Getting In Gear

Change Main Emphasis In 1981-82

Getting a hold of things and trying to change seemed to be the main emphasis on the 1981-82 school year. Central Council set a goal of becoming a unified body to better help students.

We started thinking about "next year" this year when it came to financial aid and "Reaganomics". Getting in gear to change was a strong force at ICU.

Jennifer Scharbrough, Sally Moser, and Teri Donovan enjoy their carmel apples in the hills of Brown County.

Getting In Gear

How did Indiana Central "Get In Gear" for the 1981-82 school year?

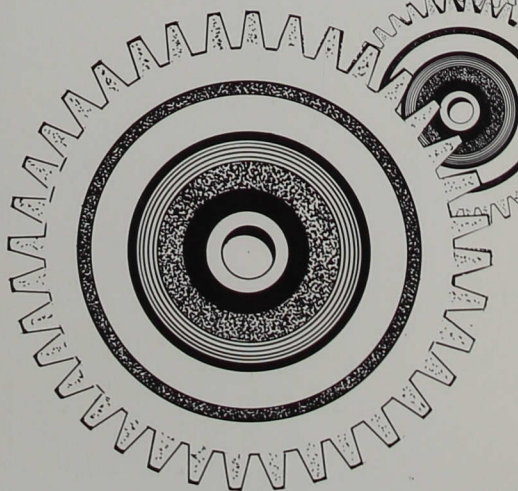

It took a while but it started happening. There were some administrative changes. Dr. Lynn Youngblood took over as vice-president when Mr. Leo Miller retired after 31 years of service at Indiana Central University.

There were convos directed toward the eliminating of student apathy. As a result of these convos the campus newspaper, the Reflector was able to produce two to three newspapers a month.

There was action taken by commuters. They were tired of being the "silent majority".

Yes, it took a while, but Indiana Central "got in gear" through the efforts of dedicated students, and supportive faculty members.

1. Dr. Robert McCauley, philosophy and religion, prepares for the opening convo. This convo lets students know that school has officially started.
2. Getting in on some good clean fun, this IC student takes a splash in the mud. There was one drawback however, Dailey men had to buy new sod for the front of Trimble.
3. Some IC students take advantage of the warm night and attend the Homecoming bonfire.
4. Dennis Massie, Sherri Johnson, and Jeff McPeak cheer on the Greyhounds as they defeat the Evansville Aces.

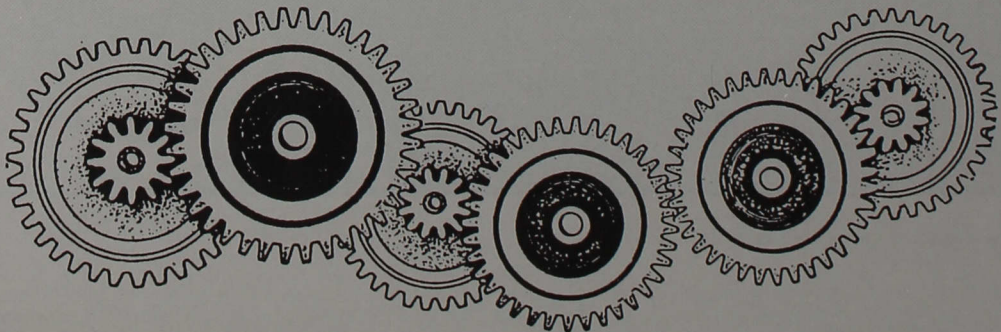

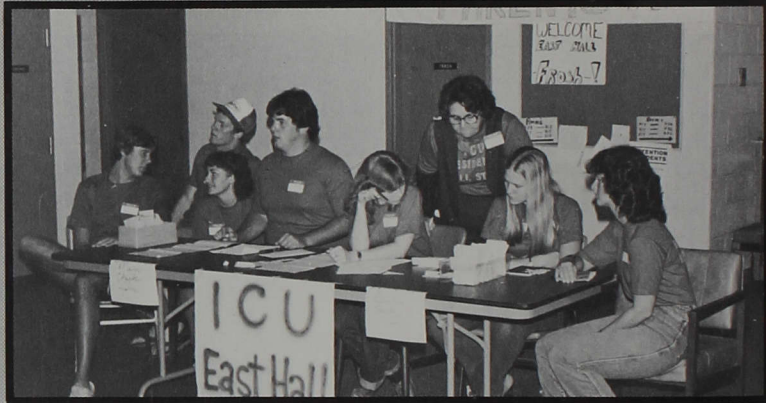

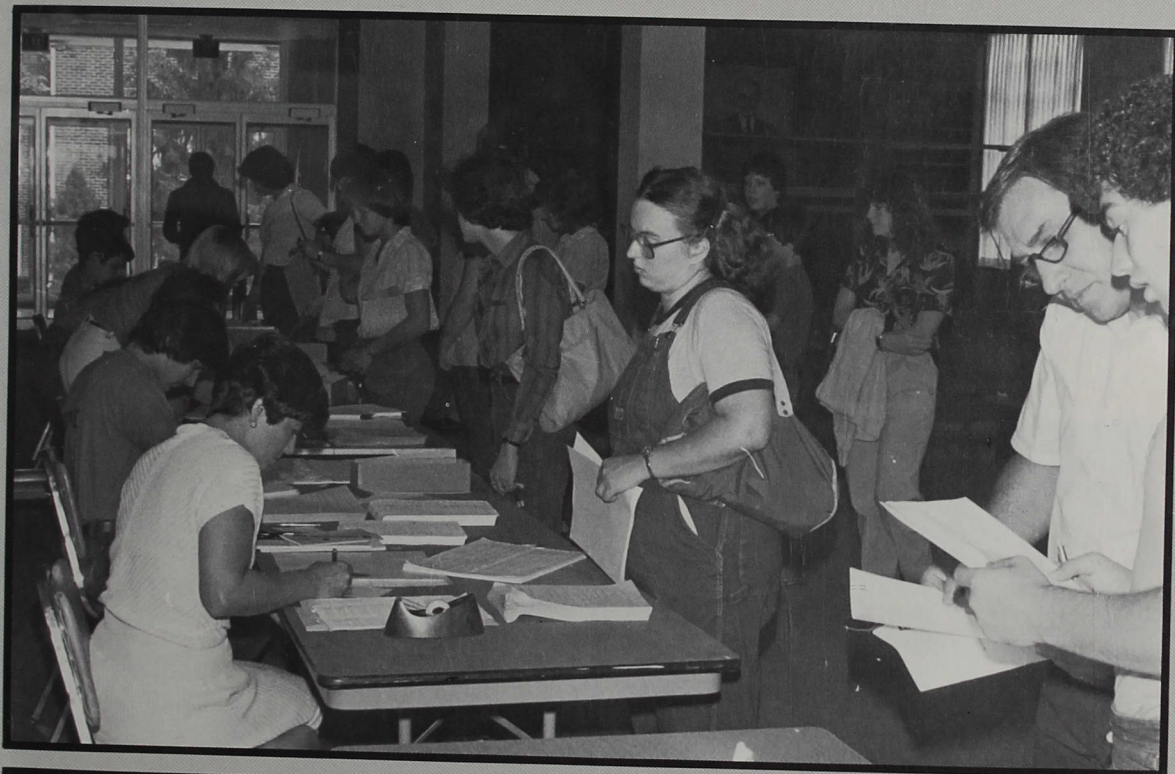

Welcome Freshmen . . .

Freshmen Welcome! That is what Freshmen Orientation is all about. The feelings of nervousness were there but eased with the absence of upperclassmen. New friends were made quickly in those few days. The Orientation Committee, who were sophomores had the same feelings exactly one year ago.

The Orientation Committee provided the freshmen with activities, skits and fun.

Free moments were rare for those freshmen who were being welcomed to their new Indiana Central home.

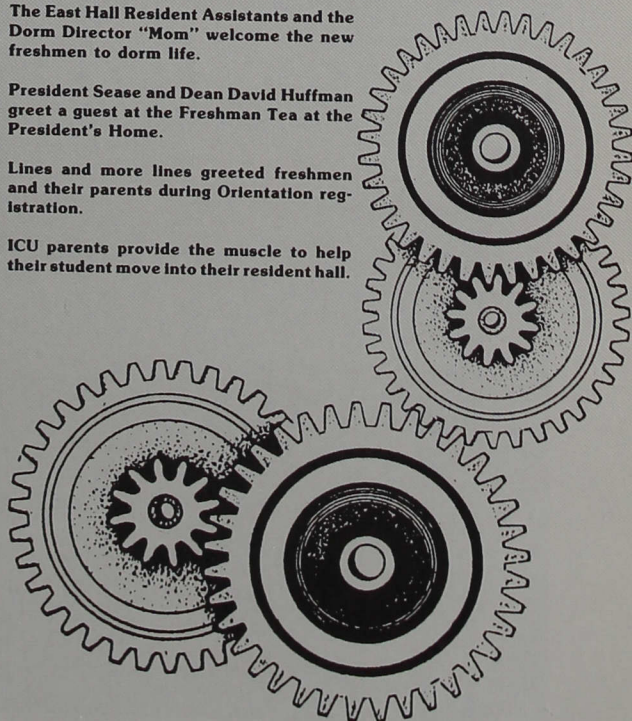

The East Hall Resident Assistants and the Dorm Director "Mom" welcome the new freshmen to dorm life.

