SARG,
THE MOST RUTHLESS
WARLORD OF MEN'S MINDS!!

SARG, IS IT? AND WHAT ARE THOSE THINGS BEHIND
YOU---YOUR KINDERGARTEN CLASS?

HE DARES TO INSULT OUR SUPREMACY?!

MAKE HIM
SUFFER BEFORE
HE DIES,
BUT FIRST...

...BEHOLD THE APATHETIC ONE-AT HIS GAZE, SOCIAL ACTIVITY IS HALTED-ALL SAVE PREJUDICE AND DISCRIMINATION !!!

...AND THE BARRIER BEAST! HE BLOCKS
MENS MINDS FROM UNDERSTANDING
ONE ANOTHER!!

...AND FINALLY, THE SILENCER, WHO DEAFENS COMMUNICATION, TO CREATE HATE AND FEAR WITH SILENCE !!!

"WE ARE HERE - WE ARE GOING TO DESTROY YOU - NOW, WHAT SHALL YOU DO?"

OH BOY

THIS OUGHT TO MAKE IT EASIER TO TAKE OUT YOUR BEAST BRIGADE !!

ZAP!

NICE TRICK YOU'VE GOT THERE, SLEEPY
PEEPERS...

...BUT IT WON'T WORK!!

WELL, FOR OPENERS...

THIS!

SEE WHAT I MEAN?!!

BLITZ!

ORACLE

TWO DOWN,
TWO TO GO!

AS FOR THIS
GUY... IF YOU
CAN'T GO
AROUND HIM...

...YOU CAN ALWAYS GO THROUGH HIM!

THREE DOWN-
I'M AIMING FOR A GRAND
SLAM, SARG!

WHILE THE WORKER ENGAGES INTO A BATTLE
WITH THE SILENCER, SARG AWAKENS-AND THAT'S NOT GOOD!

THIS SO... SOUND IS KIL... KILLING ME!

IF I CAN JUST GET...
TO THE...
BUTTONS
ON M... MY GAUNTLET!

AAA
IT!

WHEW

SARG ATTACKS AGAIN WITH A GLEAM OF FIERY
VENGEANCE IN HIS EYES!

NOW, WHELP,
YOU ARE GOING TO DIE!

NOW TO TAKE OUT THIS
SARG CHARACTER-
PERMANENTLY!!!-

-AND A DOUBLE-
DOSEAGE OF MY THERMAL NUCLEAR RAY BLAST SHOULD DO THE TRICK!

EEEE

ORACLE

WELL, THEY'RE DESTROYED, I PASSED MY TEST, AND NOW...

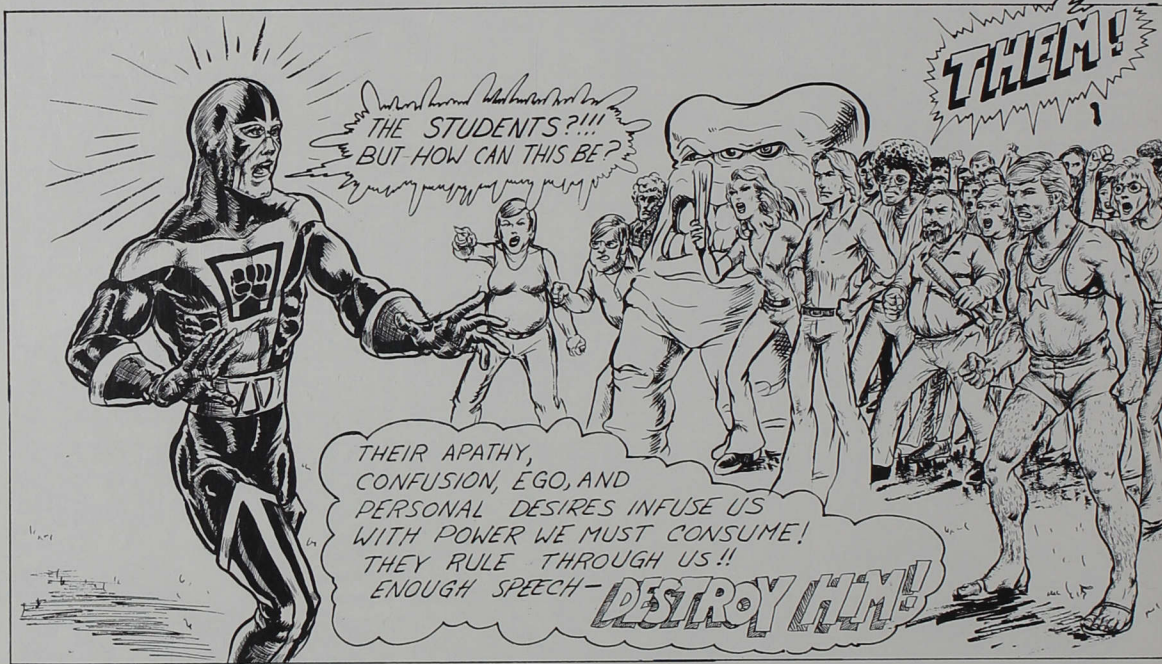

NO, FOOL!!!

...FOR WE STILL LIVE!!

WHA...?

YOUR POWER ONLY SLOWS US DOWN! IT IS NOT SARG WHO GIVES US OUR POWER- NO, FOOL, ITS ooo

THE STUDENTS?!?! BUT HOW CAN THIS BE?

THEM!

THEIR APATHY, CONFUSION, ÉGO, AND PERSONAL DESIRES INFUSE US WITH POWER WE MUST CONSUME! THEY RULE THROUGH US!! ENOUGH SPEECH-

DESTROY THEM!

NOTHING ELSE TO DO, BUT...

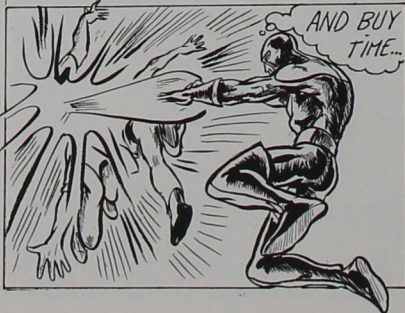

STRIKE FIRST!!

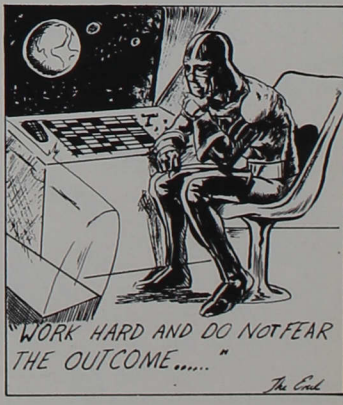

TO GET HOME!

RETURN:

AND BUY TIME...

