YEAR IN REVIEW

1994

SEPTEMBER . . . Renovations to the first building on campus, Good Hall, are almost complete. The entire building, inside and outside, received a face lift and looks better than ever after 92 years.

OCTOBER . . . Men in Cravens Hall—firemen no less—added a spark of unexpected excitement to Homecoming week when a fire broke out in the basement of Cravens Hall. Luckily, no extensive damage was done. Parking problems fueled a campus-wide debate between commuters and residents. Homecoming festivities included the annual male review, a bungee run and Velcro wall, bonfire dance, spirit fence, and a win by the football team.

NOVEMBER . . . Family Day proved enjoyable for all involved. 48 University of Indianapolis students made the "Who's Who" list of students in American universities. ISG tackled the age-old problem faced by students living in Cravens and Warren Hall, or anyone with a class in Buxton or Good Halls—crossing busy Hanna Avenue.

DECEMBER . . . U of I hosts one of its most famous former professors and present-day trustee—Senator Richard Lugar. On the problem of crossing Hanna Avenue, students gave their input and the university listened.

1995

JANUARY . . . U of I joins several other Indiana universities—starting in 1996, a special license plate will be available for $10. A decision has been made: flashing lights will be installed along Hanna Avenue to alert motorists to the fact that crossing students have the right of way.

FEBRUARY . . . The annual Polar Bear Run, sponsored in part by the University of Indianapolis, was a success, and the sunshine was a blessing. The Student Alumni Association made Valentine's Day enjoyable with balloon bouquets. ISG sponsored a Mardi Gras celebration. Krannert Memorial Library goes "on-line."

MARCH . . . University of Indianapolis television returned to the TV airwaves after an all-too-long absence. A Residence Hall Task Force is drafting a new extended visitation proposal for dorm residents.

APRIL . . . The Admissions Office sponsored a "Campus Camp-in" during the annual Cyclorama weekend to acquaint prospective students with campus. Winners of the Cyclorama race were Sean Dwyer, Wes Woodson, Brian Wakefield, and Steve Beguin. The university's Alpha Chi chapter sent five students to Atlanta for the national convention. The new debate on campus seems to be the question of 24-hour visitation.

KRANERT MEMORIAL LIBRARY MOVES INTO THE FUTURE

Aimee Lammert uses a computer to search for library material. After five years in the works, the new on-line reference and retrieval system was installed in February. The system will eventually be accessible from the dorms.

FIRST ANNUAL CAMPUS CAMP-IN

Indiana Jones (a.k.a. Admissions staffer Ron Wilks, in hat) talks with some high school students during registration for the event.

REPAIRING AND REBUILDING GOOD HALL

On the outside, the objective of the million-dollar Good Hall renovation project was to restore the original look of the 92-year-old building, which is on the list of historical places in the United States.

TURNING BACK THE HANDS OF TIME

On the inside, Good Hall received its first face lift since 1965. Nine tons of plaster and drywall, along with 735 gallons of paint in the crimson and grey school colors, were used to repair walls throughout the building.

A FAMILIAR SIGHT ON HANNA AVENUE

Everyone crossing Hanna Avenue between Esch and Good halls this winter met with concrete barriers and flashing lights. The construction was part of the university's effort to make Hanna safer to cross.

GET A MOVE ON

What did 539 people have in common August 26, 27, and 28, 1994? They were all first-year students at the University of Indianapolis, and for many of them, this meant moving into a dorm.

What could have been an all-day task, however, was made much easier with the help of residence hall assistants and staff, Office of Admissions staff, and the Greyhound Ambassadors. Residence hall assistants and staffers wore peach tee-shirts, and the Greyhound Ambassadors and Admissions staff wore sporty purple "street sign" tees that pointed the way to campus landmarks. Volunteer helpers from other campus offices were also on hand.

Boxes, suitcases, and bags were hauled, carried, lugged, and pulled up stairs, into and out of elevators, and finally into student rooms. Lucky students moving into North and New Halls were greeted with curbside grocery cart service to assist them. The help of volunteer students and staff made move-in day a success. Lots of smiles, sweat, and perhaps a few tears made the day complete.

TELL DAD TO BRING THE RV

One new Warren Hall resident had so much, it had to be hauled in the family's RV!

BUSY HANDS

Rev. John Young wonders how he'll manage the stairs with this load.

CAN I HELP?

One Greyhound Ambassador offers to help this student move into her new home.

UP THE DOWN STAIRCASE

Brenda Bassi, staff member in the Office of Admissions, relives her own college dorm move-in days.

WELCOME TO CRAVENS HALL

These residence assistants (Tricia Brister, Cindy Litwiller, and Jodie Sauers) welcome newcomers with friendly smiles and plenty of advice.

BACK FOR ANOTHER LOAD

These two students head to the parking lot for another load from their car.

A MOTHER & DAUGHTER TEAM

Only ten more armsful of clothes to get upstairs. "But Mom, I don't have anything to wear!" Yeah, right.

BROWN COUNTY DAY

A misty day didn't discourage anyone from going to the annual Brown County Day October 19, 1994. Each year, hundreds of students, faculty, and staff make the drive to Brown County State Park to enjoy a day free from classes.

For some participants, Brown County Day starts the night before with a chance to camp and brave the elements. Kristi Hayden, freshman, remembers the night fondly. "The hayride was wet and cold, but the few of us that could stand it had fun singing every corny folk song we could think of."

"I ENJOY GETTING AWAY AND SEEING MY PROFESSORS IN A NORMAL SETTING. I LIKE KNOWING THAT THEY WEAR BLUE JEANS, TOO."

— Greg Gossett

As food services prepared the picnic lunch, students enjoyed hiking, horseback riding, and just visiting with each other. After the picnic, many students participated in a three-legged race, balloon toss, and the perennial favorite, a tug-of-war. For those less interested in the great outdoors, nearby Nashville, Indiana, is a local mecca for unique shops, antique browsing, and restaurants. Many individuals were found wandering in and out of the stores on Brown County Day. Despite clouds and rain, the event offered fun and relaxation to many who attended.

WATCHING THE FUN

Students, faculty, and staff gather amid the colorful fall leaves to watch the fun and games.

WHERE'S DAD?

Robyn Gobetz, wife of Professor Robert Gobetz, and son Will enjoy the festivities.

SPLAT!

You can run, but you can't hide from the water balloon. These two students participate in one of the many activities available on Brown County Day.

ON YOUR MARK, GET SET, GO!

These students await the start of the three-legged race.

A BATTLE OF STRENGTH

Faculty and students try to out-pull each other in a friendly tug-of-war.

TIME FOR LUNCH

Alec Smith shares lunch with a friend after a morning of drizzly competition.

PHONATHON

SHE'S A SMOOTH OPERATOR

Rhonda Latkowski uses her "true voice" to ask alumni to donate to their alma mater.

How does the university raise money? What does it do with the money it does raise? How do students get involved? The answers to these questions have to do with the 1994-95 phonathon.

One of the big money-making projects during the school year is the phonathon. The phonathon's director, Matt Donovan, says, "The goal for the phonathon is to make about $10,000 for the university." This goal is achieved by students calling alumni and asking them to make donations to their alma mater.

There were about 35 students involved in this year's phonathon. The students work diligently for three weeks in September and two weeks in February. As an incentive to participate, the campus club that recruits the most members receives a small cash award.

The revenue acquired from the phonathon is split into three different categories. One is the operating expenses for the university—that means things such as computer labs, the library, and any new courses that might be created. Another category is the general fund, used for enhancement of the school. The third category is the undergraduate scholarship fund.

BLOOD DRIVE

Periodically during the school year, students donate something more precious than money, clothing, or food—they take the time to donate blood. The Central Indiana Regional Blood Center teamed up with Indianapolis Student Government to boost its supply of blood. In the fall, a campus blood drive added to the supply of blood during a shortage. A winter drive in February continued to contribute to the supply of blood at area blood banks. By donating blood, one student can help save up to four lives.