President Sease and Dean David Huffman greet a guest at the Freshman Tea at the President's Home.

ICU parents provide the muscle to help their student move into their resident hall.

4. Getting in on Homecoming fun and action, these IC men parade around during the Homecoming game.

Gala Alumni Return

An annual event which "Got IC students in gear" for the 1981-82 school year was the 77th Homecoming. During the day, candidates for Homecoming queen were cheered and ICU alumni received a warm "welcome back" in the alumni tent. Throughout the game, a small group of IC men, dressed as monsters, clowns, and women, delighted the Homecoming crowd with their antics.

Highlights of the day included the selection of sophomore Paige Lindemann as 1981 Homecoming Queen and the football game against the Evansville Aces which IC won 28-6.

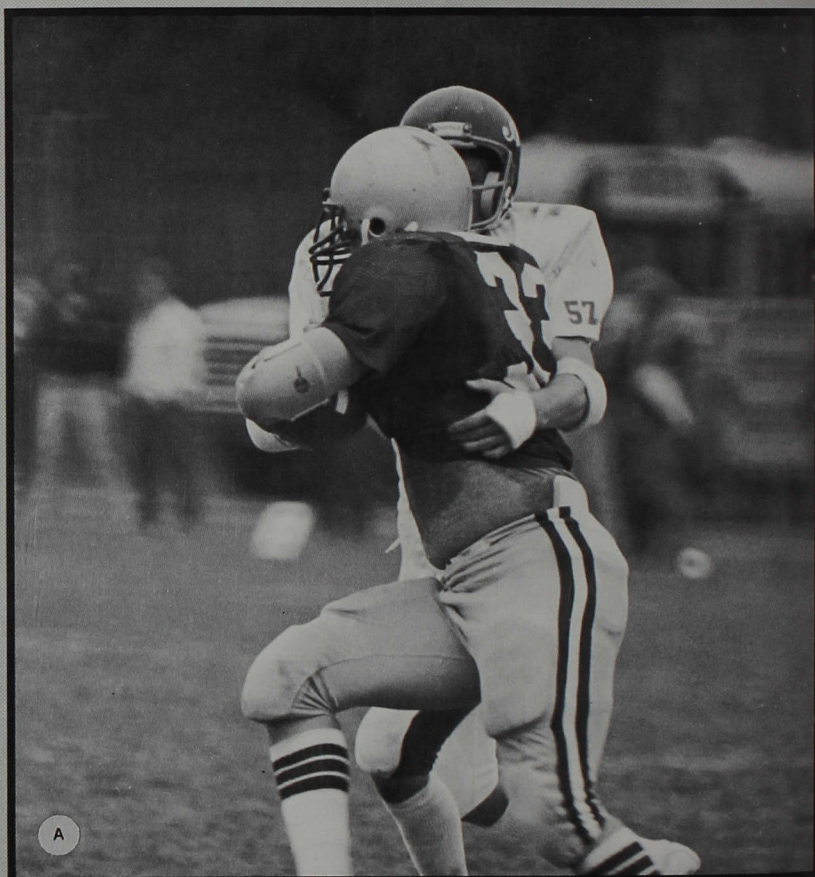

Greyhounds Start Year With Homecoming Victory

The Homecoming football game was one of the main events which got Indiana Central in gear for the 1981-82 sports year. The 28-6 victory over the Evansville Aces took place on a calm, cloudy afternoon, the 10th of October. In fact, for the first time, Homecoming took place before Brown County Day. Yet this did not affect the spirit of the 4100 students, faculty, and alumni who came to cheer the Greyhounds on to victory.

Indiana Central took a quick lead of 14-0 in the first quarter after two touchdowns by Mike Wishnevski, the second following a 38-yard run, and Mark Bohannon's two extra points.

In the third quarter, a blocked punt by John Kennedy and a 26-yard run Tom Peller led to two more Greyhound touchdowns which, along with Bohannon's successful kicks, brought the score to 28-0. The final score of 28-6 was reached when the Aces made their only touchdown thus assuring ICU's victory.

- B. An ecstatic Wade Hall (no. 77) lifts Dave Horvath (no. 83) in honor of the Hounds victory.
- C. Mike Wishnevski (no. 33) is congratulated for his role in ICU's victory by Buddy Lewis of Evansville.
- D. John Williams (no. 61) guards quarterback Tom Peller (no. 22) as they lead the Greyhounds to another Homecoming victory.

Brown County Day Held Later

Helping IC students "get in gear" for the remaining semester was Brown County Day. This annual break from the classroom routine was filled with activity which included football, tree-climbing, leaf fights, sliding, eating, and tug-of-war. Not being restricted to these activities, however, many students played frisbee, hiked in the woods, or just played guitar and sang with friends. As the day wore on, the weather worsened, and the cold rain dispelled the crowd, sending the students back to Indianapolis where they agreed it had been a fun-filled day.

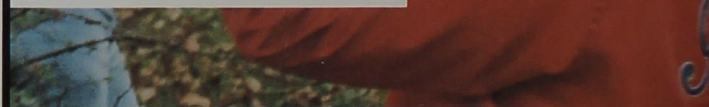

1. For some of the "bigger kids," playing on the slide is a great play-time favorite.

2. As usual Tug-of-War is the highlight of Brown County Day. This year the Freshman Class won the event. There was tug-of-war between the dorms also.

3. Gail Reed, Brenda Marshall, Becky Middleton, and Ann Hudson ham it up on Brown County Day.

4. Taking advantage of the serenity in Brown County, IC students enjoy some music.

5. Jessie and Artie Murphy, children of Anna Murphy, enjoy the wonder of fall. All faculty, staff, and their families participate in the fun Brown County Day events.

Dances Help Bring People Out Of Walls

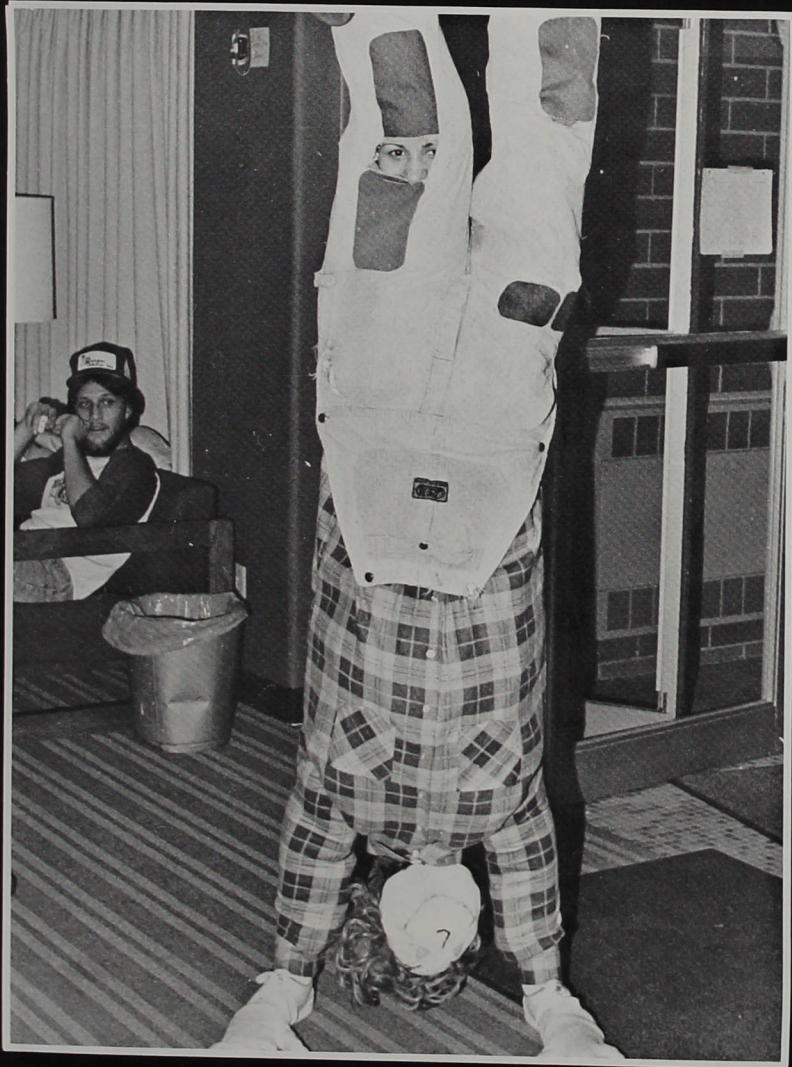

During Homecoming weekend, the formal President's Ball was hosted by President and Mrs. Sease.

The creative creatures took over during Halloween and the North Hall Dance was a big fun fest! Everything from bunnies to bums could be found wandering around the campus trick-or-treating!

In February an off-campus dance honoring sweethearts took up the social slack of winter. The Sweetheart Dance was held for the first time at the Essex House. Girls got to ask their favorite beau to this campus shindig — in hopes of future entanglements!

The end of the winter semester found the whole student body out dancing to the music of Adam Smash-er at the Cyclorama Dance. A date wasn't even necessary for this last dance!

Dr. Vondrak and his wife enjoy dancing at the 1982 Homecoming Dance, the President's Ball.

Eyes peering from a kneecap turns this topy, turvy party-goer into one of the most creative costumes at the dance.

