas on May 19. Many friends and relatives were on hand to see Dr. Sease grant degrees to more than three hundred students. Now the proud graduates, with diploma in hand, are ready to take over jobs in their chosen profession.

Graduation day began with baccalaureate exercises in the morning. There students received their hoods which they were to wear during commencement exercises in the afternoon.

Disappointed though they were at dropping their final three contests and with it a share of the Indiana Collegiate Conference championship, Coach Bill Bless and his IC football team still registered the finest season in twenty years of Greyhound football. Along the way the Big Grey Machine broke or tied thirty team and individual records in running their season record to 7-3.

TENNIS TEAM SHOWS POTENTIAL

With only one senior player, the tennis squad of Terry Wetherald found the going rough in the Indiana Collegiate Conference this year. However, with all but one team member returning next year, hopes are high for much improvement in the tennis program. The senior citizen of the team, Mike Wilds, walked off with nearly every tennis honor, being selected MVP and captain, and receiving the Kelso Reid Mental Attitude Award and a four-year lettermans plaque.

WINS - 15, LOSSES - 11

Dave Wood received the Kelso Reid Mental Attitude Award for all sports.

Indiana Central closed its 50th basketball season this year. For the south side college it was the 42nd winning season. For Head Coach Angus Nicoson it was the close of 27 years at Central and the coaching of over 700 games. Hopefully Central and Coach Nicoson will continue in their success.

1974 was the last year for four of the Greyhounds. Seniors Darl Hall, Paul Jansen, Rex Sager, and Mike VanEmon have all played four years of basketball for Central.

Daryl Warren led the team in scoring and assists while Clarence Swain was the leading rebounder.

Greyhound Basketball this year was a series of ups and downs for Coach Nicoson and his young squad. "Ups" include those such as Depauw, with IC winning 81-80 on a last second shot by Daryl Warren, and Wabash at Wabash again finding IC on the top end of the score after running off 16 straight points near the end of the first half. The "Downs" include those such as both Butler games which had IC close each time, but never quite able to overcome the arch-rival Bulldogs; or the Evansville game at IC, the same story only the name was the Aces.

The absence of the graduating seniors will be felt, but with a fine crop of underclassmen on the way up, Nick should be able to fill their shoes.

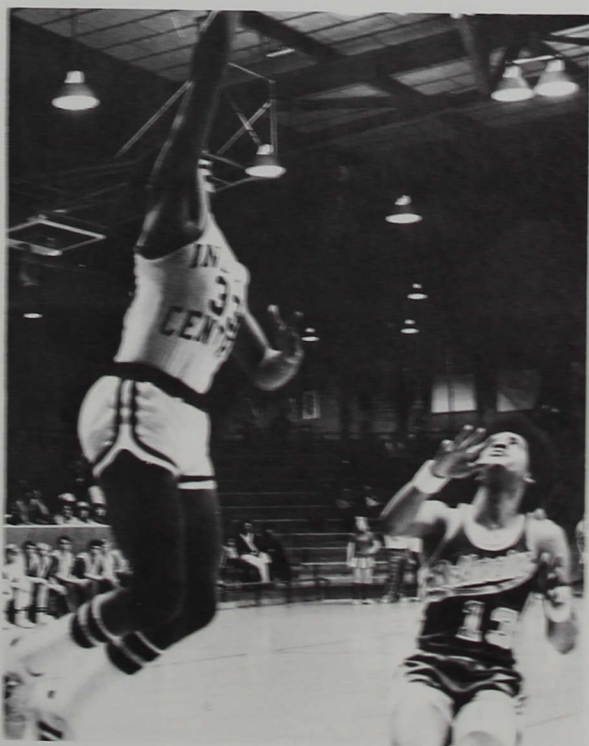

The Hounds have great things to look forward to, with starters Clarence Swain, Daryl Warren, Ike Jackson, Jack Emly, Jim Farmer, and Rod Pawlik all back plus whoever Nick can pull out of the freshman bag next year.

It looks like senior Rex Sager is coming in for a foul to prevent one of the Aces from scoring.

Another one up and in for Ike Jackson while amazed opponents look on.

Dave Wood scores again against Bellarmine.

TRACK TEAM FINISHES THIRD IN INDIANA COLLEGIATE CONFERENCE

The track squad of Jerry England improved steadily during the season and culminated with a third place finish in the Indiana Collegiate Conference. Conference champs a year ago, England's team was predominately underclassmen in 1974 and, with added experience, should return as a conference title contender next year. Top performer for the Greyhound tracksters this season was 6-5, 260 pound Jerry Allgood, who set new Central standards in the shot put and in the discus. Allgood qualified for the national meet at Eastern Illinois University as did Rick Stover, who set a school record in the steeplechase with a time of 9:24.8. The 440 relay record of 43.1 was set this year by Dick Nalley, Mark Fisher, Gary Hall, and Jeff Davis, each of whom will return next year. Jerry Allgood received the Highest Point Award for the 'Hounds. Mark Fisher also tied the school record of 56.2 in the Intermediate Hurdles.

Smitha. ROW THREE: Coach Bill Bright, Skip Kaucher, Bob McMillin, Steve Sanford, Ken Brooks, Mickey Sisk, Gary Welmer, Steve Bohnert, Jack Emly, Darrell Miller.

Seniors Glen Heaton and Skip Kaucher play their final season as Greyhounds.

Coach Bill Bright's baseballers ended their season with a disappointing 13-23 record. However, loss of several key players for much of the season, due to injuries, played a major role in the turnaround from the 20-4 slate of 1973. In addition, a lack of consistent pitching hurt the Greyhounds, who displayed a fine offensive attack which scored five runs a game and had a team batting average of .283. Leading hitters for Bright's crew were outfielder Ken Brooks, shortstop Mickey Sisk, and third baseman Steve Montgomery who was IC's only member to make the all-conference first team this year. Brooks was selected by his teammates as the 1974 Most Valuable Player and also won the John Yeftich Memorial Award for hitting proficiency.

The IC golf squad divided its schedule between fall and spring, and won the Indiana Collegiate Conference title in the fall season. Coach Ken Partridge's golfers lost out on a bid for a post-season berth in the NCAA national tournament this spring. DePauw was chosen to represent the conference in the tourney upon their spring performance even though the 'Hounds linksmen won the ICC championship. Gary Martin, carrying a 75 average during the fall and spring golf seasons, was selected by his teammates as captain and was also low medalist.

PERSONALITIES

SENIORS AWAIT GRADUATION

It's finally over, four years of joy and sorrow, laughter and tears, excitement and drudgery. The class of 1974 made their last appearance as undergraduates on May 18, for the next day was graduation day. The seniors started in September of 1970 as green freshmen and have grown as responsible adults ready to go out and make an impression on society. Seniors, do you remember singing "Greenie Beanie" to President Sease and the sophomores during Freshmen orientation? Or when you were a sophomore and you were the one who got to torture the freshmen? Or homecoming when you were a junior? Or any of the many other activities that go together to make up the memories of the class of 1974? These will go with the seniors for many years.

Senior Class Officers Jim Long, Bev Richardson, Bryan Chamberlain and Bonnie Koons get together for some fun before a meeting.

All our friends have left, leaving the campus empty, at least for the summer. The events of our college days seem so fleeting and yet so timeless. Even in the shifting sands of time, we each occupy a particular place and leave our own distinct mark. As we continue to search for meaning in our own lives, the sun sets, leaving us to the ends we need to find. Another year belongs to us.
