* SOC 101 and SOC 103 may both be taken as part of the Sociology minor, with one course counting as an elective. Students who take the Sociology minor with the Social Research concentration should not take one of these courses for elective credit.

 Or an introductory research course from another major (COMM 240, PSCI 301, or PSY 124 and 125) and an additional SOC elective for the minor to equal 18 Sociology credits.

 Counts toward the Social Research concentration, not the Sociology minor.

NOTE: A grade of C- (1.7 on a 4.0 scale) or higher is required in all courses applying toward the Sociology Minor.

REMEMBER: If you have any questions about the Sociology Minor or Community Inequality and Change requirements or the Social Research Concentration, contact a faculty advisor from the Dept. of Sociology, Good Hall, Room 216.