Mellow music and a mellow mood brings out the best in these dancers at the President's Ball.

Indiana Central

Although there were more responsibilities as young adults, IC students liked to remember the times they had so much fun being "old" kids. Besides the Homecoming week activities such as the Ice-Cream Bash, the Basemates' car wash, and the ingestion of (too) many carmel apples, there was a rowdy activity that was (literally) downright dirty — the mud fight in front of Trimble.

All in all it was really just good, clean fun. Most important these activities gave students a sense of camaraderie which inevitably led the teamwork necessary in order to "get in gear" and work towards a more effective student government, improved student-faculty relations, and the development of a commuter organization.

1. Tom Hinkle enjoys the hospitality of a carmel apple in front of the Alumni Tent at Homecoming.

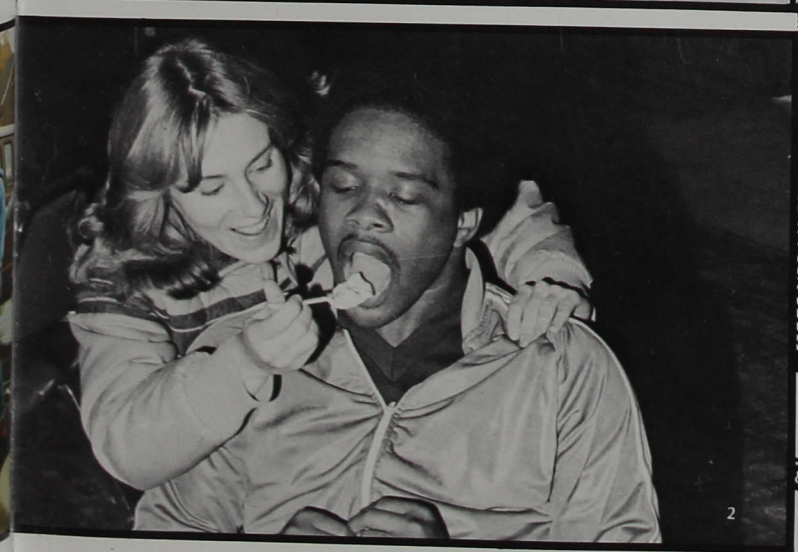

2. June Perrault, Pennie Hedges, and Taryn Lloyd get more than involved in the mud fight in front of Trimble.

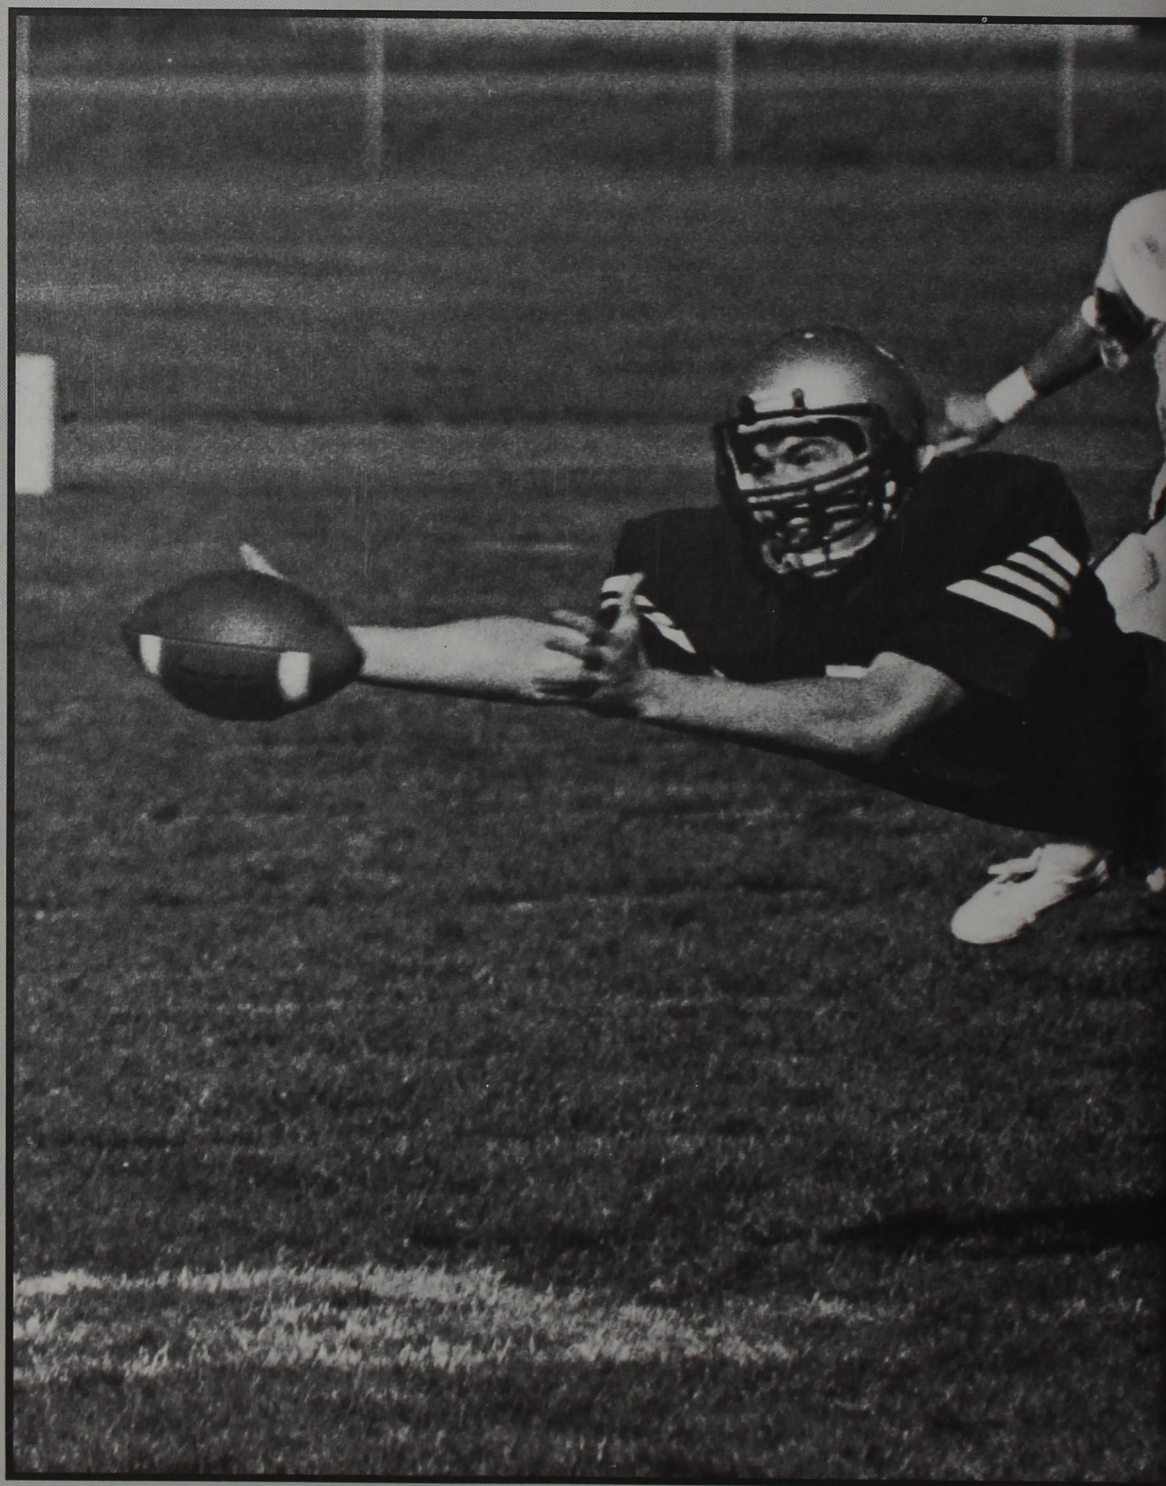

3. ICU Basemates and ball players have a bit of fun during their fund-raising Homecoming car wash.

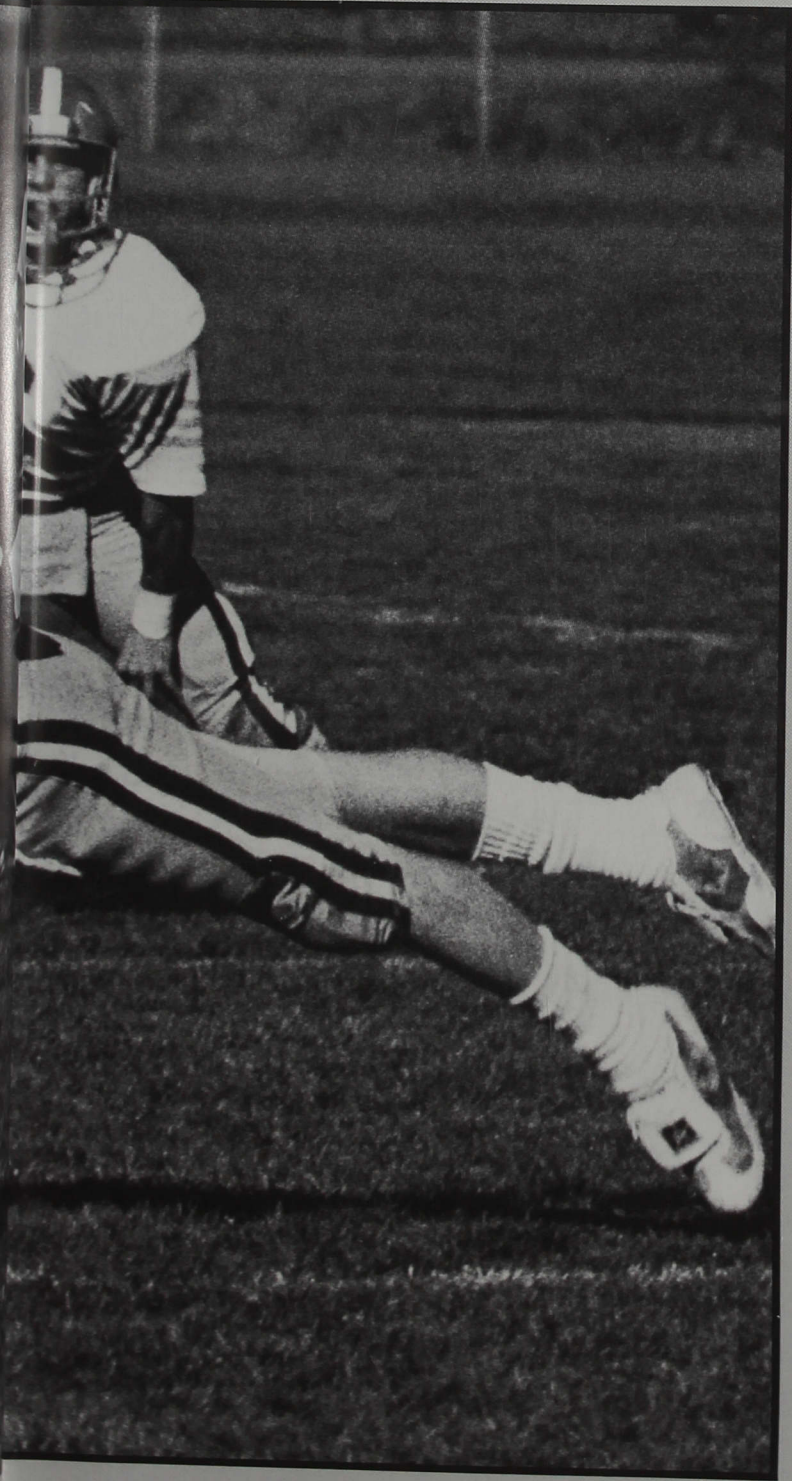

1. Some anonymous IC men pose for the always lurking camera. These men entertained throughout the Homecoming game.
2. Debbie Stock "force feeds" Kyle Malone during the Ice Cream Bash in Schwitzer center.

Greyhounds Are Top Dog

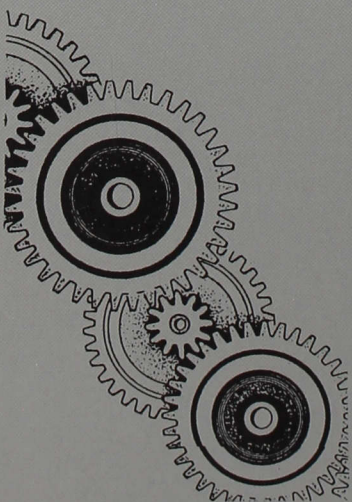

This was another year of firsts for Coach Bill Bless's Greyhound football team. It was the first year that the Greyhounds beat both Franklin and Butler, taking the title of "Top Dog", and the first year that they scored more than 40 points three games in a row against Georgetown, Valparaiso, and Franklin. Mark Bohannon set a new record for the longest field goal. ICU also tied with Franklin for the Heartland Collegiate Conference championship. The Hounds ended their season with a winning record of 7-4.

Hounds Tie For Conference Championship

Finishing the Heartland Collegiate Conference 6-1-0, the Indiana Central Greyhounds tied with Franklin College for the championship title. As a result of this accomplishment, ten Greyhound players were named to All-Conference teams, and three were awarded Honorable Mention.

Named to the first team on the offensive side were Jeff Hauswald, senior guard; Wade Hall, junior tackle; Mike Wishnevski, junior fullback; and Bob Brewer, senior tight end. Mark Bless, sophomore tackle, and Pat Parks, junior linebacker, were awarded first team defensive honors. John Williams, junior guard, and Jim Landwerlen, junior center, were named to the second team offense, while Tony Heavrin, senior defensive back, and Mark Smith, junior defensive back, were named to the second team defense. Awarded Honorable Mention for offense were Mark Gilvin, senior quarterback; Bob Bohannon, freshman kicker; and Greg Scarpone, sophomore halfback.

Co-Captains for the 1981 Greyhound football team were Jeff Hauswald and Leo Hickam. Tied for Most Valuable Offensive Player were Mark Gilvin and Bob Brewer. Other outstanding offensive players were Jeff Hauswald and Jim Landwerlen. Pat Parks was named Most Valuable Defensive Player. Other outstanding defensive players were Mark Bless and Tony Heavrin. The Kelso-Reid Award for Mental Attitude was earned by senior Dave Zehr.

B. An anguished expression is apparent on the face of an opponent as he is competently tackled by a Greyhound defenseman.

C. Coach Tremain explains his strategy to the Indiana Central defense.

D. Tom Peller (no. 11) carries the ball past the fifty-yard line to yet another ICU touchdown.

Lady Greyhounds Are Fifth in State

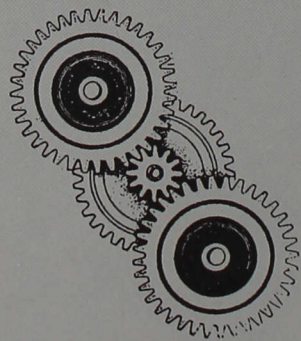