HAVE A COOKIE

This student builds up her blood sugar with cookies and juice after donating her blood.

LIE BACK AND RELAX

Michelle Pressler trusts this nurse with her life...and her blood.

POLAR BEAR RUN

Over 3,000 runners and walkers turned out for the annual Polar Bear Run on February 25, 1995. The event, co-sponsored by the university and Mr. D's Food Market and coordinated by Ken Long & Associates, attracts runners and walkers from Indiana and surrounding states to compete for plaques and prizes.

The five-mile course begins and ends in front of Nicoson Hall. Race organizers use area roads to create a course that is not too easy, but not too tough. U of I students participate not only in the race, but are also essential as volunteers to help the race run smoothly. The university's Office of Media Relations coordinates nearly 200 volunteers to help with everything from registration and course workers to the water stops and finish line. All volunteers receive Polar Bear Run t-shirts as a "thank you" for their assistance with the race.

OFF AND RUNNING

Participants young and old run surrounding streets during the Polar Bear Run.

BUNDLED UP

These walkers dress warmly for the race.

RUNNING AGAINST THE WIND

Denise Wass takes part in the run, even though some might have said the weather was only fit for polar bears!

INTERNATIONAL TRAVEL

ON THE IVORY COAST

Tamara Wilson, Mark Hemphill, Kiyomi Ichikawa, Nicolas Koudou, Gail Rilmington, and Jamie Pheifer pose in Africa. The group, led by Koudou, traveled to the Ivory Coast as part of the International Business Environment course offered during Flex 1995. During their travels to Abidjan, Yamoussoukro, and Bouaké, they met with scholars, business people, members of local government, and officials from the African Development Bank to learn about the role and impact of African development. In the process, they visited coffee plantations, the Kossou Dam, and national landmarks.

IN THE FIELD

Greg Gossett, Alec Smith, and Dennis Hershberger get some field experience while participating in an Israeli archaeological dig. The trio was part of a group, led by Perry Kea, that spent nine days in Israel on a tour of the Holy Land during Flex 1994. The group visited biblical sites, including the Sea of Galilee, the Jordan River, the Garden of Gethsemane, and the site of Jesus' birth. Other students participating in the course were Amy Lee, Jeff Narmore, Michael Tudor, and Mary Kathleen O'Haver.

ANCIENT WONDER

These students enjoy the beauty of this ancient pyramid in Uxmal, Mexico. They were part of a group, led by Professor Dan Briere, Modern Languages, that toured Mexico during the Spring Term in June 1994. The group visited landmarks, museums, and shrines in Mexico City, Cuernavaca, Taxco, Mérida, and Cancún. Students who took part in the class were: Tiffany Doty, April Slaubaugh, JoAnn Heasley, Melissa Carney, Kelly Pense, Holly Garshaw, Brant Douglas, Mark Lane, Brian Smith, Alyson Davis, Pamela Givens, Kelley Strawsma, Tricia Wilker, April Hanson, Danielle Wright, Shannon Huber, Shilpa Jogani, Esmeralda Márquez, Elizabeth Dinnage, Allyson Fuller, and Deborah Hanna.

A TRUE SCOT?

Vice President and Provost Lynn Youngblood, now knowing what a true Scotsman wears under his kilt, refuses to divulge that information to Becky Wykes, former U of I staffer. The two were part of a university chorale group which toured and performed in Scotland and England in June, 1994.

MARDI GRAS

What do Greyhounds, France, and New Orleans have in common? A tradition of celebrating Mardi Gras! Although our celebration is more tame than the festivals leading up to Fat Tuesday in New Orleans, that doesn't mean it isn't as much fun. Where else can you find a giant game of Twister, "Mocktails" (non-alcoholic cocktails), cotton candy, and assorted game booths?

All these events took place in Schwitzer Center, where Phil Quinn added to the party atmosphere as Master DJ. Game winners walked away with prizes like two liters of soda and goldfish. The pie toss, which featured Karen Gingerich, Lynn Youngblood, and Paul Washington-Lacey as targets, was another popular attraction. Mardi Gras, sponsored by ISG, is an annual tradition at the University of Indianapolis.

FEELING GROOVY

Katherine Hendrix and Amber Martin sport painted faces at Mardi Gras, while Mathew Porter enjoys the groovy vibes.

SPINNING BLACK CIRCLES?

Although they didn't use vinyl LPs, ISG members Carrie Peck and Phil Quinn chose cool tunes for Mardi Gras participants.

WHICH WAY TO BOURBON STREET?

Saxophone great Harry Miedema entertains the crowd with New Orleans-style jazz.

CYCLERAMA

SHOVEOFF!

A few of the bikers get a push start from their teammates.

WHAT NEXT?

Michelle Doepping takes a breather while observing the activities around her.

CELEBRATING WITH A SPLASH

Team Cinzano—Sean Dwyer, Wes Woodson, Brian Wakefield, and Steve Beguin—drown each other with “moo juice” in celebration of their victory, as spectators observe another successful Cyclorama race.

The 1995 Cyclorama Weekend, sponsored by ISG, featured three days of fun and excitement. Kicking off the annual event on April 7 was the first-ever “Campus Camp-in,” coordinated by the Office of Admissions, where seniors from 67 high schools participated in a variety of activities and got acquainted with the university.

The fun continued the next day when students teamed up for volleyball, basketball, and softball and competed in a triathlon which featured swimming, trike races, and running. That evening, the band Bitter Ends entertained the crowd in Ruth Lilly.

April 9 was the big day—the race! The race started with a few practice laps along the course, which followed Wesley Circle, crossed Hanna Avenue, and went through the Ruth Lilly parking lot. Spectators jumped around in a moon walk “castle” and listened to the live coverage provided by local radio station WRZX (X-103). Cyclorama festivities closed with a cookout and picnic in Campus Park.

SAY CHEESE!

Jennifer Suba practices for a Crest commercial while racing for the finish line.

AND THE WINNER IS...

On-air personality Madison Taylor from radio station X-103 and freshman class president Phil Quinn emcee the Cyclorama race and keep fans tuned in to what's going on.

LET'S GO!

Elena Tuason is ready to race, while her competitors are taking it easy.

IT'S OVER

This Cyclorama participant saves time by writing "thanks" on her back so she doesn't have to talk with her mouth full during the cookout!

LET'S DANCE

SHINY, HAPPY PEOPLE

Robert Morrow, Megan Smart, John Smith, and Jim Mause ham it up for the camera at the basketball (spring) Homecoming Dance held at Lakeshore Country Club.

I'M TOO SEXY FOR MY SHIRT

Greg Rakestraw struts his stuff on the "catwalk" at the Spring Formal. The dance was held at the Waterfront Inn on Morse Lake in Cicero. The theme was "Come Sail Away," and the theme song was "Wonderful Tonight."

PLASTIC SURGERY?

Yearbook photographer Ernie Hahn, eager to capture every moment of the Spring Formal, had his camera surgically attached for the evening.

BUST A MOVE

These students have a blast at the Valentine's Day dance held in Schwitter. The dance was sponsored by the Black Student Association (BSA).

KEEPIN' THE BEAT

The drummer from the band Bitter Ends checks out the crowd from the vantage point of the stage. The dance, sponsored by ISG, was held in Nicoson on Saturday night during Cyclorama weekend.

SHE'S A CHARMER

Jen Howard reels in the dance partners by using her considerable charm.

LET'S MOSH

Well—maybe not, but the crowd gets into the music at the Cyclorama dance.

ARE WE READY YET?

Kristi Hayden (middle, left) and Jennifer Suba (middle, right) corral a herd of friends to join them for the Spring Formal.

LET'S SIT THIS ONE OUT

Kim Wise and Tola Obitayo take a break at the BSA Valentine's Day Dance.

TAKE A BREAK

What did you do with your free time this year?

In January, seven students and four adults gave six days of their time and energy to help make homes warmer, safer, and drier by volunteering through the Appalachia Service Project (ASP). ASP is a home repair project for the needy affiliated with the United Methodist Church and is located in Jonesville, Virginia. The group worked in Appalachian homes hanging drywall, painting, insulating, building and installing shelves, rehanging and weatherizing doors, and installing and connecting electrical boxes and meters.

