Welcome Weekend

Senior Julie Kleeman, a Warren Hall R.A. and hall council member, celebrates her jousting victory during Welcome Weekend.

Making new friends is what Welcome Weekend is all about! These ladies get acquainted during a group outing to the bowling alley.

Sophomores Heather Sermersheim and Amber Petty have fun at Shelby Bowl.

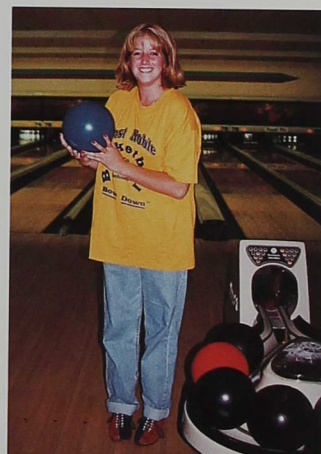

Seniors Jamie Nelis and Becky Fromm, both accounting and marketing majors, enjoy a Welcome Weekend night at Victory Field, home of the Indianapolis Indians. The event was sponsored by ISG.

Junior Christine Shuttz is sure this one will be a strike! The Greyhound Ambassador and Warren Hall resident is a psychology major.

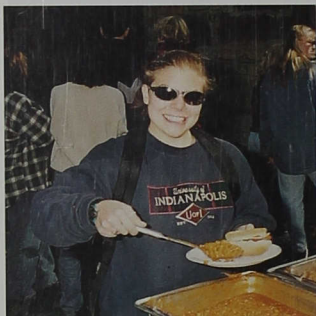

Jared Williams and Jason Hayes set the mood for a great Saturday afternoon of games, food, and fun. The sophomores were DJs at several events this year, including Welcome Weekend.

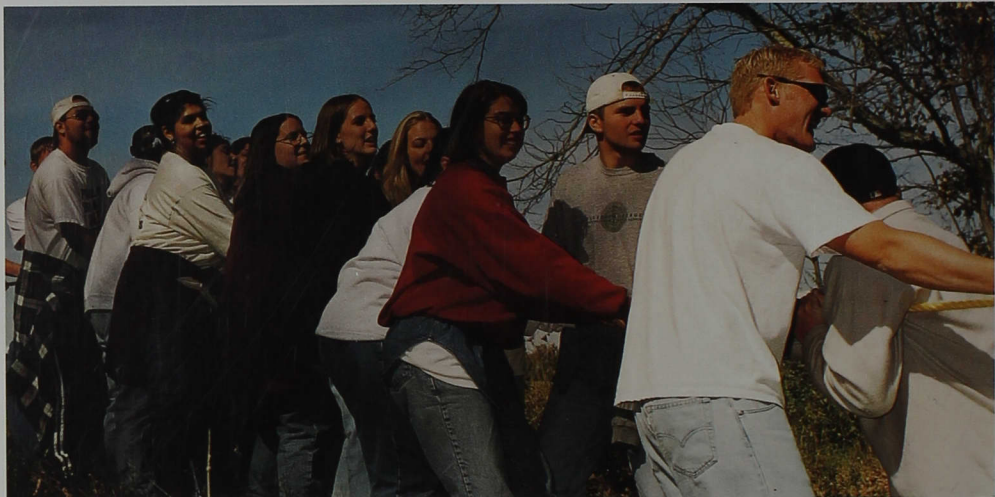

These students prepare for a different kind of bowling—human bowling, that is! Once inside the ball, they were “bowled” down a lane into pins.

Brown County Day

Senior Anne Thorne fills her plate with some of the massive quantities of food prepared by Ted Polk and his crew to feed students, faculty, and staff who venture to Brown County State Park for the day.

These seniors wait for the tug-of-war, a Brown County Day tradition in which students participate in a contest against each other by class. The winners then take on faculty and staff.

Look—no hands! Freshman cheerleader Barbie Clem plays on the slide.

Arika Hartley, Jennifer Marquis and friend Michael Gramelspacher (a Rose-Hulman student), Courtney Williams, Hannah Strickland, and Christy Rosenwinkel enjoy the sunshine brightening the chilly fall day.

These Warren Hall ladies stick together, even when off campus. The group posed for a picture after lunch.