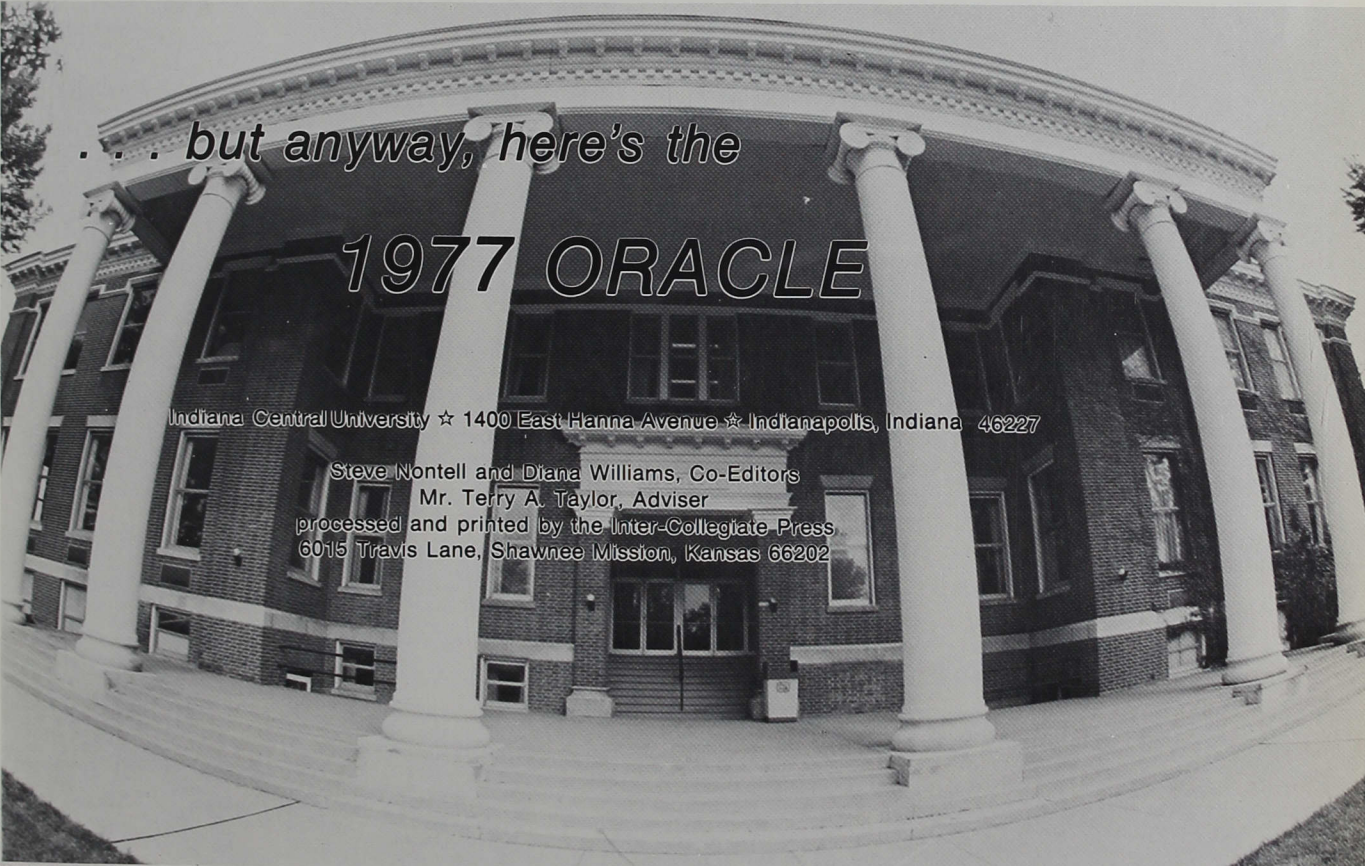

WORK HARD AND DO NOT FEAR THE OUTCOME....."

The End

Yes, the Worker does have a place in this book. Indiana Central University, being both a nice place and an imperfect place, always needs work to correct its problems.

We all wish some super-being would sweep on in and fix things up for us students. But we still aren't using all the super-human power in ourselves yet—and that's why changes will probably still come slow and piecemeal.

Work must go on against those who believe, not in merit, but in 'it's-not-what-you-give-but-who-you-give-it-to' politics. That, in our small way, is why this ORACLE has been prepared with only each one of you students of the 1976-77 school year in mind. This is no public relation tool—this is your book. We hope it makes you feel good.

... but anyway, here's the

The following eight points are a combined effort of the New Dorm Men's Resident Assistants to promote the general welfare of our dorm through the re-emphasis of the following school policies:

1. There will be no "jinging" of the elevator subject to payment of damages upon violation.
2. Extreme care should be exercised to avoid damage to our "home." Damages will be charged to individuals responsible.
3. Use of responsible discretion should be exercised in the dorm pertaining to noise, especially regarding loud music.
4. The locked northwest doors should not be propped open in an effort to avoid theft and vandalism.
5. We are obliged under contract to report all instances of on-campus drinking and/or use of illegal drugs.
6. Gambling "casinos" will not be allowed.
7. A recent policy of the Dean's Office prohibits the burning of incense in the dorm.
8. Offensive and boisterous language will not be tolerated in the lobby.
9. "Scoping" is allowed only during the "lonely hours" between 9-11 p.m.

Over and above the re-emphasis of the above eight rules, the purpose of this distribution is to leave offenders without excuse.

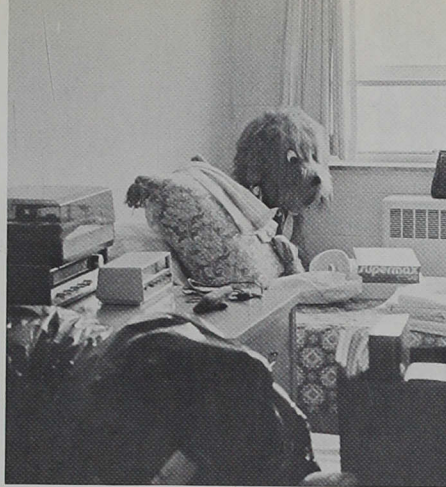

Sincerely,

John H. Prasser
Sand W. Stee
Stephen Hayward

1-Everybody—the old and the new—reestablishes a new IC each year (this time from September 10 through the 13th). Steve Lantz and Jeff Wallace give Cindy Gard a hand with the luggage to open orientation. 2-A room gets full of many things—65% of which one finds that he or she didn't have to bring to school with them this year. 3-Brainwashing (heh, heh) begins for the frosh . . . 4- . . . to the tune of Rick Wimmer's guitar. 5-Registration this year jammed one hall of Esch, due to some snag—but then, you kind of expect that after awhile. 6-Susan Parr gives greetings to Dr. and Mrs. Sease and to David Huffman. 7-The line for this Sunday annual event gets long, but over 200 frosh manage to get into the Sease home at one time. 8-Dr. Ken Borden totteringly towers over unconcerned giant Karl Beer, outside of Good Hall's registration line. 9-Steve Williams signs in on his I.D. card while a jovial Ken Hottel watches. 10-At the mixer dance, Ed Metheny and Lorna Harris disco on down before the reality of the school year sets in.

PAGE 8: 1-'Coach' Mike Watkins gives final instructions to his Junior-Senior team before Sept. 28's Powder Puff ballgame kicks off . . . 2- . . . but Pam Clayton and the Frosh-Soph team dug out for a 13-7 win. 3-Alum wrestler Vince Flecker can't shake off IC's Dave Kilmer in the Sept. 30 Alumni-Varsity meet. 4-Dr. Bill Bishop does the roasting during the Oct. 1 Convo Faculty Roast, while Mike Mills, WTHR-TV's Bob Gregory, Dr. Richard Lugar, Jim Brunner, Dr. Lynn Youngblood, Leo Miller, Sue Ann Gilroy, and Mike Watkins wait their turn.

PAGE 9: 1, 2, and 3-Vicki Ellis remains the constant college prez's wife, while the Knight of the White Castle, Greg Hernandez (1), 'chief' Doug Weber (2), and Shane Harrington (3) the caveman act in the champion Junior skit. 4-Also featured in that same Junior skit was coach 'Dangus Fricason' (Chet Ferrell). 5-Susan Holdren, Linda Turner, Dave Baker, and Deb Overbey, part of a 'faculty' group, give it a go for the Freshmen on that same evening of Sept. 28. 6-'Mayor' Dave Rees ponders the problems of his wild western town, as the defending champ Seniors tried for two in a row.

The race took place Oct. 3. 4-Greg "Manny" Hernandez had no trouble kicking the ball while Pam Clayton held it, during the SuperStar event, but he was stunned when he tried catching it in the multi-stunt relay. The Seniors won the overall SuperStar title on Oct. 2, the morning of the St. Joseph's game.

'The Glass Menagerie' opens diverse ICT season

THE GLASS MENAGERIE
by Tennessee Williams, 1944

The Players:
Carol Hill as Amanda, the Mother
Gary G. Robinson as Tom, her Son
Karen Ream as Laura, her Daughter
Tom Kennedy as Jim, the Gentleman Caller

GLASS MENAGERIE's Production Staff: Richard A. Williams, Producer and Director ☆ Brenda Maxwell, Assistant Director ☆ James W. Ream, Technical Director ☆ George Arndt III, Assistant Technical Director ☆ Larry Lynch, Stage Manager ☆ Jim Davidsen, Assistant Stage Manager ☆ David Lofland, Master Stage Technician ☆ Sue Smart, Master lighting Technician ☆ Howard Kello, Master Sound Technician ☆ Deborah Sargent, Costume Mistress ☆ Paula Swengel, Properties ☆ Susan Richardson, Make-up Mistress ☆ Brian Cummings, House Manager ☆ Pat Maple, Box Office Manager ☆ Lou Gerig and Paula Swengel, Publicity.