This was no "love" season for the Women's Tennis team as, under the direction of Coach Dawn Race, they finished with a winning record of 8-7. Besides having a winning season, the Lady Greyhounds placed fifth in the State Tourney and took first place honors in the IUOE Tourney by winning matches against IUOE, Hanover, and ISUE.

Doubles partners Nancy Thompson, senior, and Julie Priest, freshman, were two of the most outstanding tennis players. Nancy had a singles record of 10-4 and a doubles record of 10-3, while Julie had a singles record of 3-1 and a doubles record of 11-1.

Captain of the 1981 Women's Tennis team was Diane Johnson, senior. Nancy Thompson was selected the Most Valuable Player. The recipient of the Kelso-Reid Mental Attitude Award was Teri Donovan, senior.

Soccer Is New Greyhound Sport

In an attempt to keep up with the changing times, Indiana Central decided this year to form a team in a sport which has been rapidly growing popular in inter-collegiate circles, namely, soccer.

The formation of a Greyhound Soccer team was the result of a collaboration between President Sease, Athletic Director Bill Bright, and Joe Tugurian, a local businessman. A majority of the 1981 team's success was due to the efforts of Joe Tugurian who raised most of the money needed for the venture and volunteered his time to coach the team.

First-Time Soccer Players Show Promise

Because all but five of this year's team were inexperienced at soccer, it came as no surprise that they won only three of their games. However, the team showed great progress, and as their soccer skills improved, so did their competence as a team. This was evidenced by their game with Cort University of Ireland (European teams are well-known for their skill in soccer). For a first-year team, they succeeded admirably, and next year's season should be expected to be an improvement on the first.

Ali El-Mousousi and Joe Oliphanti were Co-Captains of the 1981 Greyhound Soccer team. And, as a result of the Conference Tournament at Kentucky Wesleyan on November 6, Ali was named All-Conference. Another of Ali's honors was receiving the Top Player Award from the Cort University team. The first goal of the year was made by Joe Young. Brad Beaver was selected as Most Valuable Player, and the winner of the Kelso-Reid Mental Attitude Award was Sandy Zehr.

Greyhound Harriers Take Fourth In HCC

With the coaching skills of Jerry England, who was selected to be the weight coach for the Midwest team at the National Sports Festival, the Greyhound Cross Country team raced their way to fourth place finishes in the Heartland Collegiate Conference and the Great Lakes Valley Conference and a ninth place finish in the Little State Tournament.

Captain for the 1981 Cross Country team was Bob Albright, senior. Because of his successful running in this year's season, Dean Rich, junior, was selected to be 1982 team captain. Bob Albright was chosen Most Valuable Player and was the recipient of the Kelso-Reid Mental Attitude Award for 1981.

Men's Tennis Team Takes Fifth in HCC and GLVC

Coach Jeff West and his tennis team finished fifth in both the Heartland and the Great Lakes Valley Conferences. The team was young, consisting of freshmen, sophomores, and only two seniors.

Captain of the 1982 Men's Tennis team was Jim Pinaire, senior. Jim was also the recipient of the Kelso-Reid Mental Attitude Award. This year's Most Valuable Player was Todd Gillespie, sophomore.

Greyhounds Are Not Just Putting Around

With the assistance of Coach Ken Partridge, Mike Hardwick, senior, and Brian Peaper, sophomore, led the Greyhound pack on the golf course this season. Mike Hardwick was the 1981-82 team captain and season low-scorer. Brian Peaper placed second with a score of 72 in the Xavier Invitational at Cincinnati and second with a score of 74 in the Indiana Central Invitation.