During Spring Break, ten U of I students and five adults joined 55 others from five college campuses in Indiana to help others in Cherokee, North Carolina and Miami, Florida.

The group volunteering in Cherokee included Lisa Bardes, Melanie Biberstine, Charity Cuthbert, Melissa Hemphill, Amy Kirk, Tara Lawhead, Michelle Loftin, and Angela Testolin, who were joined by Rev. John Young, Loman and Enid Young, and Orpha McDermitt. They spent their time helping teachers in elementary schools, working with battered women in a safe house, roofing houses, painting rooms in a children's home, and working with children in a Head Start program.

In Miami, Craig Davis and Elena Tuason, joined by Richard Enghouser, helped rebuild homes destroyed by Hurricane Andrew.

Most students, however, opted for a traditional break, complete with fun in the sun or the great outdoors.

IT THINK I ATE TOO MUCH ICE CREAM

These North Hall residents take it easy after the awards were handed out. Examples of some of the "awards" presented were:

- Biggest couch potato
- Most likely to trip through the front door
- Seen it all, know it all
- Biggest lobby rat
- Most likely to pull the fire alarm
- Best "fake and bake" tan

THE THREE MUSKETEERS

No—it's just Jennifer Morris, David Pelis, and Jeremy Padgett.

MR. NICE GUY?

Karen Gingerich gives a sheepish Matt Billings his award.

NORTH HALL'S CUTEST COUPLE

ACCOUNTING • CLUB

The Accounting Club is designed to acquaint accounting students with the world of accounting.

ACCOUNTING CLUB MEMBERS

Chris Bloomer, Ann Perkins, Michelle Doepping, Gary Roberts, Paul Lucas (faculty sponsor).

ALPHA • CHI

Alpha Chi is a national honor society which promotes and recognizes academic excellence and good character in students. To become a member of Alpha Chi, students must attain and maintain academic status of the top ten percent of their junior or senior class and display a desire for knowledge. Dr. Herbert Cassel is faculty sponsor.

1994-95 ALPHACHI OFFICERS

Scott Eller (Vice President) and Chad Lewis (President).

BACCHUS

Boosting Alcohol Consciousness Concerning the Health of University Students (BACCHUS) advocates responsibility about the use of alcoholic beverages to educate and inform, awareness concerning healthy alternatives to alcohol use, and communication within the campus community regarding alcohol-related matters.

BACCHUS MEMBERS

BADMINTON • CLUB

The Badminton Club is open to students, faculty, staff, and community members to provide an opportunity to learn and play the game of badminton in a social setting as well as in tournaments with other intercollegiate clubs.

BADMINTON CLUB MEMBERS

BLACK • STUDENT • ASSN.

The Black Student Association (BSA) cultivates and encourages academic achievement, educates about various cultures and ethnic groups, establishes a student network, and serves the community.

BSA MEMBERS

Front Row: Lidet Girma, Onanias Wright, Wesla Roberts, Omar Farmer, Kim Wise, Tola Obitayo, Raquel Tate. Second Row: Ronald Walton, ShaQuita Mears, Doug Dickerson, Victor P. ## CHRISTIAN • LIFE • CMTE.

The Christian Life Committee (CLC) of ISG provides opportunities for spiritual growth through worship, Bible studies, retreats, prayer groups, local service projects, the Appalachia Service Project, and other special events.

CLC MEMBERS

CIRCLE • K

Circle K is a service organization affiliated with Kiwanis and Key Clubs in high schools. The club exists to meet the needs of individual collegians through the qualities of leadership, rewards of service, and the spirit of friendship. Circle K is an organization through which students take action in their community and in life on campus.

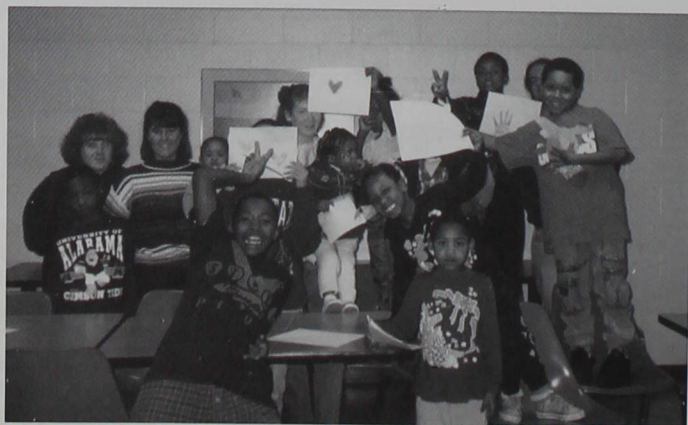

Organizational meetings are held weekly, and social events are held about once a month. Several service projects a month are available, usually two or three a week. Members can participate in as many or as few service projects as they want.

Circle K members have the opportunity to work with different types of people and assist in many kinds of activities. Typical service projects include visiting the Salvation Army Home for Victims of Domestic Violence, winterizing homes for the elderly and needy, and serving food at homeless shelters. Several fund-raising events are held throughout the year to support other good causes and charities, such as the Ronald McDonald House.

Katie Polk was elected to serve as Circle K District Governor for 1995-96, with Lisa Carter elected as Indiana District, Southeast Division Lt. Governor, and Jennifer Wright as Indiana District Treasurer.

Top: 1994-95 Circle K Officers are Holly Garshaw, Jenny Wright, Lisa Carter, and Katie Polk. Above: Tonya Flannery, Melissa Carr, Kari Hufnagel, and Ed Fiedor do arts and crafts projects with kids at a Salvation Army home for victims of domestic violence.

CIRCLE K CHRISTMAS PARTY

Kari Hufnagel, Alyson Davis, and Amber Swihart are on their best behavior while awaiting a visit from Santa Claus.

TRICK-OR-TREAT

One of Circle K's service projects is an annual trick-or-treat night for canned goods which are donated to needy families in the Indianapolis area.

DAY CARE CENTER

Circle K members participated in a "Reading is Fundamental" program for children at a local day care center.

EDUCATION • FOR • SERVICE

Volunteers in Service (VIS) is an important part of the university because it provides students with a way to get involved in the community and help meet local needs while developing a sense of social responsibility. Through VIS, students can also work with "special needs" children and adults. VIS can provide one-time, short-term, or long-term volunteer experiences.

WRAP IT UP!

Carrie Peck volunteers to wrap Christmas presents for needy families.

ALL IN THE FAMILY

Robin Maine and her daughter, sophomore Angela Kittle, spend time together at a recognition luncheon in honor of VIS volunteers and tutors held in Campus Park in April. Robin volunteered through VIS and Angela was a tutor.

HITTING THE BOOKS

Freshman Holly Williams volunteers to help Kyle Stark with his homework through the Baxter YMCA after-school program at Southport Elementary.

ARE YOU READY, GUYS?

Rob Morrow volunteers to play football and other sports with students at Southport Elementary as part of an after-school program administered by the Baxter YMCA.

ALL SMILES

Janis Wyatt and Angie Peugh, both participants in the university's tutoring program, catch some rays at the recognition luncheon in Campus Park. Participants in the program are paid to tutor students from elementary to college levels.

KIDS FIRST

Lori Baehl helps out at the developmental preschool.

F·C·A

Fellowship of Christian Athletes (FCA) is open to students sharing an interest in athletics and Christ.

FCA MEMBERS

I·S·G

Indianapolis Student Government (ISG) provides student leadership in academics, social activities, and campus improvements.

ISG MEMBERS

MODEL • UNITED • NATIONS

The Model United Nations team provides students with valuable political experience and course credit. Students become familiar with current issues and political workings by role-playing various representatives from members in the United Nations. Participating students receive one credit and get to compete at various competitions.