1-Amanda's plans of freeing Laura through the love of a 'gentleman caller' come crashing down when the 'caller', Jim, finally discloses his engagement. 2-Delicate and fragile as the glass 'menagerie' of animals she collects, Laura has retreated too far from life; the play focuses on the effort to break through her isolation. 3-The conflict between the past lived by Amanda and the future dreamed of by her son Tom makes up the other focal point of the play. 4-After finally being freed by the kindness of the well-meaning Jim, Laura is shattered by the news which Amanda will soon know herself.

1-Much of the play is seen through the eyes of Tom, both as a character and as the narrator of his dreams. Here, his conflict with Amanda flares into argument out on the landing.

PAGE 14: 1-From the moment this sign greeted us on Tuesday, October 12, we knew it was a good day. 2-Some talk and some eat, but everyone's casual on Indiana Central's official mid-week holiday of the fall. 3-People rove back and forth until the picnic shelter area is littered with IC humans. 4-Time out for togetherness: Bob Bogardus and Gayle Castledine.

PAGE 15: 1-Chris Keller, Diane Soule, Marina Divan, Fayette Burcham, and Arlene Cassiday, seniors all, rest a bit after dinner. 2-It's not the Motor Speedway, but 'first in line' for the grub are Tammi Albert and Steve Nontell. Mrs. Joan Persell does the can-can to the rear. 3-Here are part of the group that didn't make it up front quite so quick. 4-With Deb Harper observing, Jim Davidsen sends a frisbee scuttling across the sky. 5-Robin Drumm slowly wolfs down a caramel apple. 6-With one frisbee in front already, Ron Barrick goes for a second one. 7-Working with kids sure brings out the swingset lust in Humanics majors Dave Wooden (pushee) and Doug Weber (pusher). 8-Tired and stretching are Terri Stucker, Pam Clayton, and Corinne Graham.

PAGE 16: 1-The Seniors and Juniors (bottom to top) are rather amiable towards each other . . . 2- . . . just before they try to pull each other's arms off in the tug-of-war. 3-Grooving on some caramel apples are Marci Smith and Diane Torwelle. 4-Some fair maiden checks on the 'late' Tom Geffert, who gave his all so that the Juniors could win a tug-of-war round. 5-Ann and Jay Sibley team up for some horseplay, and Karen Miller gets to be the lucky victim 'this time. 6-Among this cultured circle's gourmets are Nancy Shertzer, Patti Sharkey, Cathy Krouse, Kent Sterret., and Nancy Dinkledine.

PAGE 17: 1-Judging by the contented faces, it's a lot of fun to get that food down . . . 2- . . . and it must be just as much fun to watch it come back up again after a ride on this 'Maypole' contraption. 3-Mark Fellmeth takes the snap and relives his old high school glories, as do many others in this hard-hitting touch(?) football game. 4-We like you too, Deb Chastain and Dane Penrod. Jim Farmer also strikes a pose. 5-So relax, do what feels good (and legal), and enjoy the day. It comes but once a year.

See other Brown County action on pages 81 and 83.

1-Steve Turner, Erhard Bell, Dennis Scheele, and Roger Wright have DePauw all packed up. 2-Herman Bueno, the exciting freshman, leads Scheele and Turner up a grade at DePauw. 3-Climbing the hills on the Greencastle course is fun—just ask Dennis McNulty. Charlie Sparks is at the bottom. 4-Hound coach Bill Bright tends to Herm Bueno after his first-place finish at DePauw. 5-Warming up at the Conference, clockwise from Bill Brewer at far left, it's Sparks, Bueno, Klieh Puckett, Bell, Wright, McNulty, Scheele, Turner, and Gary Atwood. But no one was really warm that day . . . 6- . . . not even bundled-up alumni or "The Girls", who had the benefit of fur and umbrellas.

1-Wearing sweatshirts, warmups, ski hats, gloves, and socks on their hands, the Indiana Collegiate Conference field roars away from the line on a 36-degree day of freezing rain. IC still had by far the largest group of fans, and you'd better believe they warmed the hearts of the main Greyhound men . . . 2- . . . who filed past with frozen determination; Erhard Bell . . . 3- . . . Herman Bueno, Roger Wright, and Steve Turner . . . 4- . . . surprising reserve Kleith Puckett, who finished higher than half the varsity, and Dennis Scheele and Gary Atwood . . . 5- . . . and elfin Dennis McNulty. 6-After five miles of total cold, thoroughly wet Greyhound top finisher Steve Turner, third overall in the ICC, loves the sight of the finish line. 7-Like we said, Central had by far the largest group of fans. Convinced, aren't you? The Conference sure is—that's 4 crowns in 6 years for the Greyhounds.

IC hears the sound of brass, wind, string, and drum

1-'Sheer power' is a good, short definition of Jim Edison's ICU Stage Band. Twice a week in Recital Hall, the sounds of Kenton, Brubeck, Ferguson, and other kings of big band jazz come roaring out of these instruments. 2-Part of the band's right cross is here, in the brass section. John Blessing, Kent Sterrett, Paul Allison, Dave Carpenter, Gary Hamilton, and John Wimmer play it, with bassist Ken Granger behind. 3-Music is an artistic diversion, yet it requires solid concentration from Ken Granger and John Stobaugh.

(The ORACLE regrets that no group pictures of the Symphonic Wind Ensemble or the Stage Band were taken for this yearbook.)

24 Everybody wins in the 'Blood Drive Game'

The Alpha Phi Omega Blood Drives: Oct. 21 and March 3.

Meditation of a Blood Donor

*I give my blood, Christ gave His,
I give a pint, He gave His all!*

*My needle is tiny and sharp,
His nails large and dull!*

*My table is soft and relaxing,
His Cross rough and excruciating!*

*My nurses are gentle and kind,
His executioners cruel and relentless!*

*The crowd applauds my mite,
His mob jeers His Total Sacrifice!*

*My pint is for only ONE,
His all is for EVERYONE!*

*Mine for only ONE adds days of life,
His for EVERYONE adds life forever!*

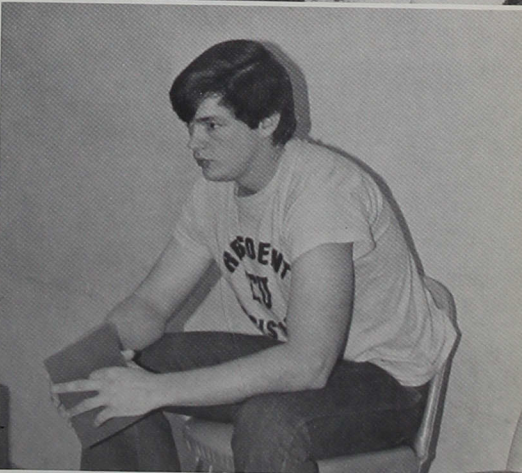

*Then Jesus said, "Drink of My Cup!"
"Yes," said I, "IF YOU but help me UP!"*

INSTRUCTIONS

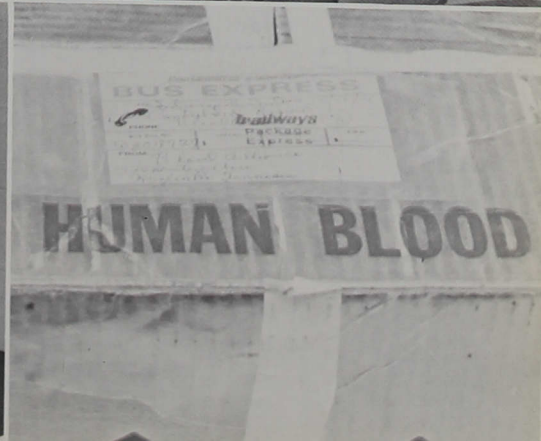

Loretta Briggs has her info card typed by APO members; Chris Keller then submits to a medical questionnaire. After Randy Lewis provides the info, Dan Williams offers a sample of his vital fluid for a last test, and Gloria Cutshaw, Mark Claey, and Dan Mitchell sit with that thing in their mouths, to make sure they're healthy. Laura Sanchez gets a blood pressure once-over, and then it's time for Mitchell to wait nervously for an open table.

Keller receives her tourniquet, and, while Camille Goins can't seem to show any vein in order to give, Keller encounters the moment of truth. Many reactions show up; John Ruthroff is all for it, Mitchell pursues a scientific interest, and Mike "Art" Chapman colls it, as usual.