The team, as a whole, did well also. They placed seventh out of sixteen teams in the first Indiana Central Invitational and won the second with a team score of 385. The team placed second in the Butler Invitational with a team score of 417. The Greyhound golfers took seventh out of sixteen places in the Indiana Intercollegiate Championship and were third out of seven places in the Great Lakes Valley Conference.

Lady Greyhounds Take Fourth In State

Under the direction of Coach Sue Willey, the Lady Greyhound Volleyball team ended their season of 27 wins, 11 losses with a fourth place finish in the 1981 IIAW State Tournament. During the season, the Lady Greyhounds were also runners-up in the St. Joseph's Invitational.

This year's team was a young one, with half the members sophomores and only three senior members. Two juniors and one freshman completed the roster. There is a great deal to be expected next season due to the high number of players who will be returning in '82 to compete at the collegiate level.

Co-Captains for the 1981 squad were Trina Bluhm, senior, and Tandace Joseph, and Kristie Swing, sophomore, were selected for All-Tournament honors, and Tandace earned a place on the 1981 All-State team. Tandace Joseph was also elected Most Valuable Player. Joyce Gage, junior, was the recipient of the Kelso-Reid Mental Attitude Award.

Greyhounds Win Over Butler, Franklin

This season, Coach Billy Keller's Greyhound Basketball players exemplified Indiana Central spirit. They were a relatively young team, with the two high-scorers and the three high-rebounders all sophomores, but were filled with enthusiasm and good sportsmanship.

The high points of the 1981-82 season were the two Greyhound wins against Franklin College, 86-68 and 89-74, and the ICU victory over the Butler Bulldogs, 81-69.

- E. Ed Wineinger flies around an opponent as he heads for another two points.

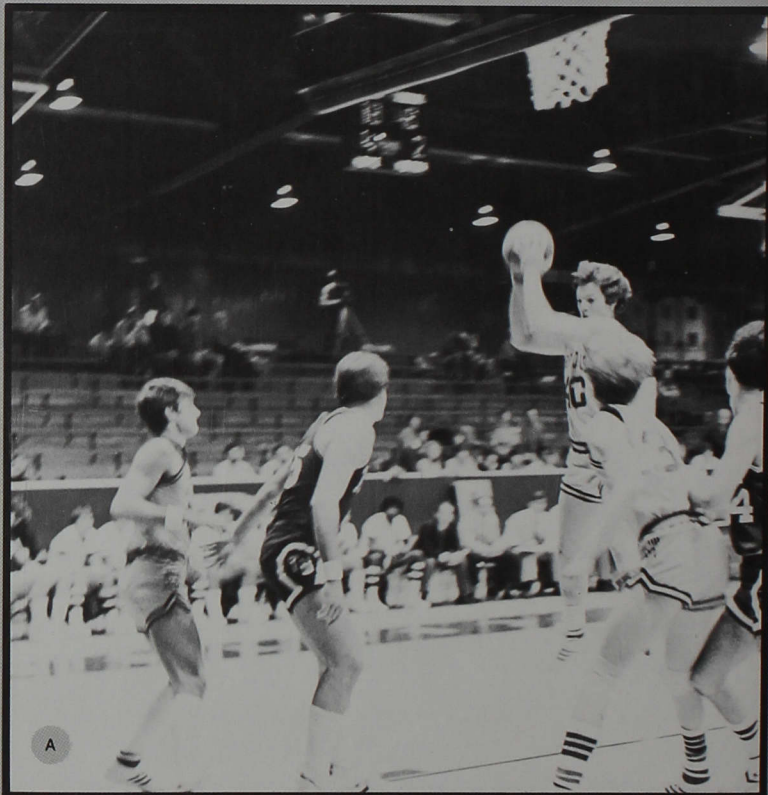

This Year's Basketball Team A Young One

This was truly the year of the sophomores for the Greyhound Basketball team. High-scorer was Doug Jennings, sophomore. High-rebounder was Ed Wineinger, with Scott Pedigo and Pat Skaggs, sophomores, tied for a close second place.

Captain of the 1981-82 Greyhound Basketball team and the recipient of the Kelso-Reid Mental Attitude Award was Bryan Hughes, senior. Doug Jennings was selected as Most Valuable Player.

Grapplers Have Fantastic 10-1 Season

This year's Greyhound Wrestling team, through the coaching efforts of Terry Wetherald, grappled its way to a second place finish in the Heartland Collegiate Conference and a winning season record of 10-1. The team finished fifth in the NCAA Division II Regionals, held this past year at ICU, and 25th in the National Tournament. The Greyhound wrestlers had two Little State champions: Mark Gregory, sophomore, and Wade Hall, junior. The team also finished fourth in the Midwest Invitational and took two first places in the Indiana Central Invitational and the Wright State Tournament.

Jim Tonte, freshman, Duane Lutgring, sophomore, and Wade Hall advanced to the National Tournament at Wisconsin Parkside. Wade was named All-American at the Nationals. Phil Glasser, freshman, and Wade Hall were HCC champions. Greg Hawkins, Jim Tonte, and Dave McCollom, freshmen; Alan Greiger, Steve Hunter, Mark Gregory, and Duane Lutgring, sophomores; and Rich Gross, junior, took second places in the HCC.

Ladies Maintain Tough Reputation

This year's Lady Greyhound basketball team, under the direction of Coach Jack Noone, finished with a winning season of 17-8 despite the fact that it was one of the youngest teams ever. This year's returning letterwomen were composed of nine sophomores and one junior. An even better season is expected next year with the ladies having gained more experience from the 1981-82 season. The season ended when the Lady Greyhounds lost their last game in the State Tourney to a strong Butler team.

Captain of the 1981-82 squad was Kim Epler, junior. "Kim may not possess all the ability in the world, but no one will out-compete her. She is a winner and is the very heart of the team." Named as this year's Most Valuable Player was Debbie Law, freshman. While attending Columbus North High School, Debbie was an Indiana All-Star who averaged 22.4 points per game and 10 rebounds. Laura Kreiger, sophomore, was the recipient of the Kelso-Reid Mental Attitude Award. "We don't have an athlete in school who works harder than Laura."

Men's Track Team Produces National Champion

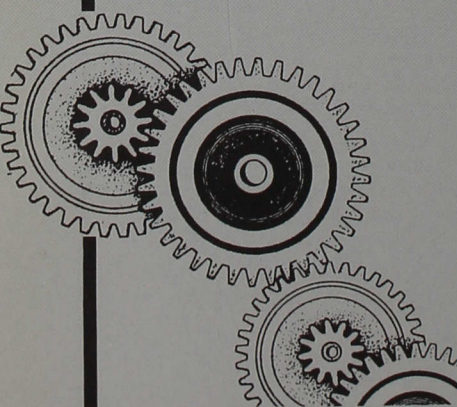

Coach Jerry England's Men's Track team carried their winning season all year to end by sending three men to the NCAA Division II National Championship at Sacramento, California. Qualifying for the finals in the shotput was Wade Hall, junior. Dean Rich, junior, also qualified for the finals in the 1500 meter run. Randy Heisler, sophomore, won the NCAA Division II National Championship in the discus with a school record throw of 187' 8½".

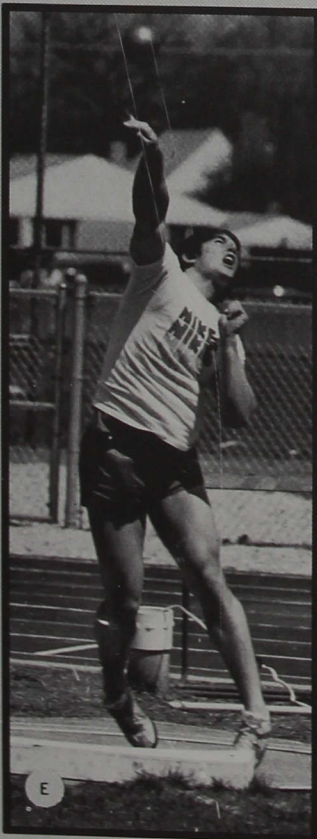

This year's team finished with a season record of 40-8. Among the new school records set for 1982 were: Dean Rich with a 1:52.3 in the 800 and a 3:51.0 in the 1500 and Randy Heisler with a 189' 6" discus throw. This year's highlights included placing second in the Wabash Relays and the Heartland Collegiate Conference and capturing the Little State Championship.

Captain of the 1982 Men's Track team was Bob Albright, senior. Randy Heisler was selected Most Valuable Player. The recipient of the Kelso-Reid Mental Attitude Award was Bob Albright.

Lady Greyhounds Make "Tracks" to Little State

Coach Dawn Race led her women tracksters to a winning season and an 18-1 record. Their only loss was suffered the last meet of the season at the hands of a strong Manchester team. A majority of the meets were won by sizeable margins, and ten records were broken this year. The team finished first in the Division II Little State meet ahead of St. Joseph.

Captain of the 1982 Women's Track team was Kim Epler, junior. Lisa Acton, freshman, was selected as Most Valuable Player. Lynn Hammann, freshman, was the recipient of the Kelso-Reid Mental Attitude Award. Shannon Flickinger, freshman, qualified for the AIAW National Track meet by high jumping 5' 6".