MODEL U.N. MEMBERS

Front Row: Dan Worley, Vassilios Kastrinis, Ann Sombun, Lynn Goodner, Dr. Helen Anderson (faculty sponsor). Back Row: Michael Walpole, Carey Craig, Brian Fuerst, Shariq Siddiqui.

THEY'RE NUTS!

Annie Merrick, Maria Galle, Jan Odom, and Larry Bledsoe may appear normal, but they're really NUTS.

NUTS

That's right, just call them NUTS—the acronym for non-traditional students at U of I who pursue college educations later in life than conventional 18- to 24-year-olds. NUTS is an active group that periodically gathers to support one another and advocate the needs of non-traditional students. These individuals often are part-time students who've been out of school for several years because of work, parenting, or family responsibilities. Most are over the age of 25.

There is no such thing, however, as a "typical" non-traditional student. Some attend classes full-time in both the day division and Extended Programs, and some live on campus in the dorms. U of I also encourages education among senior citizens and offers free tuition to individuals over age 65. The number of non-traditional students at U of I continues to grow; currently they compose around 40 percent of the entire student body.

Extended Programs courses were developed for non-traditional students, and have their own honor society—the Alpha Nu chapter of Alpha Sigma Lambda—which is an honor society that signifies and acknowledges excellence in academics. Dr. Carl Stockton, Dean of Extended Programs, is advisor for Alpha Sigma Lambda.

1994-95 NUTS officers are Annie Merrick, Chairman; Maria Galle, Vice-Chairman; and Jan Odom, Vice-Chairman. Dennis Williams is the NUTS group advisor, and Larry Bledsoe is the administrative advisor. Group meetings are a fun mixture of support, concerns, and food.

GREYHOUND • AMBASSADORS

Each year, student volunteers are selected by the Office of Admissions to serve as Greyhound Ambassadors. Interested students fill out an application and are interviewed by Admissions staff. Students are chosen based on their enthusiasm, attitude, and availability.

During the school year, Greyhound Ambassadors are a vital link between prospective students and the university. Ambassadors give tours of campus to prospective students, take them to lunch in the cafeteria, and invite them to observe classes.

Ambassadors also help new students move into the residence halls during Orientation Weekend and are on hand to answer any questions they may have. In addition, Ambassadors assist with High School Day, the Financial Aid Town Meeting, Campus Camp-in, tours for visitors, and other special events on campus.

MAKEWAY!

INTERCULTURAL • ASSOCIATION

There are 119 international students representing 41 nations at the University of Indianapolis this year. The Intercultural Association (ICA) was founded to unite these students and help them learn about American ways of life, while allowing them to share their native culture with others on campus. One way that ICA does this is through International Coffee Hours, which feature international students describing life in their country, artifacts and souvenirs from that country, and some of the country's typical food.

The Intercultural Association organizes other events each semester to help bring together international and American students. Annual events include a Halloween party, a ski trip, and dinner at various restaurants around the city. Events such as ice skating, bowling, or trips to Chicago are also popular. This year, ICA members sold raffle tickets to raise money for the ski trip, International Coffee Hours, bowling, and general assembly meetings. Items raffled were souvenirs and small items brought to campus by international students from countries such as Pakistan, Ethiopia, and Indonesia.

The university hosted a "Celebration of the Flags" ceremony in November to recognize and honor the cultural diversity these students bring to campus and the community. Flags representing each nation with students at the University of Indianapolis are displayed in the library.

INTERNATIONAL PROGRAMS

Mimi Chase, Director of International Programs, works hard to provide all students with opportunities for international travel and to experience life in other cultures.

BALLOONS FOR YOUR SWEETHEART

Kim Rhodes was one of several SAA members who helped make and deliver balloon bouquets for Valentine's Day.

The Student Alumni Association (SAA), led by Cassie Hall, Director for Alumni & Parent Relations, is one of the most active organizations on campus. SAA sponsors events like a pizza party for new freshmen, a Homecoming bonfire, and Family Day.

SAA provides a balloon bouquet service for students, faculty, and staff to send balloons to friends and family on campus for special occasions, like holidays and birthdays. Before finals week each semester, SAA members assemble "survival kits" that parents can order for $10 to help make finals a little less stressful.

SAA attempts to serve as a link between alumni and students. For the first time, SAA sponsored a post-commencement reception this year for new graduates and their guests. The reception was a casual event and gave new graduates a chance to mingle with friends, family, alumni, and faculty. Photographers roamed the grounds, taking pictures that were put in photo albums labeled "Class of '95" to be displayed at future class reunions. SAA also designed t-shirts for the new grads which were available during the reception.

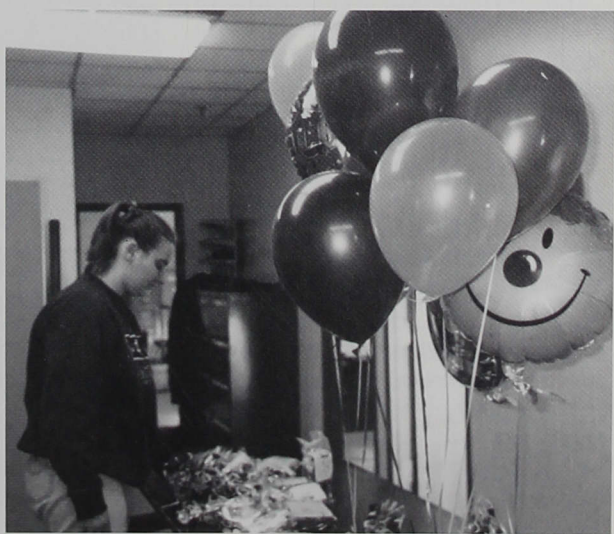

In April, 15 members of SAA attended the District V Student Alumni Association/Student Foundation Conference at the University of Notre Dame. SAA members who attended the conference were: Steve Przechera, Debbie Schwering, Vickie Stumm, April Hanson, Stuart Griner, Aaron Lambert, Lauri Miller, Kim Rhodes, Erica Oehler, Yvette Robinson, Sara Gierhart, Michael Plageman, Sarah Rigsby, Carrie Oehler, and Kate Tresco.

SURVIVAL KITS FOR FINALS WEEK

SAA members Heather Harker and Sarah Rigsby help assemble some of the 202 survival kits ordered by parents for their Greyhound students. Included in the kits were candy, snacks, cokes, SAA cup, notebook, highlighter, pens and pencils, and coupons for McDonald's and Subway sandwiches.

THE NERD

Axel (Jeffrey Barnes), Rick "The Nerd" (Mark Church), Willum (Ryan Redmon), and Tansy (Jenni White) were four of the characters in this comedy. Other cast members included Terry Wetherald, Seth King, and Bethany Willis. When the man who saved Willum's life in Vietnam arrives unexpectedly, Willum and friends try to stay civil—and sane!

MERRILY WE ROLL ALONG

Around the piano: Jason Bostwick, Angi Corn, Jason Farmer, Lucy Fields, Bob Willsey, and Renee Mitchell. The first Sondheim musical produced at U of I, Merrily We Roll Along moves backwards through time in the lives of Frank (Bostwick), Mary (Fields), and Charley (Farmer). Other cast members include: Jolie Wiese, Mark Church, Andy Kocher, Jenni White, Scott McKinney, Trena Lull, Leslie Carter, Ryan Redmon, Jeffrey Barnes, Jenni Clarkson, Michael Keller, Jeff Arnett, Jason Fetherolf, Bob Willsey, Greg Margason, Melissa Hemphill, Lynn Goodner, Jenny Howard, and Sherri Bostwick.

NOW YOU KNOW

Tyler (Ryan Redmon) and friends perform the song "Now You Know" from Merrily We Roll Along for Frank (Jason Bostwick, in hat), as he gets ready to leave on a cruise in order to help him forget a painful divorce.

TAKING STEPS

Tristram (Joshua Dale) and Kitty (Jenni White) have just survived a series of comic mishaps which mark the beginning of their relationship—even though Kitty is engaged to Mark. In this Alan Ayckbourn play, “taking steps” means not only those steps that physically move the characters from one floor in a house to another, but also steps that individual characters take in order to grow psychologically and emotionally.