And then it's over. Sanchez has to rest before attempting to walk, but Deb Hampton is already into the juice and doughnuts. The winners of the game find some interesting thoughts on the home square.

The Evening Division of Indiana Central—a welcome relief for daytime laborers who want to earn anything from some extra skills to a full-fledged diploma; a royal pain in the tail for many Day Division students who wind up having to sacrifice some “free time” to get classes that aren’t in the Day Division. At the Pendleton Reformatory, at Eli Lilly, at Irvington, at the Mt. Zion Baptist Church, or at 1400 East Hanna Avenue, ICU serves the specialized needs of many students. Some Day Division folk, however, would sure like to effect a change or two to free them from a dual role.

1—Our sure candidate for IC's Play of the Year is shown below. On a losing day up in Michigan, Hope errs on the run, and, with Tim Lanie(63), Joe Jester(22), Mike Mach(33), and John Peters(66) sealing off the right side, the 'Black Baron', Mike Mills(21), gets his hands on the ball(not visible here). 2—As Bill Willan(88) upends a Flying Dutchman pursuer, and with Lanie in tow, Mills turns a Hope touchdown effort into a 96-yard 'Hound score. 3—Finishing it off, in his consistent way, with Dick Nalley(24) holding, is freshman Ralph Reiff.

1-Greyhound eyes were on Dick Nalley all fall. In 9 games, he upped his 4-year total to 3,559 career yards—more than any other Indiana college kid ever has. Here, against Anderson, he follows Tom Largus one time . . . 2- . . . and Jim Slavens(27) and Tom Geffert(69) the next. 3-For the last time, Dick Nalley trots to the bench . . . 4- . . . but, in spite of some high-priced Evansville advertising, . . . 5- . . . a new edition of Nalley, freshman Dan Williams, rolls in for 3 TDs against the Purple Aces to cap a fine debut year. 6-Miscast in a fullback role (and minus his Silver Shoes), Darrell "Duddy" Reeves still ripped up the enemy on vital kick returns, as shown here against Anderson. 7-At Valparaiso, Dick Nalley was injured—but not before he broke the record of Purdue's Otis Armstrong on a 70-yard touchdown lateral from Dave Overman(15). Here, he takes a more direct route for some yards.

PAGE 30: 1-The dark side of quarterbacking: Doug Clark's shoulder gets removed on this tackle from Anderson (he missed some games) . . . 2- . . . and Dave Overman screams for help when the blockers don't, and wall-to-wall Franklin stormtroopers appear. 3-Flea-sized Larry Zembala looks for room against Franklin, as John Jones(52) and Steve Williams(69) move to make the room. 4-Defensive concentration: Dave Wollman awaits the Anderson snap . . . 5- . . . and the payoff: John Peters(66), Larry Barnhorst(60), Joe Jester(22), and Mike Sears(18) nail the Raven runner. 6-Before the day was over, these 'Hound offensive men would have moved Wabash aside to the tune of 418 total yards. 7-Larry Barnhorst lays back into a Wabash-bound punt. 8-The ace of the IC Air Force, Jim Slavens, reels in the first TD of the DePauw win on a 25-yarder from Overman.

PAGE 31: 1-Butler's Kevin McDevitt gets peeled by Dave Wollman—and out pops a football. 2-Who can forget the 'Hound defense which turned DePauw back time after tension-filled time to win the game? Tiger QB Rich Boling won't, as Kevin Mouser(75) piledrives him to the freezing, slushy turf (with vital aid from his friends) on the IC 1. 3-In the fine art of punt-blocking, vet Bill Willan is both picturesque and late against St. Joseph's . . . 4- . . . but soph Mike Mach is split-seconds away from scoring a safety on Franklin. 5, 6-Steve McLean finds a DePauw pass in the middle of nowhere, and, escorted by Phil Gatts(31), the surprising freshman comes upfield with it. 7-With injuries on both squads, many exciting new stars got their shot (such as John Jones, George Novak, and Jerry Throgmartin)—here's the best of them, defensive end Kevin Mouser, about to eat Evansville's Jacques Williams alive. 8-Intense defensive backfield coach Terry Wetherald could sure get mad at errors in his area . . . 9- . . . but he could be calmed by things like Phil Gatts's two pass thefts against Evansville.

1-Elections occupied a good deal of the year, and the most important came in November. Then-First-Lady Betty Ford came to Indy to open the new Children's Museum (and to do a little public-relations politicking for her husband Gerry) in early fall. She chats here with WRTV's Barbara Boyd. 2-Democratic victor Jimmy Carter did come to town in the fall, but ICU had already been visited the previous spring by First Kid Amy. 3-The nation chose Carter, but Indiana went Republican at the top, headed by Ford, Governor Otis Bowen, and temporary prof Richard Lugar, who went to the Senate. 4-Hail to the chief of ICU—new Central Council President Mark Adams, elected in the spring over Randy Caster. 5-Larry Yarrell gives his own campaign speech to an amused Phil Hardwick in front of the Adams giant sign (formerly Schwitzer Center). On hand are Charla Cross, Francois Mercho, Pat Poland, and Adams.

We elected Ford, Carter, Lugar, and (Mark) Adams

1-Starting this particular match for IC will be Jean Shilt, Carla Marsh, Judy Service, Sherrie Perkins, Jane Fulton, and Eileen Walters. 2-Coach Sue Willey is a good deal ticked off about a series of Miscues, and she vents her feelings in a time-out. 3-Polly Gauck tries hard, but she sends this set-up backwards against Butler. 4-The prime concern in volleyball, as in many other sports, is 'eye on the ball'. That's true whether you're serving it, like Sherrie Perkins . . . 5- . . . putting it over the net, like Deb Frey . . . 6- . . . or getting ready to send it for a spike, like Melia Brooks.

1 & 2-The Book of Job, unlike others of the Bible, has no specified time in which it happened; like this book, 'J.B.' (an updated yet timeless dramatization of Job) will speak to all ages. Important to the play are Satan and God, who come to life when Mr. Nickles (1) and Mr. Zuss (2) use their masks.

Curse God and die? 'J.B.' says "No!"

J.B.'s Production Staff:

Richard A. Williams, Producer and Director ☆ Pat Maple, Assistant Director ☆ James W. Ream, Technical Director ☆ Larry Lynch, Assistant Technical Director ☆ Russell Foster, Make-up Designer ☆ Karen Ream, Lighting Designer and Master Lighting Technician ☆ Carol Hill, Costume Designer and Costume Mistress ☆ Jim Davidsen, Stage Manager ☆ Deborah Harper, Assistant Stage Manager ☆ Sue Smart, Master Stage Technician ☆ Howard Kello, Master Sound Technician ☆ Sue Armstrong Properties Mistress ☆ George W. 3-Indiana Central Theatre's entry in the 1976-77 American College Theatre Festival, 'J.B.' makes good use of the lines provided by the modern master of free verse, Archibald MacLeish. The lengthy, confusing chapters of Job are here distilled and worked into a challenging and understandable statement about Man's faith in God in a mortal world. Below, J.B., Sarah, and their family enjoy their happiness—but Messrs. Nickles and Zuss, the instigators of the play, listen in before bringing on the terrible calamities which reshape J.B., Sarah, and their faith.

Profs flex artistic muscles, and Nepal pays IC a visit

1-From October 3 to 23, the three members of the ICU art faculty revealed their latest creations. Dr. Gerald Boyce works mainly in silverpoint and foil, with haunting effect . . . 2- . . . Dee Schaad, the pottery wheel-er-dealer, likes earthy sculpture . . . 3- . . . and Earl Snellenberger weaves warmth into his fabric and fiber sculptures. 4-A hand-made Nepalese native carries his burden in doll form. The arts and crafts of Nepal could be seen from November 29 to December 10, due to Tika Thapa's efforts, in order to reveal his country to us as a gift. 5-From the richness of a rug . . . 6- . . . to the terror of a cloth painting . . . 7- . . . to a moody mask—a small land shows its big art. 8-Dr. and Mrs. Sease flank Tika, who wears modern native dress, as the show opens.