Young Lady Hounds Look To Next Year

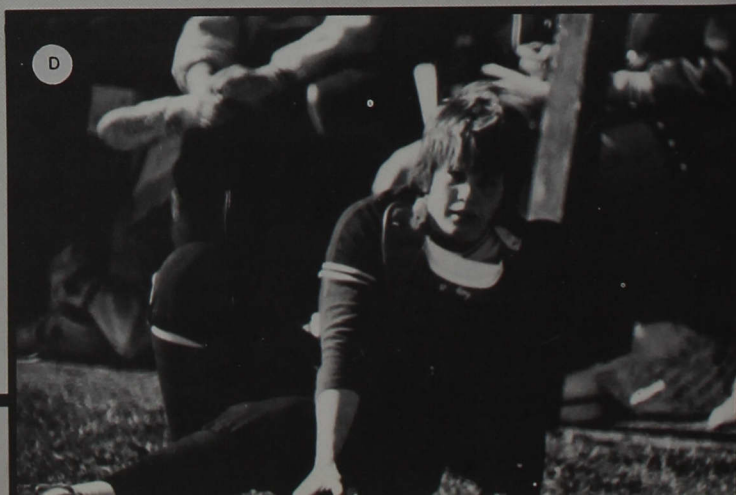

Coach Sue Willey's Lady Greyhound softball team had a tough way to go as the team lacked experience due to the fact that it was such a young team. However, since only three of the players graduated, the bulk of the team will return next year.

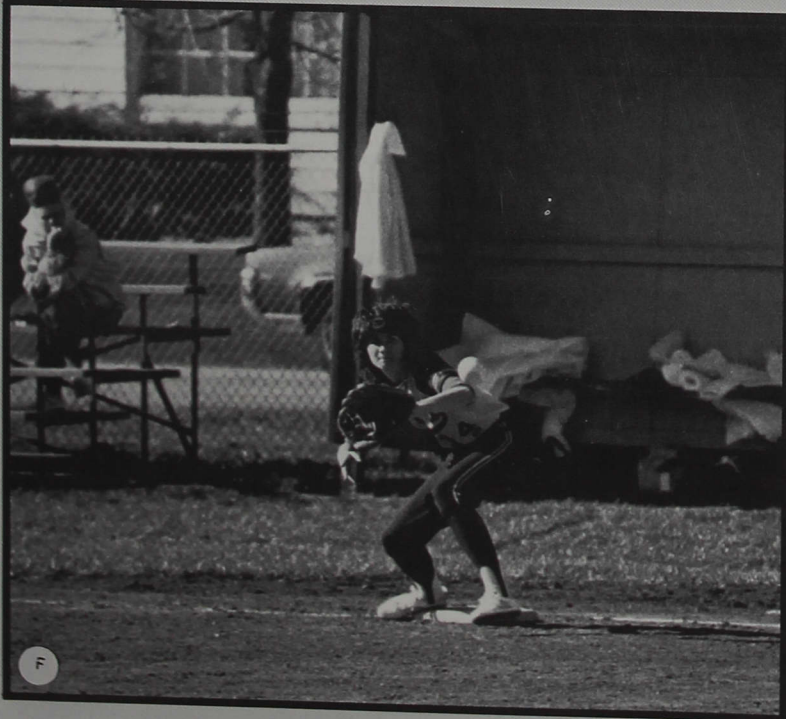

One of the main highlights of the 1982 season was the Lady Greyhounds' "double-victory" for the opening double-header played at ICU against Marian. They finished their season by losing to a strong Butler team in the Division II State Tourney.

Captain of the 1982 squad was Joyce Gage, junior. Joyce was also named Most Valuable Player. The recipient of the Kelso-Reid Mental Attitude Award was Karen Koelmel.

Tremain's Greyhounds Earn 26-11 Season

This year, Coach Bob Tremain's Greyhound Baseball team had a fantastic 26-11 season. Included in this year's highlights were victories over rivals Franklin and Butler. The team had a remarkable showing by winning the Great Lakes Valley Conference and a share of the Heartland Collegiate Conference Championship with a strong Valparaiso team. By achieving these goals, the team received a bid to participate in the NCAA Division II Midwest Regionals. They were runners-up of the NCAA Central Region Playoffs at Cleveland, Mississippi.

Cheerleaders And Crimson Steppers Support Athletic Endeavors

Throughout the year, the Greyhound cheerleaders supported the efforts of Indiana Central athletic teams. They devoted most of their weekends to cheering the Greyhound athletes on to victory. Captain of the 1981-82 squad was Lauralee Shepler.

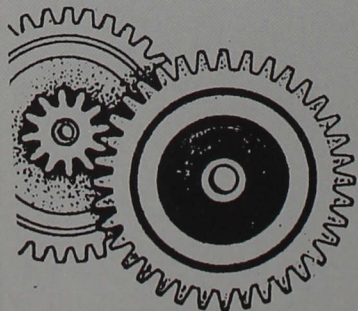

The Crimson Steppers supported our athletic teams in a different way. This group of ICU women practiced all year long to dance during the half-times of home football and basketball games. Not just the ordinary type of pom-pom girls, the Crimson Steppers performed many intricate and synchronized dance steps and movements. Co-Captains of the 1981-82 Crimson Steppers were Beth Elliot and Terri Deal.

Intramurals Get Amateurs Involved In Sports

This year's intramural sports were grouped into three categories: fall, winter, and spring. Fall sports included men's and women's flag football and tennis. Men's and women's basketball formed the winter intramural sports. Spring was a co-ed season, with both co-ed volleyball and co-ed softball. ICU athletes who participated in a fall, winter, or spring intercollegiate sport were not allowed to participate in that same intramural sport during the season.

Washington Sends Aid As Speaker

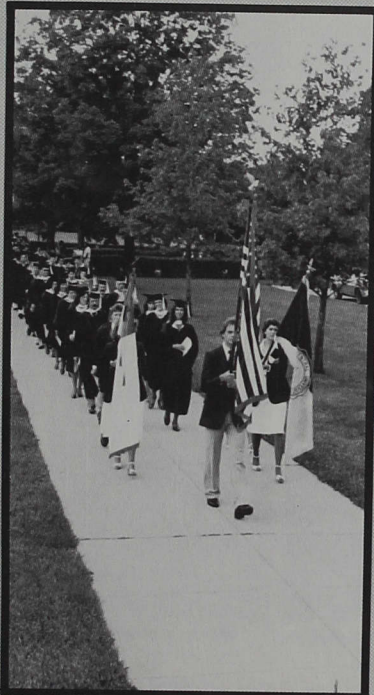

The 1982 Baccalaureate/Commencement exercises had a touch of President Ronald Reagan. Larry Speaks, the president's spokesperson since Press Secretary Jim Brady's tragedy, addressed the graduates in the humid gym. Stressing communications as the root of world problems, Speaks announced the beginning of an ICU Communications Department.

President Sease prepares to confer an Honorary Degree upon Dr. Kopecky, the ICU and south-side physician.

Commencement speaker, Larry Speaks, also receives degree.

What the gathering actually came to see was the conferring of almost 500 diplomas to the black-clad graduates.

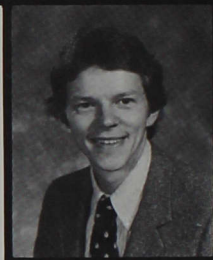

Presidential Aide Jane Kuroiwa leads the audience in the singing of "America The Beautiful."

Aides lead the long lines of graduates to Nicoson Hall.

Newly graduated Marcy Patrick sighs with relief after looking over her diploma.

Students Gear Up With Academic Honors At ICU

At Indiana Central, students who were outstanding achievers, either in academics or leadership, were honored in several different ways this year.

The first way in which students who performed outstandingly in academics were honored was by being accepted into Phi Alpha Epsilon, the freshman honor society. In order to qualify for membership in Phi Alpha Epsilon, a student must have completed at least thirty hours of course work during his or her first year at ICU with a grade point average of 10.0 or better.

Mu Phi Epsilon is an international sorority which honors students majoring or minoring in music who have displayed outstanding music ability. the qualifications for Mu Phi Epsilon were scholarship, musicianship, and service.

President Sease selected his Presidential Aides for this academic year, as he does for each year. These students were selected on the basis of both their leadership and scholastic abilities.

This year's I. Lynd Esch scholar was Sonia Goltz. Sonia was honored for her academic achievement during a fall convocation. Money for the Esch scholarship came from a fund established in Dr. Esch's name at the time of his retirement as President of Indiana Central.

With Sease At The Wheel . . . Watch ICU Go!

A hard-driving president with his eyes on the road ahead made the year a milestone of growth and new building on campus. Amid some timid tempests in a tepid teapot some students complained about the growth and the paving of part of the horseshoe. When they cooled however, they saw the future building taking on the shape of new programs to come to the university. With a swimming pool, a gym, room for the Physical Therapy Department, and other features for physical fitness, the students and Dr. Sease looked forward to completion of the new center.

In Memoriam

Angus J. Nicoson 1919-1982

Many people have contributed to the success of the Indiana-Kentucky All-Star Basketball series, but no one did more than Angus J. Nicoson.

Nick coached the Indiana All-Stars from 1952 through 1965, "retired" for three years while serving as an officer of the National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics, and coached again from 1969 through 1971.