The University of Indianapolis theatre production of Taking Steps was selected as part of the “Evening of Scenes” at the regional Kennedy Center American College Theatre Festival held in Green Bay, Wisconsin this year. Out of more than 200 applicants, nine entrants were chosen to participate in this performance. This year’s selection marks the first time since 1970 that a University of Indianapolis production has been invited to the regional festival.

While in Wisconsin, students attended workshops in addition to performing. Jenni White and Joshua Dale were chosen as this year’s Irene Ryan Scholarship nominees, and the two competed in auditions for theatre scholarships. Jason Bostwick competed in the national design contest with his design for Taking Steps. Cast members were: Mary Millman, Andrew Kelley, Joshua Dale, Kirk Fields, Jason Bostwick, and Jenni White.

GHOST STORIES

Roland (Kirk Fields), owner of an old Victorian mansion that he and his wife Elizabeth are trying to sell, explains to Tristram (Joshua Dale) that the stories of a ghost inhabiting the house are merely rumors.

I'M OUT OF HERE

Elizabeth (Mary Millman) and her brother, Mark, (Andrew Kelley) read over the letter she has written to her husband, Roland. In the letter, which some mistake for a suicide note, Elizabeth writes that she's leaving Roland to pursue a dancing career.

Opera Scenes

Each year, the Music Department presents one full opera or selected scenes from several different operas. Scenes from The Bartered Bride, Così Fan Tutte, Carmen, Don Pasquale, Don Giovanni, Eugen Onégin, and Hansel and Gretel were produced by members of the Music Department this year.

Performers included Jeffrey Arnett, Renee Mitchell, Jason Fetherolf, Matthew Miller, Heather Griffin, Angela Corn, Andrew Kocher, Melanie Davis, Trena Lull, Cynthia Graves, Jolie Wiese, Mark Church, Matthew Miller, Scott Wildey, and Aaron Lambert.

Elaine Norwood directed, James Ream served as dramatic coach, Jason Bostwick was set designer, cast members pitched in as set crew, and Stacey Alberts was make-up artist.

HANSEL AND GRETEL

In this scene, Gretel (Jaye Mooney) is tired of doing her chores and longs for fun and life without chores.

THE BARTERED BRIDE

Micha (Jason Fetherolf) is father of a bride who doesn't love the man she's going to marry.

EUGEN ONÉGIN

Lenski (Scott Wildey) and Onégin (Aaron Lambert) are about to duel over Lenski's fiancé, even though neither one really wants to go through with it.

12TH ANNUAL POETRY CONTEST

This year's contest winners were selected by poet Sonia Gernes, who was on campus to participate in The Allen & Helen Kellogg Writers Series. Sponsored by the English Department, the contest is organized by Professor Elizabeth Weber. First place went to Lana Osterman, second to Leona Glazebrooks, third to Joe Gianotti, and honorable mentions to Crystal Weddle, Jenni Clarkson, and Andrea Glenn.

PURPLE CHRYSANTHEMUMS AND DAISIES AND GOLDENROD

English major Lana Osterman, part-time student and full-time secretary to President Lantz, won the first prize "Lucy Munro Brooker Poetry Prize for Excellence." Osterman's poem, titled Alzheimer's Disease, was dedicated to her mother. The following excerpt is from her poem:

*"You'll be as the long purple chrysanthemums and daisies and goldenrod
that will not be buried.
They'll line up at your grave and sing exceedingly charitable prayers..."*

POEMS OF HEATHER GREY HAIKUS AND JAZZING STANZAS

Second place winner in the poetry contest was Leona Glazebrooks for her poem titled Young Poets at the Cafe Angst. The following excerpt is from her poem:

*"Dreamers carrying their lives in backpacks molded into movement
Poems of heather grey haikus and jazzing stanzas idealistic lines and free verse romances."*

90th commencement

The largest class in the history of the University of Indianapolis—692 grads—received their degrees April 29 in Nicoson Hall. Faculty lined the sidewalk leading into Nicoson Hall, forming columns between which the commencement procession passed.

New this year was an alumni-sponsored tent on the lawn, where refreshments were waiting for new graduates and their families while they mingled with faculty, alumni, and other grads following the ceremony. Roving photographers took pictures for a class photo album, graduates signed a banner that will be saved for their class reunion, and t-shirts displaying "University of Indianapolis Alumni" were sold.

A MEMBER OF THE CLASS OF 2013?

The thing this graduate's son likes most about commencement is playing with the tassel on Dad's cap.

ESCH SCHOLAR

Tricia L. Brister is named this year's Esch Scholar by President Lantz during commencement. The award is the highest academic and overall achievement award granted by the university to a senior. Each year, the award goes to a senior who has excelled both in academics and in service-related activities. Congratulations, Tricia!

MEN'S BASKETBALL TEAM

Front Row: Assistant Coach Jim Reed, Michael Brooks, Chad Mills, Perrell Lucas, Noi Chay, Tom Gohmann, Assistant Coach Todd Sturgeon, Coach Royce Waltman. Back Row: Assistant Coach Tom Davis, Chad Pate, Bart Holubar, David Wiese, Bryan Coyne, Mike Deemer, Jay Koeller, Kyle Shirk, Daniel Johnson, Trainer Ned Shannon.

The men's basketball team started the season with a big goal—to compete in the NCAA tournament.

Throughout the year, there were no huge wins but, at the same time, there were no huge disappointments. The season, however, can be compared to a watershed in that the NCAA goal was achievable until one triple overtime game against Northern Kentucky, which the Greyhounds eventually lost despite great effort. After this game, the team didn't make the tournament.

Returning players know they need to work hard in the off-season to be stronger next year. In review of the season, Coach Royce Waltman explained, "People don't realize how high the level of competition is in our conference. Until you come to a game, you don't know. We have a good group of unselfish guys, and people would really enjoy our team and our competitiveness."

"MY FAVORITE ASPECT OF COACHING IS BEING ABLE TO CONTINUALLY SEE HOW YOUNG PEOPLE CAN NOT BE DEFEATED. YOU'RE WORKING WITH AN AGE GROUP THAT NEVER TIRES."

— Coach Royce Waltman

OUTSTANDING ATHLETE

All-Academic Chad Mills, a senior, is the type of player every coach and fan loves. He played a variety of positions and never complained about filling different roles, although he never knew what he'd be asked to do next. Mills' outstanding attitude and temperament set a great example for others to follow.

Perrell Lucas is MVP and Tom Gohmann is awarded the Kelso Reid Mental Attitude Award • Perrell Lucas earns the Indianapolis Tip-off Classic Most Valuable Player title with 31 points against Lincoln Memorial • Michael Brooks and Perrell Lucas make the Coca-Cola Peach Classic all-tournament team • Team is second in the first NCAA Division II Great Lakes Region regular season rankings • Chad Pate goes 5-5 from the field and 6-6 on the free-throw line against Kentucky State • Michael Brooks plays best all-around game against Ashland with 14 points, 11 rebounds, and 8 assists and breaks school record for consecutive free throws • David Wiese makes a career-high 26 points and 10 rebounds against Bellarmine • Perrell Lucas makes career-high 37 points in 30 minutes against Oakland City • 46 Greyhound wins make the most victories in a three-year span since 1971-74 • Noi Chay scores a season-high 19 points in 35 minutes against Northern Kentucky • Perrell Lucas named GLVC "Player of the Week" for two weeks in February • Bart Holubar scores career-high 15 points and 9 rebounds against Lewis • Perrell Lucas is the 28th player in 70 years to score over 1,000 points, and is named to the 1995 All-Great Lakes Valley Conference team and Sports Information Directors' NCAA II All-Great Lakes Region team • Four players make the 1994-95 GLVC Winter All-Academic team: Chad Mills, Jay Koeller, Kyle Shirk, and David Wiese • Best GLVC tourney finish (fourth) since 1983-84.