PAGE 38: 1 & 2-At 82, Elizabeth Cotten, the composer of country music classic "Freight Train", is still going very strong. 3-'Snoopy' (Cam Manifold) interprets the Pear Tree, the Calling Birds, and the Five Golden Rings, breathing some new comic life into the Christmas Convo based on the Peanuts strip. 4-Ron Hudson and his living fingers made some new believers at ICU in the classic guitar style . . . 5- . . . and former National League MVP Don Newcombe, who wrecked his career with alcoholic beverages, made the strongest possible case against the use of liquor. 6-'Linus' (Larry Lynch) does some quick memorizing with the aid of 'Lucy' (Becky Bonham), also during the Christmas Convo.

PAGE 39: LEFT SEQUENCE-That honorable Englishman, Colin Jackson, M.P. (that's member of Parliament) employed visual punctuation and British wit during his usual solid speech. 1-From the Sublime (Carol Murphy's pretty voice) . . . 2- . . . to the Ridiculous (Rick Marshall gets toothbrushed by an independent set of hands as a star ballplayer) . . . 3- . . . to the Comfortable (Country Rick Wimmer, IC's Good Ol' Boy), it was all in all a super Student Talent Show. 4-Dave Baker, noted Jazz educator, was the most updated Sutphin Lecturer yet—but he still received low marks on the student ranking. 5-It's Classic time in the Student Talent Show, and Corinne Graham, Steve Petry, and Pat Mosley do it very well.

1-February 6 was the time for 101 first-year nurses to receive their caps. Central's largest major has this special ceremony of its own as a major recognition for its new folk. 2-Mrs. LeAlice Briggs pins on Gloria Barnes's new symbol as Sondra Badger and Teresa Adams wear theirs (left) and Lovella Brown and Kathy Brown wait their turn. 3-Amy Brower lights her lamp from Karla Brown's. Lovella Brown and Kathy Brown already have light, and Susan Brodie, Sheri Fisher, Cindy Brewer, and Karen Bolton await it. 4-Lamps lit, the final oath is taken by the entire class.

1—"Hit the open man", or so they always say in the textbooks—and two 'Hounds are trying to put that into practice in harried game situations at home. Frosh guard Jim Wernke wards off Marian's man with one leg . . . 2- . . . and Jeff Hanni is set to shovel it off away from Valparaiso.

Angus Nicoson took a leave of absence (later a disability retirement) on December 17, before the Capital game. Bill Bright became head coach.

1-With an 11-8 record under Bill Bright, there's hope in the locker room. Before a game, Marty Johnson, Steve Hodgson, Steve Kahl, Dave Ancelet, Jeff Hanni, Tim Bajusz, Jim Farmer, Coach Bright, and assistant Will Wienhorst get ready. 2-And it's the mite-y 'Ace Boon Koon', Dave Ancelet, in good form to burn Franklin while the End Zone Zombies are amazed. 3-One picture says it all—Kevin Pearson battles Bill Caskey of DePauw. 4-Using SPORTS ILLUSTRATED's terminology, Kevin Pearson has just unleashed an 'Incredible Screaming Reverse Twist Arm Job' slam dunk against Huntington.

1-The Sophs' strike again—Jeff Hanni trails, Kevin Pearson leads, and Dave Ancelet is set to embarrass Huntington. 2-Don McGlocklin of Butler is not having a good evening—if little Dave Ancelet isn't hassling his lay-up attempt one time . . . 3- . . . then elongated Steve Kahl is the one refusing his attempts at scoring. 4-Tim Bajusz jumped into many games this winter to fire up a 'Hound attack that sometimes got as cold as the weather outside. Here, against DePauw, he gets carried away with his jumping. 5-Again borrowing SPORTS ILLUSTRATED's words, Steve Kahl has rendered Valparaiso unconscious with an 'Unbelievably Terrifying DeLaurentis Memorial Gorilla Stuff'. 6-Actionwise, it was too little, too late, for ever-prepared senior Bob Buscher, shooting against DePauw. 7-A collision in rebounding leaves Tim Bajusz with the ball and Jim Farmer with a nervous breakdown, in the DePauw win.

 Indiana Collegiate Conference Championship, at Evansville, Feb. 26: Greyhounds 86%, Evansville 85%, Valparaiso 52, DePauw 15, St. Joseph's 14. Greyhound titles—118 (Scott Miles), 142 (Tony Starks), 190 (Carmen Hurley), Hwt. (Tom Zupancic).

1-Carmen "Big C" Hurley became the team point leader as injuries rocked the 'Hounds for many weeks. Here, against Indiana, a single leg pickup won't take the man down . . . 2- . . . but a bit of pressure on the other leg will.

Wrestlers cop ICC crown again, in spite of injuries

1-A Tom Zupancic-John Williams (Evansville) match is really something to behold—especially when it's once again for the Conference crown. The warlord Zupo snarls at the Purple Ace . . . 2- . . . but, after temporary diversions like this one, he emerged once again as the champ. 3-Scott Miles is in (knee) trouble, and Coach Wetherald knows it; Valpo's men wait for a forfeit, but Miles went on to win his first Conference title. 4-Experience will help Dave Baker's talents, as he gets stacked by the Evansville ICC champ. 5, 6-The most exciting Conference match belonged to our man Tony Starks, a 14-13 victor over Evansville's Dave Contreras; on his feet (5) or switching for a reverse (6), Starks looks good for IC in the future.

1-Injuries felled men like Mark Gray, Don Nickleson, and most of the other 'Hounds'; thus it is that Carmen Hurley loosens up totally before the ICC finals. 2-When you position yourself too high over your opponent, usually something happens to you which looks like what Dave Kilmer's going through. 3-Jesse Carrasquillo came up with the fastest IC pin ever—8 seconds—in the season. He lost this Conference semifinal bout, but got third. 4-Wabash has Joe Jester under control—or so it seems . . . 5- . . . until Joe unleashes his 'Gramby Roll' and begins to turn it around. 6-Two tough middleweights advance to the ICC finals; Jim Romack flattens his Valpo foe . . . 7- . . . and Kerry Geesaman wins in overtime against another Valpo man.

1-Cindy Sare (20) goes to a fake to get by Franklin's girl . . . 2- . . . but, all of a sudden, it won't work. Sare was still an encouraging sign in this small-roster season. 3-Pivot Deb Sachs gets ready for a pass from Lila Grant. 4-The stocky Lila Grant can fly, when a jump shot against the Grizzlies is needed. 5-Freshman Judy Service got a lot of time this year. Past midcourt on an anti-Franklin fast break, . . . 6- . . . she takes it on up through the enemy force. She and the team gained experience, though the squad was minus veterans like Jane Fulton and Darlene Wendeln.

Mens' Intramural B-ball still tops

Even though IC men and women play team handball, volleyball, and basketball, here's where the action is—at least until the program's expanded.

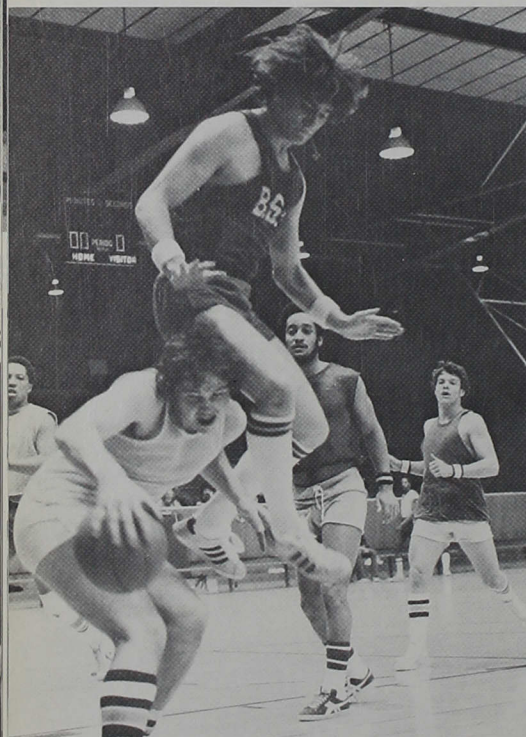

1-Superb Ben Moore of the Stable Boys, the most exciting player this year in any league, begins this A League final game album by faking around the Skins' Ralph Hayes. 2-Stable Boys sub Dennis Young has a case of the knock-knees after a hesitant fake . . . 3- . . . while Skins' forward Ed C. Matheny has no doubt about whose rebound this will be. 4-Tough Phil Gatts of the Skins missed the shot-block—but not Dennis Young's body. 5-Five big reasons for the Stable Boys' win: Rich Carroll, being fouled by Jim Slavens (behind); . . . 6- . . . Alan Mullen(23), passing around Ralph Hayes; . . . 7- . . . Mike Zelinga, on a late layup past Ed Moore; . . . Steve Thomas(7); jamming Ed Matheny and Ralph Hayes on a screen; and the afore-mentioned Ben Moore (with ball).