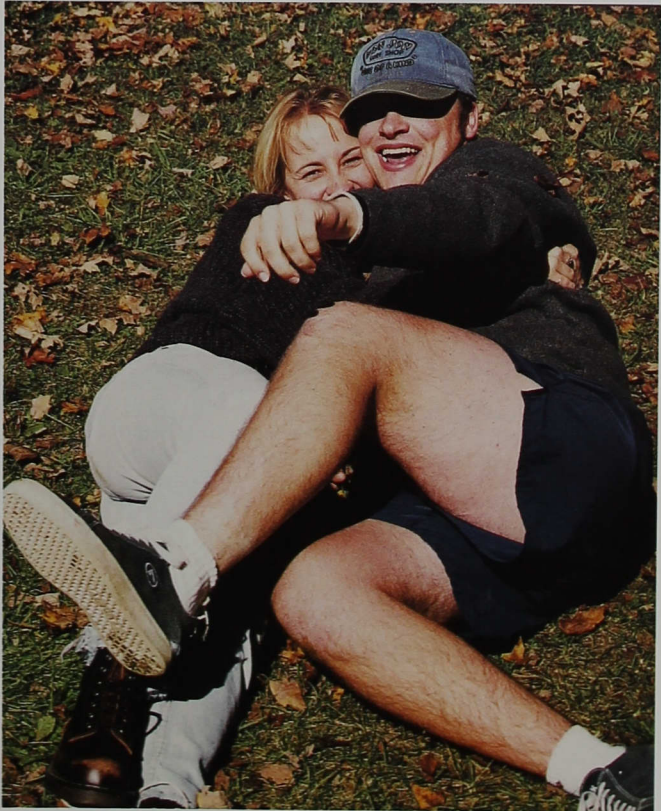

Jill Pyles, a junior majoring in marketing, has a ball competing in the egg toss.

Juniors Tara Collins and Lisa Jessop compete in the three-legged race. Tara is a psychology major and Lisa is majoring in human biology.

Senior Vicki Erb and freshman Josh Barton tumble to the ground after dropping out of the three-legged race.

Seniors Hannah Strickland and Chad Brandenburg smile after being chosen as the 1997 Homecoming King and Queen.

Scott Luttrell, Kelly Leap, Nathan Steigmeyer, and Angie Luttrell represent the junior class during Homecoming festivities.

Senior Marty Heelam is a four-year letterman who was named most valuable offensive player and most valuable offensive back in 1997. A social work major from Hamilton, Ontario, Marty is the first Greyhound running back to rush for over 1,000 yards since 1980.

Speedy Greyhound tailback Deon Pendergrass, a sophomore majoring in communications, rushes past the opposition. Deon, who is also on the track team, placed third on the team with 119 yards rushing in 1996.

ISG Executive Board President Marvin Pavlov escorts Mrs. Lantz as she assists Pres. Lantz in presenting the king and queen with their crowns.

Homecoming

Junior quarterback Kevin Kreinhagen scans the field for an open man during the Homecoming football game against Northern Michigan. The Greyhounds won the match 12-10.

Barbie Clem and Chad Leeper were the freshmen class representatives elected to the Homecoming court.

Jason McClain is one buff blond! A freshman cross country runner, Jason took part in the male "beauty" pageant during Homecoming Week.

Scott DeWitt takes a turn with ease during the Cyclorama race. A freshman cross country runner, Scott won the team's mental attitude award this year.

Freshman Cheryl Krueger experiences her first Lilly 'lympics by being covered with shaving cream and pelted with cheese puffs. Cheryl helped lead the Warren Hall team to victory.