OUTSTANDING ATHLETES

Ann Hensley, Melissa Graham, and Angi Lelenko each have different styles of play, but all three were instrumental in the success of the 1994-95 team.

Ann Hensley, who made her 1000th point this season, has a chance to break the all-time scoring record and was selected to the first team All-Conference and All-Region. She made All-Tournament at the Lady Greyhound Classic and was named Lady Metro Classic Most Valuable Player.

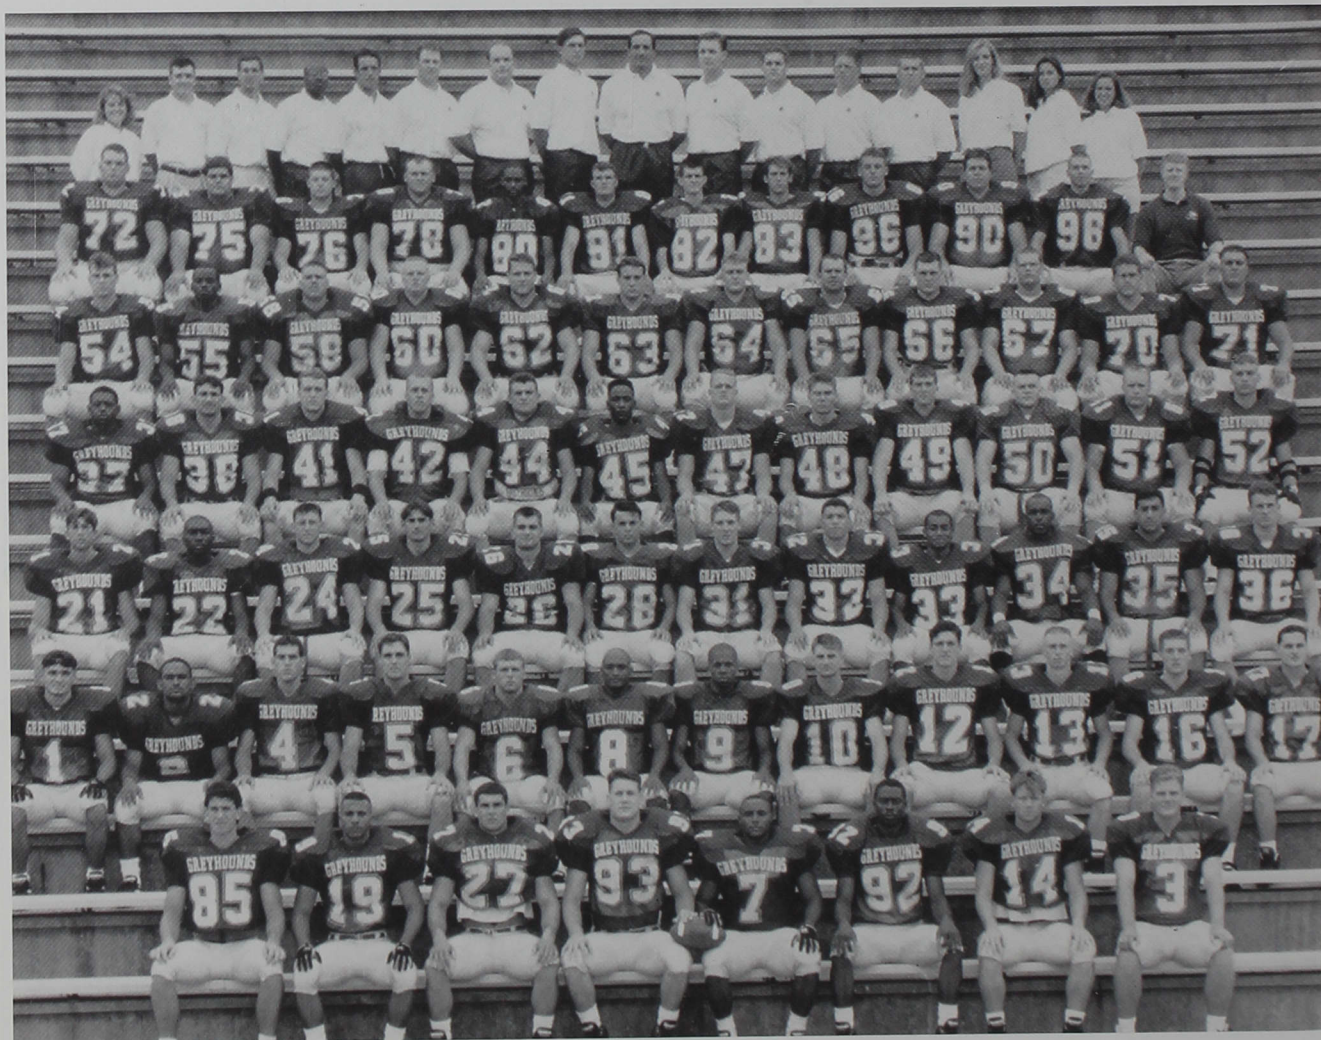

Melissa Graham is the third leading scorer in the school's history and is this year's MVP. With 45 consecutive free-throws, she broke the national record for the most consecutive free throws made. Graham made first team All-Conference and All-Region and was named All-Tournament.

Angi Lelenko was the most improved player from the beginning of the season to the end. She works extremely hard and out-hustles everyone, whether in practice or during a game.

STRIVING FOR SUCCESS

FOOTBALL TEAM

Front Row: Craig Thomas, Jason Todd, Matt Porter, Eric Eads, Deon Harding, Mark Murff, Jeff Montfort, Brad Green. Second Row: Ryan Stanton, Desmon Davis, David Burton, Eric Utterback, Dan McMannis, Ryan Rhodes, Willie Savage, Paul Ungashick, Matt Knee, Chad Neal, Jason Sorg, Josh Marshall. Third Row: Jeff Agricola, Deon Brimmage, Billy Lukcs, Steve Martin, Brian Gentry, Matt Fleming, Jeff Sorg, Martin Heelan, Omar Farmer, Deryck Dickerson, Phil Shibana, Chris Reed. Fourth Row: Channing Russell, Corey Zavela, Fred Brockman, Matt Peterson, Jeff Barnaby, Jarrett Jordan, Matt Gardner, Jody Waite, Ryan Christie, Jason Poling, Ted Munson, Dominique Battinau. Fifth Row: Joe Shelburn, Chris Stowers, Andy Richardson, Jim Edwards, Brian Hersherberger, Kurt Mattix, Tad Parmer, Josh Vondarsaar, Scott Hoover, Joe Stafford, Scott Snodgrass. Sixth Row: Jeff Hartman, Pete Koulianos, Matt Delplane, Ben Cullen, Aaron Johnson, Jason Crum, Pat Allen, Adam Watkins, Kevin Flanagan, J.D. The appointment of a new coach, Joe Polizzi, instilled the 1994-95 team with positive attitudes and faith in reaching high goals. And a full year of hard work produced a team motivated to succeed.

Although the season got off to a slow start, the 'Hounds were eventually triumphant when faced with high-level competition. The highlight came when the Greyhounds defeated Michigan Tech for a Homecoming victory.

"It was a great day, a great setting, and a great accomplishment," said Coach Polizzi.

In reviewing the season, a win-loss record (2-7-1) doesn't tell the whole story. Faced with the task of putting several losses behind them, the Greyhound team remains excited about playing football. With the knowledge that success takes time, the football program continues to head in the right direction.

OUTSTANDING ATHLETES

Senior Matt Porter (top), winner of the Angus Nicoson Something Extra Award, was voted the Most Valuable Defensive Player by his teammates, as was Senior Craig Thomas (above), who was also honored with the Kelso Reid Mental Attitude Award. Both athletes were team captains and held key leadership roles.