Regular Season

A LEAGUE—The Stable Boys, 5-0; The U.I.C. Skins and The Cowpokes, both 3-2; Stoney Run, 2-3; Nick's Rejects and The Hairy Buffaloes, both 1-4.
 B LEAGUE—The Intramural Basketball Machine, 6-0; The Hustlers, 5-0; The Flyers and The Sharpshooters, both 4-1; The Hole, The O-men, Stoney Run, and Tribe II, all 3-2; The Beaver Patrol and The Mushrooms, both 2-3; The Top Ekoms, 1-5; The Rimshots, The 73rd Street Reformed Stickball Team, and Team Massive, all 0-5.
 C LEAGUE—The Space Cadets, 3-1; The Dunkers and The 76ers, both 3-2; The Hustlers, LePage's Angels, and The Skudbusters, all 2-2; The Krannert Kennel Dog Catchers, 0-4.

Final Four

A LEAGUE—U.I.C. Skins 68, Cowpokes 66; Stable Boys 67, Nick's Rejects 53; Stable Boys 54, U.I.C. Skins 48 (championship).
 B LEAGUE—Stoney Run 96, Mushrooms 56; Intramural Basketball Machine 68, Top Ekoms 45; Stoney Run 64, Intramural Basketball Machine 52 (championship).
 C LEAGUE—Space Cadets 40, Krannert Kennel DogCatchers 33; 76ers 31, Skudbusters 28; 76ers 44, Space Cadets 30 (championship).

1-In B League regular season play, the O-men's Terry Stevens can't block Dave Beal's shot for The Hole (especially not with shut eyes) . . . 2- . . . but Stoney Run's John Cheesman succeeds in both blocking Tribe II's Jesse Trueblood and in picking up a foul.

THE STABLE BOYS: ROW 1-Ben Moore, Rich Carroll, Dennis Young. ROW 2-Mike Zelinga, Bob Bogardus, Alan Mullen, Ken Stancombe, Steve Thomas.

ROW 4-Soo Armstrong, George Arndt, Susan Day. 2-Melly Soo Armstrong and Chris Miller condemn the 'ungrateful servant' (Kathy Richmond) to 'torture'. 3-George Arndt is the 'brother who has a grievance' against someone else, waiting more or less patiently for that one to 'make peace at once with him'. 4-Brian Cummings, as Jesus, puts the essence of God's truth into song. 5-The cast, singing "God Save The People", made learning about God an enjoyable thing.

Boone's prints a soft hit; the students do their own creation

1-An entertaining, colorful, and unexpected show came from Garret Boone, who prints his designs on felt sheets for a soft effect. Three witty pieces were these: a fly, an ant, and a cockroach are the 'Unendangered Species' on a slice of rye bread; 2-The 'Adjustable Self-Portrait', with slots for inserting cutouts of your features; 3-and the moderate view of Robert Indiana's famed 'LOVE' design. 4-And now, the learning process; Charla Cross, basic freshman, reworks her still life. . . 5- . . . and vet Steve Guiliani puts details on what only looks like a broken vase. 6-According to Chet Atkins's hit country song "Frog Kissin'", the bust of Dr. Sease should become a handsome prince—and though we're tempted to say "Fat chance" (just kidding), we can say that these two from the Student Art Exhibition were as well received as their companions.

Mix well, shake with laughter; and then 'See How They Run'

SEE HOW THEY RUN

SEE HOW THEY RUN's Production Staff:

Richard A. Williams, Producer and Director ☆ Seth Rossman, Assistant Director and Stage Manager ☆ James W. Ream, Technical Director ☆ Carol E. Hill, Assistant Technical Director ☆ L. Cameron Manifold, Scene Designer ☆ Susan Richardson, Assistant Stage Manager and Master Stage Technician ☆ Jim Davidsen and Tom Kennedy, Master Lighting Technicians ☆ Debra Overbey, Costume Mistress ☆ Roger Carlile, Stage Properties Master ☆ Brian Cummings, Hand Properties Master ☆ Deborah Sargent, Make-up Mistress ☆ Becky Wykes and Susan Day, House Managers ☆ Pat Maple, Box Office Manager ☆ Lou Gerig, Publicity.

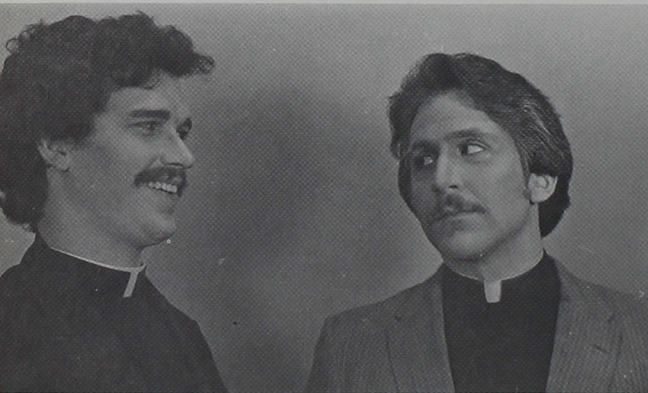

Debra Overbey as Ida
Melly Soo Armstrong as Miss Skillon
L. Cameron Manifold as the Reverend Lionel Toop
Rebecca S. Bonham as Penelope Toop
Gary G. Robinson as Corporal Clive Winton
Lawrence E. Lynch as The Intruder
Gary W. Marks as The Bishop of Lax
Derek C. Weber as the Reverend Arthur Humphrey
Greg Michael as Sergeant Towers

1-A British comedy that hits the American funnybone full square, 'See How They Run' made the best after-dinner-theatre surprise in years for IC audiences. We are given an existing conflict of personalities between happy American Penelope and prim Britisher Miss Skillon . . . 2- . . . into which, in turn, are injected such varied characters as the ultra-meeek Rev. Toop, the straight-and-narrow Bishop of Lax, . . . 3- . . . the desperate, intruding Russian spy, the comical soldier friend of Penelope's, . . . 4- . . . and, finally, the nervous, earnest Rev. Humphrey (being led on here by Penelope). 5-And here's the final product—five English vicars, caught up in a wild chase, neither really knowing who the others are. If you missed this play, people, YOU'RE the losers.

Spring means queens for many an IC co-ed

1-Leap Week (March 7-12) led to the Spring Festival Queen ceremony this year for the first time; on March 12, Karol Payne became the lady of the hour, with both last year's and this year's courts on stage with her. 2-Karol's court consisted of Terri Stucker, Sue Patterson, Marla Wallace, and Vicki Ellis (left to right, with Payne at far right). 3-The Queen must be entertained—and the entertainment was up a notch in quality this time. As Dr. Sease went to meet with President Ford (for whatever reason), so Dave Sease's Sease impression goes (back in time) to meet the rather-unlamented ex-President "Nixon" (Terry Stevens). 4-Frank Langan and Patti Sharkey were among the crowd the previous night at the Sweetheart Dance at Stouffer's. 5-Class entertainment for the Festival was also the forte of organist Jim Vogleman . . . 6 . . . and of the tear-jerking looney tunes of the Faculty Four (Dr. Lynn Youngblood, Dr. Adolf Hansen, Dr. George Humbarger, and Rev. Reggie Monson).

ABOVE-The six Indiana Central ladies pictured here competed for the title of "Miss ICU" on May 4—the first step towards becoming both "Miss Indiana" and "Miss America". After the swimsuit, talent, and evening gown sections of the night were done, Libby Scoggins received the crown for a year of representing IC at various functions. 1-Indiana Central even had two coeds among the 33 princesses of the 500 Festival during May; freshman Dana Derbyshire made the Queen's Court (the top five) . . . 2- . . . and junior Terri Stucker was part of the rest.