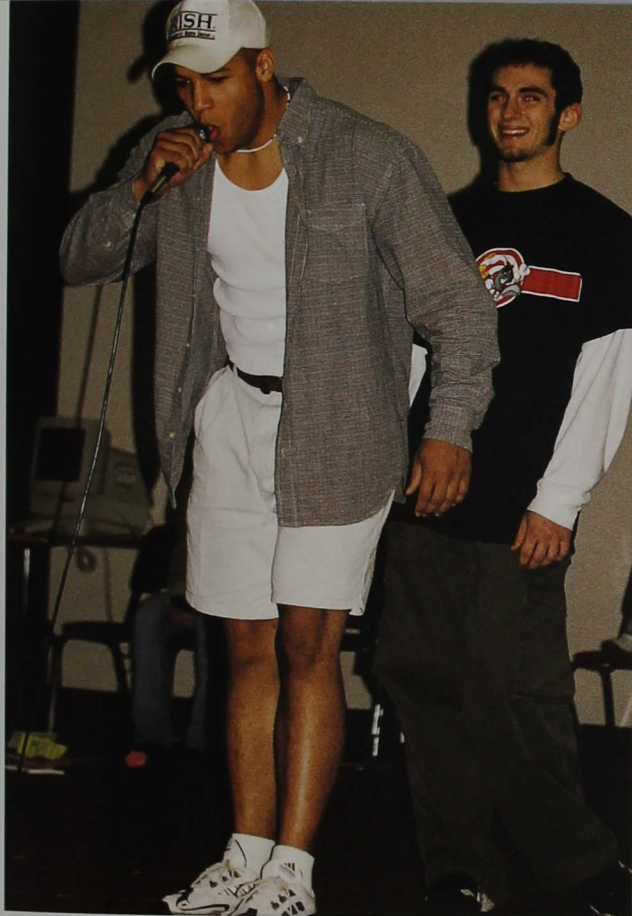

Latanya Ault, a freshman, prepares to be tagged by her teammate during the rollerblading contest held before the Cyclorama race.

These fun-loving seniors—Becky Krug, an elementary education major, and Nikki Baldwin, an accounting major—play around on the Moon Walk.

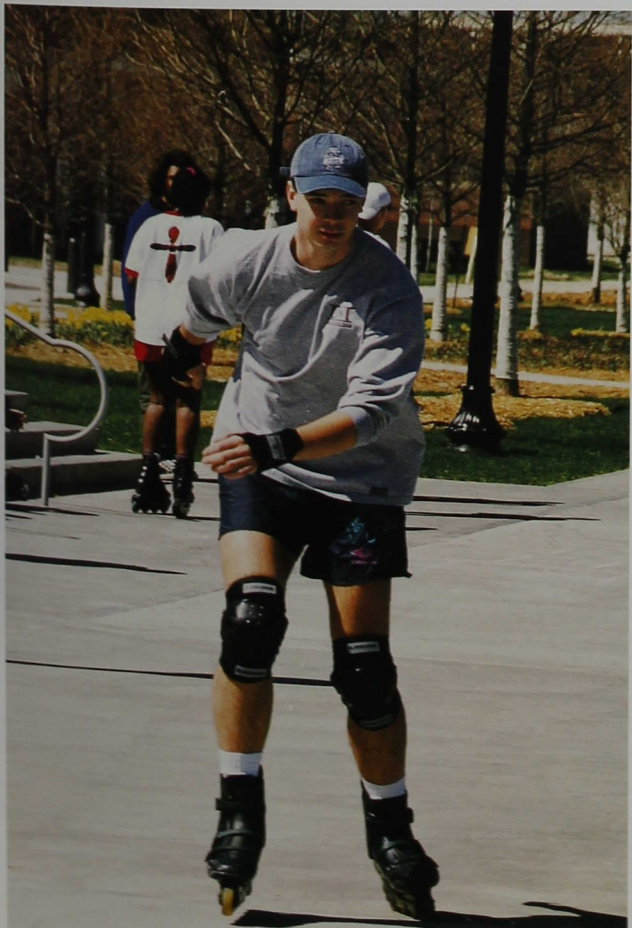

Cyclorama

Marcus Deberry attempts to move on to the next round in the Lilly 'lympic version of MTV's game show Singled Out.

The winning team—sophomore Jeff Spencer, senior David Pelis, sophomore Rob Copeland, and freshman Scott DeWitt—beams after crossing the finish line. All four of the guys were on the cross country team this year.

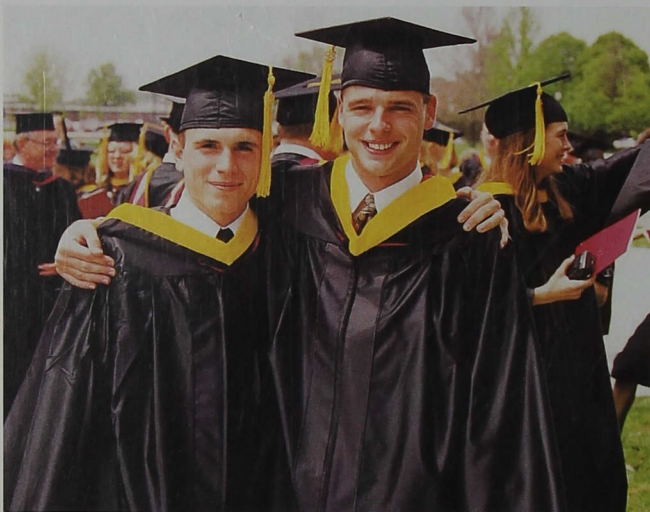

Junior Greyhound mascot Amanda Brown trades her Grady the Greyhound costume to become "Sumo Grady" for the day. An elementary education major, she is also president of the Residence Hall Association.