LOOKING FORWARD

WRESTLING TEAM

Front Row: Steve Scroggins, Deon Brimmage, Steve Hancock, Andy Ferris, Andy More. Second Row: Richard Neal, Dave Urbanski, Pat Simpson, Travis Wright, Dave Jacobs, Tony Abbott, Tom Hizer, Josh Richards, Richard VanOsdol. Third Row: Mike Howe, Matt Schoettle, Trainer Krista Clouse, Coach Terry Wetherald, Manager Heather Lacey, Trainer Cara Blake, Randy Brawley. Fourth Row: Doug Deters, Tim Clark, Jamie Wingler, Chadd Rogers, Derrick Robinson, Amos Rinks, John Frysinger, Eric Meyerholtz, Deryck Dickerson.

With a large percentage of upperclassmen returning to the team, coupled with a good recruiting year, the wrestling team has great potential. There were 28 wrestlers on this year's team. "That's 28 individuals—28 potential highs and 28 potential lows," Coach Terry Wetherald comments.

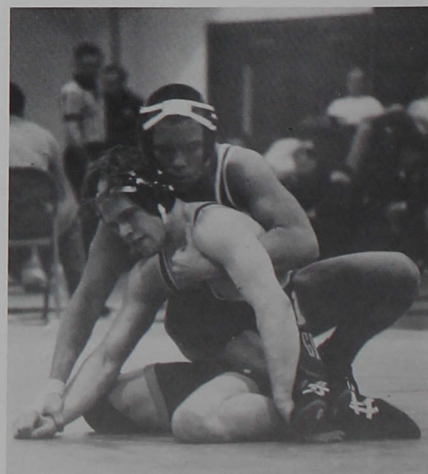

Although the season was ultimately successful, the team didn't do well in the Midwest Tourney held at the University of Indianapolis. After this setback, however, the grapplers turned it up a notch and began to show progress.

In addition, underclassmen and upperclassmen achieved a camaraderie that helped support four wrestlers—Tony Abbott, Tim Clark, Dave Jacobs, and Deon Brimmage—at Nationals.

With these positive experiences, the team is ready for next year. "If the season started next week, I'd be happy," says Wetherald, who this year completes his 25th year as the University of Indianapolis wrestling coach. With a new season in sight, the team looks forward to 1995-96.

"THERE ARE OTHER GROUPS ON THIS CAMPUS THAT WORK JUST AS HARD AS ATHLETES. STUDENTS NEED TO WAKE UP AND SEE WHAT'S INVOLVED. THEY SHOULD BE AWARE THAT OTHERS ARE PUTTING IN EFFORT."

Team is ranked 12th in the NCAA Division II in the Golf Coaches Association of America poll • Team places 11th in the 18-team Sultan's Run Intercollegiate with Chad Hilderbrand placing 28th in a 108-player field • The Greyhounds set a new school record with 188 victories and only 41 losses • Team finishes second in the 18-team NCAA II District IV Tournament, the GLVC tournament, and the U of I Invitational • Team finishes third in the 15-team Kentucky State Invitational.

PRACTICING PAYS

In the Missouri-St. Louis Riverman Invitational (which the Greyhounds won), Bobby Delagrang earned medalist honors with a two-over par 144.

SWINGING FOR AN EAGLE

Travis Sheets, a top medalist at the Anderson Invitational with a low 71, shows off his winning swing.

OUTSTANDING ATHLETE

Chad Hilderbrand was named Most Valuable Player and served as co-captain of the men's team with Jason Christy. Hilderbrand has been named to All-Conference each year of his college career. He was a medalist in the conference and a qualifier for nationals his sophomore year.

OUTSTANDING ATHLETE

Team captain Senior Michelle Swing is a four-year letter winner, a two-year conference medalist, and recipient of the Kelso Reid Mental Attitude Award. She is dedicated both to golf and to academics. The key to Swing's success is her positive attitude and approach.

SETTING UP THE PERFECT PUTT

Andrea Creed practices for competition in the Women's National Collegiate Golf Championship. Creed, along with Michelle Swing, was one of two Lady Greyhounds participating in this prestigious event.

Team ranks eighth in NCAA Division II ratings • Michelle Swing leads her team to win the DePauw Invitational with a score of 83 for first place and Stacey Conk finishes in a tie for third • Michelle Swing earns medalist honors with an 81 to lead team to win the Bellarmine Quadrangular, where Andrea Creed shoots an 86 and Stacey Conk fires an 89 • Team wins U of I Invitational, under adverse conditions of low temperatures and high winds, with Andrea Creed in second with a 91 and Michelle Swing in third with a 92 • Michelle Swing ranks 20th among NCAA II women's golfers, with other ranked teammates including Andrea Creed, Stacey Conk, Monica Scott, and Jennifer Derringer.

BASEBALL TEAM

Jim Crowell pitches a no-hitter against Bellarmine, striking out nine and walking five • Justin Beebe hits a grand slam against Bellarmine. Ryan Gaynor leads the hitting with 3-7 and seven RBI's. Bryan Schuler hurls a four-hit shut-out, striking out nine and walking none • Against Kentucky State, Garry Foster pitches a three-hit shut-out, striking out six and walking three while Kenny Edwards goes 2-3 at bat with three runs scored and four RBI's • Team beats Butler with Bryan Schuler allowing only five hits and two earned runs • Second baseman Kenny Edwards named to the All GLVC first team, while junior pitcher Jim Crowell earned second team All GLVC honors.

DON'T WORRY, COACH

Tim Haynes assures Coach Gary Vaught that he's got everything under control.

HERE'S THE WIND-UP

Bryan Schuler focuses on the catcher's mitt as he pulls back to fire the pitch.

KEEPING HIS EYE ON THE BALL

Bryant Tutterow steps out to meet the pitch for a base hit.

OUTSTANDING ATHLETE

Kenny Edwards is the speed behind the baseball team. He leads in runs, doubles, triples, walks at bats, games played, and games started. Edwards batted a .303 average for the season.

"I BELIEVE THE UNIVERSITY OF INDIANAPOLIS STUDENT BODY IS HUNGRY FOR AN OUTSTANDING TEAM."

BOLDLY GOING FORTH

Powerful hitting and a strong defense helped the 1994-95 team offset the injury of short-stop Sandy Woodworth early in the season. The team's goal was to be competitive with all opponents, and they were. Coach Sue Willey commented, "This team has played some of the best ball I've ever seen played by U of I ... and some of the worst." One of the best games was against Florida Southern, who had only lost five games and who the team beat with a game-winning home run.

The softball team is composed of a wide variety of quality athletes, and they showed maturity and leadership when Coach Willey coped with a death in her family. In the GLVC Tourney, the team worked through the loser's bracket to finish fourth in the conference. Although the team will lose some key players next year, remaining players will be as good as or better than this year's team.

SOFTBALL TEAM

Team opens GLVC play with victories over Lewis, IPFW, Saint Joseph's and Bellarmine. Pitcher Tasha Lewis earns complete-game victories against Lewis and Bellarmine, allowing only five earned runs in 22 innings and outfielder Amy Strieter leads the 'Hounds with nine hits, moving her batting average to .455 • Amy Strieter leads the GLVC with a .491 batting average and Taunya Linton is seventh in home runs, tied for eighth in stolen bases and 11th for RBI's • Centerfielder Amy Strieter is the MVP • Team finishes fourth in the GLVC Tournament and matches school records for total wins from 1991 and 1993.

"EVERY YEAR IS A NEW CHALLENGE. YOU HAVE A NEW SEASON, NEW PERSONNEL, NEW INJURIES, NEW OBSTACLES. I ALWAYS LOOK FORWARD TO THE FUTURE."

— Coach Sue Willey

OUTSTANDING ATHLETE

Senior Taunya Linton filled injured Sandy Woodworth's position as shortstop. Linton was named All-Conference both her freshman and sophomore years, then was injured her junior year. Overcoming her injury, Linton returned this year to become a prominent leader and key player. Linton is the 1994-95 recipient of the University of Indianapolis Alumni "Something Extra Award," and is also the winner of the Kelso Reid Mental Attitude Award.

GREYHOUNDS WIN GLVC ALL-SPORTS TROPHY!