During his 17 years as All-Star coach, Nick's teams won 19 of the 31 games played (until 1955, only one game was played each year). On those teams were some of the greatest players who ever wore a basketball uniform. Many went on to greater fame as collegians and professionals.

Nick's success as an All-Star coach was due to more than just the talent of his athletes. He could turn individual stars into team players who would work hard to win. He also made certain that every player knew about the Blind Fund and how game proceeds are used to aid sight-afflicted persons.

Nick served as All-Star coach in addition to his full time duties as athletic director and coach at Indiana Central University, where he was on the staff for 30 years. He handled the All-Stars out of love for the game of basketball, and to show his appreciation to the high school coaches in Indiana for what they did to make the state name synonymous with the sport.

Nick died last month of Alzheimer's disease. As a final "Thank You" for all he did to make the All-Star series a success, and in recognition of his many contributions to athletics in general and basketball in particular, tonight's games are dedicated to the memory of a great All-Star: Angus Nicoson.

Fitness Center Breaks Ground

Ground was broken in May of 1982 for the giant Physical Fitness Center. The Center which will be open to students in the fall of '83 will be the largest building on campus.

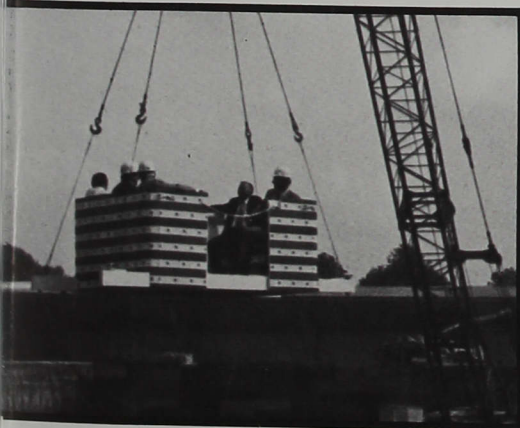

The dream of having the Center, complete with swimming pool and auxiliary gym, finally became a reality with an ambitious building program, called FITNESS FOR THE FUTURE. The $10,000,000 project raised $5,000,000 for the building and other physical plant needs and $5,000,000 for the fiscal needs of the university.

Since work had already begun when the groundbreaking occurred, a special "airlife" to the construction site was prepared by James "Tippy" Wilhelm, the general contractor. The speakers platform was lifted by a giant crane into the air and gently placed in the middle of where the new Physical Fitness Center will be. All passengers, including Mayor Hudnut, arrived safely.

Presidential Aide Jim Pinaire throws a shovel of dirt with the ceremonial shovel marking the official groundbreaking of the Physical Fitness Center.

"Up, Up and Away," goes the platform of dignitaries at the groundbreaking ceremonies. The platform went about forty feet in the air before making a safe landing.

As a "jester" gesture of fun for the day, dignitaries were given commemorative T-shirts with the ICU seal and the statement, "I FLEW SEASE AIRLINES." Proudly holding their proof of "flight" are James Wilhelm; Campaign Chairman Robert Hunt; ICU Trustee Chairman Zane Todd, Dr. Gene E. Sease and Indianapolis Mayor William Hudnut III.

Dorm Life Is Getting In Gear At ICU

ICU dormitories have often been considered "homes-away-from-home" in more ways than one. First of all, the doors were locked on one if he or she came back to the dorm (or "home" as it is known) too late. And secondly, one had pseudo-moms and -dads to babysit for him or her. This year, however, the student body seemed to deemphasize the "mother" and "father" roles of dorm directors and became more than slightly independent of them.

East Men — Third Floor was chosen as one of the group shots with the most original thought. We agreed that they were all animals, anyhow, and should have been locked up a long time ago! The most original women's shot was Trimble — Second Floor.

In the category of honorable mention, we gave credit to: the "cool" shot of East Men — First Floor, the "hot" shot of East Women — Fifth Floor, the morbid shot of East Women — Fourth Floor, and the classic "Bob" shot of Dailey — First Floor. Although they did not make honorable mention, we thought that East Men — Fifth Floor had great legs. (We adored your skirts, boys!)

Campus Life Is Full Of Activities, Not All Safe

Of the exciting events that took place this year, the one that was probably the most fun was the mud fight in front of Trimble.

Halloween is an active time of the year for dorm residents. Besides the annual Halloween costume dance at North Hall, many ICU students dressed in costumes to pass out candy to children during "Halloween at the Zoo".

But the activities that occurred most often were the ones the administration frowns upon. For instance, several male ICU students were the victims of vicious fellow students who tied them to trees in their underwear simply because they had decided to get married. Another strange and wondrous sight was that of two Trimble women who walked around on the third floor of Dailey wearing empty Budweiser 12-pack cartons on their heads as a joke!

Underriders Put It In High Gear To Win The 1982 Cyclorama

This year's winners — the Underriders — set a new record for the annual cyclorama. By racing at an average speed of just under thirty miles an hour, the Underriders won the 1982 Cyclorama with a time of one hour, four minutes, and seventeen seconds. Members of the Underriders were Dan Sease, Harry Sykora, Roy Wasson, and Kent Adams.

The race, which was held on a warm, sunny Sunday in May, was coordinated and run by members of Central Council. Thirteen teams participated, including one team which no one was able to categorize as having been definitely male or female. Capitol Oil, consisting of Deb Cole, Laura Kreiger, Deb Law, and Pam Rutherford, took the trophy in the women's division quite expertly.

The one sad moment, in an otherwise cheerful day, was the moment of silence held in respect for the loss of the horseshoe to a new parking lot. Students expressed their feelings on the corner of the sign covering the front of the official's table. It read, "R.I.P. OUR BELOVED HORSESHOE."

The Elephant Man Boasts A Fine Student Cast

On October 2, 3, and 4, 1981, in Ransburg Auditorium, Indiana Central University's theatre department brought to life the story of John Merrick, The Elephant Man.

Accompanying the impressive performances of Michael Klass as Frederick Treves and Tamara Parsons as Mrs. Kendal, was the outstanding character portrayal of John Merrick by Brian Cummings. There was no grotesque make-up to detract from his performance. In fact, the way in which Brian held his body and his total lack of facial expression conveyed Merrick's deformity far better than make-up could.

The play showed John Merrick's transformation from circus freak to intelligent, highly respected gentleman. Aiding him in this transformation was Mrs. Kendal, an actress, who found Merrick fascinating in his own right. She made him realize that he has human needs and desires just like other men.

This transformation was completed at the end of the play when Merrick laid down to sleep like a normal man, and the weight of his oversized head broke his windpipe, causing him to asphyxiate.

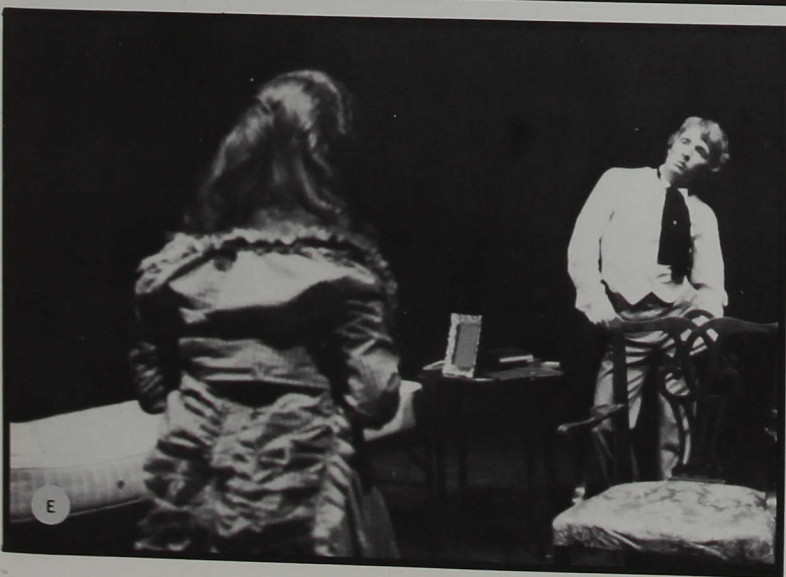

A. Mrs. Kendal, the actress, (Tamara Parsons) helps Merrick (Brian Cummings) to realize his full potential.

B. Carr Gomm (Taylor Martin), Bishop Walsham How (David Ackerman), and Ross (Dennis Scudder) discuss the elephant man.

C. Dr. Frederick Treves (Michael Klass) explains Merrick's disease to Nurse Sandwich (Marianne Holdzkorn).

D. John Merrick is the deformed and contorted elephant man.

E. Merrick sees the beauty of a nude woman's body for the first time as Mrs. Kendal undresses for him. "Art is permitted but nature forbidden."