Senior psychology major Marvin Pavlov gains speed during the rollerblade race, which took place around the new circle on Smith Mall.

Deana Labriola, Betsy Munchel, Shannon Stallwood, and Jen Siebenburgen were among the first members from the Class of '98 to start a new campus tradition—after Commencement, they jumped in the canal on Smith Mall.

Good buddies Wes Woodson and Dave Pelis share a hug before the 93rd annual Commencement exercises begin. Both guys were members of the track and cross country teams and both were three-year lettermen. In addition, they were each named to the 1997 Fall GLVC All-Academic Team.

Seniors Ann Rosborough, Wesla Roberts, and Yvette Robinson patiently wait in line before entering Nicoson Hall to receive their diplomas.

Melissa Takach, a chemistry major, and Julie Kleeman, an environmental science major, are happy to be U of I grads.

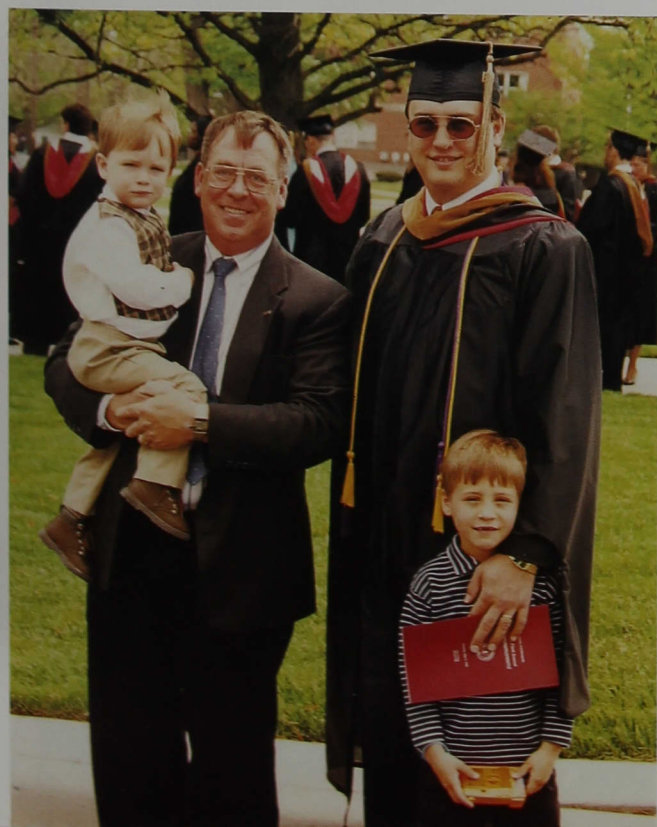

Commencement

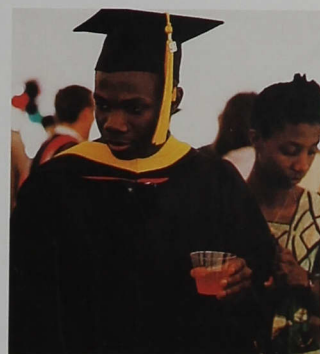

New graduate Cyril Lu, who received an executive M.B.A. degree, and his young son enjoy cake and punch served by the Alumni Association after the ceremony.

Annie Merrick pauses outside the Alumni Association tent after receiving her diploma.

Sophomore Presidential Assistant Erik Enders takes part in the procession by displaying a U of I flag outside Nicoson Hall.

Jeff Blake celebrates earning an executive M.B.A. degree with his family members.

Shadrach Gonqueh, a biology major, was one of several international students graduating from U of I this year.

Does he know there's an iguana on his head? Senior Lawrence Seawood, a physical education sports administration major who also earned coaching endorsements, gets crazy during Cyclorama Weekend.

Senior elementary education majors Dana Lawrence, Ann Rosborough, Becky Krug, and Amanda Hibbs spent their last semester at U of I completing their student teaching requirements.

Seniors Chad Brandenburg and Melanie Davis enjoy Homecoming. Chad, a magna cum laude grad, was a three-time MVP on the men's swim team and served as one of three team co-captains this year.

Service Learning in the City

These students practice the university's motto—education for service—during a spring term class on service learning. They were assigned to the Southeast Neighborhood Development program, a social service group devoted to renovating housing for low-income families, and reported to a designated work site each day. The course is designed to give students a better understanding of poverty, diversity, and civic responsibility.

Presidential Assistants

Arsenic and Old Lace was just one of the Theatre Department's productions this year. Pictured are: Suzie David, Ron Popp, Amy Pizarek, Spencer Block, and Lucy Fields (sitting).