For the first time in the 14-year history of the award, the University of Indianapolis is winner of the Great Lakes Valley Conference Trophy. The trophy is awarded to the institution which earns the most points in the 11 GLVC men's and women's sports. U of I totalled 77 points in 1994-95, besting Southern Indiana for first place. Only four GLVC schools have ever won the award: Bellarmine, Lewis, Southern Indiana, and University of Indianapolis. Way to go, Greyhounds!

WE'LL MISS YOU, COACH HATHAWAY

After coaching the men's cross country team for five seasons and the women's cross country team for seven seasons, Tom Hathaway is retiring. This year Hathaway led the women's team to a fifth place in the GLVC tournament and a ninth place in the NCAA II Great Lakes Regional. The men finished fourth in the GLVC tournament and ninth in the NCAA II Great Lakes Regional.

THEY'VE GOT THE SPIRIT

the people on this page, and the pages which follow, are unique. No two are exactly alike—they have distinct personalities, goals, values, beliefs, thoughts, and feelings. Yet the strength and unity of the University of Indianapolis is reflected in the students, faculty, and staff who are associated with it. We celebrate the special qualities of each individual who made a difference at the university in 1994–95.

KISSTHE DONKEY?

Thank goodness it's only a pi-nata! This wacky trio (Kristi Hayden, Jennifer Suba, and Carly Manghelli) are proof that international dinners in the dining hall are a lot of fun.

HE'S GOT THE SOPHOMORE BLUES?

Mike Sargent doesn't look too happy while working on his telecommunications project. Cheer up, Mike!

WHAT'S YOUR MOST DIFFICULT CLASS?

- ▶ Philosophy. It's a whole new way of thinking. — Erin Clark
- ▶ Biology. The subject is challenging. — Kari Hufnagel
- ▶ "World History to 1500," because that's a lot of stuff to know. — Ernest Hahn
- ▶ Art appreciation because it's boring and too early. — Anonymous
- ▶ Vondrak's physics class. — Anonymous

WHO'S YOUR FAVORITE PROFESSOR/INSTRUCTOR?

- ▶ Perry Kea and Greg Reinhardt. They truly care about their students. — Mary Kathleen O'Haver
- ▶ Dr. Charles Guthrie. He makes the most sense and is very intelligent and cool to talk to. — Dennis Yadroff
- ▶ Mrs. Morris because she's dedicated to keeping updated, makes things relevant, and is caring and concerned for her students. — Kimberly Rahjes
- ▶ John McClain is the funnest teacher at U of I. — Kirk Wright
- ▶ Dee Schaad, he's a great professor and you can learn lots from him. — Anonymous

Whew! Despite a late start, we did a year's worth of work in about six months and got a yearbook covering the 1994-95 school year put together. Producing the book was a learning experience for everyone involved. We did the best we could with what we had, and we hope that you'll enjoy it.

Completing the yearbook would have been impossible without the help of many people. The Oracle sincerely thanks everyone who provided pictures, suggestions, or advice, including: Cassie Hall, Butch Fennema, Margaret Garrison, Marilyn Rentsch, Peter Noot, Rosalie Fletcher, Angela White, Ken Hottell, Roberta Thompson, Kenneth Borden, the Computing Center staff (especially Mujib Lodhi), the Admissions office, Diane Metheny, Joe Gentry and all of the sports coaches, Richard Ratliff, Paul Krasnovsky, JoAnn Domb, Leslie Gardner, Susan Ames, Jenny Wright, Rev. John Young, Jenny Shultz, Melissa Takach, Kele Owens, Stacy Parrish, Lauri Miller, Lisa Bardes, Linda Rodebaugh, Bill McLin, Greg Gossett, Bill Rasdell, Marvin Pavlov, Katherine Hendrix, Candace Wells, Mary Perren, Lynne Weisenbach, Herb Cassel, Jim Ream, D. Todd Moore, Denise Wass, Katie Polk, Julie Toth, Dawn Patel, Dan Briere, Jacquie Duvall, Ed Roehling, Susette Soden, and Prestige Portraits.

Special thanks to Ken Hottell, Beth Kiggins, and Dick Maurer of Jostens for helping The Oracle upgrade its computer and obtain a new printer. Dick Maurer also deserves special thanks for his sound advice and helpful suggestions regarding the production of this book. We thank Dick Ruddy of Jostens and Bob Coon for helping us print the portrait panels from digitized images exported from U of I's electronic ID card system.

Every student who had an ID card as of May 31, 1995, should appear in the portrait section, which is broken down according to class. Some nurses and seniors had a formal portrait taken by Prestige Portraits on one of the two senior picture days. These pictures are slightly larger (7 x 9 picas) than images taken from the electronic ID system (5 x 7 picas).

Every attempt was made to correctly identify those persons appearing in pictures and to spell their names correctly. If we misidentified you, however, or spelled your name incorrectly, let us know—we'll get it right next year.

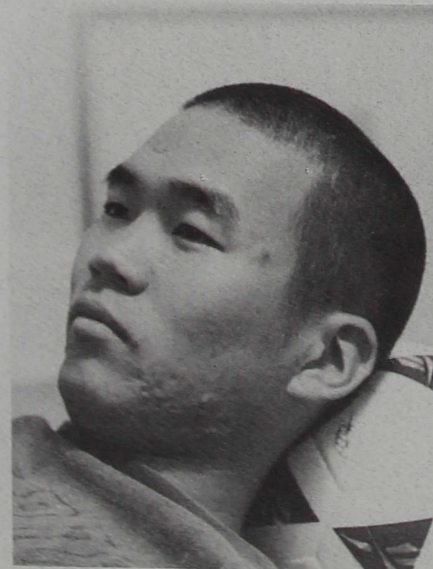

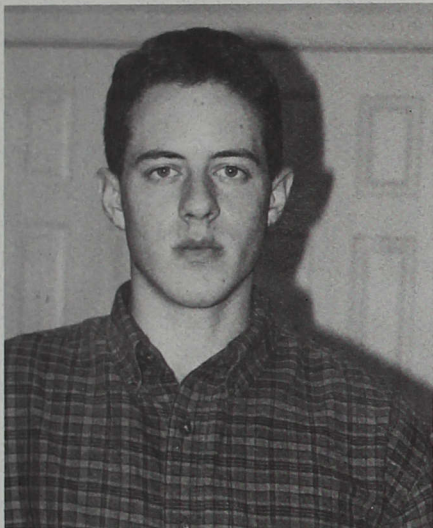

Sports statistics were taken from press releases and other information graciously provided to us by Joe Gentry of the Sports Information Office. The Year in Review spread of this book was compiled mainly from the top news events on campus during the 1994-95 year as published in The Reflector. We regret that we were unable to obtain pictures of Homecoming events.

COLOPHON

Volume 76 of The Oracle was printed by Jostens Printing & Publishing, Clarksville, TN on glossy 80# Mead Gloss Offset Enamel. The Craftline embossed cover is Fabrikoid maroon #541, partially embossed with cord #1172 grain. Gold foil #380 is applied to raised art and copy on the front and spine. Endsheets are pumice #267. Spot color in the first signature is Tempo #349 forest green. The book's trim size is 9x12", the binding is Smythe sewn, and there are 132 pages.

Typefaces are Palatino and Lithos Regular. Body copy is Palatino 12 on 13.5, justified. Photo caption leads are 10 on 11.5 Lithos Regular, bold, and captions are Palatino 10 on 11.5, justified. Folios are Lithos Regular, 10 on 11.5.

Page composition was done on an Apple Power Macintosh 6100/66 using Aldus Pagemaker 5.0. Pages were generated on a Hewlett Packard LaserJet 5MP and were submitted on disk using Jostens' Yeartech program. The index was created using Jostens' Last Name First program. Pages were output to a Linotronic Image Processor on film at a resolution of 2032 dpi and converted to plates. Printing was done on 40" Miller and Heidelberg offset presses.

Color photographs were developed by Firehouse Image Center or FoJo. Many black and white photographs were developed and printed by The Oracle's photographers. Some photographs were submitted in color but printed in black and white.