Semester 2 Convocations: diversions are again tops

PAGE 62: 1-The Class Quiz competition returned for the end of the semester and was very interesting. First, the Freshmen beat the Sophomores, and the Seniors did likewise to the Juniors. At the last convo (above), the Seniors—Mark Fisher, Jeff Chansler, Steve Nontell, Paul Ludwig, and Liz Cardona (left table)—took a stirring title win over the sharp Frosh quintet—Brad Coats, Scott Van Natter, Frank Spall, Rich Van Rheeden, and Tom Richardson (right table). Dr. Marshall Gregory is the MC. 2 & 3-ICU '76 grads Vicky Ackerman(2), Chris Brown(3), and Tim Coats came back with a band called 'Cottonwood'—and were a hit. 4-Dave Sease, P.K. (President's Kid), gavelled the Library Auction to gain needed new Library funds . . . 5- . . . and Ralph Reiff bought a slightly embarrassing spot on Don Hein's WTHR-TV sports show, which was compensated for by front-line tickets for the Pacers. ICU staffers and faculty offered many other unique items and services in the auction.

PAGE 63: 1-Elbert Hill makes it clear that "This world was made for all men" in the Black History Week convo, with Bob Penner, Ed Matheny, Dave Bolling, Andrea Henderson, Kevin Stricklen, and Curt Phillips listening. 2-Lorna Harris introduces her mayor, Gary's Richard Hatcher, during that same week. 3-Baron Von Ohlen's drums, . . . 4- . . . plus some walling wind music . . . 5- . . . added to his commanding brass section, took charge of his convo from Note One—and we liked it. 6-Indiana Central students enjoying ballet? Impossible to believe—until the Indianapolis Ballet Theatre flowed onto the stage. 7-Even an abbreviated form of "Godspell" makes for thoughtful entertainment. Cam Manifold presents 'Jesus' (Brian Cummings) to the crowd . . . 8- . . . and, in a musical manner, Deb Sargent is in the aisle, communicating the song "Turn Back, O Man" to her fellow Centralites.

PAGE 64: 1-Between April 15 and 19, the Indiana Central Concert Choir made music and friends for their University in Illinois, Missouri, and south Indiana. Their good hosts were always ready with food . . . 2 . . . such as that enjoyed by Gail Chamberlain, Barb McClain, and Janet Walker, in Mt. Carmel, Ill. 3-Relaxing in St. Louis, Steve Miller, Larry Yarrell, Kevin Hook, and Tom Spencer are at the Zoo . . . 4 . . . viewing the antics of the Tibetan bear. 5-Brenda Maxwell and Jan Hittle prepare to trek to the Gateway Arch. 6-Don Snyder and his Mt. Carmel host's dog pose tastefully during breakfast. 7-Life is crowded (but funny) when spent on a tour bus.

PAGE 65: 1-But after the fun comes the main order of business. At New Harmony, Larry Yarrell is the soloist this time. 2-Brian Brauchla and Wendy Sullivan pair up for a romantic Centraliares interlude . . . 3 . . . and he and Chris Miller combat the 'Big Bad Wolf' (Gary Conway) with Scope in a comic segment. 4-Tenor Steve Petry came up with a beautiful composition of his own, and the Choir breathes life into it while he conducts it. 5, 6, & 7-Gerald Kemner's modern work "Ezekiel" requires physical as well as vocal involvement—and, though it feels strange to perform, the Choir delivers when it counts.

1, 2-Mark Claeys wound up as No. 1 for the season, and the longlimbed soph needed all the balance he shows in these photos to do the job. 3-Kevin Whitacre, who once was king before the hurried Senior year arrived, still used all his hard-nosed drive when he played. 4-Wacky warrior Mark Haltom picked up his first Conference crown . . . 5- . . . and Jeff West racked up his second straight one. 6-New man Dave Kitchell, practicing, was needed by the 'Hound attack and filled that need pretty well.

PAGE 68: 1-Mike 'Sleepy' Weaver, the multi-purpose Conference MVP, takes a giant step in the Little State broad jump. 2-The fickle finger of fate forces Erhard Bell on in the slop and solid rain against Butler. 3-Elbert Hill ends his try at broad jumping in a cloud of dusty sand on the Wabash track. 4-Delays, delays . . . the Vincennes meet closes in darkness with the mile relay. Charlie Sparks pirouettes sideways after handing off to Mark Fisher. 5-Little State steeplechase king Herman Bueno emerges from the water jump . . . 6- . . . and comes into view of his mother, who has been wheeled into the best seat for the race. 7-Mike Weaver appears to get a push from his worried Vincennes opponent.

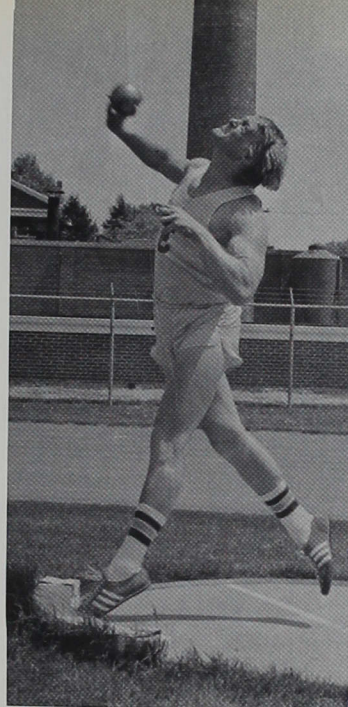

PAGE 69: 1-The steeplechase gets a try from Kieith Puckett, Dennis McNulty, and Charlie Sparks, against Vincennes. 2-IC record holder Dave Wollman is at the moment of release in the shot put . . . 3- . . . and Tim Lanie feels the aftermath. 4-Are you a fan of controversy? Then you'll enjoy these views of Gary Atwood and Herman Bueno running as a team to help Herman win the 3-mile . . . 5- . . . only to have the Little State meet director (and the coach of the race's runner-up, from Wabash) disqualify Bueno as Coach England and a ticked-off team watch. 6-Sculpture in the sun: Mark Hetrick at the apex of the pole vault. 7-You've gotta measure any prospective record first—so Don Pitman and Dick Nalley do. Kevin Pearson watches . . . 8- . . . and then curls over 6' 10" of space and bar for the new ICU mark. Records set by Pearson and Dave Wollman did something to offset the injuries which robbed irreplaceables like Rick Parsons, Dick Nalley, Dave Cutshaw, Mark Reiff, and Mike Mills from the Greyhound lineup.

Greyhounds turn around with speed and good arms

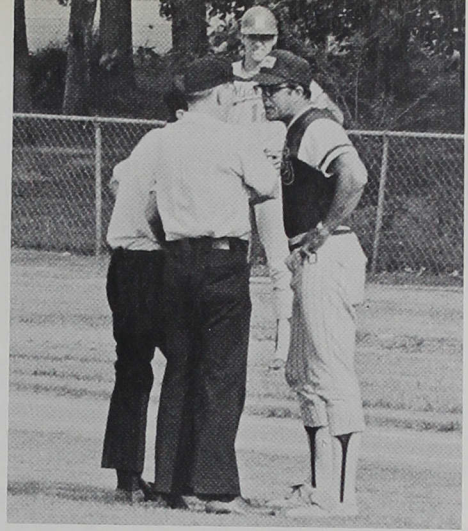

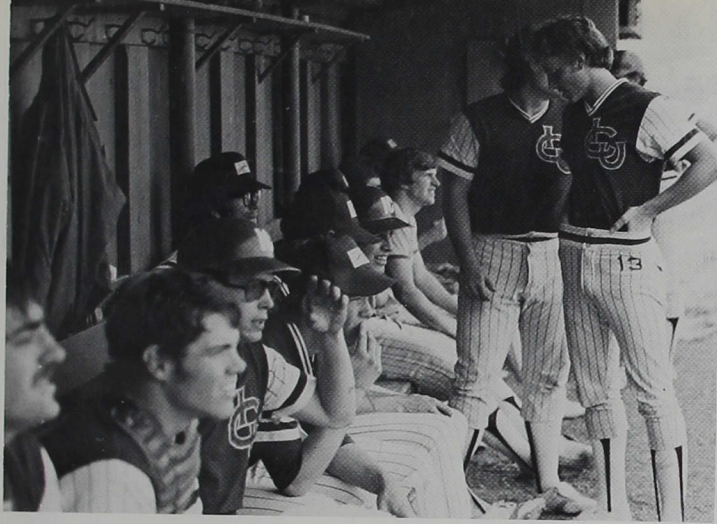

1-Oops. Tony Thacker miscues during infield practice, and Phil Hardwick will have to pick it up. 2-In a game, though, there's no room for error, and Scott Lockhart comes from first with a dead eye on this infield fly. Curt Phillips is the spectator behind.