Medea Is Story Of Oppression And Revenge

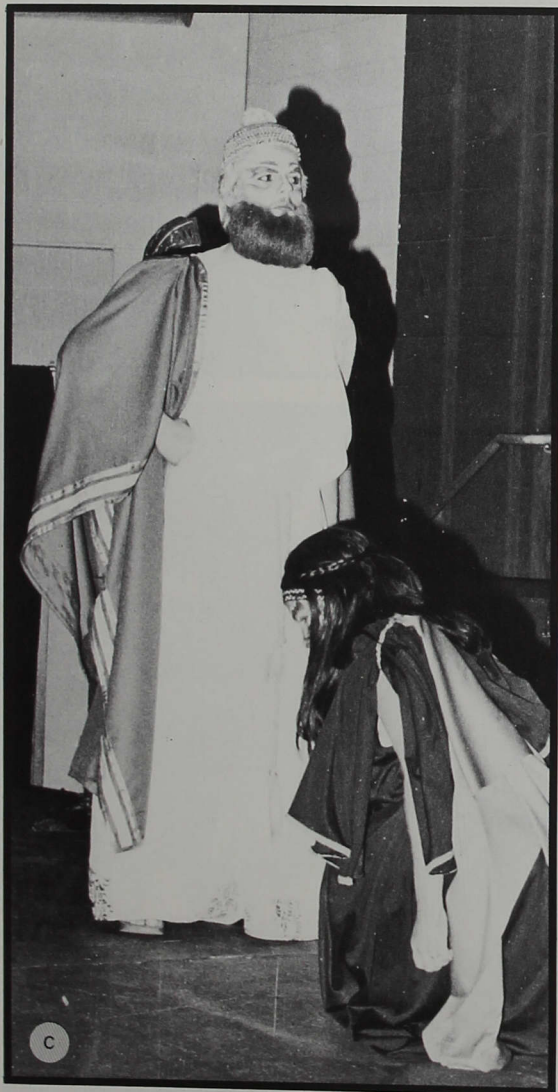

Medea's objective was revenge — revenge against a society that oppressed women and against Jason who was her husband and who left her for a young and rich bride, the daughter of King Creon.

When Creon started to fear for his daughter's life, he ordered Medea to leave his city forever. Jason told Medea that he would take the children.

At this point, Medea began her quest for revenge. First, she devised a poisonous robe and crown and sent it to the princess as a gift from her sons. When the princess put them on, she caught fire and burned to death, horribly. Creon died while trying to put out the fire. Then Medea killed her own sons. And, finally, she taunted Jason about how it felt to lose everything he loved. Jason was now a crushed and pitiful shadow of a man. Medea's revenge was complete.

The story of Medea holds a very important message for society — that when people are viciously oppressed, they will strike back in vengeful rage.

A. The three women of Corinth (Marianne Holdzkorn, Chris Ribble, and Kay Schwab) mourn for Medea and the plight of all women.

B. Medea (Tamara Parsons) rages over society's injustices as her nurse (Rachel Good) and the women of Corinth watch sorrowfully.

C. Medea begs Creon (Michael Klass) for more time before she must leave the city.

D. Medea ignores Jason's (John Lampson) shallow excuses for leaving her.

E. A proud Jason shows his sons (Eddie Denning and Lance Duke) his sword.

A. Isabella (Sheila Brody) and Tristano (Brian Cummings) rejoice at learning that she is expecting their first child.

B. Tristano and Columbine (Kate Schwab) entertain the audience until the arrival of the harlequin.

C. Four of the troupe's members: Columbine, Scapino (Dennis Scudder), Isabella, and Tristano.

D. It is true that many young married couples have lots of minor (?) arguments, but ...

E. Paul (Mike Klass) and Corie (Tammie Parsons) Bratter have their newlywed moments as well.

ICU Presents A Company Of Wayward Saints, Barefoot In The Park

A Company of Wayward Saints and Barefoot in the Park are two very different plays, but when performed at Indiana Central, they had one thing in common: both were directed by Mr. James Ream.

A Company of Wayward Saints was unique because of the audience seating. Bleachers were built on the actual stage for the audience. The actors performed on an improvised platform stage erected over the bare stage floor of the theatre.

Barefoot in the Park was this year's dinner theatre production. The story involves a young couple, recently married, who are moving into an apartment on the top floor of a brownstone in New York City. As we expected, Terry Wetherald, ICU's highly acclaimed wrestling coach, made his annual return to the state — this year as Victor Valasco.

A. Werther (Christopher Miller) converses with his true love's husband Albert (Michael Larr).

B. Charlotte (Rebecca Noot), married to Albert, despairs over her feelings for Werther.

C. Charlotte tells Werther of her love for him as he lies dying.

D. Eisenstein's wife Rosalinda (Carole Baker) sings with her lover Alfred (John Stansell).

Opera Workshop Presents Werther, The Bat

On January 27 and 29, the ICU opera workshop presented Werther, a tragic opera based on the famous novel by Goethe.

In this story, Charlotte, a young woman, falls in love with Werther, but must marry Albert as it was her dying mother's last wish. Werther, madly in love with Charlotte (now married to Albert three months), asks to see her again. She offers to let him visit at Christmas. When Werther visits her, Charlotte insists that he never come to see her again. Werther leaves in a state of deep depression. Charlotte follows him but, alas, it is too late. Werther has shot himself. As he lies dying, Charlotte tells him that she has always loved him. He dies in her arms.

The ICU opera workshop presented Die Fledermaus (The Bat) on May 20 and 22 in Ransburg Auditorium. The Bat is a comic opera, mostly satirical in nature. The opera was directed by Elaine Norwood and conducted by Earl Scott. Jim Ream was the designer.

The story is one of Dr. Falke's revenge against his friend Eisenstein who left him, dressed as a bat, after a party on a public bench where he was awakened the next day by a jeering crowd. Falke takes Eisenstein to a ball at Prince Orlofsky's villa where his masked wife Rosalinda and his maid Adele are dancing. In the meantime, Frank, the warden, has arrested Alfred, Rosalinda's lover, thinking he was Eisenstein. After the party, all gather at the jail, where Falke reveals that the previous night's events were part of the "bat's" revenge.

ICU's Godspell Goes To England

ICU's production of Godspell, the hit Broadway musical based on the Gospel of St. Matthew, toured England during the summer while under the direction of Dr. Richard Williams.

Godspell was written by John-Michael Tebelak, a student working on his Master of Fine Arts degree at Carnegie-Mellon University. Tebelak was inspired to write Godspell as a result of his experience at an Easter sunrise service during which he was frisked for drugs by a Pittsburgh policeman in the nave of St. Paul's Cathedral.

ICU's production of Godspell toured many Indiana and nationwide churches during the spring fleximester. The England tour was not the same, however, due to the loss of cast member Dan Arndt. Castmates, friends, and family all mourn the loss of Dan's bright smile, his quick wit, and his lasting friendship. Dan always put the welfare of others before his own, and, for that reason, the cast of Godspell dedicated their 1982 summer tour in his memory.

A. Jesus (Stephen Preusse) loves Judas (Mike Klass) even though he knows he will betray him.

B. The Cast of Godspell: L-R Jane Mahrdr, Katie Ayers, Rob Helms, Kate Schwab, Dan Arndt, Mike Klass, Marianne Holdzkorn, Andy Ward, Rachel Good, Stephen Preusse.

Deputation Teams Provide Christian Music

Deputation teams were an important aspect of Christian life on campus this year. Deputation teams were formed in cooperation with the Office of Church Relations in order to provide music which celebrates Christianity for benefits, hospitals, children's homes, nursing homes, and other local church, social, and civic organizations.

Celebration was the oldest of the three dep teams. It was organized by Mark Montgomery in September of '79 and had a 1981-82 membership of fourteen students.

Unity was formed this year. It was composed of five experienced upper-classmen who had previously been members of the defunct dep teams Sonlight, Daybreak, and A New Song.

Praying Hands was the smallest of the dep teams consisting of only three members. Another of its distinctions was that it was the only all-female dep team this year.

Variety Of Sounds Keep Department In Swing

Each year the band and choir perform great works by famous artists. This year the band did a large variety of pieces, including Rienzi, the overture to the opera, and Tulsa, a tone poem about Oklahoma. The highlight of the choir's year was an all-Bach concert that they gave this year. These works serve to give the student the chance to learn and grow in their musical ability.

The Central Singers performed at two concerts this year. They were also honored by an invitation to perform at the 500 Festival Queen Pageant where they represented the school very well.

Jazz, Pep Bands Get Crowd Fired Up

The jazz band entertained their audiences once again this year with music written by some of the most prominent jazz artists of the century. Their concerts were a pleasant surprise because they never decided what music they would play until the beginning of the concert.

The pep band played at all home football and basketball games this year. They were a big help in getting the crowds to be enthusiastic since they not only played their instruments, but yelled with the cheerleaders as well. The crowds were also entertained by the high school marching bands that came to ICU at the invitation of Dr. Weimer, the pep band's director. All in all, it was a good season for the pep band, and hopefully next year will go as well.

D. Karen Glasser, editor, wonders when it will be over as she drinks her 200th glass of caffeine-filled coke.

When I decided to be the editor of ICU's yearbook, I thought, "Great! This will be a breeze." Well, eight months and 160 pages later, this "breeze" has knocked the wind out of me! But, all in all, the advantages of being editor greatly outweigh the disadvantages; and, if I had to do it over again, I would.

The idea for this year's theme came from Jennifer Scharbrough. The inspiration for the theme came from all the ICU students who have really started to get this school in gear. This is your yearbook, students, and I would like to dedicate it to you.

There are so many people without whom this yearbook would not be possible, that I would like to thank a few of them: Dr. Borden, Dr. Cushman, Phil Winning, Josten's Yearbook Co., Ed Sims from National School Studios, Peter Noot, Doris Fowler, and Jack Noone. A special thanks goes to Jackie Johnson and Joy Partridge. And my greatest thanks to Carolyn Sfreddo, without whom I would have gone crazy. Karen.