1-The moods of the bench are many and varied, as these faces show. Visible are Randy Tolley, Jim Slavens, Dave Vleck, Dave Overman, Jim Wernke, Rusty Goodpaster, and Joe Gaylor. 2-Angry words cross the air as Coach Bill Bright doesn't believe some Miami of Ohio runner is safe. 3-In the bullpen, two starters—righty Will Wienhorst and lefty Mark Welch—warm up for the day's games by throwing to Dave Overman (17) and 'Duddy' Reeves (11). 4-Tony Thacker gets the high peg over third base during practice. 5-The quiet surprise, Dave Steele, works out at shortstop during pregame. 6-More of the youth core get game time: Jim Wernke watches Brian Ehram's pitch.

1-It's bare skin in practice: Scott Keeler comes in from third on a single . . . 2- . . . and it's a blur of crimson in the game: Coach Bill Bright watches Jim Slavens roar on in to score a real run. 3-And away it goes! Joe Gaylor puts one away to get something going against Butler, as the bench and fans look on. 4-Rusty Goodpaster is out at first, thanks to Butler, while Ron Lawson does the coaching. 5-Fangs bared, Will Wienhorst makes the big stride towards home plate against Wright State. 6-The addition of transfer Curt Phillips was a breath of fresh air for a young 'Hound infield. He and the rest of the 'new look' presented Coach Bright with a respectable .941 fielding average. Here, against Indiana State, he draws in this relay toss. 7-Later, he comes over from second to find a Sycamore runner stuck between third and home . . . 8- . . . and, with tact and gentle persuasion, he runs him down toward home, where both catcher and ball soon will be.

The Class of '77 picks up its dreams

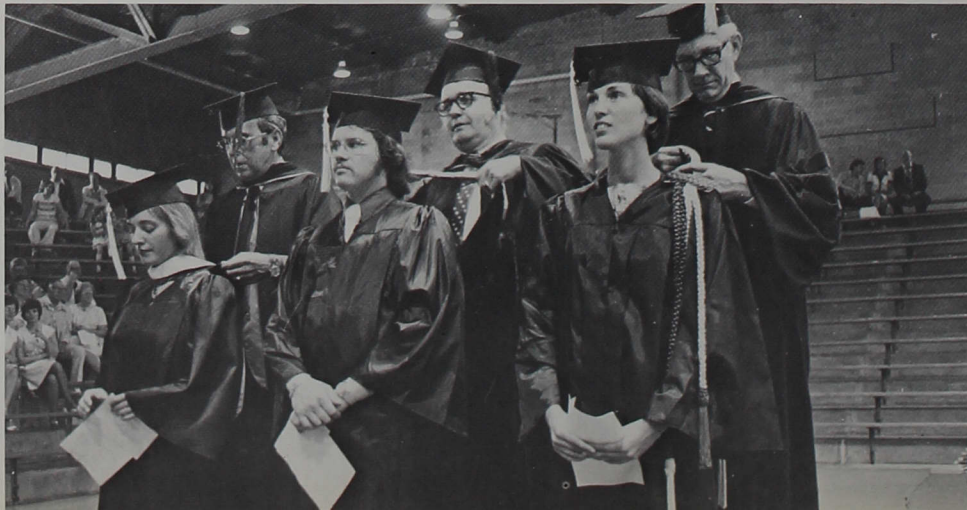

1-At 11:00 a.m., May 22, on a hot, clouded Hoosier Sunday, 407 Centralites from both divisions—Day and Evening—trooped into the gymnasium to finalize the process of graduation. First, the Baccalaureate service . . . 2- . . . to hear the Reverend John P. Adams invoke the role of God in what has and will happen to each of us, graduates and audience alike . . . 3- . . . and to begin wearing the ceremonial hoods of the day. Dr. Gerald Boyce, Dr. Robert Brooker, and Dr. Robert Cramer do the honors here for pensive seniors Becky Bonham, Mike Cagle, and Liz Cardona.

1-At 4 p.m., it's Commencement time. The main speech . . . 2- . . . came from Rep. Andrew Jacobs Jr. (D-Ind.) — a call for a positive end to crime. 3-Senior president Dave Stowell hands over ICU to upcoming Senior chief exec Glenn Howell. 4-The Class of 1977, assembled together for one day, strides toward the final ceremony. 5-President Sease gave one grad a proper hug and several extra words. Out of order? Not when it's son David being graduated. 6-Portia Ferrell and the other 405 candidates were just as happy to receive proof of their achievement, even without a hug. 7-After the ceremonies, Elvia Solis gets in a picture with her siblings. . . 8- . . . unofficial class clown Dennis McNulty shows us the look of the past . . . 9- . . . and little Miss Granger shows dad Kenny the look of the future.

Let's face it.

'Face' is many things. Some face their problems (or their facts).

Some try hard to save it.

A few face the future; others, the past.

Some put on happy ones and others have sour ones.

Most have wrinkles.

Some can launch a thousand ships, while others serve only to stop clocks.

Some resemble angels.

Some resemble pizzas.

Through it all, it is generally agreed that, if you are at peace with the looks of the one you own, then it's a good one.

In Honor of the Service given to Indiana Central by Mrs. Hilda Bruce, Housemother (1964-1977), and by Mr. Angus Nicolson, Coach (1947-1977).

Though many contribute money, these two gave themselves. When all is accounted for, theirs will be the more valuable gift.

. . . but in the years to come its durability and usefulness will be put to the test by IC humans. It seems to have everything from useful comfortable reading seats to a marble fireplace used only for ceremonial administrative events. Let's hope everyone gets some beneficial mileage out of it.

Unclassified

Please note:

All classifications have been determined, as accurately as possible, from the official ICU Semester II Day Division rosters, completed and printed March 10, 1977.

Beside each name is a list of every page in this yearbook on which that person's picture appears positively identified. Not all pages have been indexed in this fashion, for the sake of convenience. We have done as much as possible toward the goal of a comprehensive index.

Can a private university help lead America?

At Indiana Central University in Indianapolis we still believe in the future of independent education to keep America strong and to help each person realize his potential.

These are times of inflationary costs and a reassessment of educational priorities. Indiana Central University knows that, and has taken steps to assure the continued strength of the independent college system.

1. We are still growing. For the second consecutive year, we have had the largest increase in enrollment of the 32 independent colleges and universities in Indiana. Statistical growth is not really our goal as a small independent institution, but we are glad so many new students have come to us.

2. Our Budget is in balance. From a general operating budget of less than 2 million dollars eight years ago, the 1976-77 operating budget is over $6.25 million. We do not spend money we do not have and will balance this year's budget as we have for the past 30 consecutive years.

3. Costs remain relatively low. Tuition costs are among the more moderate of the independent colleges in the midwest.

4. Programs have expanded. We have added the M.A. and M.B.A. degrees in recent years.

New programs have been added in banking, health careers, criminal justice, legal assistantships, international/intercultural studies, and volunteerism. We are sensitive to changing needs!

5. No federal funds in buildings. We believe in the free enterprise system—have resisted government control—and have used no federal funds for facilities. Our new and modernized buildings, including the new library and learning resources center now under construction, are made possible by friends of the University and by individuals and foundations who believe in what is happening here!

6. We are reaching out. Not content to be simply situated at 1400 East Hanna Avenue to wait for students to come to us, we are reaching out through programs at the Mt. Zion Baptist Church for minority persons, volunteer training across the State in cooperation with the State of Indiana, management development programs in various business and industrial locations, banking programs in Pendleton, Edinburg, and at the Federal Reserve Bank, criminal justice programs at Pendleton Reformatory and the Youth Center in Plainfield, and through the Consortium on Urban Education (CUE) for Indianapolis.

We think you deserve to hear the other side of the story! We strongly believe in the future of independent education to keep America strong and to offer our youth and adults the freedom of choice. Indiana Central expects to be here a long time and become stronger every year.

If you believe in the kind of things we stand for and are interested in additional information—either about our programs for students, or how you might help a strong small university become stronger, please write directly to our president:
